

Sept.
26th
1907THE OLD BEE HIVE
A New Dress FabricExceedingly Beautiful
Exceptionally Low Priced1200 yards, 62c—Silk Chiffons at 33c a yard

DESIGNED FOR SPRING OF 1908

THIS Is One of the Most Beautiful and Exceptionally Low Priced Dress Fabrics We Have Ever Offered. For Dresses and Waists, for House Gowns, House Squeaks and Party Dresses There Is No Fabric Equal to Silk Chiffons.

200 Pieces Printed Silk Chiffons, Colors White, Champagne, Yellow, Light Blue, Nile Green, Heliotrope, Pink and Black—Printed in Great Variety of Handsome Floral Designs, Polka Dots, Omber Effects, Pekin Stripes, Plaids and Checks.

33c yard

But 62c when the spring season of 1908

opens

FIRST CENTER TABLE—NEAR ENTRANCE

Women's Undermuslins

Dainty Styles, Cleverly Made and at Moderate Prices.

NIGHT GOWNS.....From 75c to $5.00 EACH
SKIRTS.....From 95c to $10.00 EACH
CHEMISE.....From 50c to $3.00 EACH
DRAWERS.....From 30c to $1.50 PAIR
CORSET COVERS.....From 25c to $1.25 EACH

LADIES' FLANNELLETTES—Both White and Fancy Stripes. Specially Priced at 50c & 59c EACH

ORIENTAL RUGS
at half price and less

Slightly Soiled by Smoke or Water. Bought at Auction Sale in New York City.

THIS Is a Buying Opportunity of a Life Time—An Actual Saving of from $5.00, on a Small Size Shirvan, to $100.00 on a Full Room Size GUILISTAN.

THIRD FLOOR—TAKE ELEVATOR.

The Old Bee Hive

THE BATTLESHIP VERMONT.

Presentation of Silver Service in Honor of Our State October 4

Vermont's presentation of the silver service to the battleship Vermont will take place on board the battleship at the navy yard, Boston, Friday, October 4, 1907. A State flag will be presented by the daughters of the American Revolution at the same time.

To prevent overcrowding, the officers in charge of the battleship are obliged to limit the number of admissions. It is, therefore, necessary that Vermonters who desire to witness the ceremony send their names immediately to Gen. W. H. Gilmore at Burlington, Vt.

"WAY DOWN EAST" AT THE STRONG.

"Way Down East" the play which has become so well known through successive performances and which, like all good things, grows better with time, was presented at The Strong Saturday afternoon and evening before going to Boston. That the play was not lost in the popular heart was demonstrated by the enthusiasm with which both presentations were received.

In Anticipation of Jack Frost's Coming

If you would save your choice plants—take them indoors before Jack Frost nips them.

Of course it means that you will need a new jardiniere or two—some plants are in bigger pots and there are new plants to provide for.

If you would save your choice plants—take them indoors before Jack Frost nips them.

Of course it means that you will need a new jardiniere or two—some plants are in bigger pots and there are new plants to provide for.

If you would save your choice plants—take them indoors before Jack Frost nips them.

Of course it means that you will need a new jardiniere or two—some plants are in bigger pots and there are new plants to provide for.

If you would save your choice plants—take them indoors before Jack Frost nips them.

Of course it means that you will need a new jardiniere or two—some plants are in bigger pots and there are new plants to provide for.

If you would save your choice plants—take them indoors before Jack Frost nips them.

Of course it means that you will need a new jardiniere or two—some plants are in bigger pots and there are new plants to provide for.

CROPS IN VERMONT.

The Crop Reporter published by authority of the secretary of agriculture gives the condition of leading crops in Vermont on September 1 as follows: Corn 81 per cent, spring wheat 80, oats 80, barley 85, buckwheat 80, tobacco 90, potatoes 85, beans 85, onions 85, apples 85.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

A good many bachelors are wearing socks with peckholes toes and heels. If you would become a student of human nature begin by studying your own. There would probably be more women inventors if they were anxious to discover new wrinkles.

May a man's final disappearance be the result of a strenuous attempt to keep up appearances.

It is sometimes advisable to employ a night watchman to look after men who are as honest as the day is long.

A man's silliness may border on the ragged edges of lunacy, but you can't make the woman he is in love with believe it—Chicago News.

INTERESTED IN LIVE STOCK?

Horse, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry of the "pure-bred" kind. Then you should try and keep posted on what the successful farmers are doing about these things. There's only one way to keep posted on these matters, that is by reading the old reliable, The New England Farmer. Recognized everywhere as "The Best Farm Paper." Send 10 cents for a 10 weeks' trial subscription. Address: The New England Farmer, Brattleboro, Vt.

LOOKING UP IN NEW YORK.

The plump man stood on the curb and gazed with wondering stare. And when he saw the Singer rose. He crossed himself in prayer.

"The hymn," he sighed, "this starting truth."

Just now I realize—When I can read my title clear To mansions in the skies."

—L. S. Waterhouse in the N. Y. Sun.

DEATH OF CAPT. TRUMAN.

Was a Familiar Figure on Lake Champlain for Many Years.

The death of Capt. James Truman Saturday evening at his home, 160 St. Paul street, marks the passing away of one of Burlington's oldest residents, and a man who spent the greater part of 80 years in active work in and about Burlington.

Capt. Truman was born in Ogdensburg, N. Y., in 1826 and moved to Burlington with his parents when about a year old. He was the son of Capt. Almus Truman, one of the founders of the Methodist organization in this city, and who also served Lake Champlain for many years, commanding the Washington, the Little Western and the Winoski, in 1859. Capt. Truman had resided in the home on St. Paul street all his life and was the tenth one of the family to pass away there. His early life was spent on Lake Champlain, where he was a cutter or deck hand until 1875, when he became freight agent for the Burlington & Lamoille railroad, acting in this capacity for about three years, after which he was steward of the Mary Fletcher hospital for six years. His latter years were spent at home. He was one of the oldest members of the Methodist church in Burlington.

January 8, 1891, Capt. and Mrs. Truman celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on St. Paul street and on January 8, 1894, they celebrated their 63rd anniversary. Mrs. Truman died April 18 of the age of 90 years.

Capt. Truman was survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Clapp and Miss Deane Truman, both of this city. The funeral was held from the residence. Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, with interment in Lake View cemetery.

DEER SEASON OCT. 21-26.

Non-Residents Must Get Licenses in Order to Hunt.

The open season for hunting deer this year will be the six days from October 21 to October 26 inclusive. The statute reads: "The open season for hunting deer in this State shall be the last week in October of each year containing six working days. Sundays excepted."

The law also provides that any person who has six working days in the week beginning Sunday, the 20th.

At the last session of the Legislature—Section 1 of No. 12 of the acts of 1904, was amended so as to read as follows:

"A person not a bona fide resident of this State, and actually domiciled herein, except a person owning real estate in the State and occupying such real estate as a domicile not less than three months in the year and paying taxes thereon, shall not hunt, pursue, take or kill a deer in this State at any time without having first procured a license therefor, as hereinafter provided."

Art No. 12 of the laws of 1904 provides that a license to a non-resident shall be issued by the fish and game commissioner of the State upon application in writing and the payment of $15.

Section 1 of Art No. 12 of the laws of 1904 provides that a non-resident who obtains a license to hunt deer in this State shall not apply to a non-resident owning real estate in this State, upon which taxes are paid by him, and occupying such real estate as a domicile not less than three months in the year, shall receive such license upon making application in writing to the State fish and game commissioner and the payment to him of an additional ten dollars, provided that the license so issued shall not apply to a non-resident owning real estate in this State, upon which taxes are paid by him, and occupying such real estate as a domicile not less than three months in the year.

CRISTON CLARKE IN A NEW ROLE.

Burlington theatre patrons had an opportunity Monday evening to see Criston Clarke, a long time favorite, in a different role than the dandy, dashing, fighting "Monsieur Beaucaire." Instead of the dainty Beaucaire, who would fight only with words and then with a sword, he appeared as an American, a Mexican American, who would take a drink of cheap whiskey with gusto, slap a horse thief on the back and punch his life to save an adopted father, who also drank heavily and robbed trains on the side.

The power that "Governor" is full of atmosphere and character, and it was that alone that made it interesting. The plot was commonplace enough, it being the story of a man of fortune, Andrew Michael, afterwards known as Andrew Carmichael, who left a wife and a small son, named after himself, to the fortune of the world. The son was adopted by his mother's father, who was an American, who educated the boy and then had him return home to the Mexican mountains to show off his smartness to Greasers and Indians. Carmichael in after years visits a hotel near the mountains with his niece, Janet Winston, who is engaged to marry his son, Reinhold. The girl is lost in the mountains and finds her way to the boy's cabin, where Henderson and a train thief wish to keep her for ransom. The boy rescues her, falls madly in love with her and the old story is then gone over again, to the satisfaction of everyone concerned. Millionaire Carmichael in the end rescues the identity of his son and at the same time permits him to share his money.

The first act depicted Jim Henderson's attack in the Sierra Madre, Mexico, and the second act a Belandean effect. The wild and picturesque western life was not overdone, in fact, it was rather delicate and real and made one anxious to be there himself. It was here that Mr. Clarke did his best work. The plot was commonplace enough, it being the story of a man of fortune, Andrew Michael, afterwards known as Andrew Carmichael, who left a wife and a small son, named after himself, to the fortune of the world. The son was adopted by his mother's father, who was an American, who educated the boy and then had him return home to the Mexican mountains to show off his smartness to Greasers and Indians. Carmichael in after years visits a hotel near the mountains with his niece, Janet Winston, who is engaged to marry his son, Reinhold. The girl is lost in the mountains and finds her way to the boy's cabin, where Henderson and a train thief wish to keep her for ransom. The boy rescues her, falls madly in love with her and the old story is then gone over again, to the satisfaction of everyone concerned. Millionaire Carmichael in the end rescues the identity of his son and at the same time permits him to share his money.

THE YOUNGEST DRUMMER OF THE ARMY.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

The youngest man who enlisted in the army during the civil war, Arthur F. Springfield, formerly of Indianapolis, now an employee of the army office and residing at New York, has just started for G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga. He has been a familiar figure at encampments for many years. He went into the army when he was 16 years old and has since been a member of the G. A. R. and has been a member of the G. A. R. for many years.

TELEPHONE CHANGES.

Northern Division Abolished and Offices Moved to Other Places.

The offices of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. have been the scene of a shake-up during the past few weeks, which will change the offices of staff and office forces to considerable extent.

J. R. Butler, who has been the division superintendent here for the past ten years, has been transferred to the office of the general superintendent at Boston, where he will have charge of the special work department. Mr. Butler goes to Boston because the northern division is abolished and Vermont is cut out into smaller companies. The New England Telephone & Telegraph company retains Burlington and Rutland and all the trunk lines, but the smaller places have all been transferred to subsidiary companies, each controlling a district. This new company requires a large force in each of these minor companies, but depends on the toll lines for its main revenue.

In point of service Mr. Butler is one of the old-timers, having been originally engaged in the telephone business since 1878. This was before the telephone possessed much commercial value. Mr. Butler was engaged in a small local company at Stamford, Conn., known as the Stamford & Norwalk Telephone company. When this company was absorbed by the Connecticut Telephone company, Mr. Butler became superintendent of the Stamford office. He was then transferred to the New York office, where he was employed by the American Bell Telephone company, as manager of the New York office. He was then transferred to the New York office, where he was employed by the American Bell Telephone company, as manager of the New York office. He was then transferred to the New York office, where he was employed by the American Bell Telephone company, as manager of the New York office.

MOTHER OF TEN

Always Kept Cuticura Ready for Children's Skin and Scalp Troubles.

"I wish to add my voice to the praise of Cuticura for its use in the treatment of children, whose mother is dead. In our homes in England and America, the best of mothers is a mother who keeps Cuticura ready for her children's skin and scalp troubles. These children are all grown and well, and I cannot recall any specific cases of cure, but I know that I have spent remarkably little in doctors' fees. George W. Hughes, 62 N. Canal St., Chicago, Ill., Dec. 15, 1906."

VERMONT TRADE REPORT.

Corn Promises a Fair Yield—Farmers Getting Good Prices for Products.

Burlington, Sept. 25.—Reports to farmers for the week show considerable work to have been done in harvesting late crops. Corn now promises fair average yield, although the amount received at existing factories has been less than in years past. Farmers' second harvest of hay has been fairly good, but not as good as the first. Nearly all of last year's harvest has been sold and prices asked now are higher than in usual at this period. Dealers in grain and feed report demand fairly good and prices highest they have been for a long time; on the other hand farmers are receiving advanced prices for produce of all kinds. Shortage of money and slow collections are particularly complained of by grain and feed dealers. Amount of money tied up is much larger at this period than it has been for some time and some difficulty is experienced in payment of bills. New orders, however, are coming in well and labor is generally well employed. The drop in price of wool, particularly in the case of the New York market, has been a slight decrease in selling price of wool, but manufacturers are not too much concerned. One small failure is reported for the week.

Burlington retail merchants are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

SPECIALIST
PRESCRIBES
CUTICURA

A Famous French Specialist on Diseases of the Skin Prescribes Cuticura as the Most Effective Remedy Known to Him, Charging as His Fee 100 Francs ($20).

ALSO PRESCRIBED IN HOSPITAL SAINT LOUIS

"Gentlemen: You may be pleased to learn that a patient suffering from an irritation of the skin, caused by medicine, on consulting a noted physician in Paris, for which a fee of one hundred francs (twenty dollars) was charged, was told to use Cuticura, which advice, although received with astonishment, was followed and resulted in a perfect cure. (Signed) Lewis Gower, 1123 Broadway, New York, U. S. A., December 16, 1906."

Mother Of Ten

Always Kept Cuticura Ready for Children's Skin and Scalp Troubles.

"I wish to add my voice to the praise of Cuticura for its use in the treatment of children, whose mother is dead. In our homes in England and America, the best of mothers is a mother who keeps Cuticura ready for her children's skin and scalp troubles. These children are all grown and well, and I cannot recall any specific cases of cure, but I know that I have spent remarkably little in doctors' fees. George W. Hughes, 62 N. Canal St., Chicago, Ill., Dec. 15, 1906."

VERMONT TRADE REPORT.

Corn Promises a Fair Yield—Farmers Getting Good Prices for Products.

Burlington, Sept. 25.—Reports to farmers for the week show considerable work to have been done in harvesting late crops. Corn now promises fair average yield, although the amount received at existing factories has been less than in years past. Farmers' second harvest of hay has been fairly good, but not as good as the first. Nearly all of last year's harvest has been sold and prices asked now are higher than in usual at this period. Dealers in grain and feed report demand fairly good and prices highest they have been for a long time; on the other hand farmers are receiving advanced prices for produce of all kinds. Shortage of money and slow collections are particularly complained of by grain and feed dealers. Amount of money tied up is much larger at this period than it has been for some time and some difficulty is experienced in payment of bills. New orders, however, are coming in well and labor is generally well employed. The drop in price of wool, particularly in the case of the New York market, has been a slight decrease in selling price of wool, but manufacturers are not too much concerned. One small failure is reported for the week.

Burlington retail merchants are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A new retail store has just opened in the city, and is expected to do well.

Retail reports here are generally optimistic for the coming fall. They expect a good business season, but are not too sure of it. A