

CITY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Winterbottom are the parents of a son, Armand Walter, born Armistice Day.

Thomas Donlin, who was on Monday arrested on a charge of intoxication, was Tuesday morning brought into City Court and was sentenced by Judge Ladd to pay a fine of $15 and costs of $7.45.

Henry Hale, soldier from the War Savings Stamps Appeal Post, going to House of Correction, besides paying stiff fine, for operating an automobile while intoxicated.

Henry Hale, soldier from the War Savings Stamps Appeal Post, going to House of Correction, besides paying stiff fine, for operating an automobile while intoxicated.

Henry Hale, soldier from the War Savings Stamps Appeal Post, going to House of Correction, besides paying stiff fine, for operating an automobile while intoxicated.

Advertisement for 'The Old Fashioned' featuring women's suits, gloves, stockings, and hosiery. Includes text: 'A Move Toward Lower Prices', 'Women's Union Suits 1.98', 'Women's Kid Gloves 2.50 pr.', 'Brown Lisle Hosiery 50c pr.', 'Best Quality Outings 25c yd', 'Yard Wide Outings 39c yd', 'Women's Half Linen Initial Handkerchiefs', 'Percales—Ginghams—29c yd', and 'OBITUARY' section.

Verdict for the defendant was brought in Saturday morning by the jury in the County Court case of Clayton J. Burke vs. Antoine Potvin.

Verdict for the defendant was brought in Saturday morning by the jury in the County Court case of Clayton J. Burke vs. Antoine Potvin.

Verdict for the defendant was brought in Saturday morning by the jury in the County Court case of Clayton J. Burke vs. Antoine Potvin.

Verdict for the defendant was brought in Saturday morning by the jury in the County Court case of Clayton J. Burke vs. Antoine Potvin.

Verdict for the defendant was brought in Saturday morning by the jury in the County Court case of Clayton J. Burke vs. Antoine Potvin.

Verdict for the defendant was brought in Saturday morning by the jury in the County Court case of Clayton J. Burke vs. Antoine Potvin.