NEW BUILDING FOR Y. M. C. A.

Trustees Would Like One If Present Structure Can Be Sold.

If Not, Some Changes May Be Made for Boys' Department—Committee Appointed and Resolutions Adopted—See, Clark Gets Call.

An important meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held on Tuesday evening, and business of considerable moment connected with the future plans of the association was brought up and discussed. The matter of a new physical director to succeed C. A. Van Cor was brought before the meeting but no definite action was taken by the board and the position is still open for further consideration.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED. At this meeting the following committee for the year were appointed: Executive committee, E. S. Retan, W. J. Van Patten, C. L. Smith, W. B. Howe, C. B. Allen; finance committee, H. S. Howard, J. A. Corbin, C. F. Cowles; Howard Crane, F. W. Barrett; religious work committee, J. D. Touley, A. E. Tryon, the Rev. F. D. Penney, F. S. Pease, F. M. Sheldon; Bible study committee, W. H. Wood, Louis Hobb, Walter Baker, the Rev. E. M. Fuller, Wallace Harding; physical work, Dr. G. E. Partridge, J. E. Tracy, A. A. Rousseau, J. E. Rousseau, Burton Field, F. A. Brainerd, Benjamin Frank, C. A. Van Cor, N. J. St. Pierre; educational committee, E. P. Howe, W. E. Burt, W. H. Alexander, C. L. Smith, Prof. A. D. Butterfield; boys' work, F. L. North, Harry Stevens, Andrew Ockerblad, Dr. J. H. Dods, Dr. R. C. Drew; social committee, Harry H. Brown, Fred Spear, G. B. Vinton, Lester Cory, J. C. Harrington; membership committee, Harry L. Austin, Henry Hurtubise, Norman Stevens, Price Dods, Roy Sawyer.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT. President, Leslie S. Morgan; vice-president, George W. Beaman; secretary, Stuart Sweet; directors, Edwin Davis, Clifford Tryon, Charles Allen, J. Erskine Cameron, James Keech, Charles Holdstock, Earl Bullock, Dudley Hutchinson, Dan Grandy, Tom Hanna, social committee, J. Erskine Cameron, Dan Grandy, Charles Holdstock, Arthur Morley, Floyd Thomas; membership committee, Tom Hanna, James Keech, Stuart Sweet, Tom Parkhill, Paul Rousseau; religious committee, Edwin Davis, George W. Beaman, Clifford Tryon, Herbert Coe, Harry Allen; physical committee, Earl Bullock, Charles Allen, Dudley Hutchinson, William Butler, George Childs.

RESOLUTIONS. The following resolutions were drawn up and approved yesterday by the trustees: Whereas: By the generous contributions of time, money, and labor from citizens and friends, the Young Men's Christian association of Burlington has been provided the means for removing the heavy debt of so many years standing against it, as well as for needed improvements, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the board of trustees and the board of directors of the association hereby acknowledge, with gratitude, the unselfish giving and the untiring efforts of all who had part in the great undertaking.

Resolved, That those resolutions be spread upon the records of the association and be published in the daily papers of Burlington.

BUILDING ALTERATIONS. The board of trustees have told the directors that if they are ready to employ a boys' department secretary and manager for a separate building, they must first fall, the trustees will remodel the third floor of the association building recently vacated by the telephone company, and fit it up for reading and game rooms, with an office for the boys' secretary. The floor will be extended out of the west side over the stairway leading from the office.

The only entrance will be by the main stairway from the hallway. Lockers and shower baths will be put in on the fourth floor over the physical director's and new boys' game room, and from these the boys could reach the gymnasium by way of the running track, so that they would not have occasion to enter the present dressing and bath rooms.

Until the debt is fully paid and funds in hand, the trustees do not feel warranted in making any other changes in the building except that of necessary repairs on the roof.

It has been found that the only available place for a swimming tank in the present building would be the space occupied by the music hall, and in order to locate a tank there it would be necessary to place a steel truss through the building, which would be very costly.

A NEW BUILDING. C. K. Ober, secretary of the international committee advises the association to see if the present building cannot be sold for business purposes for $100,000, and if this can be done Mr. Ober urges the erection of a modern association building near the center of the city, but without stores or offices, as it has been found that the most successful work is accomplished in a building with dormitories for young men in the upper stories, but without other tenants. He says that $100,000 would build such a building, and furnish it, and it could be so constructed as to contain a swimming tank, bowling alleys, etc., and also game, reading, and dressing rooms for boys, separate from those used by the men, with a separate entrance for the boys.

In talking with some of the trustees, a Free Press man found that sentiment favored Mr. Ober's plan, if a purchaser for the present building should come forward. It is understood that one man is considering the purchase of the present property, and if the sale is made the all-important question of a site for the new building would be the next thing to consider.

CALL TO NEW JERSEY. Secretary Byron N. Clark has received a call with much larger salary to the association at Passaic, N. J., to succeed George Fitzgerald, formerly secretary of the association here. Mr. Clark has the matter under consideration, but the directors of the Burlington association will make an effort to retain him in his present position. He is popular and capable and his removal from Burlington would be a distinct loss to the city.

Mr. Fitzgerald plans to give up no social work about December 1 and go into business.

STREETS AND HACKS.

Two Subjects That Demanded the Attention of the Aldermen.

Matters connected with the street department and the discussion of the new hack ordinance were most of the time at the special meeting of the board of aldermen, held last evening. All of the members were present except Aldermen Stone and Clarke.

The street commissioners reported in the matter of Depot street that the probable expense would be $1,200 to grade the thoroughfare, and construct a suitable trestle to bridge the ravine. This amount does not provide for any expense for the removal of any obstructions, such as buildings, etc. The report was accepted and placed on file and a resolution was adopted appropriating $1,200 for the purpose of bringing the thoroughfare to a proper grade and for trestle.

The street commissioners reported in regard to the claim of Michael McKenzie that they did not think he was entitled to damages on account of the overflow of a sewer, as such damage would be considered providential. The report was accepted and placed on file.

The street commissioners reported in the matter of damages sustained by J. D. Tousey in consequence of sewer overflow that Mr. Tousey's claim had been satisfactorily adjusted. There was some misunderstanding, however, and the report was laid on the table.

The street commissioners reported in favor of changing the grade of South Winoski avenue from Main street to Maple street. The report was accepted and placed on file and a resolution was adopted authorizing the change of grade in accordance with a plan drawn by the city engineer.

The report of the street commissioners in the matter of a sewer on South Willard street from Beach street to Shelburne street, recommended that the abutting property holders be cited to appear at a public meeting of the board so as to avoid any misunderstanding of the situation as to the expense, etc. This report was referred back to the commissioners.

A resolution was passed last spring changing the curbing and guttering of South Winoski avenue from Maple street to King street, the commissioners having reported in favor of granting the petition of taxpayers that this work be done.

A petition from taxpayers in that neighborhood asking that the sidewalk on the north side of Montpelier street be repaired was referred to the street commissioners.

Licensees to gather garbage were granted to Louis Goodrich and Anton Winderl.

The reading of the amended hack license occasioned much discussion. The hackmen, who claim that the proposed legislation is too stringent, were represented by C. W. Russell and M. G. Leary. At the conclusion of the discussion, on motion, the ordinance was recommitted.

The amended ordinance in relation to the inspection of wires passed the third reading.

A resolution was introduced authorizing the drawing of the mayor's warrant for $500, the amount of the bill rendered by the Central Vermont Railway company for the wharf site proposed to be sequestered. City Attorney Macomber addressed the board, saying that it was not necessary to tender the money until the premises condemned were actually entered upon and he thought the tendering of the money at this time would complicate matters, inasmuch as the railroad company has appealed to county court in the entire matter of the condemnation proceedings. The resolution was withdrawn.

It was voted to have the clerk instruct the street commissioners to change the signs on Park street in accordance with the resolution passed last spring changing the name of that thoroughfare, which was formerly called North Battery street.

ATTENDANCE INCREASING. Enrollment at Public Schools May Exceed That of Any Previous Year.

The attendance of reentered pupils at the public schools of the city was much larger yesterday, and if the enrollment continues to increase the coming year will break all records for attendance.

The enrollment at the Pomeroy school yesterday showed a total of 30 and the Archibald school had a large number of new pupils. The cause of the increase at these two schools was the large number of Hebrew children who were absent on the opening day on account of being on a Hebrew holiday.

The enrollment at the high school was also largely increased yesterday, and it is expected that before the close of the week the seating capacity of the building will be almost reached.

Superintendent H. O. Wheeler states that the total enrollment of all the schools in the city will not be known until Saturday of this week, when all reports are in. It is expected that at the next meeting of the board of school commissioners some action will be taken regarding the engaging of another assistant teacher there. There will be a teachers' meeting at the high school building Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

VEGETABLE IMMIGRANTS. It seems strange, says the author of a startling article in Appleton's Magazine for August, to look back on the days when so imported fruit and vegetables, with the whole plant kingdom ready to be imported for our farmers. We smile when we recall the days "before the war" when the tomato was a curio from Spain—a "poison apple" to the boys, and Saturday of this week when all reports are in. It is expected that at the next meeting of the board of school commissioners some action will be taken regarding the engaging of another assistant teacher there. There will be a teachers' meeting at the high school building Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The Frenchmen were early workers in this respect. The alfalfa they introduced in the fifties—which found its way here from Asia Minor, by way of Cuba—has turned 2,000,000 acres into an immensely profitable farm area. The springs of olive, too, now cover the hillsides, and a few orange cuttings from the Brazilian East Coast, due to the foresight of an American woman, today represent $5,000,000 a year for the California crop alone.

These things go on in silence. Not a historian chronicle the arrival among us in 1829 of the alfalfa bean, which today is such a beautiful and important crop. The alfalfa freight rates are quoted for it between southern California and the Atlantic coast. We save some of the names, even while we forget their source. Few are apt to recall that the explorers brought from Russia the stout-hearted Vladimir cherry and the Siberian crab apple to provide hardy fruits for our own northern regions.

As one of the smaller things, take the introduction of Manila, a little village near Vientiane, the best of its kind in the world, then behold rents secured on the soil and in due time handed over to New Jersey growers. The result was surprising. Not only did it yield a ton and a half per acre, but the cash result was $100 an acre over and above the ordinary yield. And in a single county of that small state the product of the land had grown from a few hundred pounds a year to more than 1,000,000 pounds. It has been the same with the potato from the Highlands of Columbia and Peru; the rhubarb from Central Asia; the asparagus from England; the celery of South Europe; the Bell and Tell barleys from Alsace, which have given such successful results in our State; the wheat from the Danube river from Russia, now grown in Maryland and Kansas; and the Abruzzi rye from the Italian Highlands.

Send out and get the best in the world; then educate the farmers in its culture and the public in its use, and after that show it here at home with scientific zeal. Such was the theory which carried the alfalfa from the mountains of Washington, now regarded as a good new arrival, a day from every part of the earth. And remember that in any one of these tiny seeds or apparently wilted cuttings may lie possible millions of money and the changing of desert into farm.

We are all familiar with polar exploration, and the thrill of discovery which comes with the discovery of a new world, and with pioneer work in equatorial Africa. But what is the practical value to mankind of such tasks, compared with those of the men whose work is here described? They, too, risk life and limb and health; suffer many hardships great heat and cold, fever and thirst; and the discomforts of a pony or a Stanley. But what do they gain? They bring back from Central Asia wilds one half so valuable as Prof. N. E. Hansen's new alfalfa?

And while we have rich men in plenty, how few there are who have served their country as Harbort Lathrop of Chicago has done. He loved world-travel; this man, and so he works hard for us in Asia, Africa, the South Sea—wherever he may be; an "honorary explorer" these seven years, taking with him David Fairchild as plant expert and going round the world twice, visiting every continent and every important archipelago, sending home thousands of seed and fruit, and a single cutting in tin tubes to a ton of some Arabian or African grain.

MEET IN BOSTON NEXT. Sandusky, Sept. 11.—Boston was selected today as the meeting place for the next year's annual convocation of the United Spanish American War veterans, now in session at Cedar Point.

The Montpelier egg sandwich has taken to itself wings and landed on the ten cent side of the lunch counter menu. The inactivity of hens and the high price of butter are blamed for the new rate.

An unusually capable dog is the one on which Fred Gates of Montpelier pays taxes. Mr. Gates climbed a 30-foot perpendicular ladder to fix an oil tank and when he started to descend saw the dog on the way up. One or two rings in the ladder were missing but the beast pulled himself carefully by the long spaces and reached the top in safety. The trip back cramped him and he was lowered to the ground by straps.

The service uniform of blue has been discarded at Norwich University for the blue dress, for cadet and faculty alike. The dress uniform remains unchanged. Incidentally, all last year's football team is back, with the exception of one man, and working hard for the opening game at Hanover September 28. In view of the fact that Norwich has beaten by Dartmouth only 2 to 6 last year, a possible victory is looked forward to this fall.

Mr. Fraser began work the first of last July by installing a steam boiler, hoisting engine, air compressor, duplex-pump and power drill.

REAL SONS OF REVOLUTION. The recent death of James C. Church of Brookline, aged 88 years, says the St. Albans Messenger, removes one of the few real Sons of the Revolution in Vermont. His father was Capt. Charles Church, who enlisted at the age of 16 years and served three and one-half years in the War for Independence. Captain Church died in Westminster and was buried in the Episcopal cemetery near St. Albans Falls, having died in 1826 at the age of 80 years. James Church was the youngest of a family of 10 children and was born August 16, 1819. Three years ago he was made an honorary member of the Vermont Society, Sons of the American Revolution. It has been said that the Rev. Church was the only real son of the Revolution in Vermont but this is an error as there are at least two others, Dr. Crosby A. Perry of Readsboro and William Con-

DOUBLE WEDDING. Young Physicians Marry, Sisters, Who Are Graduate Nurses.

The First Baptist church was the scene of a very pretty double wedding last evening at 5 o'clock, when Miss Alice Vinton Everett was married to Dr. Eugene J. Hickey of Barnard and Miss Lena Evelyn Everett was married to Dr. Warren J. Hickey of Roxbury. The brides are the daughters of Mrs. Ruben Stokes of Hinesburgh. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. D. Penney, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large assemblage of invited guests.

The brides were gowned in white organdy with white tulle and carried white asters. They were attended by six bridesmaids, Miss Georgia Wells of Johnson, Miss Arlie Howard of Bromley, N. Y., Miss Florence Hill of Burlington, Miss Belle Moore of Middlebury, Miss Florence Seward of Burlington and Miss Lilla Bond of Burlington, who were attired in white dotted muslin, and carried pink and white hydrangeas. Miss Carrie Everett, sister of the brides, acted as maid of honor, gowned in pink crepe de chene and carrying pink hydrangeas. The brides were given in marriage by Robert Edward Everett, a brother, who also acted as best man.

The ushers were Dr. Gilbert Hill of Burlington, Dr. Howard Johnson of Burlington, Philip Hobb of Johnson, Edward Turcut of Burlington, Miss Mary Hayes, organist of the church, presided at the organ, and rendered selections before and after the ceremony.

The pulpit and chancel rail were banked with a profusion of pink and white by drapery, intermingled with asparagus and bunches of asparagus and daisies were placed at the entrance of each pew.

Both brides are graduate nurses. Mrs. Hickey from the Mary Fletcher hospital and Mrs. Howard from the edgeburg hospital. Dr. Hickey, Dr. Howard graduated from the medical department of the University of Vermont in 1903, and Dr. Hickey from the same institution a year later. After a wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Hickey will go to Barnard to reside, while Dr. and Mrs. Howard will reside in Roxbury.

Among those from out of town who were present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hickey of Barnard, parents of Dr. Hickey, Mrs. Emma Howard and daughter, Arlie, of Bromley, N. Y., mother and sister of Dr. Howard, Mr. C. W. Stearns of Johnson and Miss Jennie Crum of Roxbury.

After the ceremony the newly wedded couples were driven from the church to the home of J. Ralph Baker, 74 Grant street, where traveling suits were donated and dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Baker, after which they again entered their carriage and were driven quietly away, much to the chagrin of their friends, who were keeping up an unsuccessful search for them.
