

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Parishioners of Rev. E. G. Guthrie Sorry to Have Him Leave.

At the regular mid-week meeting of the First Church Thursday the resignation of the pastor, the Rev. Ernest Graham Guthrie, was accepted, though with the deepest regret.

The meeting was held in the parish house. The Rev. R. C. Farr was elected moderator. The pastor's letter of resignation, which has already been printed in these columns, was read by the clerk of the church, W. H. Wood.

W. J. Van Patten spoke with great feeling of the services which Mr. Guthrie has rendered to the people of Burlington, and of the warm place which he holds in the hearts of the church people. Mr. Van Patten moved the adoption of resolutions which he read. Dr. T. S. Brown, after reviewing the work of inspiration and innovation which Mr. Guthrie has done in this pastorate, and the resolutions were adopted.

The text of the resolutions is as follows:

RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET.

Resolved, That this church accepts with sincere regret the resignation of the Reverend Ernest Graham Guthrie of the pastorate, tendered to the church at the service held on Sunday, the 24th inst., the resignation to take effect on August 31st, 1914, and that we request the anxiety to unite with Mr. Guthrie and the church in calling a council of churches to advise in regard to terminating the pastoral relation now existing.

Resolved, That we place on the records of the church an expression of the love and esteem which we feel for Mr. Guthrie as our pastor and leader and our appreciation of his high quality as a preacher and teacher. Coming to this church for his first pastorate from his home in far off New Zealand, he has endeavored himself to all with whom he has been associated in the life and work of this church and this community. He has never failed to stand for all that was true and high in the personal relations of men and he has been of the greatest help in all that has had to do with the upbuilding of civic righteousness in this community. His personal relations with members of this church and congregation in times of sorrow or bereavement have endeared him to all. His unvarying endeavors to increase the efficiency of the church and enlarge its membership have met with notable success and we recognize with joy the blessings that have come to this church through his ministry.

Resolved, That while we express our sincere regret at parting with Mr. Guthrie as pastor of this church we nevertheless recognize that in the call which he has had to a larger field and a more important ministry he is under an obligation which we must recognize. We congratulate Mr. Guthrie on the opportunity which is before him and we congratulate the Union Church of Boston, believing that they will find in Mr. Guthrie a leader who will inspire them to high service and faithful endeavor.

Resolved, That the clerk of the church be requested to send a copy of these resolutions to Mr. Guthrie.

CONFERENCE WILL BE CALLED.

On motion of F. W. Nash it was voted on the part of the church that the moderator appoint a committee of three to act with a similar committee from the society in calling a conference. The moderator appointed Mr. Van Patten, Mr. Nash and F. W. Perry.

On motion of A. S. Gallup it was voted that Mr. Van Patten confer with the pastor for the nomination of a committee of five to find a new pastor.

FATALLY INJURED.

Frederick Girard Lives Three Hours after Accident in Lumber Mill.

Frederick Girard, for many years an employee of the Robinson-Edwards Lumber company, was struck by a part of a broken belt in the company's mill Thursday morning and fatally injured. He was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital, where he died in a short time from the injuries received.

Mr. Girard's occupation was to feed a planing machine and while he was doing so the pipe that carries away the waste became clogged, and it frequently does, and he stooped down to clear the pipe. While he was in this position the spindle belt which drives the machine parted at the place where it is put together, and in some manner unexplained, one end of it struck the man in the abdomen. It did not render him unconscious and he was able to walk with the assistance of other employees to the grinding room where he explained what had happened to him. He then became unconscious. The police ambulance was summoned and Mr. Girard was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital. He revived, while on the way, for a time and asked if he was near home, then became unconscious again. His wife was summoned and he was able to recognize her before he died, which was about 1:30 o'clock. Death was due to internal injuries, there being a concussion of the blood vessels, which caused the patient to bleed to death.

Mr. Girard was 66 years of age and had been employed by the Robinson-Edwards Lumber company for more than twenty years. His recent residence was on North Bond street. He is survived in his immediate family by his wife and two sons. He was an ardent supporter of the church. The funeral was held Saturday morning at St. Joseph's church, with burial in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

SWINDLING ALLEGED.

Remarkable Statements in Case Entered in County Clerk's Office.

In the county clerk's office Thursday papers were filed in three cases. The case of Charles A. Stokely company of St. Paul, Minn., against Lewis N. Kellogg of Charlotte is an action on two promissory notes, one for $100 and the other for $117. It is alleged that the latter came into the possession of the defendant by accident and that he says he cannot find it. The case of the town of St. George vs. H. H. Tiley is an action of debt on a judgment rendered by Chittenden county court against the defendant.

In the case of C. B. Arnold of Burlington vs. E. X. Somers, E. M. Abbott, Charles Weeks, W. J. Aldrich, A. P. Leach and J. E. Alexander of St. Johnsbury, some remarkable statements are made. The plaintiff is suing for $10,000 damages for having, as is claimed, been swindled out of $7,300 by the defendants.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

MRS. LYON'S
ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, my aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. Augustus Lyon, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for women's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to woman a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

The declaration alleges that the defendants were the owners of the Eureka vending machine and that they conspired to cheat and defraud the plaintiff. The plot of the conspiracy, as alleged in the complaint, was that the defendant Alexander should pretend that the patent belonged to the others, that as traveling salesman for them he knew more than they did about the value of the patent and could buy it of them for much less than it was worth. Alexander was to pretend that he was buying the patent of the other defendants for $15,000, putting in one-half himself while the plaintiff put in the other half. The papers allege that the plaintiff put in his $7,500, that Alexander put in nothing, and that all the defendants divided the $7,500 among themselves.

A STUBBORN COUGH IS WEARING AND RISKY.

Letting a stubborn cough "hang on" in the spring is risky. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound heals raw, inflamed surfaces in the throat and bronchial tubes—makes sore, weak spots sound and whole—stops stubborn, tearing coughs. Refuse substitutes. J. W. O'Sullivan—adv.

A SLICK SWINDLER.

Touched New York Firm for $100 by Calling Himself C. A. Barber.

C. A. Barber, the grocer, has just received the explanation of some very mysterious correspondence addressed to him not long ago and finds that his name was used by a slick swindler to obtain a large sum of money from the Federal Milling company of Rockport, N. Y.

May 22 Mr. Barber received a letter from the Federal Milling company, signed by Fred J. Lingham, the treasurer, in which was the following sentence: "We trust that you will arrive home in good shape. We were very pleased, indeed, to have had the pleasure of your call upon us yesterday."

This sounded nice to Mr. Barber and he was pleased to know that the firm had enjoyed the pleasure of his company but as he had not been away from home at all for several weeks, which was mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

Friday a reply was received explaining matters somewhat. It appears that a gentleman, about six feet tall, medium weight, dark complexion, dark hair and dark moustache, appeared to Mr. Lingham of the firm, would cover the date of the visit mentioned in the letter, he was naturally puzzled and he asked the firm if they weren't mistaken in supposing that they had been entertaining him as a guest.

CAVALRY REUNION.

Ten of the 12 Troops in the Regiment Represented.

A meeting of the First Vermont cavalry was held at one o'clock Saturday afternoon at the roof garden of the Van Ness House. Ten of the 12 troops of the regiment and the field staff were represented.

The meeting was called to order by General T. S. Peck, Judge D. C. Walker of Cambridge, a member of Company D, was elected president. Resolutions in appreciation of the honor conferred upon the regiment by Frank R. Wells, who erected the statue of General William Wells in honor of the general and members of the First Vermont cavalry, were introduced by General Peck, read and unanimously adopted. Other routine business was transacted and after adjournment a half hour was spent in renewing acquaintances. Led by President Walker and Peter Lander, carrying the First Vermont guidon, the members of the regiment marched to Stannard Post, a mortal hall from where they were escorted to Battery park by all the members of Stannard Post. At the park they acted as an escort to the unveiling party.

Among the members present were: Peter Lander, Company M, Burlington; A. C. Stoughton, Company L, Burlington; T. S. Peck, Company F, Burlington; George L. McBride, Company L, Burlington; S. J. Allen, Company A, Vergennes; S. N. Ballard, Company B, Hyde Park; Levi A. Taft, Company A, Huntington; L. F. Hatch, Company K, Burlington; H. C. Smith, Company A, Burlington; H. P. Jackson, Company M, Westford; George M. Farrington, Company M, Burlington; Alphonso Barrows, Company B, Burlington; John E. McClellan, monument commissioner, Ludlow; H. W. Pratt, Company L, East Berkshire; M. C. Warner, Company F, Proctor; J. Brockway, Company H, Burlington; Alexander Hall, Company A, Shelburne; James A. Davis, Company B, Starksboro; Joseph Berner, Company B, South Burlington; D. C. Walker, Company D, Jeffersonville; T. B. Webster, Company L, Shelburne; Lieut. Jonas T. Stevens, Company I, Hyde Park; Michael Quinlan, Company A, Charlotte; Francis B. Macomber, Company A, Westford; Charles H. Cota, Company B, St. Albans; Orris P. Knight, Company B, North Hero; George W. Brush, hospital steward, Proctor; Clarence D. Gates, adjutant, Burlington; P. M. Edson, assistant surgeon, Roxbury, Mass.

Colonel Myron M. Parker of Washington, D. C., president of the Vermont Cavalry association in 1912, who so ably presided at Gettysburg last July, Lieut. Barney Decker, president of the association in 1914, and 15 comrades of the regiment sent regrets at not being able to be present at the meeting.

WEDDED AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

T. P. McLaughlin and Miss Louise Duque Married Thursday morning.

Miss Louise Duque of Fort Kent and Thomas P. McLaughlin of 27 South Winslow avenue were married in the presence of a few friends and relatives Thursday morning at eight o'clock in St. Joseph's church by the Rev. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for six was served at the Sherwood House. The groom's suit to the best man was a pearl shirt and tie, and the bridesmaid wore a turquoise ring. The couple left on the noon train for New York city, and their honeymoon will be spent there and at Atlantic City. On their return they will make their home in Rutland, with quarters for the present in the Herwick House. The bride was escorted by her father, Mr. J. M. Cleare. The couple were attended by Miss Cora Duque, sister of the bride, and H. J. Fitzgerald of Rutland. Following the ceremony a wedding