

The marriage of Frances Ellen Ward, daughter of Frank Ward, to Everett Menard, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Menard of Main street, was solemnized at St. Mary's Church yesterday morning at eight o'clock, the Rev. J. J. Boyce officiating. The bride was escorted by the groom's brother, Arthur Boston, organist of the church, played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the professional and the Mendelssohn march as the recessional. The bride was becomingly attired in a brown tulle gown trimmed with many rows of black lace and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Miss Genia Arkinson was bridesmaid and was crowned in a tulle colored velvet suit with hat to match. She carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums. Mr. Menard had as best man his brother, Frank H. Menard. The ushers were John Ward of this city and Charles Powers of Philadelphia, Pa. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast and reception were held at the home of the bride, Mrs. Charles Moore caterer. Patrons and friends formed the decorations for the affair. During the reception several musical selections were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Menard received many gifts. They have gone on a week's wedding trip to Boston on their return to be held at 20 North street. They will be at their home to their friends after December 1. Mrs. Menard has for several years been employed as supervisor in the Franklin County Telephone Exchange. Mrs. Menard is a graduate of Albany Business College. He is a World War veteran having been a member of the Sixth Division in France and served ten months in the Army of Occupation at Coblenz, Germany.

Committal services for Mrs. Cecelia W. Pierce, who died Sunday evening at her home in Melrose, Mass., took place yesterday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at the family lot in Greenwood cemetery, the Rev. Richard E. Armstrong, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, officiating. Robert James, brother of Mrs. Pierce, and Mrs. George Douglas of New York. News has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boss of West Lebanon, N. H. Mrs. Boss was formerly Miss Sarah Menard, wife of the late Mr. Menard. Mr. and Mrs. Flurry, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flurry, died yesterday morning at 8:45 o'clock after an illness of six weeks. The funeral will be held at Holy Angels' Church Friday morning at nine o'clock. The Rev. J. J. Boyce officiating. Burial will take place in Mount Calvary cemetery. Besides her parents, she is survived by two brothers, Frederick and Wilfred.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Elizabeth L. Goss, daughter of John Henry Goodrich, which took place in Hartford, Conn., November 8. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur E. Bullis of St. Albans Bay. She is a graduate of St. Albans high school, in the class of 1918. She is now a teacher in the school for teachers in 1918. Charles H. Ellis left yesterday morning for Los Angeles, Calif., where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Percival, who have been spending the winter at their home in the Bay, left yesterday morning for New Smyrna, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

BAKERSFIELD
The annual meeting of the N. E. M. P. A. was held Thursday evening at the home of L. A. Pierce as president; Ernest Hubbard, vice-president; F. W. Leach, secretary and treasurer. The surplus milk situation was discussed. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marcotte motored to Belvedere Sunday, where they will spend the winter. Mr. J. Marcotte, the Rev. Mr. Campbell, worker for the Near East Relief, preached at the Methodist Church Sunday. Miss Marlon Cowan, who has been teaching in Greenfield, Mass., has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marcotte, who have been in town for two weeks, has returned to Washington, D. C.

SWANTON
E. M. Brunette, an old and respected resident of Swanton, died at his home on York street Sunday evening October 31 after a long illness with hardening of the arteries. Mr. Brunette was born in Canada over 81 years ago. He was selectman for several times and town treasurer for over 20 years. His funeral was held at the church of the Nativity November 3 at nine o'clock, the Rev. J. J. Boyce officiating. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Word was received here November 3 of the death of George W. Fowler at the St. Albans hospital, where he had been taken for medical treatment. The result of the balloting for town representatives was: E. T. Brady, Republican, 54; P. J. Audette, Democrat, 46.

Miss Mary Dalknaut of Swanton and Alfred Beaulieu of Highgate were married Wednesday November 4 at a Catholic church in Swanton. The Rev. Father Nicola performed the ceremony. After a brief wedding trip the couple will reside in Highgate. At the annual meeting of the N. E. M. P. A. held in the library hall Wednesday November 3 the following officers were elected: President, George Heron; vice-president, Charles Sibley; secretary and treasurer, R. D. M. Beebe; delegates to the county meeting to be held in St. Albans November 17 are as follows: G. H. Heron, Charles Sibley, Edith Trott, Mrs. A. Skeels, Myron Donaldson and Ham Castaw. R. D. M. Beebe was elected as delegate to the Boston convention in January 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rockwell were in Burlington Sunday. Mr. Rockwell is a member of the St. Albans Baptist church. Hazel, over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Smith were the guests of friends in Burlington over Sunday. J. O. Russell is spending several weeks at the home of his son in Bridgport, Conn. Mrs. Sarah Dunton received word of her sister's death in Sheldon Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jennison of Sheldon were Swanton visitors Sunday. Hollis Sunderland and family were at Cortes Louder in Highgate Sunday. The Rev. J. J. Boyce will officiate at the annual meeting of the N. E. M. P. A. at the junior rooms on Church street this afternoon. Mrs. S. A. Caldwell will have charge of the service and Marion Downey will be the junior leader. Mrs. J. J. Boyce will be the junior leader. Mrs. J. J. Boyce will be the junior leader.

FAIRFAX
The district Sunday school convention will meet in the Baptist Church Saturday of this week at 10:30 a. m. There will be a forenoon and afternoon session. Speakers from out of town will be present. All are invited. An invitation to the Sunday school on Friday evening has been given. Dinner will be served to the out of town guests. Delegates will be free to everyone. Ex-Lieut. Gov. C. H. Stearns, representative of Johnson and Postmaster R. H. Joyce of Johnson called on Representative G. L. Butler November 7. Dr. Griswold and family have moved to Hyde Park. Their many friends regret their leaving town. William Pons expects to go this week to Connecticut to visit with his daughter. Mrs. Myrtle Chichester, Arthur Blennerhassett of St. Albans was in town November 7. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bevins of Georgia visited Mrs. Bevins' sister, Mrs. Glenn Parris, Sunday. The Vermont State Normal school at Ferrisburgh, Mass., will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. D. Shepardson. Miss Beulah French spent the week-end with her sister in Sheldon. Mrs. E. L. Vincent has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Buckley, in Burlington. The Rev. and Mrs. Arthur, and family, visited in Burlington. The Baptist Missionary society met Wednesday afternoon in the vestry of their church. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellows of Cambridge visited their son, Hubert Bellows, and family Sunday. Mrs. Bellows visited her daughter in Burlington recently. Mrs. Armina Curley has gone to Waterbury to pass the winter with her son, Roscoe Curley, and wife.

ENOSBURG FALLS
At the evening service today at St. Mathew's church, the Rev. S. H. Watkins of Burlington and other clergymen will be present and speak on the nationwide campaign. All members of the parish as well as others are earnestly requested to attend this service to get a better understanding of the movement. The local N. E. M. P. A. held its annual meeting in Perley hall Tuesday evening. B. E. Wilder was re-elected president and H. W. Towle elected secretary-treasurer. B. E. Wilder was elected rector of the church to be held in Boston in January. Mr. Davis of Boston, representing the N. E. M. P. A., and Mr. Rowe of New York for the Nestle's Food company, held a discussion as to price to be paid for milk for November. The Ladies Auxiliary of St. Mathew's church held a successful sale and chicken-pie supper at the parish house Wednesday afternoon and evening. Mrs. Alma Avey returned to her home in Richmond Wednesday after passing several days in the home of her brother, P. C. Hammond.

WEST ENOSBURG
Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Houghton and Miss Mary Houghton visited their sister, Mrs. Wallace Hall, at Enosburg Falls, N. Y., Sunday. Mrs. Houghton is visiting her brother in Boston, Mass. Elmer Norway has gone to Glens Falls, N. Y., where he has employment.

SHELDON
Mrs. Carl D. Loverin, who has been in failing health for nearly a year, died early Tuesday morning of heart trouble with complications. The deceased was 48 years old and is survived by her husband and one daughter, Louisa, also by one sister, Mrs. Sarah Dunton, of Swanton, and three brothers, Edward Whitehead, Newell Whitehead, and George Whitehead. The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. Whitehead, 20 Elm street, at 1:30 o'clock. The Rev. P. F. Frisbie officiated and burial was in the village cemetery. Mrs. Loverin was a member of the church of the Nativity in St. Albans, county health officer, was in town Thursday. Mrs. J. O. Kimball of Enosburg Falls was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Trudeau, Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tilton, of New York, were in town Saturday and Sunday. The annual meeting of the Earnest Workers' class of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the home of Miss Mayne Read Friday evening, November 12. Every member of the class is requested to be present. Evelyn Trudeau, who is ill with diphtheria, is doing well.

RICHFORD
A very pretty and quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vincent, 20 Elm street, on Sunday, October 29 at three o'clock, when their son, Harry U. Brewer, was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Powers, daughter of Mr. R. Powers. The Rev. George Pomfrey, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated. The bride wore a gown, performed the marriage ceremony. They received gifts of silver and money. They will reside in Port Limon, Costa Rica, where Mr. Brewer has a position in the merchandise department of the National Bank of the Republic. Mr. Brewer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Leon Gibson November 1.

W. B. Greene, has gone to Boston on a business trip in connection with the Richard Garment company. The district meeting of the Eastern Star, No. 31, Order of the Eastern Star, at the regular meeting last Thursday evening. There were present district deputy grand matron, Mrs. Jennie Miller, and district secretary, Mrs. E. E. Weld, also a large delegation from Highgate, Que. Including the worthy matron, Mrs. Gardner and worthy patron, Dr. Downing; also Dr. and Mrs. Blake of Waterloo, Que. There were also present Mrs. E. E. Weld, and Mrs. W. J. Hicks started Thursday for Ontario, Calif., where they expect to reside during the winter months. The funeral of Edwin H. Rockwell, who died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Rockwell, Friday afternoon and the burial was in Montgomery. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Peavey of Manchester, N. H., were recent guests of the Rev. J. J. Boyce. Mr. Peavey of Troy street, Mrs. J. E. Van Antwerp of Vancouver, B. C., who has been visiting relatives and friends in this place, has gone to Montreal where she will pass two weeks before returning to her home. Mrs. Peavey will be in Swanton home from a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in New York and Lowell, Mass. The Ladies of St. Ann's Guild are making plans to hold a supper and sale of gifts the first week in December. Letters received during the past week from Capt. A. J. Merrill and daughter, Mrs. R. M. Pelton, announce their safe arrival at St. Petersburg, Fla. and their plans to spend the winter in Florida. A cross call is to be held during the two weeks commencing November 11, Armistice Day, and ending the 25, Thanksgiving Day, both inclusive.

Albert Ayer of Montreal visited at the home of his sister-in-law Mrs. Mattie Campbell, of School street over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hawley returned home Saturday from a few weeks visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Brown, and sons Raymond Hawley, in Billings, Montana. The Atlas Sales Co. has moved the office from this place to Boston for the winter months and have transferred the office clerks, R. M. Buck and Miss Margaret Gardiner, to that office. The Rev. George Pomfrey is coming to Westford where he will assist in a series of meetings to be held in the Baptist church in that place for two weeks. The Rev. W. W. White of Westford will preach in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

HIGHGATE CENTER
An "anniversary dance" will be given by Wilsey Rebekah Lodge, No. 16, I. O. O. F., in Foresters' hall on Friday evening. Felton's orchestra will furnish music and a buffet lunch will be served. The dance will be held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Boyce in Highgate Center. Mrs. Jennie Lemhan has returned home from St. Albans, where she has been the past ten days. Mrs. Martha Vosburgh is in Franklin visiting relatives.

HILL WEST
Mrs. Calyx Combs visited a few days last week at William Hurbut's. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. T. Borthwick and four children went to Montreal Friday for a few days' stay. William Rushford of Nitro, Va., has been visiting his brother, Charles Rushford, and mother, Mrs. Salina Rushford, for a few days. George Hart has returned to Burlington from Wetherby's house. Mr. and Mrs. Richard, visited at Jack McGrath's in Sheldon Sunday. W. J. McGrath was at H. M. Sylvester's Sunday and Monday.

EAST FRANKLIN
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Campbell have started for Florida, where they will pass the winter. Mr. and Mrs. R. Olmstead and Mr. and Mrs. B. Olmstead were in St. Albans Nov. 2. The Ladies Aid Women's Christian Temperance Union met with Mrs. Laura Olmstead Saturday afternoon. The pupils in the Hammond district enjoyed a Halloween party Friday, Oct. 29. Lunch was served, Halloween patterns enjoyed, and a small admission fee charged to buy things for the school room.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pomeroy, Mrs. Bertha Moore and Mrs. E. W. Olmstead were in Burlington Monday. John Broe visited at Abbotts Corner, Que., and returned to Burlington. A guest Sunday of N. E. Broe, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Young and daughter of Berkshire were at the home of J. H. Glidden, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Young of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Young of Burlington, and Mrs. M. M. Young of Lehigh, were in town Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Young of Berkshire were at the home of Charles Lark, Sunday. Gerald, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Garrett has been ill, also Lorraine, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Willard. The annual Thanksgiving offering of the Women's Home Missionary Society was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gilbert.

FLETCHER
At the Grange Friday the gentlemen will give the entertainment and serve a very good dinner. The Rev. J. J. Boyce will officiate. The Rev. J. J. Boyce will officiate. The Rev. J. J. Boyce will officiate.

At the Grange Friday the gentlemen will give the entertainment and serve a very good dinner. The Rev. J. J. Boyce will officiate. The Rev. J. J. Boyce will officiate. The Rev. J. J. Boyce will officiate.

EAST BERKSHIRE
The Rev. Stanley Cummings of St. Albans spoke Sunday afternoon in the Congregational church on the Congregational world movement and its relation with the interdenominational movement. Mrs. J. J. Boyce was in town Sunday. Mrs. J. J. Boyce was in town Sunday.

MORRISVILLE
The Misses Barbara Davison and Myrtle Blair of the People's Academy Sunday were guests from Friday night until Sunday. Mrs. J. J. Boyce was in town Sunday. Mrs. J. J. Boyce was in town Sunday.

GEORGIA
The home of Mrs. Frances H. Wilber was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday afternoon, November 5, at three o'clock, when her youngest daughter, Laura, was united in marriage to Sanford Curtis Prouty of Swanton. The ceremony took place under an arch of bitter sweet and evergreen and was performed by the Rev. E. Wilson Day, pastor of the Congregational church at Swanton. The bride wore a gown of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid wore a dress of pink organdy and carried pink chrysanthemums. Only the immediate families witnessed the ceremony. After the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served, the color scheme in the dining room being gold and white. The happy couple left by auto amid a shower of rice and confetti for a short wedding trip after which they will reside in Swanton. The men of the church this evening gave a supper at the church this evening. Congressman Frank L. Greene spoke and a male quartet from St. Albans furnished music. Miss Mary Dyer has returned to her home in Sutton, Que. and will be in Swanton for the annual banquet of the Banner No. 25, was held at the town hall Friday evening, November 5. About 175 were present and it was a most enjoyable and successful affair. The Hon. E. S. Brickley, of Montreal, Florence Gros and Dorothy Marska from Richmond spent Sunday at their home. G. Royce Kenfield is working in G. L. Nichols mill. G. A. Norton has moved his family from Broomfield, P. O. into St. M. Wright's tenement. Fred Jacobs has moved his family to the farm which he purchased a year ago of W. V. Phelps.

ENOSBURG
The harvest supper held Friday evening was attended by 81 people and the net proceeds was $22. Mr. and Mrs. P. Wright and children spent the week-end at Mrs. Wright's father's, C. H. Straton, Enosburg Falls. Mrs. Ernest Bordo is helping Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gross are spending some time in Montreal. Florence Gros and Dorothy Marska from Richmond spent Sunday at their home. G. Royce Kenfield is working in G. L. Nichols mill. G. A. Norton has moved his family from Broomfield, P. O. into St. M. Wright's tenement. Fred Jacobs has moved his family to the farm which he purchased a year ago of W. V. Phelps.

Grand Isle County
GRAND ISLE
Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Anderson of Chazy, N. Y., visited friends in town last week. Mrs. Reynolds is spending some time with relatives in Wilmington, N. Y. Mrs. Martha Darling returned her home in Georgia Sunday after spending some time with relatives here. A harvest supper will be held in the Grand hall by Representative-elect William Grant Wednesday evening. The Ladies Aid will meet with Miss Candace Macomber to-day. Dinner will be served. Remember the school play for the benefit of the library on Friday evening. The Epworth League will meet at the parsonage Saturday evening. Services at the church will be as follows: Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m., Bible school at 11:30.

ALBURG
At the regular meeting of Columbia Chapter, No. 38, O. E. S., held at the Chapter rooms Tuesday evening, the district deputy grand matron, Mrs. M. E. Fifield, of South Hero, and the district deputy grand patron, E. George Evans, were present for their annual visitation. Mrs. Addie F. Allen of Milton, grand matron, was also a guest of honor as well as other visitors from neighboring lodges. The degrees of the order were conferred. The degrees of the order were conferred. The degrees of the order were conferred.

Joseph B. McKinley, who received 328 votes out of the 347 cast for representative here Nov. 2 has forged ahead during his short residence in Stowe. Coming only six years ago he is a member of the board of selectmen, is acting as overseer of the poor, is chairman of the Republican town committee, is president of the Lamolle county N. E. M. P. association, and also of the Lamolle County Farm Loan association which he helped to organize and of which he became the first president. Mr. McKinley was born in Clayton, N. Y., on the farm purchased by his father in 1823 and now owned by a brother of Mr. McKinley's, the farm now containing 100 acres. Mr. McKinley is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y., which he managed for several years. Mr. McKinley is now operating in Canada, where he has been since he entered the employ of the Seaman-Kent Lumber company at Toronto, Ont., becoming yard manager of their Port William branch, handling about 100,000 feet of lumber annually. Mr. McKinley's wife, Mrs. W. W. McKinley, was born in Clayton, N. Y., and is 29 years less than a century. He was educated in the common and village schools and began teaching at the age of 16. At 19 he became a commercial traveler. Three years later he entered the employ of Chandler & Thorndike, a firm of Ogdensburg, N. Y., remaining with them 10 years. He then acquired an interest in the Chandler & Jones Lumber company of Ogdensburg, N. Y