OTHER TELEGRAPHIC MATTERS.

Dolph Gets There.

PORTLAND, OREGON, Oct. 24.—Jos. W. Dolph, republican, has been elected senator from Oregon after a long fight.

Texas Gets a Shake.

GALVESTON, Oct. 24.—The News Paris special says: "A shock of earthquake was felt yesterday at 5 p. m. The shock was felt plainly."

Twenty-Five Miles More Accepted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The president today accepted another twenty-five miles of the Northern Pacific railroad in Montana coming east.

This Does Settle It.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—The chairman of the republican central committee of Pennsylvania, expresses the opinion that Gen. Beper will be elected.

Report Submitted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—The quartermaster general of the army submitted to the secretary of war his report for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1882.

Missed His Mark.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 24.—Wm. Preen shot at Carrie Warner, a woman of bad reputation, with whom he was riding in a carriage, to-night, missing her. He shot himself in the breast, probably fatally.

Rapid Transit.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The Japan minister and suite, and the minister to Vienna, arrived in this city to-day, after a journey of twenty-two days and nineteen hours from Yokahama. This is the quickest time on record.

A Division in the Camp.

FARGO, Oct. 24.—The Argus is said to regret to see a division among the good people of Traill county, and the advocacy of two separate county tickets. There are good men on both sides, but diversified interest seems to have overcome party lines, and politics waxeth warm over them.

Shaken by an Earthquake.

WICHITA, KAN., Oct. 24.—An earthquake occurred at this point at nineteen minutes past four o'clock, Jefferson City, Mo., time, yesterday. The duration of the phenomenon was about five seconds. There were three pulsations, the first being strongest, rattling windows and moving furniture in houses.

Attempted Assassination.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—An attempt was made to assassinate Milan, at Belgrade on the 23rd inst. The King's assailant is the widow of Col. Jeffery Markawiter, who was executed with several others, in May 1872, by order of Milan. It is suspected that the attempt is not attributable to revenge, but was made partly from political motives.

Dakota Politics.

BISMARCK, Oct. 24.—Yesterday telegrams from Hon. Geo. H. Hand and Ex. Gov. Pennington, promising to make speeches in all the leading southern Dakota counties during the campaign, and in the interest of a North Dakota candidate, John B. Raymond. It is not generally known that neither of the gentlemen named was an original Raymond man, and their prompt and favorable response to a request to assist in the campaign will be especially gratifying to the friends of Capt. Raymond, and will add not a few to the already large list of north Dakota friends of the secretary and ex-governor.

Best in the Northwest.

BISMARCK, Oct. 24.—The finishing touches are being put on the elevator and the machinery placed in position. A well known wheat man who spent Saturday in the city said it was one of the best elevators in the northwest.

Boynston's Bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—In compliance with a request of the board appointed to examine and audit claims growing out of the illness and death of President Garfield, Dr. Boynston today returned a properly filled out form of application recently forwarded to him. The aggregate amount of his claim is $4,500, being $5,500 less than any claim for professional services yet received.

Well Posted.

MORRIS, Oct. 24.—Mr. Kindred has done more, says the Tribune, for the interest of Minnesota, for one who has not been in office, than any young man in it. It is well known, for the last several years, he has been freely consulted by the department at Washington, relative to the public improvements made by congress, in this state. His judgement having been found important, and second to none, upon such matters.

PEN, PENCIL AND PASTE.

There are 13,000 cabs in London. America beats the world for barbers. Illinois is the best state for lecturers. Ugly spiders are the newest thing in lacepins.

The other day M. Dreyfus, the millionaire, of Paris, put in all the leading French papers a card, stating that he would not in the future be responsible for any of the debts incurred by his son, Maxime. Whereupon the young man issued a counterblast, in the form of a circular, saying, "M. Maxime Dreyfus, in consequence of a note which appeared in several journals, is plunged in the direst misery, and solicits the assistance of his friends, and will be grateful for the smallest contribution. Gifts in kind will be joyfully accepted."

All the presidents, except the present one, have been portrayed on the bank notes, and 3 vice presidents, 24 secretaries of the treasury, 10 secretaries of state, 6 secretaries of war, and 3 postmaster-generals and chief-justices, besides 26 senators and representatives, and several persons distinguished in science and literature. United States notes are printed on paper made in Dalton, a small town in Massachusetts, and each blank sheet of the peculiar paper used is guarded almost as carefully as if it were already printed and signed.
