Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Senator Frye, from the committee on Commerce, reported favorably the bill to amend the laws relating to inspection of steam vessels. The bill provides payment, out of the treasury, of the expenses of steamboat inspectors. Mr. Frye said the bill was in answer to a recommendation of the President. The bill was passed without a vote.

Senator Hawley's motion was then taken up to reconsider the vote by which the Senate passed the bill prohibiting members of Congress from acting as attorneys at law. Senator Beck resumed the floor and continued his remarks against reconsideration. Mr. Mitchell asked Mr. Beck when anybody told him that he, Mitchell, had been an attorney for the Northern Pacific railroad. Beck said he had so told him; the time did not matter; he was glad to hear the senator confess that he had resigned as attorney when he was elected. Mitchell said he was eight months before his election. He (Mitchell) remembered the time when it had been said in the newspapers that certain members of Congress were very zealous in regard to certain whiskey matters. Beck said, "Oh, well, that's just simply a lie; that's all there is about that." The motion to reconsider having been brought to a vote it was agreed to; yeas, 31; nays, 21. The only Republican voting in the negative was Mr. Van Wick. Mr. Hawley then moved to refer the bill to the judiciary committee. Mr. Vance called for a reading of the bill by way of a final "farewell" to it. (Laughter.) The bill having been read Mr. Edmunds assured Mr. Vance that he should have the pleasure of seeing the bill back in the Senate within eight days. The bill was then referred to the judiciary committee by a vote of 30 to 21.

A number of veto messages received from the president were read and laid on the table. Mr. Logan remarked as to one of them that he had never before known of such a construction as that a soldier on furlough was not in his line of duty. Mr. Blair said the president seemed to find it a congenial duty to express himself in most extraordinary terms respecting the two houses of Congress. Mr. Blair defended Congress from the criticisms of the President, and stated that some of the President's statements were entire misapprehensions of facts. He charged that the pension office, as organized, was organized to reject claims whenever it could be done. It had become to be a court of chancery. Some of the statements about the action of Congress regarding pensions were petty, trifling and contemptible. The bill to repeal the pre-emption and timber culture laws was then placed before the Senate, and was debated till adjournment.

At 3 o'clock to-morrow a vote should be taken on the bill.

HOUSE.

In the House to-day Mr. Morrison called up the report of the committee on rules amending the rules of the House, upon which the debate occurred yesterday. The House at first refused to consider the report, and by skillful filibustering and refraining from voting the Republicans prevented any action until the House adjourned at 5 o'clock. It is understood that the proposed change of rules will not be called up for consideration to-morrow, but that the sundry civil appropriation bill will be accorded the right of way.

Representative Strait to-day presented resolutions adopted by the board of trade of Mankato, urging the improvement of the Minnesota river. The resolutions state that the improvement would provide cheap and easy means of exchange of products of one section with another and make it possible to apply the products of this vast country. Such improvements could be made at a minimum expense.

J. Williams was appointed postmaster at Oak Park, Minn., vice Long resigned.

Another Blockade Threatened.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The Lake Shore switchmen employed at the Union stock yards quit work at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, owing to a refusal of the railroad company to discharge eight non-union men. Committees are now going to other yards of the railroad in the city to induce all union men to stop work. The Lake Shore is refusing to accept any more live stock over its road. It is now believed another general strike is to take place on the road and that a blockade, such as the one which occurred last April, will take place.

The switchmen at Englewood and all along the line in the city joined strikers. No trains were allowed to move. About 3 o'clock an effort was made to move a train at Forty-third street. Suddenly a mob appeared on the scene, the members of which tried throwing the switch to ditch the engine and train and did succeed in getting the caboose off the track. Separate sections of the mob attacked the train men throwing coupling pins at them and kicking and pounding them. Conductor Charles Pease, of Elkhart, was badly injured, being knocked down and kicked by half a dozen assailants. John Berger, switchman, was also hurt, but how seriously could not be learned. No arrests.

Shot by a Rough.

ST. PAUL, June 23.—A Detroit, Minn., special to the Pioneer Press says City Marshal John Conley was fatally shot there early this morning by one "Reddy" alias "Big Red," while attempting to stop a fight. The assassin was caught.

LATER.

Wm. Kellaher, alias Reddy, who killed Officer Conley to-day, was taken from jail to-night at 10 o'clock by a large crowd of disguised men and escorted to a neighboring graveyard and hung to a limb, and his body riddled with bullets. Sheriff Pinney attempted to defend his prisoner, but being a small man he was easily overpowered. Kellaher was a gambler and was known in Minneapolis, where he lived for a time as a tough citizen.

The Expelled Princes.

PARIS, June 23.—The police have been ordered to arrest all persons who make noisy, loyalistic demonstrations in Paris or elsewhere on the occasion of the departure of the expelled princes. Count Faucher de Caril, ambassador to Austria, has resigned in protest against the action of his government in expelling the French princes. It is stated that M. Waddington, ambassador to the court of St. James, will resign in consequence of the expulsion of the princes. The royalist press pronounced the expulsion bill a forerunner of the downfall of the republic. Moderate republican papers generally criticized the measure as unjust. Opportunists journal urges the government to discard the demands of the irconcilables and radicals, and they demand a firmer republican policy. The count of Paris' manifesto will be issued Friday. Prince Napoleon "Plon Plon" is going to Geneva and his son Prince Victor is going to Brussels. Neither, it is thought, will publish a manifesto.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

Will Resign.

ST. PAUL, June 23.—The Evening Dispatch says there is a report from Mankato to the effect that Adjutant General McCarthy has written to Captain Washburn, of company F, Second regiment, Minnesota National Guards, on authority of the governor that the recommendation of Inspector General King that Washburn resign for the good of his company will not appear in the official publication. Of the report General McCarthy says: "They can talk all they want to at Mankato. I was interviewed on the subject. Regarding the subject it is reported that General King says that if such letter has been written he will resign."

Minnesota Military.

WINONA, Minn., June 23.—About fifty veterans of the First Minnesota regiment met here to-day in company with veterans of Seventh Minnesota and First Minnesota battery, with other veterans, numbering 200. After a social reunion at the armory the regiment paraded along the principal streets to the Philharmonic Hall, where an eloquent address of welcome was delivered by Hon. William Windom, with a response by Major Honsdorf, of St. Paul. A sumptuous banquet was served by the ladies of Winona, after which there were literary and musical exercises.

No More Bucket Shops.

NEW YORK, June 23.—There was considerable conversation among the bucket shops to-day. A flat of the Stock Exchange went forth that the business of furnishing quotations to bucket shops must cease. Indications were removed from over a dozen shops in Philadelphia and from several in this city. It is asserted that there is a company in this city which makes a business of furnishing these quotations and has over 300 bucket shops on the list. It does business very secretly and employs some forty telegraph operators.

Editors in Convention.

ABERDEEN, Dak., June 23.—One hundred and forty-nine editors are registered this forenoon. The time was taken up with reports of committees and resolutions to take out articles of incorporation. The Clark band accompanied the editors to Minneapolis to-morrow. The home militia and fire companies and other societies made a grand parade this evening, after which a banquet was given.

Jones and Small Holding Camp Meeting.

ST. PAUL, June 23.—The two "Sams" Jones and Small, began a camp meeting at Red Rock to-day with an attendance of about 500 people. Some seventy-five tents are being pitched and the twenty-five cottages are mostly occupied. Jones preached this afternoon, his topic being the doctrine that we are judged by our deeds and not our professions. To-night Small preached taking for his text Peter's answer to Christ's question, "Whom say ye that I am." Much interest was manifested.

Custer Battle Anniversary.

FORT CUSTER, Mont., June 23.—The ceremonies attending the tenth anniversary of the massacre on Little Big Horn began here to-day with recitation by Capt. Godfrey, one of the survivors of the events of the massacre. Chief Gaul and visitors from Forts Keogh and Yates arrived to-day. Tomorrow camp will be made on the battle ground and the day after Chief Gaul and his Indians will explain details of the fight.

Fixed a Rate.

HURON, June 23.—Forty delegates are in attendance on the Dakota bankers association convention. D. W. Diggs, of Milbank, is president, and Eugene Steere, of Pierre, secretary. Rev. D. S. McCaslin, of this city, delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by the president. This afternoon the proposition of establishing a uniform rate of exchange and collections was discussed. A rate was fixed.

Makes a Bad Record.

PIERRE, Dak., June 23.—Fred Stone, a prominent foot runner, who ran with the Geo. W. Harris horse team, of Pierre, breaking the world's record, eloped to-day with Miss Carrie McGibbons, a young lady of this city. The officers are in pursuit and as the girl is not of age she will probably be brought home. Stone's parents reside in New York and are very wealthy people.

Money Market.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Money on call at 1 1/2@3 1/2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 4@5. Sterling exchange dull at $4.88 for sixty days, $4.88 1/2 for demand.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The bank clearing for the day were $3,450,000. New York exchange was quoted at 25c premium. Money rates are steady at 5@6 per cent on demand and 6@7 per cent on time.

A Supposed Suicide.

WINNIPEG, June 23.—The body of an unknown man, believed to have come from Minnesota, was found at St. Boniface last night in a sitting posture with a revolver in one hand; one chamber was empty. He had been dead some time; was about 30 years old; sandy whiskers; in the pockets was $32 in American currency. Coroner gave a verdict of suicide.

Vancouver in Need.

ST. PAUL, June 23.—Mayor Rice received the following telegram from Vancouver, B. C., signed by Mayor M. A. McLean: "Through the destruction of our city by fire our citizens are in extreme want. We appeal to you for aid." Mayor Rice has brought the matter to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce and Jobbers Union.

Attempt to Shoot an Editor.

BUTTE, Mont., June 23.—A man named Miller this afternoon attempted to shoot C. O. Ziegenfuss, editor of the Miner, because the latter had published a statement in regard to an enforced marriage of Miller's daughter. The editor grappled with his assailant and was not injured. Miller was arrested.

Unavoidably Detained.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 23.—The damage suit of S. H. Wood vs Pioneer Press was dismissed to-day, plaintiff not appearing because he was unavoidably detained in a Massachusetts jail. Wood kept a bucket shop here and his peculiar dealings with farmers were exposed by the Pioneer Press.

Director for Washburn Observatory.

MILWAUKEE, June 23.—It has been learned from good authority that Prof. John E. Davis, of the Wisconsin state university, one of the profoundest mathematicians in the country, is to succeed Prof. Edward S. Holden as director of Washburn observatory at Madison, Wis.

Railway Stocks.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Northern Pacific, 27; preferred, 60; Chicago & Northwestern, 116; preferred, 142; Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, 98; preferred, 123; St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba, 115; Western Union Telegraph, 65; Oregon Railway & Navigation, 10 1/2.

Dakota Editors.

ST. PAUL, June 23.—The Dakota editors, 200 strong, will reach St. Paul to-morrow night and have supper at the Ryan. On Friday they go to Minnetonka, returning to St. Paul in the evening. On Saturday they leave by steamer for Medford.

Ferry Boat Capsized.

PRAGUE, Bohemia, June 23.—A ferry boat capsized while crossing Sotawa river, throwing 200 persons into the water. The exact number of those drowned has not been ascertained, but twenty-five bodies have been recovered.
