ENOEBURG FALLS. Friday proved an unlucky day for three parties whose teams ran away. A horse belonging to P. J. Hayes, driven by H. Powell, started from near Tatro's blacksmith shop and raced down the walk on Archambault street, where the buggy was demolished. The horse was captured near the school house and taken to the stable.

A loaded milk team belonging to Harmon Abell of Fairfield and driven by Fred Linn took fright at the better farming special and "turned turtle" at the corner near B. Hall's. The tangle stopped the team. Mr. Linn had two ribs cracked and the load was a total loss. Zeph Perry, driving a team of W. J. Jones and leading a team of the same name, was on the o'clock train at the crossing near W. G. Fassett's until too late to stop. Both teams got across but the rear horse jumped into the buggy in front and all were ditched, luckily with only minor bruises. The train was stopped and backed up to render assistance.

Dr. A. M. Bingham had a runaway Saturday near North Enosburg.—The final figures for the 14 envelopes on the farm of R. A. Cross are 1,323 pounds of sugar. The April just passed was the coldest in 50 years with a record of three zero
