General Results.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 9.—Official and estimate returns from every county in the state, except Elk and Firth, give Patterson, democrat, for governor, 32,122 plurality.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—The total vote of Massachusetts, all but one town, gives Butler 13,904; Bishop 1,206,12; Albing 1,829; Butler's plurality 13,392; returns show plurality on republican state ticket, except Bishop, of about 16,350; total greenback vote in the state 3,200. The following are the pluralite congressmen elected: First district, Robt. T. Davis, republican, 5,500; second district, J. D. Long, republican, 3,950; Third district, A. A. Kenney, republican, 3,105; Fourth district, P. A. Collins, democrat, 8,334; Fifth district, L. Morse, democrat and independent, 2,273; Sixth district, H. B. Lovering, democrat and greenback, 8,509; Seventh district, E. F. Shone, republican, 1,000; Eighth district, Wm. A. Russell, republican, 522; Ninth district, T. Lyman, civil service reform, endorsed by democrats, 2,200; Tenth district, W. W. Rice, republican, 230; Eleventh district, Wm. Whitney, republican, 6,776; Twelfth district, G. D. Roth, republican, 3,528. Additional returns make no change in the result foreshadowed in the dispatches last night in Wellington district. Maj. Green, democratic congressman may reach 1,000.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 8.—Unofficial returns from the fifth district indicate the election of Caball, democrat, by nearly 1,500 majority. Returns from the seventh district show a very close contest between Overall, democrat, and Paul, coalition. Estimated and official returns give Overall 240 majority with Highland county to hear from, which may go for the republican. J. S. Wise, for congressman at large, certainly elected by a handsome majority. Coalition headquarters at Petersburg claim Wise's election by 10,000 majority, while democrats there say Wise's majority will be greatly reduced, and when all the returns are all in will probably elect John E. Moseby, democrat. S. Hopper, coalition candidate for congressman in the fourth district, has a majority of over 9,000 over Waraze, democrat.

BRAINERD, Minn., 8, 3:30 p. m.—Count of ballot in this city up to this hour gives Kindred 2,000, Nelson 154, Barnum 432; total vote polled 2,586. The count will not be finished before 6 p. m., but will not change the above figures materially.

PIERRE, D. T., Nov. 8.—Number of votes cast in Pierre, Hughes county, Dakota for republican party are as follows: For delegate to congress, Raymond, 220; for district attorney, Smith, 730; councilman, McIntosh, 213; for representative, Sterling, 225. Democratic party: Delegate to congress, Brookings, 53; district attorney, Thompson, 47; councilman, Harris, 59; representative, Dancan, 46.

DEADWOOD, Nov. 8.—Election in sixteen precincts so far as received: For congress, Raymond, 1,337, Brookings, 740; for sheriff, Knight, 902, Manning, 1,269; for district attorney, Ploverman, 1,025, Miller, 1,159; for councilman, Washabangh, 1,030, Dudley, 194; for legislator, Doringle, 906, Bowman, 181, Willson, 874, Chateau, 1,195, Smith, 1,42.

BRAINERD, Minn., Nov. 8.—Total vote in fifth district, 17,958. To this hour Kindred 8,825, Nelson 7,559, Barnum 1,574. Official returns, Brainerd city gives Kindred 2,048, Nelson 151, Barnum 42.

CONCORD, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Revised and corrected returns 225 towns, give Hale 37,540, Edgerly 36,174, scattering 921. Of eleven remaining towns majorities then received which with governors vote of 80 and remaining six towns, give Edgerly 170 majority which makes Hale a majority of 257. This majority probably cannot be reduced below 250, and may reach 300. The senate stands 11, republicans 4, democrats 1. The district makes no change and two districts in doubt. The republicans will have about sixty-five majority. Four out of five councilors, Haynes and Ray republican candidates for congress have about two thousand plurality each.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 8.—News from all parts of the state indicate a quiet and uneventful election. Democratic state and county tickets elected by large majorities. Democrats elected a congressman from the sixth district. In the seventh Mackey, republican, probably elected, although official returns cannot be had before Tuesday next.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—The following congressmen have been elected: First district, John Winens, democrat; Second, D. H. Sananer, democrat; Third, Bure Jones, democrat; Fourth, P. V. Deuster, democrat; Fifth Joseph Rankin, democrat; sixth, W. G. Price, republican; ninth, Isaac Stephenson, republican. Winan's election is not conceded by all republicans. Private advices received to night from a reliable source, state Winan's election by a small majority.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Returns from all over the state still incomplete and at this hour, eleven o'clock, it is still impossible to state the result, though estimated to be very close. Republicans will have a majority of three to five on joint ballot in the state legislature, though democrats probably have a majority in the house. Latest returns indicate that on congressman the republicans held their own, while the democrats have gained additional members. Given under redistricting these returns give following congressional delegation: 1st district, Dunham, republican; 2d, Finnerty, independent democrat; 3d, Davis, republican; 4th, Adams, republican; 5th, Ellwood, republican; 6th, Hitts, republican; 7th, Henderson, republican; 8th, Cullen, republican; 9th, Payson, republican; 10th, Lewis, republican; 11th, Marsh, republican; 12th, Riggs, democrat; 13th, Springer, democrat; 14th, Rowell, republican; 15th, Cannon, republican; 16th, Shaw, democrat; 17th, Moulton, democrat; 18th, Morrison, democrat; 19th, Townsend, democrat; 20th, Thomas, republican; total, republicans 13, democrats 7.

TOPEKA, Kas. Nov. 8.—Republicans concede the election of Glyck, democratic candidate for governor. Democrats claim he will have from 12,000 to 20,000 majority.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The total vote of the city conceded forty thousand and seventy-four, of 146,000 counted Stevenson 3147 ahead of other democratic candidates show such gains that republicans will not elect a single municipal officer.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 8.—Returns of the state coming in slowly, 179 precincts give Grant, democrat, for governor, 1326 majority, and Belford, republican, for congressman, 1157, with six city precincts to hear from. Later indications show Grant and Belford both elected. Ex-Sen. Chaffee concedes the state to Grant by about 500 majority, the senate and house still in doubt. This is the most bitter fight Colorado has ever known.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Times says the assembly of eighty-three will consist of 43 republicans and 84 democrats, giving democrats a majority of 41. The senate which held over from last year, consists of 17 democrats and 15 republicans.

DEBUQUE, Iowa, Nov. 8.—The democrats elected three congressmen, and the greenbackers one; Murphy in second district; Weller in the fourth, Fredericks in the fifth, and Pussey in the ninth. Despatches received here confirm the news of Updegraff, republican, defeated in fourth district, by one thousand majority. Henderson, republican, in this district, has from 600 to 1000 majority. Debuque gives a democratic majority, ranging from three to four thousand.

At Large.
CHICAGO, Nov. 8, 9 a. m.—Pennsylvania elects Pattison; Massachusetts Butler; New York, Cleveland; The Democrats gain two congressmen in Connecticut; No news from Indiana;

ST. PAUL, Nov. 8.—Latest returns give the following: Cleveland a majority in New York of 17,500, Slocum congressman at large, same state 160,000. Pennsylvania gives Patterson 27,000, but entire legislative ticket except one probably republican.

NEW JERSEY, Nov. 8.—Legislature stands senate, republicans 12, democrats 9; assembly, republicans 26, democrats 33; independent 1. Democrats have a clear majority in joint ballot, securing them an U. S. Senator.

VIRGINIA.
Democrats concede the election of John T. Wise, as congressman at large.

MINNESOTA.
Election in first district very close, with chances in favor of Bierman. Fifth district hotly contested, but at present Nelson is ahead with 4,500 to 2,000 majority. This may be somewhat reduced when the returns are all in. In second district Wakefield, republican, third straight republican, fourth Washburn, republican, elected.

MASSACHUSETTS.
Butler elected by 15,000 majority. The rest of the republican ticket, including Ames, lieutenant governor, is elected.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Hall, republican, is elected by a small majority.

CONNECTICUT.
Democrats elect their state ticket by 35,000 majority, and three out of four congressmen, a gain of two.

GEORGIA AND TEXAS.
Democratic solid.
NORTH CAROLINA.
Democrats elect six congressmen.

DELAWARE.
Democrats carry the state by a small majority.

Financial.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Northern Pacific 8.43, preferred 8.90. St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba 8.148.

Stock Markets.
CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Hogs, receipts 3,400, shipments 3,900; demand fair; 1.50 lower than Tuesday morning; mixed 6.70-6.75, heavy 6.80-6.70, light 6.25-6.85, skips 4.00-4.00. Cattle, receipts 8,000, shipments 2,300. Market fair.

Gas Explosion.
POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 8.—Explosion of gas in an exhausted working Girard colliery at Girardville this afternoon, delineator heard and felt at a distance of three miles. Earth and rock thrown 100 feet in the air and scattered to a great distance. Windows and doors were blown in, houses scattered, and people thrown down, but none injured.

"Hell and Damnation."

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 8.—The office of the Daily Tribune was visited yesterday afternoon by about forty of the supporters of Kindred for congress, to force the editor of the paper, R. C. Mitchell, to apologize to them personally and in the next morning's issue for having an account of Kindred's torch light procession on the previous evening headed by the bummers. They were followed by a large crowd eager to see the fray. At first the visitors were bold in their demands and would take nothing but an unconditional apology. The editor, however, though alone in the office with a clerk, did not make the required promise, and finally left, saying that they would expect the apology in the next morning's paper. This morning the Tribune came out in a long article calling the crowd bull-dozers and naming many of them as bullies; as a consequence the participants in the affair are not satisfied and while no second visit has thus far been made to the office, the air is full of rumor of vengeance and some of the party are swearing personal chastisement. It is not likely, however, that anything will come of the matter. The affair will appear quite ridiculous after the election excitement, which has been very high, has died away.
