THE Courier felicitates itself and the democratic party on the fact that the Bourbons engaged the band after the republicans got through with it on Friday night.

WE humbly crave the Courier's pardon, for not seeing its reporter seated at the reporter's table on the occasion of the republican meeting.

Injured in a Wreck. PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 19.—The cannon ball express of Baltimore & Ohio railroad which left Cincinnati last night, ran into an open switch near the Washoe, Pa., depot this morning and was precipitated over a trestle ten feet.

Prairie Dogs' "Happy Family." There is another old story now nearly entirely exploded. I refer to the happy family of the "prairie dog," the prairie owl and the rattlesnake all living in harmony in the same burrow.

New and Artistic Ideas. A new and artistic idea has been introduced at dinner parties lately. The knives and forks are all different and each one made after some special design.

A Check That Did Good. Some weeks ago a prominent real estate dealer in Los Angeles handed a gentleman a check for $2,500 in a deal.

If They Ever Get There. We recently heard a congregation sing that grand old hymn "Am I soldier of the cross?" As they came to the lines "Must I be carried to the skies on flowery beds of ease?" the thought came to us.

"Nearly Everybody Reads It."

The Merchant reads the Chicago Daily News because he must know what's going on in the great business centres of the world, and he can't waste time hunting for it in a "blanket sheet."

The Farmer reads the Chicago Daily News because he wants to keep promptly posted on the variations of the market,—he doesn't wait for the slow weekly paper at "one cent a day."

The Mechanic reads the Chicago Daily News because he knows that even in matters of handicraft the more general intelligence a man has the more he'll earn. The workman can well afford his daily paper at "one cent a day."

Grandfather reads the Chicago Daily News because it gives all the news, and yet so condensed that it doesn't tire him out to read it. And then, the print is so clear.

Mother reads the Chicago Daily News because she wants to keep up with her husband in general information, and then she particularly enjoys the household hints and things of special interest to women which are in it every day.

Grandmother reads the Chicago Daily News because she still wants to know what's going on. And it's a comfort to see a daily paper in the family that's clean and pure,—one she's not afraid to give "the children see."

The Boys all want the Chicago Daily News because it gives the base ball news so fully,—so say nothing of all the other things boys enjoy. And this year even the boys don't skip the political news.

The Politician always reads the Chicago Daily News because it's an impartial paper, and whether he likes its independent views or not, he wants to know the truth. He "supports" his particular party "organ," but when he wants cold facts he reads the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.

The Girls all read the Chicago Daily News because they're specially interested in its chatty gossip about fashions and home matters, to say nothing about the excellent serial stories always running.

The Post Office Review, says: "Nearly everybody who reads the English language in, around and about Chicago, reads the Chicago Daily News." Do you? It's a "short and to the point paper,"—made particularly for busy people, and it costs one cent a day. All newspapers sell it, and all post-masters forward subscriptions for it at $3.00 a year, or $1.00 for four months. Address: VICTOR F. LAWSON, Publisher The Chicago Daily News, Chicago.
