

One Cent a Word

Advertising in this column one cent a word, each insertion. Copy may be changed every week. Cash in advance required. No advertisement taken which is less than 12 words, two lines. Special terms to advertisers using from 250 to 1,000 lines within 12 consecutive months.

POINTERS.

OWNERS OF FARMS who wish to hire help or to sell a farm, should use this column. Nearly 6,000 copies of this paper are sold every issue and your advertisement would be read by many possible buyers.

PERSONAL.

ANYONE desiring marriage is invited to write The Eventful Club, San Francisco, Cal.

WANTED.

WANTED—Young women for positions as attendants in the Wrentham State school; salary first 6 months $20, second 6 months $23 per month, after one year's service $26, including board, room and laundry. George I. Wallace, Supt., Wrentham, Mass.

ATLASES WANTED.

ATLASES WANTED—Any county atlas in Vermont by Burs, Ellis & Soule, New York 1880. State price asked. H. T. Lawrence, Brattleboro, Vt.

WANTED TO BUY A FARM.

WANTED TO BUY A FARM with stock and tools complete. About a 20 cow outfit. Write, stating price, location, etc. Box 14, Free Press.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

EGGS—I pay a good price, and pay promptly, for fresh, white eggs, direct from producers. Reference: Bridgeport Trust Company, Fred C. Jennings, Jr., P. O. No. 2, Bridgeport, Conn.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A finely bred young Holstein bull, 142 No. 30,000. The young bull's brother took first prize at Lamolite county fair. Just ready for service. Apply to Lawrence Thomas, Jeffersonville, Vt.

THE WELLS-KNOWN Eastern creamery, one of the best in eastern townships, manufacturing 200,000 pounds of butter a year, for sale cheap. Apply Foster Creamery, Foster, Bromo county, Quebec.

MILL AND WATER POWER FOR SALE. First mill, house, barn and sheds in first-class location, located in one of the best farming sections in Vermont. Terms made known on application. C. E. Cook, Shoreham Center, Vt.

SAW MILL COMPLETE for sale, 50 H. P. engine and boiler, Lane special mill, endless chain drawing in rig, all in first-class shape. Robbin works, 13 H. P. engine, 30 H. P. boiler made to burn shavings, two lathe, splitter and everything to do business with. Offered bond saw for cutting logs. Will sell together or separate and take pay in lumber or hobbins. W. B. Carpenter, Corinth, Vt.

IRON SUGAR ARCH and evaporator for sale. Bellows Falls pattern, 12 ft. by 16 in., complete with grate and smokestack. Both are in excellent condition having been used out little and the price will suit you. E. H. Jones, Waterbury, Vt.

FARMS FOR SALE. VERY DESIRABLE FARM for sale, 223 acres with two-story house, granary, several barns, etc. and plenty of water, a never failing spring, Situated on Otter creek, 2 miles from Vergennes, Vt. Very rich in production of hay, grain, etc. Cause of selling ill health, otherwise money could not buy it. Price right. Inquire W. J. Strong, Insurance and Real Estate, Vergennes, Vt.

VERMONT FARMS for sale. Catalogue of farms and miscellaneous property free. W. N. Gove and B. W. Estey, Bristol, Vt.

VILLAGE AND RIVER FARM—An ideal home, in village of South Royalton, Vt., of 500 inhabitants, 15 stores, approved graded school, two churches, also mills, etc. A business center, 10 passenger trains daily, all stop. Farm contains 160 acres. Will keep 20 cows and team. All grass land crops, two crops annually. No 1 pasture. Good buildings, house 10 rooms and woodshed, barn 80x30, with loanto, 20 ft. basement, carriage house, granary, and separator room, two-story hen house, 4x15, 30 ton silo, never failing spring water at house, barn and yard. Big wood lot. (Experts' estimate) $49,000. Lumber and wood, 1,000 sugar maple, sugar house, 60 ft. tank, evaporator, etc. All land within one mile of depot. Good road, no drifts, mail delivered. Electric lights accessible. Good chance for milk route and teaming. Will sell farm with or without stock and tools. Price for selling, going to a warmer climate. For particulars call or write owner, L. E. Blodgett, South Royalton, Vt.

ARSENE BOUCHER UNDERTAKER, 168 North St. Tel. 985. BURLINGTON, VT. Calls Answered Day or Night.

TEETH EXTRACTED. Absolutely Painless. The only office in Burlington where you can get teeth extracted without a trace of pain, without taking any medicine, and without any after effects. No pain, no danger, no after effects. Office: 234 N. D. HAZEN, Office Hours, 10 to 2, 7 to 9.

Business Directory

General Contractor WILLIAM BLONDIN, General building contractor, Manufacturer of Cement Building Blocks, 228 Main Street, Burlington, Vermont.

Dining Room THE PLAZA CAFE, NEW BURLINGTON BLOCK, 120 St. Paul Street, Burlington, Vermont.

Laundry STANDARD STEAM LAUNDRY, Office: 133 Cherry Street, W. H. Bullock, proprietor. Phone 33-11 or send postal and driver will call.

Roofers H. R. SALLS, Roofer and dealer in all kinds of roofing materials. Estimates executed. First-class work. Estimates, 332 North Street.

Typewriters and Supplies W. H. SHERMAN, 104 CHURCH ST. When in need of anything in the typewriter line, call No. 651 and your wants will be attended to promptly.

Plumbers FRANK S. LANOU & SON, Practical Plumbers and Steam Fitters, 90 St. Paul Street. Next North Burlington Savings Bank.

CENTRAL VERMONT RAILWAY

Time Table in Effect October 1, 1911. TRAINS LEAVE BURLINGTON. 4:05 a. m. Daily—For Montreal and Chicago.

7:15 a. m. Except Sunday—For all New England points. 7:25 a. m. Except Sunday—Local for Cambridge Junction.

10:05 a. m. Sundays only—For St. Albans. 10:57 a. m. Daily—New England States Limited for all New England points.

7:00 p. m. Except Sunday—Local for St. Albans and Richmond. White River Junction and New England points.

4:40 p. m. Except Sunday—For Montreal, Rouses Point, Ogdensburg and Richmond. 4:50 p. m. Except Sunday—Local for Cambridge Junction.

6:45 p. m. Daily—Express for Montreal and Chicago. And local for White River Junction. 11:00 p. m. Daily—Express for all New England points.

TRAINS ARRIVE BURLINGTON. 5:00 a. m. Daily—Express from Boston and New York.

8:15 a. m. Except Sunday—Local from St. Albans and Cambridge Junction. 10:40 a. m. Except Sunday, local from St. Johnsbury and Cambridge Junction.

10:45 a. m. Except Sunday local from White River Junction and Montpelier. 11:40 a. m. Daily—Express from Chicago and Montreal.

1:40 p. m. Except Sunday, local from St. Albans, White River Junction and Montpelier. 5:35 p. m. Except Sunday—Local from White River Junction, Worcester and Springfield.

7:30 p. m. Daily—Express from Boston and New York. Local from Montreal and St. Albans. 8:40 p. m. Except Sunday—Local from Portland, St. Johnsbury and Cambridge Junction.

11:45 p. m. Daily—Express from Chicago and Montreal. H. H. HICKOK, City Pass Agent, 170 College Street.

NOTICE.

USEFUL INFORMATION FREE to any person interested in compiling a genealogy or similar work. Address Box 4, care of Free Press. 212,641,vt.

Water Taxes For March.

Meter rates are now due and payable at the Water Office, No. 1 City Hall. Unless prompt payment is made, Five per Cent, will be added to the bill, and the water shut off as prescribed in Section 28 of the Water Ordinance. Pay before the 10th and get your discount.

FRANK KIDDER, Supt. Office hours for the first ten days of March, from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., after that from 9:00 to 12:00 a. m. and 1:00 to 5:00 p. m.

YOUR CHOICE

at a bargain and on reasonable terms of three Chittenden county farms as follows: 72 acres choice land and fine buildings and everything in connection complete and ready for business. 50 acres, perfect outfit and a bird at the money. 59 acres with a rival and especially for low price and easy terms, stock and tools. Write to-day, McGinnis Real Estate, Essex Junction, Vt.

Money-Maker

Farm, 150 acres, eight and a half miles from Burlington; good fair buildings; never failing running water; land smooth and free from stones; 50 acres interval; 20 extra fine cows; two horses; all tools, hay and fodder. Only $5,000, one-third cash.

Reynolds Real Estate Co., 100 College St. Farms, Quaker, Timberlands, Lake Shore Property.

Double PINOCHLE

PLAYING CARDS. Free Press Stationery Store.

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

(Continued from page 1.)

Pleasant street to Mrs. D. E. Grosvenor of Bridport, who will take possession Monday for her late husband, Mr. Grosvenor, who died on Saturday, March 1, at his home in Burlington as a juror in the United States court. Mrs. Mabelle Cottrell has come to Brookline, Mass., to visit her sister, Mrs. Stewart Andrews—Mrs. J. H. Fletcher of Bridport is the guest of Mrs. Fletcher of Court street. Mrs. Cushing Hill left Monday for Boston to spend two weeks with Mrs. MacQuestion. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clement are spending several days in Boston. Mrs. Hannah L. Elmer, who had been in ill health for some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Noble Penn, in the east part of the town, died Sunday at the age of 87 years. She was survived by her husband and a sister, Mrs. Henry Brewster, of this village. The funeral was held at her late home Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Mrs. L. J. Bruya and young daughter, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon LaPan, have returned to Montpelier. Charles Lamond has gone to Vergennes, called there by the serious illness of his father-in-law, Charles Miller. Harold Turner has gone to Woodstock, where he has a position. Eighteen persons were taken into the Congregational Church Sunday. Isaac and Ambrose Goodro, who have been confined at their home on South Pleasant street for the past six weeks with the grip, have very much improved and the former is able to be out. A union meeting was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening and a large congregation attended. Miss Eliza Sessions of Westminster, representing the Kurni Hattin house, gave the address and was listened to with marked attention. The cattle shipment Monday consisted of three carloads.

The faculty of the summer session of Middlebury College was announced yesterday by Prof. Raymond M. Farland, the director. Hon. Payson Smith, State superintendent of public schools in Maine, will lecture on education. Prof. H. Parker Williamson of the University of Chicago and Dr. Gino A. Rath of Northwestern University will lecture on French and Italian, will instruct in romance languages. Dr. Ray W. Patterson of Harvard and John H. Bachmann of Brown University lecture in German languages and literature. Dr. Julian W. Abernethy of Burlington, formerly principal of the Berkeley Institute of Brooklyn, English literature; Marian C. Stebson of the Wilder laboratory, Dartmouth College, and astronomy; John Barlow, professor of zoology, Rhode Island State College, in charge of the biological laboratory. Members of the college faculty who offer courses are Professors McFarland, Weather, Cunningham, White, Lyford and Freese. Principal Archie S. Harriman of Middlebury will give a course in Latin and mathematics and Principal H. A. Farmer of New Haven in elementary arithmetic. Other specialists are Mabel B. Hall, teacher in Philadelphia School of Industrial Art, Marion Spaulding, teacher of domestic science in the Dedham (Mass.) high school, and N. Pauline Rockwood, teacher of music, Castleton normal school. A State summer school authorized by the Mason S. Stone, State superintendent of education, will be conducted jointly with the session the first 10 days—Miss Clara Danvers is visiting Mrs. F. C. Little in New Haven. Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Frost and Miss Eva Pinney and Harry Cobb have gone to Boston, where they are attending to a automobile show. The funeral of Mrs. Hattie Clark, who died Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock and was largely attended. The Rev. Hallowell of Weybridge conducted the services and the burial was in Prospect cemetery. Harry Pierce and family have moved into the Samuel Bowles house on Thomas street, recently purchased by them.

Mrs. D. M. Galt, who has been employed in her home in Salisbury after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Thomas. While here she celebrated her 50th birthday. Miss White has returned to her home in Maine after spending two months as the guest of Mrs. A. S. Harriman. Frank Hartzel purchased the Alex. Hutchins house at Ferrisburg, located through E. Hubbard, Frank Ashby, who has moved his family into the Frank Stearns house on Seymour street. Miss Katherine Fish returned to college after spending two weeks at her home in Vergennes, where she suffered an attack of the grip. John R. Postle, who for the past several years has operated the horse training stable at Addison County Agricultural society grounds, will retire this week and move with his family to Port Henry, N. Y., where he has a position with G. D. Sherman, and will have charge of his training stable. He will also take his horses into the grand circuit of trotters. During the last winter he won six firsts, two seconds, four thirds and fourths, the races all having taken place on Lake Champlain and Saranac Lake. Henry Beane, a stranger, was arrested Tuesday night by Night Officer Jerry Degray and Wednesday forenoon pleaded guilty before Judge Fred M. Dool to a charge of intoxication, was fined $5 and cost of $10. He made arrangements to be taken to the State Prison at Montpelier and was allowed to remain here until he has secured in Shoshon. Among the people here from out of town are E. E. Hendry of Holyoke, Mass., Albert King of Proctor, H. L. Townsend of Bridport, C. N. Heighman and Thomas E. Wilkeson of Shoshon and George A. Stevens of South Ferris, N. Y.—The mercantile report has been reported at six o'clock Wednesday morning and at two o'clock at twelve o'clock, noon, making a difference here of 50 degrees in 12 hours. Arrowsmith Lodge, No. 15, Daughters of Rebekah, conferred the initiatory degree on two candidates Tuesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Herbert Fletcher at her home, 28—James Foley and family were in Grand Falls, Friday to attend the funeral of Michael Foley whose remains were brought there for burial from the Soldiers' Home at Bennington. Miss Nettie Johnson has been confined to the house for several days with a hard cold. Miss Hazel Ayer has been at home sick the past week from Brandon, where she is attending school.

VERGENNES.

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tyler, when their only daughter, Irene M., was united in marriage to Fordyce W. son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace B. Bristol, by the Rev. Richard G. Woodbridge. On account of the recent death of the bride's brother, only the immediate members of the families were present. Refreshments were served and a short reception held. Mr. and Mrs. Bristol received many useful and valuable presents. Mr. Bristol having accepted a position with the Vergennes Power company.

LEICESTER.

The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Herbert Fletcher at her home, 28—James Foley and family were in Grand Falls, Friday to attend the funeral of Michael Foley whose remains were brought there for burial from the Soldiers' Home at Bennington. Miss Nettie Johnson has been confined to the house for several days with a hard cold. Miss Hazel Ayer has been at home sick the past week from Brandon, where she is attending school.

STARKSBORO.

Mrs. Eva Kenyon and children of Hinesburg were over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Almon Norton. The Bristol high school graduating class will give an entertainment entitled "A Musical Bump" at the town hall Saturday evening. The entertainment will consist of a farce and music. The C. C. C. will meet this afternoon with Mrs. W. G. Briggs—O. W. Ferguson and Mrs. Jennie Baldwin were at Seymour Caswell's in Williston over the week-end. The program at the strange meeting, which consisted of a "Medley Dialogue," a sketch of Evangelism illustrated in pantomime, paper, recitations and music. Miss Fanny Hulet and Miss Alice Roworth of Bristol were at Miss Hulet's home over Sunday. Mrs. Candace Boatwick and Mrs. Louise Brown visited the latter's sister in Monkton Saturday—Frank Whitehouse, Waldo Brown and the Misses Edith and Nettie Smith were in Burlington Saturday and Sunday—There was a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Smith at their home Tuesday evening.

WEST ADDISON.

There is to be a soiree at Van Ornum's this evening. Ruthell Smith was a member of W. C. Dunton Post, G. A. R.—S. P. Paige of Boston was in town Tuesday—Mrs. V. L. Perkins spent Sunday at her home in Weybridge. She returned Monday to care for her mother, Mrs. E. B. Palmer—L. C. Bain was a business visitor in Burlington Monday—Mr. and Mrs. Leon Adams of Vergennes are guests of relatives in town. The Willing Workers realized about $15 from their dinner town meeting day. Edward Moody, who died in Hankeville Tuesday, was a brother of Mrs. Lucretia Hamner of this village. Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Tatro went to Salisbury yesterday, called there by the death of Mr. Tatro's father, John Tatro—Miss Alice Sherwin, who has been spending to days with relatives here, went to Rutland yesterday.

SOUTH STARKSBORO.

Mrs. Annie Prindle Wright is ill with nervous prostration at the home of her cousin, Mrs. David Follansbee. Mr. and Mrs. George Varney are parents of a son, born February 12th, at their home in Salisbury. Mrs. Varney sold their place on the Plank road in Bristol to Mr. and Mrs. Horace Eastline of New York. Mrs. Eastline was Miss Hattie Jacobs of this place—Elisha Follansbee, who has been in Proctor the past five years, has rented a farm on Town Hill in New Haven and takes possession the middle of the month—James Grant visited his son, John, in Burlington last week.

FERRISBURG.

The town election in Ferrisburg Tuesday resulted as follows: Moderator, C. A. Chapman, town clerk, Miss Anna S. Robinson; selectmen, W. H. Dean, C. R. Hawkins, F. M. Warner, treasurer, Fred R. Booth; constables, G. E. Delano, Ed. Donnelly, H. E. S. Norman, H. W. Collins, P. W. Allen, road commissioners, George Lashaway, John Wells, some trustees public money, R. D. Booth; school directors, Miss Carrie E. Scott, Edwin Folsom, H. E. Beach. Mrs. S. Newton Field, who suffered from paralytic shock for the past three years, died at her home Sunday night. She was 75 years of age. Her husband, Frederick Tupper, died in Ferrisburg, 1882. Interment in the Lake cemetery, Ferrisburg—An infant daughter of Alderman and Mrs. E. C. Scott, Jr., died Saturday morning after a three weeks' illness with bronchial pneumonia—John H. Donnelly has been appointed justice of the peace by Governor Chase to the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Frank L. Fish. Mrs. Homer Ball is visiting the Rev. and Mrs. N. L. Ball of Arlington and before her return will visit in Montpelier, Rutland and Brandon. J. P. Donoway went Saturday to Milton on business connected with his program at the Addison County Agricultural society. Miss Katherine Fish has returned to Middlebury College after two weeks with her parents, Judge and Mrs. F. L. Fish. Mrs. Eliza Fields widow of the late Solomon Field, died Monday morning at the home of her son, George Newton, after a lingering illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Hix of Riley, Kans. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at one o'clock.

At the annual election of city officers held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Newton, after a long illness of several weeks. Mrs. Field had lived most of her life in Ferrisburg and was a member of the Congregational church. She leaves one son, George Newton of Ferrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs.