reatment.—Mrs. Clyde Richardson of Volcott came Wednesday for a few days tay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. urth of Springfield, Mass., came Tues-ay evening, having engaged for the seaon as trimmer in the millinery parlors of frs. Stella Fulsom.—A large number of cker Chapter members went to Hardvick Tuesday evening and were enter-ained by local chapter men with a clam -Mrs. Esther Fitch went Wednesto Greensboro for a few days' stay d to close her cottages for the winter -Miss Bessie Mayott, who has passed ew weeks here with friends, went Wed-lesday to Manchester, N. H., for an ex-ended stay with relatives.—Mrs. O. G. ended stay with relatives.—Mrs. O. G. Kelly of Waterville came Wednesday for stay of several days at the home of Mr.

HYDE PARK.

Another draft of 25 men is to be made ext week. The examinations will take lace Monday, October 1.—The Rev. W. R. famlin, pastor of the Congregational burch at this place about eight years, as resigned in order to accept a call to he church at North Bennington. He nishes his work here October 15.—Clay nishes his work here October 15.—Clay ter.—G. A. Osha has received a letter tak, who has passed examinations for from his brother, Galen W. Osha, who imission to the army aviation corps, nves soon for Oklahoma, where he will about a month ago. He reports a safe trip, a warm welcome on his arrival, from the inhabitants, a beautiful country, and, better than all, good health. The address eceive instructions,—C. E. Savery is pending a few days at Shoreham.—Wal-Benson, who has been at Old Orchard conday.-Mrs. Harold Waite and daughof Morse's Line are spending a week the home of S. B. Waite,-Miss Badger is attending business colege at Burlington.—Mr. and Mrs. Page Ifford returned Monday from a week's valte and F. P. Hill spent Sunday at forse's Line.—Mrs. A. D. Sampson of Vinsted, Conn., is in town for a few days. W. D. Somerville of New York city is pending a few weeks in town.-Mr. and dette were visitors at Charlotte at Sunday .- Mr. and Mrs. Gernon and aughter, Audrey, have returned to their o at Norwich Coun -A largely atended reception was given the faculty nd students of the L. C. A. at the Con-regational Church Thursday evening.

CADY'S FALLS.

Miss Mildred Seaver, who has passed ourse at Morrisville.—Mrs. Eliza Gris-vold visited her sister, Mrs. A. H. Calay.—George Warren has visited in pringfield, Mass., the past week.—Miss errisburg over Sunday.-The George amily have vacated the Bedell house nd moved to Morrisville.—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Calkins, Frank Calkins and family vere in East Hardwick Sunday.—E. H. Calkins took Miss Helen Whitcomb to the

ORANGE COUNTY

RANDOLPH. trong, and was not able to survive the peration. He is survived by his immediate remains about the same, her condition elatives, one brother and two sisters being far from encouraging. The other wing in town. The body was taken to patients in the home of W. E. Lamson for service and will resign his position. he home Saturday.—The marriage enagement of Miss Alice Reagan, eldest aughter of Mrs. Sarah Reagan of St.

Hans, to Roger Donahue of this place ans, to Roger Donahue of this place announced at a dinner party given the home of Miss Lillian Kennedy in George E. Goodliffe at the parsonage. letter from his brother, Joseph, who is expected that his wound will keep Mrs. Holden's boarding house, s is expected to recover.-The following to serve on the war library reck has been named; Prin. E. G. Ham, J. O'Brien, Dr. H. W. Holden, Miss K. Howe and Miss Desier Moulton, brarian. A canvas is expected by the ng people September 26 ral of the boys who are in servce have been at home for a short stay Robert Chamber, who was ordered to Fort Strong, is now with his parents, and Mrs. W. R. Chambers Mrs. F Peake from Cochituate, Mass., after few days with Mrs. Annie Wedgwood, oft Monday for her home. Miss Mary dgwood, who has been passing with her mother, Mrs. Wedgod, also left for New Haven, Conn. nday, where she has a position in he library .- Miss Mary Conolly, after nd Mrs. Thomas Conolly, returned to resume work in Washingn. D. C., where she has a government -Miss Jennie Bell and mother frs. C. J. Bell, arrived Monday to be he guest of Mrs. E. H. Mason.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beedle of Keene, N. H. Saturday night for an over-night tay with Mr. Beedle's parents, Mr. and Beedle.-Mr. and Mrs phen Cole of North Craftsbury are in town -- Mr. and Mrs. Perins, who have been with Mr. and Mrs C. Buck, for a short visit, went to helsea last week for a few days begoing to Columbus, Ohio,-Miss Cella Gifford and son, John Gifford, come from the farm and the lathas entered school here, while Mis. olia will enter the University of Vernt upon its opening in October expected that her brother Edson Gifwill also enter alled into service before that time .-Col. Israel Converse Chapter, D. A. R. be entertained Saturday at the of Mrs. A. C. Wells, with Mrs. ells and Miss Holden as hostesses .int with a reasonable hope of improvement.—Mr. Bail, a

As a result of the two cases of infantile nday, there has been a quaran-

The funeral was held Sunday have also been ordered closed. This action the school directors, held in the office of Dr. Balley Monday night. The children Eugene Truax and family and Carl Johnwho have the disease are aged three and five years and have never, of course, been to school, yet there are several children in that part of the town who have beer with them who do attend school and this action was taken as a precaution against other cases. It is not known where the disease originated, as the mother and children had not been up town for two weeks, patients of Dr. C. J. Rumrill, who re-Thelma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Lamson, who has been one of the typhoid fever cases, was taken violently ill Monday with appendicitis and was taken to the sanitarium and operated upon for a ruptured appendix at ten o'clock Monday evening.-Henry Hatch, who has been with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hatch, since Sunday night, returned to Fort Strong Monday.-Miss Lura Church went to Montpeller Monday to enter the Methodist Seminary for a year's course of study.—Miss Helen Davis went to Bethel Tuesday.-Mrs. J. F. Tewksbury was in East Braintree Monday to attend the funeral of her uncle, Stearns Hutchin-given for them Is to the American Expeditionary Forces, U. S. Postmaster, New RANDOLPH.

James Rotkovitch, who was among the drafted men who went to Aver

went with the medical corps to France

Mass, was in town for a brief visit Wednesday, leaving the same day for his place of service. While here he secured about $25 towards the purchase of a flag for his regiment, went back happy.-Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee of Enosburg Falls, was in town Tues day having been called here by the death of her father, Mr. Ball, at the Center .- Miss Leta Claffin after a several days' stay with Mr. and Mrs E. I. Claffin left on Wednesday for Boston to visit Miss Anna Farnsworth Bey H E Hinckley went to Richford Tuesday afternoon to attend the Baptist State convention -Mrs. H. H. Grand Isle, has returned Paige went to Burlington Tuesday me and is taking a teacher's training visit her son, Raymond.-Wayne Claffin, who was one of the drafted men in the State of Washington, has been trans dis, last Saturday. Mrs. Griswold, in ferred to this State and has returned to take his examination.—Mrs. Elida isville, expects to leave Friday for Call-Sandspra Glipin of Northfield and her oyed a trip through the Islands Sunday.

Oscar Sherwin of Hardwick spent Monay in town.—Miss Fanny Towie is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ada Smith.—Mea ella Jones took a trip to Newport Sun- main here for a time.-W. A. Jones caught a horned owl in a trap on the ringfield, Mass., the past week.—Miss Jones farm recently. The owl which strude Wilson visited her mother in is very large, was on exhibition in the postoffice Wednesday.—Mrs. Gertrude vicinity.—O. C. Miller of Newport gave Chatfield Wood of Boston, who has an interesting talk for the benefit of the visited her father, D. L. Chatfield, return- Red Cross in the town hall Friday.-Mrs. who has been living in the Charles Wednesday,—Mrs. Nellie Urie spent a Blodgett place on the Center road, was part of last week in Orleans.—Mrs. judged insane and taken to Waterbury It is a singular circumstance that her husband and one son, meeting in Morrisville Monday in the are also inmates of the hospital at interest of conference claimants.—Mrs. Waterbury, having been taken there Ciarence Brewster was a week-end visi-several months ago. For the last year tor in Newport.—Mavis Moody returned Mrs. Raycraft has been in a nervous to Waterbury Thursday after spending state and has been growing worse. Stearns Hutchinson of East Braintree as rushed to the sanitarium Friday and underwent an operation for hernia, rom the effects of which he died at an arly hour Saturday morning. Dr. Angell as summoned to his home, but was not ble to relieve him, and the operation and the sanitarium friday the home of the overseer, A. H. Beedle, testing.—The first lecture of this season's temporarily.—Miss Winifred Richmond went to St. Albans Tuesday to visit the Rev. and Mrs. George W. Smith for Saveral weeks.—A. E. Batchelder and Lawrence Stockwell have sone to Dun. ble to relieve him, and the operation Lawrence Stockwell have gone to Dun-eemed the only alternative. Mr. Hutchin-on was past 80 years of age and not daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lamson.

Miss Eda Bryant and Frank Anderson were married last Wednesday by the Rev. Albans Thursday evening. It is under- Willard Chapman of Westbury, L. L. od that the wedding will take place and Miss Gladys Bruce of Randolph were Donahue is the married at her home last Thursday evetation agent at Randolph.—Mrs. Clinton ning, September 20 by the Rev. George E. dams of Post Mills is passing a few Goodliffe.—Frank T. Ball died Thursday ays here with her brother-in-law, J. B. evening of diebetes. Mr. Ball came to this ms.-Mrs. Myra Bennett after a sev- town several years ago from Addison ral weeks' stay in Strafford, returned county, and bought the Col. John B. aturday.—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Woodard Mead farm, where he had since lived, He m a several days' stay in South has been a great sufferer for years, and oyalton Saturday .- M. Milson has unable to work the past year. The funeral Montpeller this week in con- was held at his late home Sunday afternce with Chairman Hartness of the noon and he was buried in the cemetery conservation committee. Mr. here. Relatives from Burlington and vilson represents this county on this civity attended the funeral.-Commissiontee.-J. F. Flanagan has received er Hillegas was here last week to see about affairs of the agricultural sch been recently wounded in France and which opens next Tuesday, October 2. now in the hospital at Casham, England. As the old dormitory is to be torn down the board of education has hired a part of they will board all students desiring to hire board.-Mrs. Alvord, whose husband recently died, has been moved to her rman; E. A. Thomas, library trustee; and Mrs. Meigs have returned from a two daughter's, Mrs. George Beaudro.-Prof. weeks' vacation, spent with relatives Burlington and Vergennes.

ORLEANS COUNTY

GREENSBORO. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Willey returned Friday from a week's visit to Cambridge and Morrisville.-The boys from the village school went to Hardwick Saturday afternoon to play ball with the boy scouts and got the worst of the game with a score standing 15 to 5.—The Rev. E. C. Hayes, Mrs. Ila Young and Mrs. Mabel Morse attended the Sunday school convention and church anniversary at Barton last week .- Mrs. Katherine Dow of Albany, teacher of the Hazen road school, was taken ill after one week at school and was obliged to cancel her engagement. The pupils are being transported to the village school, it being impossible to find a teacher at this tim went last week to New York with Herbert Terrill, has a position for the fall and winter months .- Mr. and Mrs. Ransome, missionaries to Egypt, are spending a few weeks of their vacation at the lake in one of E. C. Kinney's cottages .-Mrs. Julia Cass of Redland, Cal., is visitand Mary Stimpson, at their cottage by the lake.-Friday evening about 125 persons surprised Mr. and Mrs. Foster Gebtheir home and passed a very pleasant evening in honor of their recent marriage. Refreshments were provided by the ladies' contingent.

NORTH TROY.

Mrs. Hattle Mills, wife of Reuben Mills. iss Almira Fisk, who recently had a died at her home on Elm street Wednes-hock of paralysis, seems to be gaining day, Sept. 19 after a long and painful sickness. The funeral was held at the a residence Friday at two o'clock, the Rev. us farmer at the Center, died William Millar officiating. She leaves be sides her husband; one son, Wilson Mills; her mother, Mary Ann Wilson; two brothers and several sisters.—John Wilkinaralysis which developed in the family of son, manager of the Frontier House, fr. and Mrs. James Hayes, on Park slipped on the stairs Saturday and injured his shoulder.-Miss Ruth E. Annis repaone company. She and her brother, Max son and wife were visiting in Huntington the last of the week.

DERBY.

Mrs. A. B. Hopkinson has just cele-brated her $2nd birthday. Her bodily health is good, and also her eyesight, as she never uses glasses. Unfortunately nearly six years ago she slipped and so far as known had not come in con-and fell on the ice, crushing her right hip, tact with any stranger. The cases are She has had to sit in a chair ever since The training teacher of Derby Academy, Miss Graves, and her mother are house keeping in I. Goochier's tenement. Miss Graves is from Rochester, N. Y.—Super-Intendent Boyd and family of West Charleston attended the freshman reception at Derby Academy. Miss Elanor Dale from Victoria, B. C., and her gater, Marjorle, from Boston, also attended the reception of Derby Academy September 14.—The house, barn and out-buildings of W. B. Robbins & Son were struck by lightning and burned at midnight tember 19. Fifteen cows were also burn-Most of the household goods were also destroyed. The loss is covered by

LOWELL.

Mrs. Frances Jacques has gone to Hyde Park to spend the remainder of month with her daughter, Mrs. A. Clark. -Mrs. Henry Parkhurst and daughter of North Troy visited their mother, Mrs. L. O. Sanborn, last week.-Mrs. C. S. Stewart spent the week-end with her sister in Highgate.-Mrs. Peter Gardner entertained her brother. Peter Ashev, and her niece, Mrs. King, and Mr. and Frank King and son of Essex Center, Sunday,-Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bellrose of Hardwick visited his mother. Mrs. Michell Bellrose, and brother. Bellrose, recently.-Mrs. George 1 accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Coburn, to her home in Worcester where she wil spend a few weeks. Clement and friend of Lebanon, N were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Diette.-Mr. and Mrs. Bodette Start and children of St. Albans spent the week-end with Mrs. Start's father, E. S. Cooledge.-Dr. G. H. Newton and friend, Mr. Hitchcock of Cambridge, called on Dr. Newton's father, H. H. Newton, Monday.-Julius Deblois of Sutton was in town from Saturday till Tuesday looking after his business here.-Mrs. F E. Newton and son Fred of Browning ton, visited Mrs. Newton's daughter Mrs. A. G. Gelo, Saturday and Sunday Fred returned home but Mrs. Newton will remain a few weeks visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stannard are the par ents of a son, born September 23.-Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Newton and son, Robert, spent the week-end in Eden at the ho of Mrs. Newton's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

CRAFTSBURY.

Mrs. Albert Cass from Fair Haven Sadie Robbins,-Mrs. Ella Howard left Tuesday for an auto trip to the Pacific coast .- Dr. Dunton left the first of this week for an auto trip to Boston and Charles Webber is visiting in White River.—The Rev. C. D. Pierce attended the the summer in this town.-Hollis Lathe for service and will resign his position day morning, aged 54 years. She had news has been received of the been in poor health for a number of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Slack at training camps.--Curtis S. Emery Is in Boston on a business trip.-Lee O. Drew of Drew's Specialty Shop is in New York.

NEWPORT.

-Miss Susie French of Cambridge, Mass., is in town, called here by the serious illness of Mrs. French's father, Dr. J. M. Currier.-Dr. J. H. Gaines and T. C. Camp attended the races at Gorham, Me. -H. E. Drown is in Island Pond for few days .- Mrs. Marion Burns, W. H. Halley, Mrs. C. M. Flint and Mrs. Rayfew days' trip to Boston.-Mrs. George B. Young and son, Harold, went to Montpelier on Saturday, after spending the summer at their cottage here. Harold return to Wilbraham Preparatory school.-Mrs. Emily Rowland and daughter, Esther, are visiting friends in town.-Miss Louise Boyle of Derby Line is the guest of Mrs. Sheehe on Cottage street .- Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Black were recent guests of Ex-Congressman Plumley at Northfield.—Harry Jennes resumes his studies at Middlebury College this week. -The Barton Cornet band and the local band exchanged for the Wednesday evening concert. The visitors were entertained at lunch after the concert.-Harry Burgess has returned from a business trip Detroit .- Miss Frances Kay and Mr. time caring for their infant daughter. Walter Barnard of Derby were united in marriage on Wednesday. Mrs. Barnard has taught successfully in our schools They will make their home in Newport.-H. Sherman Peabody M. D. C. M., McGill graduate 1910, comes from Howick, Que., to open an office He will occupy Dr. H. F. Hami ton's house on Pleasant street. Dr. O. B. Gould, the former occupant will move to the house recently vacated by Mrs. Flora Avery.-Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Jr., of Barre, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Blanchard.—The Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Bernard are spending a week in town.-Zenns Blake has left the em ploy of Lee and Slack and has gone to New York to work this winter .- C. McCauley has returned from a trip to Boston and Franklin, Mass .- Dr. and Mrs. Philip Hoffman of White Plains, N. Y. were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Rankin this week.-Members of St. Mary's Church are giving a take her place.-Norman Dufur, who this week at School hall in aid of the Red Cross.-Mrs. Theron Clapper, aged 66, died at her home in Derby, after a long illness. The funeral was held Wednesday morning, in the Advent Church, Rev. A. E. Ames officiating. The burial was in Pine Grove cemetery,-Mr. and Percy Fee and daughter have recousins, the Misses Elizabeth turned from a week's visit with relatives in Boston.-Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis of Laconia, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Brown.-Harold Bowley is in Boston for a week.—Delwin C. coming here from Middlebury, has moved Shepley and family have closed their to Brandon.—J. W. Estey of Whitehall summer cottage and returned to their home in Sheldon Springs,—Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Fuller of Auburndale are guests of Mrs. W. R. and Mrs. E. J. Prouty .-Mrs. Raymond G. Foster of New Hart-ford, Conn., is the guest of Mrs. Willard

BUTLAND COUNTY

Prouty of Second street .- Mrs. Herber

Weeks entertained St. Marks Auxiliary

BRANDON.

C. Watson's string

held at Worcester, Mass., this month— W. A. Beebe of Proctor, county organ-izer for the camp library campaign gave a talk on this subject at the Free Library Monday evening.—Mrs. Alice Sprague and daughter, Ruth, have returned from their cottage at Thomp-son's Point, where they have been spending the summer.—Mr. and Mrs. James H. Whelden have returned from an automobile trip through Massachusetts. They have been absent a week.

John Craigle of Holyoke, Mass., spent Sunday at the home, the Rev. Walter Thorpe.

The Misses Myrtle Severy and Lottie Baker have returned from Burlington, where they spent Friday and Saturday.— Mr. and Mrs. Burt Gipson of Decatur, Ill., Misses Myrtle Severy and Lottle and Mrs. George Gipson of Middlebury visited Mrs. Cora Gipson here Saturday.— Jonas Hathorne has moved from the James Rowe house on Pearl street to the Conroy place on Seminary hill.-Miss Shirley Farr, who has been spending several weeks here at her summer home, left Saturday for her home in Chicago,—Alexander Blanchard, who has been visiting here for several days, has returned to Holyoke, Mass. This is the first visit Mr. Blanchard has made this place since he left here 25 years ago,—The Sons of Vetplay. town hall.-Mr. and Mrs. Hollin McGowan returned no verdict for real damage done of Rochester spent Saturday in town with the plaintiff in the assault and battery.

granddaughter, Mrs. A. D. Wiggin.— F. E. Kingsley has gone to Hyde Park to visit Charles Severy.-W. H. Williams has closed the home bakery and will not re-open it until further notice.—Mrs. George Gipson, who has been visiting drilling make a very creditable show-ing.—The senior and junior high The funeral of Orsola Albano took be nearly completed by that date .day morning, aged 84 years. She had one son, Donald Kilburn of Hubbard- cipal of Montpeller Seminaary. ton, and one step-son, Albert Kilburn rangements have not been made.-The ladies of St. Thomas' Church will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. S. Eastwood, Miss Parmlee, a former missionary in Alaska, will be present and will speak on her work .- Henry Long and daughter mond Sisco, left Tuesday night for a of Chittenden were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Churchill Wednesday. -Fred H. King of Leicester and Miss

Dunmore, where she has been for Alyse M. Benedict of Middlebury were married at the Baptist parsonage last Tuesday evening by the Rev. Charles

F. Eddy .- It is expected that fully 150 land to attend the war meeting of the Greater Vermont association. Through the efforts of the Business Men's asso ciation, arrangements have been made with Company C. V. V. M., to go to

Johnson and Lieutenants Buttles and Ray as officers, to act as escort to the close at noon.—Mrs. A. E. Ritchie has returned from Oscar Schroder's at Lake Rutland 50 men strong with Capt. F.

people will go this afternoon to

BENSON. Arthur G. Bishop and family of Fort Ann came to town Sunday and visited his mother, Mrs. Eunice Bishop of the east part of the town.-Mrs. Van Ness Patnode of Bristol was here the first of the week, a guest at Jerry M. Fowler's .-Miss Harriet Falkenburg and John Callahan were married September 19 by the Rev. R. H. Ball of Fair Haven. Mr. and Mrs. Callaban will reside in Benson, where Mr. Callahan works in Taite Bro's. creamery.-Dr. Jasper P. Newton returned Saturday from St. Albans and Rouses Point, where he has been to visit rela tives .- Miss Helen Green, teacher in the public schools of Montpelier, is visiting Mrs. Jay Roberts. Her home is in Fair Haven.-Two autos had a head-on col lision at the four corners, just east of this village, Sunday, with Levi Munger, Bert Bishop and Scott Keith in one and a stranger in the other. Mr. Munger's car was badly damaged and the three men in his car were more or less hurt. The stranger was unhurt, but Mr. Munger, assuming he was to blame, gave the stranger $50 to settle.—Arthur Graham, who works for W. R. Bush of the Mt. View stock farm, where they have about 100 Jersey cows, is now in Kentucky buying more cows. They have a milking machine and several men taking care of their herd of Jerseys,—George M. Wright, who has been in town two or three years, is in town, a guest at James H. Aiken's premiums at the New England fair which takes place in a short time. Many gifts were presented Miss House. Chester Clark of Waterbury was brought into county court Saturday morning on the charge of breaking the provision his probation, upon a warrant signed by State Probation Officer W. H. Jeffrey, and the sentence which was imposed by county court some months ago for burglary was put in force. The young man goes to the house of correction for eight months.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

MONTPELIER.

H. M. Churchill of the farm extension work of the University of Vermont and County Agent F. H. Abbott commenced work Monday of the scoring of the pigs, calves and lambs in the different chil-dren's clubs in Washington county. dren's clubs in Washington county. They have 15 visitations to make and it will take them most of the week. Harold Bailey and Amos Eaton of the department of agriculture arrived Monday afternoon for a conference with Mr. toes in this county. Mr. Abbott states there will be but a normal crop, although more than double the acreage of a year against Martin Mobbs for $4,000 damages alleged to have been received in July, reerans' Auxiliary presented the play, turned a verdict Thursday for the "A Day in Court," Tuesday evening in the plainting to recover $100 damages, but they morning. There were over 200 regis- as assistant to the superintendent. Mr. tered in the six grades.—Mrs. Alice Wells has been superintendent of the Thomas of Franklin street went last United States Clothes Pin factory here Saturday to Schenectady, N. Y., to visit for several years, but gave up that work Saturday to Schenectady, N. Y., to visit her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hilton.—Mrs. William Wier of Springfield, Mass., is visiting Miss Agnes Barnard for several days.—Miss last spring found guilty of adultery in Washington county court and placed on Fugenia Thomas has returned to Pittsford, where she teaches school after visiting relatives here.—Irving Breed has accepted the position of janitor at the school building and commenced his duties Friday.—Mrs. I. A. Severy has gone to Troy, N. Y., to visit relatives for some time.—Mrs. Albert Andrews in the case was set along in the term prob-tage.

returned to Troy. N. Y., after visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hilton.—Mrs. Sarah Tisdale of North Troy is visiting her flight of the administrator's account, and Putnamville to William Norton of East in the estates of Carroll P. Pitkin and Frank I. Pitkin for the furnishing of additional bonds. Before the hearing Marshal I. Wood by his counsel filed his accounts in these estates in probate court. Mr. Wood has recently complied with the Harriman, who has been in town for sev Mrs. Cora Gipson, went Tuesday even-ing to Proctor to visit relatives for a court's order for the furnishing of bonds few days before returning to Middle- in the Perley P. Pitkin estate by filing therein a bond for $125,000. In the Carroll At the drill of Company C, held Tuesday evening. Capt. F. P. Johnson announced that on account of several of the companies of the Vermont Volunprotected by the bond in the Perley P. P. Pitkin estate it appeared that the adteer regiment not being filled to the Pitkin estate, about $30,000. In the Frank number of men necessary and the un- I. Pitkin estate it appeared that the adsettled weather conditions in October, ministrator has paid out, over and above the encampment of the regiment, which assets received and excluding assets pro- in Boston. This contained seven sweaters, was to have been held at White River tected by the bond in the Perley P. Pitkin Junction next month, had been given estate, over $45,000, and in the last-named home Wednesday .- Mrs. Raycraft, Laura Goodrich returned to Springfield up, but regular drills will be held each estate there is already a bond for $5,000 Friday evening during the winter. The as to which the heirs make no question. company has fifty men and three offi- The court reserved its decision as to the ers, and for the time they have been additional bonds asked for until this morn-> schools will open Monday October 8. It place yesterday. She died Monday is expected that the new building will night at Heaton hospital after a week's Frances Seager, who lives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Buttles, was taken Tuesday to the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington, where she will unput in Burlington in illness of shock. She was getting supper dergo an operation for appendicitis.— here and leaves a husband, Eusebio Al-Lake Dunmore Chapter, D. A. R., held bano, a son, John, of Barre, and daugh-

NEWPORT.

Miss Jeanette Coleman of New York city was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs.

George L. Frost.—E. H. Uran, principal of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school, has been accepted to the state of the graded school and the graded school and the state of the graded school and the graded school and the state of the graded school and graded school a News has been received of the birth of years. She is survived by one daugh- Winthrop, Mass. Mrs. Slack was Nellie ter, Mrs. Vona Briggs of this town, and Swanberg, formerly secretary to the prin-

Miss Gladys Lawrence, daughter of of Walpole, Mass. The funeral ar- Mrs. George Lawrence, and Clarence Bedell were married at nine o'clock Wednesday morning by the Rev. L. O. Sherburne at his home on Main street They were attended by Miss Glenna Bedell, sister of the groom, and Maurice Niles, a friend of both parties. The The bride was gowned in wisteria charm and a hat to match. They left for a wedding trip by automobile, after which they will live in Windsor, where the groom is employed in a machine Both young people were born in Montpelier and graduated from the high They received many gifts. school. shower was given the bride Tuesday aft ernoon at Berlin Corner in Grange hall, where she received many presents Miss Hazel Jock, who was arrested two weeks ago in Burlington upon Grand Juror John Stone's warrant, and who was bound over to Washington county court on the charge of adultery, was brought into city court Wednesday morn Brandon delegation. The stores will ing. ing. She pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to two years in the house of correction. Later she was placed on probation, the statement having been made by Probation Officer C. A. Smith that she was to marry a soldier at Burlington. She left on the evening train. The charge against her was nolle prossed by State's Attorney Davis.

Judge Frank Martin in probate court Wednesday morning made an order in the petitions which were presented to him Tuesday relative to the Carroll and Frank Pitkin estates. Each of these petitions asked for an additional bond. In the first, the bond originally was $40,000 and the order this morning increased it to $90,000, while in the estate of Frank Pitkin the original bond was $5,000, but -day increased to $20,000. It is expected that M. L. Wood, the administrator of the estates, will file these within a short time. A hearing will take place October 24 relative to the accounting in the estate of Perley P. Pitkin. The account was filed Tuesday. The bonds made a total of $235,000 on the three estates

MORETOWN.

Mrs. I. S. Austin and her brother, Morris Dumas, who have been visiting in Burlington the past week, returned home Tuesday.—Those who are to attend the Seminary at Montpeller this term are Paul Johnson and Kenneth Ward .- Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buckley and daughter, Grace, were in Montpeller Sunday .- John Bidgood of Montpelier was in town Tuesday.-Otto Bates and Miss Johnson of Montpeller were guests of Miss Johnson's parents Sunday.-P. E. Griffeth was in East Montpelier Sunday

SOUTH WOODBURY.

What might have been a serious accident occurred Sunday about noon near the home of A. L. Haskell. Webster the nome of A. L. Haskell. Webster Wilbur was driving his motorcycle at such a rate of speed with his nephew, Clarence Wilbur, in the side car that he was unable to make the curve at the top The first meeting of the creditors of Napoleon Rivers of Montpeller and Charles Dobson of Barre city will take place in the office of Referee W. N. Theriault at ten office of Referee W. N. Theriault at ten in an attempt to protect his nephew, steered his car to the opposite side of the road, when it struck a wire fence o'clock the morning of October 3. They were adjudged bankrupts in United States week. out and received a deep flesh wound over the left eye and a fracture of the bone. t, Anonday, there has been a quarant for placed upon the places in town as a turned to Brandon Saturday to resume her placed upon the places in town as a turned to Brandon Saturday to resume her fine Morgan horses from Edgeview shower by the members of Mirror Lake turned Saturday to Rutland, where she premiums, 12 second, and seven third approaching marriage to John Benjamin, at the home of Mr. Haskell. It required several stitches. Later he was taken to his home. His nephew was uninjured. -Miss Ethyle H. Wilbur, youngest daughter of D. C. Wilbur, was united in marriage to Oscar L. Shepard of Hardwick Tuesday evening, September 18, at Barre by the Rev. B. J. Lipsky, pastor of Hedding Methodist Church. The young couple will reside in Hardwick for the present.—Miss Agnes Tassic returned Johnson normal school Monday.

MIDDLESEX.

Charles McDermitt of Boston toured the White Mountains last week and spent Friday night with Judge Wells, Saturday. He motored to Burlington and Rutland, remaining over night in Rutland and going on to Boston Sunday.—The Misses Lucy and Helen Swift were at home for the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Bwift; Miss Lucy from her school in Plainfield and Miss Helen from her school in Milton.—H. Comstock, R. E.—D. carrier is taking his annual vacation, and the mail is being carried by the substitute Ms. Paydenbon.—The tagger. more than double the acreage of a year ago was planted. The frost and rust hit the farms very hard in this section of the fred Raydenbon's.—The Rainy Day club will meet Thursday with Mrs. Albert Tapwill meet Thursday with Mrs. lin.—Orville Wilder returned this week to Lyndon to resume his school work in the re-Vall Agricultural school.—Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Wilder were in Lyndon Sunday to take their son, Orville, to his school,-Mrs. Levi Swift and daughter, Miss Caroline, apent Sunday in Stowe.—The village school opened for the fall term Monday.—

Miss Faith Goddard of Salem, Mass. Miss Faith Goddard of Saiem, Mass., was a guest at the home of H. L. Abbott and Miss Francis last week.—Miss Susie Abbott has returned from her visit with gone to Troy, N. Y., to visit relatives for some time.—Mrs. Albert Andrews has returned to her home in Fair Haven after visiting her father, Moses Duclaw, for a few days.—The Misses Duclaw, for a few days.—The Misses Ada Harvey and Ether Lundahl have returned to Troy, N. Y., after visiting have returned to Troy, N. Y., after visiting Montpeller.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Utton visited relatives in Hardwick last week.— Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dodge of Lyndonville are at the home of Mr. Dodge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dodge.-Frank W Lake, N. Y., was a visitor at the home of his uncle, Charles Cane, last week. The young man was on his way to Camp Devens at Aver. Mass.

WATERBURY.

The local Red Cross shipped Friday a ox of the wool knitting to headquarters 30 mufflers, 39 pair of socks, 17 caps, four helmets and 36 pairs of wristlets. Because of the prolonged quarantine, this is the first box sent from here.—The funeral of Mrs. William Deal was held at her late home Saturday afternoon, the Rev. Verne L. Smith officiating. The bearers were: Walter Banson of Morrisville, L. H. Atherton of Montpelier, B. F. Atherton, John Deul, Walter Deul and William Deul of this town. News of the death of Henry Finn came

Dr. H. D. Hopkins he was well known. Having in care the property during the absence of Dr. and Mrs. Hopkins, he was also part time at the Hopkins farm at Lake Dunmore Chapter, D. A. C., Bano, a son, John C. a son, John C although not feeling well; pneumonia denoon, with burial at the Center. He was He married Bessie Nichols of the Center. who, with two children, survives him. He trip. The groom is a prominent business man, manager of the E. T. Seabury Est. grain dealers, a member of one of the uine sorrow Thursday morning. Always marsh, a resident of this vicinity, her life had Cady's. een closely interwoven with that of the community while in her own home one has gone who has not only mothered her own children but trhose of her son as vell. Asenath Marshall was born in Duxbury May 3, 1837, the daughter of Chester and Chloe (Atherton) Marshall. On November 2, 1856, she was married to William Deal, their home having been for years on Main street. Of late years she had been closely confined there because of the coming into her home of the children of her son, to whom she had gladly given herself. She is survived by her husbar and two children, Tenie, wife of Clark Roberts of Montpeller, and John of this town, also six grandchildren. Services were held from her late home Saturday aftrnoon at two o'clock .- Mrs. W. L. Bolcourt received Thursday a calegram from her husband to the effect that he was safe and well and work had

The South Duxbury Congregational Sunday school will observe rally day next Sunday at 1:30. Every one is cordially invited to attend. A special collection for the Sunday school will be taken at this time. Preaching service at 2:30. The Dorcas society connected with this church had a delightful time at the home of Charles Louzelle yesterday afternoon and Vermont Copper company and its sub-evening.—The following solicitors have sidiary, the Sharon Power company. Mr een engaged by the war library committee to collect Waterbury's apportionment for the fund: Miss Bertha Joslyn, chairman; Henry F. Hill, R. J. Edwards, D. C. Jones, Mrs. W. H. O'Brien, Mrs. Mr. Evans.—Visitors in town this week E. A. Stanley, Mrs. W. F. Davis, E. E. are George M. Howe and Paul Howe, the Campbell, Mrs Martin Chaffee, Miss Lena Clair, Mrs. E. T. Houston, Professor natives of Sharon, sons of the late Mr. Rheimer, Dr. O'Neil, F. W. Powers, Fred and Mrs. Mariot G. Howe. The brothers Burt Webster, Mrs. Clair, Webster, Webster, Wallace, Mrs. W. J. O'Neil, Dr. J. F. Davis, H. R. Pike, Frank Dibbell, Mrs. are guests of their sisters, Mrs. M. C. Burt Webster, Mrs. Clair Moody, Mrs. Noyes and Mrs. George B. Droien, and Henry Stone, Mae Green, Mrs. Hiram brother-in-law, Charles A. Mosher—Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Homer Freeman, Mrs. W. J. J. H. Waldo of Royalton, is the guest LeBaron, Henry Murray, Mrs. J. W. of her mother, Mrs. Vilora Flower,—A. Owens, Miss Sarah Graves and A. H. union rally day of the Congregational LeBaron, Henry Murray, Mrs. J. Smith .- The family of Walter Irish were in Westford Sunday, making the trip a not far distant date.-Walter Flower, with Harry Irish in his car.-The appor- a former resident, now of Lynn, Mass. tionment of the 20 per cent. State tax is and an enlisted soldier, is in town from given out in the papers as $911.64 for Duxbury and $3,260.22 for Waterbury. It is for the purpose of voting how this money shall be paid in Duxbury that the adjourned special town meeting is held one week from Monday, October 8, at WHITE RIVER JUNCTION. One of the series of 14 group meetings of the Vermont conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to consider and act upon the proposed ministerial endownent fund of $200,000 was held in the Methodist Episcopal Church Thursday afternoon and evening. At the afternoon session there was a round table disrussion under the direction of District Superintendent Rev. Dr. Sharp of St Johnsbury. At six o'clock a banquet was served in the vestry by the women of the church. At the post-prandial exercises James A. Stacey presided. A. L. Palmer of Windsor spoke on "Pensions, Their Origin, Purpose and Justification."

WINDSOR COUNTY

State's Attorney W. S. Pingree's topic was "Give Our Pastors a Pension."
Leonard D. Wheeler's topic was, "The Church as a Working Organization." The Rev. Dr. Sharp complimented the women for their excellent repast and the presiding officer and speakers. The formal evening session opened in the church auditorium at 7:30 with Scripture reading by the Rev. Benjamin T. Harrison of Windsor and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hazelton of Brownsville. The formal ad-dress was by the Rev. Dr. Oliver Ford of Springfield, Mass., superintendent of that district. Incident to the evening pro-gram were selections by the local Kenmawr trio and a vocal solo by Leroy Neal. The Rev. Dr. George H. Sisson.

pastor of the church, presided. A marriage was solenmnized in White River Junction Monday afternoon was that of Miss Rita Zeh of Albany, N. Y., and Corporal John H. Farrell of the reg-ular army and now on duty at the local his cottage at Lake Dunmore, have returned to Bethlehem, Pa.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Walker of Troy, N. Y., spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives.

School opened in the first six grades of the graded school here Monday morning. There were over 200 registed. shipment to Ohio. His purchases were made in Windsor and Orange counties and in the towns of St. Johnsbury and Hard wick.

Lloyd K. Beaulac is at home after an extended visit in Burlington. Accom-panying him on his return trip were his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Westover, and daughter, Helen, of Montreal.-Sergeant Stanley Sargent, now with the vermont troops at Camp Devens, West-field, Mass., was at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sargent, Friday. He received his promotion from the ranks

The Debating society of the Hartford high school has a strong team, and would like to hear from other clubs in Vermont. Address the secretary, Lewis Powers, Box 2, White River Junction

BETHEL. The funeral of Fayette Greene of Roy-lton, aged 69 years, was held Friday in the Bantist Church at East Bothel, with interment in the cemetery at that village, the Rev. J. Wesley Miller officiating. Mr. Greene died in the Randolph sanitarium September 19, two weeks after a serious operation. He is survived by his wife and one sister. Miss Hortensia Greene, whose home was with her brother on the farm in Royalton. family is one of the oldest in this sec tion and there are many relatives and connections. The funeral was well at-tended.—Mrs. J. H. Atchinson of Morrisville accompanied her daughter, Miss Luella Atchinson, from Morrisville last Friday and is a guest at A. N. Wash-burn's.—The Rev. Frederick R. Dixon has entered the junior year at Dartmouth College.-Miss Mary Keleher has entered Trinity College, Washington, D. C.-Miss Charlotte Fisher is studying at Bay Path Institute, Springfield, Mass.-Osman F. Godfrey died at his home in East Bethe September 20, after a brief illness with pneumonia. A prayer at the house or Sunday by the Rev. George S. Smith was followed by funeral services at as a great surprise to people Monday. South strafford, his former home. Mr. Having been employed for sometime by Godfrey came in the early days of the several years as carpenter at the quarries, but later opened a wheelwright and general repair shop at East Bethel, which has been a great convenience in that locality. He was an active member of veloped and he died Monday morning. the Baptist Church. He served several Services were held Tuesday after- years as lister. He is survived by his wife, who was Rose Clogston, and three born in Greenfield, Mass., 31 years ago. daughters, Mrs. C. W. Titus, Mrs. C. N. Lamphere and Miss Carrie Godfrey.-John LaRock, aged 85 years, died Sunday mornalso leaves one sister, Mrs. Hoar of Win-chendon, Mass., and one brother, Michael His health had been poor for severa Henry Finn of Connecticut.—Mr. and Mrs. years. He came here with the family William H. Seabury are now on their way of his daughter, Mrs. John B. Miner, four to Kansas City, Mo., on their wedding years ago, from Worcester, Mass., but the greater part of his life in St. Albans, Born in St. William, December 4, 1831, he came to this State oldest families. The bride, Mrs. Annie 52 years ago. His wife, whose maiden Norton Durkee, is the daughter of Mr. and name was Josephine Woods, died 22 years Mrs. George Norton, formerly of this ago. Besides his daughter, he is sur-town, now of Morrisville. For the past few vived by five grandchildren, Arthur J years she has been head saleslady in the Miner of Worcester, Mass., Josephine, L. J. Morton store at St. Albans. The Eva, Celia and Leona Miner of this bride and groom are old-time friends and place, Josephine being employed in New and neighbors and after their return will York city. The funeral was held reside for the present at the Seabury in the Catholic Church at Randolph home. Monday, the Rev. M. S. O'Donnell News of the death of Mrs. William officiating.-Mrs. M. H. Collins of Rut-Deal, in the night, was received with gen- land, well known as Elizabeth Whitmarsh, is a guest at the Hon. A. Her step-son, Edward Collins. who was a Senate messenger at the 1915 session of the Vermont Legislature, enlisted in the navy last spring and is now on the U. S. S. Georgia, greatly enjoying his work, though but 16 years of age is studying under the chaplain for admission to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.-The district board has certified Harold W. Hasking to the adjutant-general as a member of the new national army. He is principal of Whitcomb high school, which is now enjoying the best attendance in its his tory, and is in a high state of efficiency, A reception in his honor on Thursday evening is being arranged for and the invitation is to the general public .- The Sethel Library association is engaged in a thorough canvass of the village for contributions to the million-dollar fund being raised by the library war council The agents of the canvass are a dozen members of the junior class of Whitcomb high school who accepted the appointment of the central committee Monday morning and will go in pairs by districts and will report to Guy Wilson, treasurer

SHARON. An important real estate transaction is the sale of the Eugene Evans farm to H. M. Sumner, resident agent of the Sumner takes posession November 1. Mr. Evans has bought the 250 acres estate of the late Judge Charles H. Maxham in South Pomfret, and the former home of former from Orin, Wyoming, and the lat-ter from Crawford, Nebraska. Both are Church and Sunday schol is probable at the Westfield, Mass., camp.

SOUTH ROYALTON.

C. T. Southgate expects to go to Groton to work in the station for a few days, after which he will return to his position in the Wells River station at Harre.—Adrian E. Holmes, assistant principal of the high school, has the mumps and Murray Ellis is substituting for him in school.-A reception for the new teachers will be held in the high school hall this evening.-A concert for the benefit of the Red Cross will be given in the Methodist Episcopal Church next Wednesday evening.