VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Ulysses Dispatch: Postmasters are of few days and full of trouble.

St. Paul Press: To President Cleveland: Howard county gives you 47 majority. How is New York?

North Bend Herald: It is said that this administration will know no north, no south and no east but Sackville West.

Clay County Democrat: Now that Harrison is elected it is presumed that all will receive that long promised forty acres and a mule.

Sutton Register: It is rather early to begin to scramble for the postoffice. Decency demands that we wait until after the funeral is over.

Wood River Gazette: All republicans who want postoffices hold up your hands.

Plattsmouth Herald: A democrat who will stand around these cold days amid the gloom of defeat and croak about the republican party being the advocate of free whisky must certainly be devoid of shame.

Schuyler Quill: The best advice we can offer to democratic postmasters is to resign on the 4th of next March, and save themselves from being removed on the general grounds of incompetency and the special charge of "offensive partisans."

Fremont Tribune: The policy of firing the corrupt from places of emolument is nearly two thousand year-old. The "lowly Nazarine" made a whip of small cords and went into the temple, and as he made the officeholders flee he uttered the cry which is so pertinent to the present time, namely, "Turn the rascals out."

Springfield Monitor: The political hue of the press of western Nebraska will undergo a sudden and unexpected change in consequence of the result of the election. The patronage of the land offices has afforded subsistence to many a poor democratic scribe who will now be compelled to disavow his political principles or seek more profitable occupation.

Sutton Advertiser: It is claimed by those who are intimate with the clouds that each separate cloud has a silver lining attachment. If there is any silver lining to the cloud that now envelops the democracy, it is not visible to the naked eye.

The night is dark, the sun is hid, The owl doth chase the rat, And not a single star doth cheer The lonely democrat.

Across the heath the bitter blast With icy breath blows cold, The shivering, hungry mugwump stands Outside the sheltering fold.

And where are now the mild prohibs, Who lately sang with glee, And shouted till they strained their ribs, To help democracy?

Alas! they'll never sing again, These prohibition cranks, They've hung their harps in willow trees, On Salt creek's stormy banks.

They'll never sing their songs again, To win old Grover's fight, Old Grover now must sing alone: "Oh, where is my boy-to-night!"

Bathing in Trinidad.

In place of the box of redlin size and shape that American plumbers give us, our tropical friends splash about in basins eight feet square or more, through which a stream of pure water is always flowing. By its side a shower bath stands ready, and one comes out into the cool morning with a delicious sense of purity and comfort, a skin as soft and smooth as silk and a readiness for breakfast that is not known in northern climates—where pores are sealed by cold, where indoor air is a mixture of carbonic acid and outdoor breathing chills one's very bones. Clad in lightest pajamas, the loose night jacket and trousers that have come from India to be at home in every region of the sun, men loll about an hour before dressing, enjoying the delight that mere living brings in the delicious climate.—American Magazine.

He Wanted to Know.

"Miss Maud," he said, "I have come in this evening to ask you a question, and I have brought a ring with me. Now, before you try it on, I want to tell you that if you feel inclined to be a sister to me I will have to take it back, as my father objects to my sister's wearing such large diamonds." And Maud said she would keep the ring.—Jeweler's Weekly.

On the Greek island of Himia no girl may marry until she can dive and bring up the sponge that is known to grow only in the deepest water, as it is not thought before that time she is prepared to support a family. Upon Niarus the rule is reversed—the girl says or does nothing, and her father bestows her out of hand upon the diver who stays longest and brings most sponges.—Chicago Herald.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS.

A Scaly, Itching Disease With Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies

If I had known of the CUTICURA Remedies twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $2000 (two thousand dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off almost all the time, and my suffering was excruciating, and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have the disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I took... and... I cannot praise the CUTICURA Remedies too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three boxes of CUTICURA, and three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know, write me or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it. DENNIS DOWNING, WATERBURY, Vt., Jan. 20, 1887.

Psoriasis, Eczema, Tetter, Ring-worm, Lichen, Pruritus, Scall Head, Milk Crusts, Washers' Itch, Bakers', Grocers' and Washerwomen's Itch, and every species of Itching, Burning, Scaly, Pimply Humors of the Skin and Scalp, and Blood, with Loss of Hair, are positively cured by CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier externally, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier internally, when physicians and all other remedies fail.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50c; SOAP, 25c; RESOLVENT, $1. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.
