The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Metcalf was fittingly observed at their home on the afternoon and evening of March 15 with a large attendance of friends and relatives. Levi P. Metcalf was born in Underhill June 17, 1843. and his wife, Mary Kirby, was born on October 11 of the same year. Their early married life was passed on a large farm n Underhill, from which they moved to the village in May, 1911. Five sons came to gladden their home, all of whom are married, and there are eight grandchildren. In the afternoon some of the oldtime friends were present. Those from away were W. H. Metcalf of Williston, Ira Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Doon and Henry Carpenter of Cambridge. Mr. and Mrs. William Chapin of Essex and Mrs. Mary Pope of Jericho. Light refreshments were served and the visit was most enjoyable. Music was furnished by Lena Metcalf. With the evening, troops of friends came who filled the commodious house to its full capacity. Mrs. Homer Metcalf and family of Essex and family of Burlington, Robert Metcalf of Maine and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Metcalf and Lynn Metcalf of Williston and Mr. and Mrs. Wright Colgrove of Burlington. After a social evening and the renewal of old was rendered. A piano solo by Lena Metcaif was followed by a reading by Mrs. Laura Metcalf, recitation by Fred Metcalf, song by Dorothy and Stanley by Mrs. McKeefe and Pettit, readings Foster, duet by Mrs. Ballard and Metalf, reading by Mrs. Thorp and remarks by the Rev. Mr. Sturgess, with singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by all. Cards and letters of congratulation were eceived from friends far and near. The ifts were numerous and valuable and testified to the esteem in which they are held by their friends. n gold was presented by their five sons. and $5.00 in gold by each of the follow-E. J.
