Frank Tining returned last night from a short visit to Glendive on railroad business.

The Mikado dancing club intend to hold another of their popular dances to-night at Gould's hall.

Silverman fills his space this morning with a characteristic "ad." All he asks is a chance to show a customer his goods and he will guarantee to please him both in goods and prices.

Grand Masquerade. There will be a masquerade at the Rink on Thursday, March 11, 1886.

There is a great deal of talk about the coming prize fight. The wrestling match between Leonard and Smith has been postponed, for fear that the former might injure himself and thus spoil his chance of success in the fight.

Purely vegetable, prompt, pleasant and efficacious—Red Star Cough Cure.

I. Orschel & Bro. offer a sweeping reduction in their stock of winter goods from this time forward. There will be plenty of cold weather yet and a winter suit if bought cheap will be very handy to have.

Artistic Dressmaking. Parlor in Stebbins' bank. Only first class work will be done. Ladies are invited to call.

It is reported that the remains of a new-born infant have been found on the prairie about two miles from town. The body was frightfully disfigured in the most shocking manner, half of one side having been gnawed away, as if done by wolves.

The members of the society of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are making great preparations for successful festivities, which will take place on the 17th of this month. This lodge may be expected to get to the front in good style on that eventful day.

The bad weather still continues, yesterday having been a disagreeably raw day. It will do very little harm to stock, however, young calves will suffer to a certain extent from it, but should the change to fine weather, come gradually, it will do much more good than otherwise.

Girl Wanted. For general housework. A competent person can secure a good situation by applying at this office.

Frank Gibson, foreman for the Kempton & Tussler cattle company, arrived in town yesterday from the range. He has ridden all the way up the river from Terry, and reports that the storm has not caused cattle to drift to any extent and that everything on the range looks well.

Ben Mason arrived in town yesterday from his ranch at Powdermill, and reports that town to be booming, there having been an addition to the city buildings to the extent of one stable. He intends to open his saloon again on the first of April, and expects to be able to supply the traveling public with every thing in the liquor line.

The Northwest for March. This excellent magazine is fully up to the standard in the current number. The leading article is an historical sketch of Fargo, written by Colonel Lounsbury, and handsomely and correctly illustrated by the artists of the Northwest. In common with the leading papers and periodicals of the country, the Northwest gives Miles City a handsome notice for its push and enterprise in erecting an ice palace, but significantly omits any mention of our world famed toboggan slide. Mr. Smalley knows the country too well to lend the weight of his endorsement to this feature of our winter carnival.

Major Macqueen's hothouse at Fort Keogh is now very nearly completed. That part of it which has been partitioned off for use as a garden is already finished and men are busy at work making beds for the reception of the seeds. The self-feeding boiler put up by Mr. Bertrand is now in full working order, and has proved itself to be a very useful institution.

Sewing Machine For Sale. A second-hand Singer machine in good running order can be had cheap by application at this office.

Rough Weather in the East. A severe storm accompanied by extreme cold weather has in the past few days swept the eastern seaboard. Long Island Sound is frozen over, holding numerous vessels in its icy grip. Railroads in the New England states are blockaded by three feet of snow on the level, and zero weather with a strong northerly wind prevails over the whole northeastern section of the states.

For the famous OREGON GRAPE ROOT BITTERS go to Wright the druggist.

Lieut. Avis' Case.

A Fort Keogh correspondent of the Bismarck Tribune says: "The papers in the case of Second Lieutenant E. S. Avis, Fifth infantry, recently tried at Fort Keogh, Montana, have been acted upon by the President. When the sentence, dismissal, was known, Mrs. Avis left at once for Washington and by her intercession, saved her husband's commission. A further examination of the papers, however, disclosed the fact that by the existing law Major General Schofield, commanding the division of the Missouri, had no authority to convene the court; hence Lieut. Avis is released from arrest and restored to duty."

The DAILY YELLOWSTONE JOURNAL can always be found for sale at Young's fruit and news stand.

Home Again.

Our friend Moore, of the Northern Pacific freight office, is once more a happy man. Last night Mrs. Moore and the youngster returned from a lengthy visit in the states, and the household is once more united. Of course it will, take "Smithy" two or three days to tell how lonely and uncomfortable he has been during Mrs. Moore's absence, and of course she will believe it all. If any verification of the statement is needed Mrs. Moore can obtain the same from the editor of the JOURNAL, for whom Smithy has at all times been willing to perform a like good office. He is a mighty poor friend who wouldn't wrestle with the truth on such an occasion.

The Methodist Church Supper.

The ladies of the Methodist church spread a substantial supper for their friends at Gould's hall last evening, and it is a pleasure to be able to say that their labor was not in vain, as the tables were well filled during the whole of the evening. As the charges were moderate and the refreshments excellent, everybody who partook felt abundantly satisfied. At intervals during the evening music was given by a very excellent quintette with Mrs. Griffith presiding at the organ. The ladies have good reason to be satisfied with their success as entertainers, and the entertained, especially the worldly minded, can congratulate themselves on having aided a good cause.

A Word to Workers.

If your avocations are mentally or physically laborious, if they subject you to exposure in inclement weather, if they confine you to the desk, and are of a nature to involve wear and tear of brain, and nervous strain, you may occasionally require some renovating tonic. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the article for you, it stimulates the falling energies, invigorates the body and cheers the mind. It enables the system to throw off the debilitating effects of undue fatigue, gives renewed vigor to the organs of digestion, arouses the liver when inactive, which it very often is with people whose pursuits are sedentary, renews the jaded appetite, and encourages healthful repose. Its ingredients are safe, and its credentials, which consists in the hearty endorsement of persons of every class of society, are most convincing. Admirably it is adapted to the medical wants of workers.

Working an Order.

A man by the name of W. Black was arrested yesterday by Jim Conley and lodged in the county jail on a charge of having obtained money under false pretences. He had been detained in town for some time as a witness on the highway robbery case and had a certain amount of money owing him for witness fees. Being somewhat embarrassed, financially speaking, he obtained an order for these fees and had them cashed, receiving seventy-five cents on the dollar for them. The money thus gained, however, was not sufficient for his immediate wants, so he applied to Jim Conley to obtain more, telling him that sundry witness fees were due him. Jim knew that the witness fees had been due and not doubting, took the man to Will Savage, stated the fellow's case for him, and again the order for the witness fees was exchanged for money. It very shortly afterward transpired accidentally that Wm. Courtenay had already cashed the same order once, and in order to prevent a repetition of the same, the man was put out of the way of all temptation.
