GENERAL TELEGRAPHS.

TIRED OF LIFE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Wm. H. Lester, aged 46, clerk in the adjutant general office, killed himself to-day. He was a citizen of Belle Fontaine, Ohio.

LOTS OF NERVE.

KINGSTON, Ont., Dec. 13.—Ladies were the only attendants to-day at the lectures at the Kingston medical college. The masculine students demand the expulsion of the feminine students or they will abandon college.

HEAVY WIND.

St. Johns, N. B., Dec. 13.—The heaviest gale for many years swept over the island last night, followed this morning by an unprecedented high tide, causing much damage to railroads along the shore of Conception Bay.

DYING.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 13.—John F. Potter, the celebrated representative, who in 1860, upon being challenged by Roger A. Prior, named bowie knives as the weapons, and a locked room as the place of battle, is dying at Muskegon, Wis., in the poor house.

BURNED.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 13.—Last night the house of Singleton James, on a plantation near Stockbridge, was burned to the ground. Thos. Knight and his two children were burned to death. Knight was laying drunk in the house when the fire occurred.

A SUICIDAL MANIA.

BERLIN, Dec. 13.—Suicides alarmingly frequent in the Prussian army recently. A cadet shot himself at Richterfelde a short time since; a lieutenant killed himself at a ball at Spandan, and another officer died by his own hands in Paris. Deaths by duelling also frequent.

WILL NOT WEAKEN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Secretary Teller says if the object of the delegation of Chippewa Indians now in the city is to secure a rehearing of the Turtle Mountain decision their visit will be a failure, as he has finally passed upon that question and opened up the country to settlement.

CROPS.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The receipts of grain for the past year were phenomenally light, being twenty-five million less than the previous year. The reasons are the increased ability of the farmers to hold their stocks, the low prices since the new crop was harvested, and the rapid increase of the milling capacity. The receipts of winter wheat is increased.

WAR ENDED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The railroad managers have agreed on a traffic basis as follows: Minneapolis Division of the Rock Island, 25 per cent.; St. Paul, 37 1/2 per cent.; Northwestern & Omaha, 37 per cent.; St. Paul Division of the Rock Island, 14 per cent.; and the others 43 per cent each. They have also agreed on the restoration of passenger rates. The decision is satisfactory to all roads. The committee had a resumed session at the Windsor house in the afternoon, and at six o'clock announced that the presidents of the N. W., St. P., Omaha, and R. I. roads would telegraph to have rates restored at once, so they may take effect from Thursday morning. The members of the committee have agreed about the division of traffic, and Cable and Huggitt immediately began a division test plan.

GRANGERS IN COUNCIL.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—At the Agricultural society in afternoon session, J. Morton, Nebraska, spoke on the tariff, arguing that all the tariff taxes not actually needed by the government should be abolished at once. President N. T. Sprague, of Vermont, gave his experience with silos and Enslage, and was deluged with questions, at its close, a report of the committee, five strong, recommending the co-operation of the state and national governments in planting trees among water courses, and of that on transportation, recommending the development of water competition, by the improvement of the rivers and building canals, was laid over for discussion at the evening session. Dr. Wm. Hope, of Levi, of Scotland, received a paper on exhaustion of soil in its relation to fertilizers, and Hon. J. B. Grinnell, of Iowa, one on the subject of what is due from agriculture and posterity.

GRAVE ROBBERS.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 13.—The guard in Rockwood cemetery last night arrested two medical students and two colored men in the act of opening a grave. Four dead bodies taken from the cemetery were found at the Virginia Medical College. The students are in custody and are prominently connected. It appeared in the evidence that one of the students, W. B. Meredith, acknowledged, when captured, that he was with the party who robbed the graves Sunday night, but the other student, W. A. Smith, was not with them. Meredith and two negroes were sent to the grand jury.

HEAVY LOSERS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—From several inquiries among agencies of foreign insurance companies confirm the report of a large fire at Kingston, Jamaica, but consider the loss has been exaggerated; however, the damage is thought to be heavy, inasmuch as a large warehouse situated within the boundaries was burned. The district contains at this season of the year heavy stocks of cigars, rum and other merchandise for shipment to the United States and Europe. Fire includes the district from the corner of West street.

BOUND OVER.

VALLEY CITY, Dec. 13.—The examination of the Griggs county rioters concluded in this city. No evidence for the defense was introduced, and the court bound the following named persons over in the sum of $1,000 each to appear at the next term of the district court: P. L. McKay, P. M. McLean, Chester Klugsley, E. Merrihan, Benjamin Whitney, J. W. Wheeler, Henry Rappi and N. P. Miller. Two of the defendants, Peter Reiss and Chas. Trott, were dismissed, the evidence being insufficient to hold them.

SUGAR CANE GROWERS.

St. Louis, Dec. 13.—The third annual convention of the Mississippi Valley Cane Growers association met here to-day. Ex-Lieut. Gov. Coleman, of St. Louis, presided in the chair. There were delegates present from Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Nebraska, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and Wisconsin. Hon. Geo. B. Loring, commissioner of agriculture was an interested auditor. He will deliver an address before the cardinal to-morrow.

A MISSING MAN.

FARGO, D. T., Dec. 13.—About a week ago rumors were current in Glyndon and this place, that C. E. Bostwick, of the firm of C. H. Graves & Co., of Duluth, had been murdered. Telegrams sent to both Glyndon and Duluth, failed to give satisfactory answers. Letters of enquiry are now being received here, and it is stated that he had been in the habit of leaving home suddenly and being absent a few days, but this time it is said he had been gone about three weeks and fears for his safety are entertained.

UNION WORKMEN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The National Federal Union in an adjourned address to the Trades Union and labor assembly, congratulating workmen of the United States upon the greatest power conferred on any one body of civilized men of the law-making power of 50,000,000 freemen, has voluntarily stepped forward to arbitrate between the poor and rich in an unequal contest, which has so long been going on between capitalists and poorly organized laborers.

A SLIGHT BLAZE.

BLUE EARTH, Minn., Dec. 13.—By a disastrous fire early this morning a block of business buildings were burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. The following are losers: J. C. Pratt, $3,000—no insurance; H. Heirdahl, $30,000—insurance, $5,000; Wm. McGinnis, $500—no insurance; Erickson & Hogan, dry good dealers, loss is unknown—insurance, $4,000; Pinkham, $5,000; Heffron, $30,000—no insurance; R. A. Foster, $500.

BAD FEMALE.

ROCK RAPIDS, Ia., Dec. 13.—In the trial of Mrs. Lenthin and her daughter, Maggie and Anna, for killing the husband and father, they pleaded guilty. Verdict, murder in the second degree, and they will be sentenced on Saturday. In the Harvey trial, the pleading was not guilty.

RESTORING RATES.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 13.—Manager Merrill of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, telegraphed to-night from New York to the freight and passenger agents to restore at once the old rates.

BLEW UP.

OSAGE MISSION, Kas., Dec. 13.—A boiler in Johnson's saw mill, three miles from here, blew up to-day. The proprietor, H. L. Johnson, and Andy Beckwood were killed, and three others were seriously injured.

THE ODESSA BOOM.

GRAND FORKS, D. T., Dec. 13.—The meeting of the syndicate of the Odessa townsite is being held this evening. Nearly all the members were present. To-morrow is the day set for the sale of lots in Grosvenors, and Desserts addition will be thrown on the market in a few days.

TURKEY TROUBLES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 13.—The palace is practically in a state of siege. Nobody is allowed to enter unless summoned. Seditious troops who are angry at the way guards are paid, while they are in rags. The reappointment of Osman Pasha, who is unpopular in the army, as minister of war, has added additional fuel to the flames.

DAKOTA NEWS.

EARGO, Dec. 13.—The New England Society of the Red River Valley will hold a banquet here on December 21, "Stanton," for the benefit of the public library is being given here this evening with much success. John Harrison, kook-keeper for E. C. Sprague, a bonanza farmer, near Moorhead, is alleged to have forged a check on the First National Bank at Moorhead, for $204, and then skipped out.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—SENATE—Nearly the entire day was spent in the consideration of the Pendleton civil service reform bill. Several amendments were accepted by Pendleton, and the bills was adopted.

HOUSE—The congressional library bill was recommended to committee, with instructions to report on bill for the erection of library building on the ground owned by the United States agricultural and military academy. Approved of and bills passed.

RECOVERED LUNATIC.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 13.—The case of Mrs. Martha J. Collins, who since October 18th has been an inmate of the state insane asylum, this city, has excited more than ordinary interest. Mrs. Collins is the wife of N. R. Collins, of Bradford, Pa. She is about fifty-seven years of age, and of very respectable appearance. This morning she was brought before Judge Smith on a motion for her discharge from the asylum, which was made upon the ground that the judge by whom she was committed exceeded his authority in that she was a resident of a foreign state. At this point the attorney for the asylum authorities suggested to the court that Mrs. Collins had so far recovered that the asylum authorities had determined to release her about the time the warrant was served, and Judge Smith then discharged the woman. During the hearing Mrs. Collins' husband was present. At the conclusion he advanced to the side of Mrs. Collins and offered to shake hands. She accepted the proffered hand, but when he stepped closer she drew back and refused to hold any communication with him. She asked her attorney if she was free, and he answered yes. Her husband then offered her her skin cloak, but she declined to receive it. Collins then attempted to sit beside her, but she withdrew her chair and said she would hold further converse at her lawyer's office. Dr. Andrews, before leaving the room shook hands with Mrs. Collins, saying he hoped she had no fault to find with the asylum authorities. She answered, "No, Dr., I had none after a trial of nine called upon me and informed me that I was not as you represented, but that my husband was paying my expenses. After that time you gave me everything I desired." At the lawyer's office Mrs. Collins informed her husband that she would return home with him if he would give her a written agreement to treat her as a wife should be treated, and not incarcerate her in another asylum. This Collins refused to do. He said he would give his word to see her well, but would execute no document to that effect. On hearing this Mrs. Collins announced her determination not to go back to Bradford with him, but instead to go to some of her friends in this city. This plan she has since put into effect. Mrs. Collins claims this is the third time she has been placed in the asylum by her husband.
