The dog which was mutilated on the night of the 10th inst. was at the trial, and although he could not talk was a strong witness for the prosecution.

Take notice that the date for the appearance of Frank Mayo, in Davy Crockett, has been changed from Thursday, Feb. 6, to Tuesday, Feb. 4.

It will be for the best interests of all desiring to purchase fine wines and liquors to call upon Prof. Bach, who has just received a fine line of superior Imported wines and cordials for family use. Also domestic wines of excellent quality at as low a figure as can be afforded.

An unusually large attendance was at the district court yesterday to hear the Harris burglary case, which was postponed, and the cruelty to animal case against Hicks.

If the weather keeps up at the rate it is going it will ruin the railroad to fill their big ice contract, and also some of the town people who intend putting up ice this season.

H. A. Aroy, advance agent for Frank Mayo, arrived in the city yesterday and completed arrangements with Manager Tully for the appearance of the play "Davy Crockett."

The waitresses at the Macqueen are doing everything in their power to make their dance, which comes off on Thursday night at the hotel, one of the social events of the season.

Attention is invited to the card of Judge Liddell published in this issue. Judge Liddell intends to be present at all terms of district court held in Miles City, and can be retained for any business in this or any other court in the state.

J. E. Matteson, assistant train dispatcher at Glendive, arrived in the city Sunday night to assume the duties of manager of the Western Union office at this place, recently vacated by Mr. Gott's promotion of cashier in the freight department.

The Monthly Review, is the title of a sixteen page paper to be issued monthly by Rev. Samuel Robinson, rector of St. Paul's church, Miles City. The January number is now before us, and we find it to contain much that is interesting and instructive to the members and attendants at church services here. The monthly will be circulated at Miles City, Fort Keogh and Glendive.

Col. Geo. Woodford, the great temperance lecturer, will be in Miles City soon to give a series of lectures. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union had intended to engage him for two evenings; but the Good Templars agreed to assist the union pecuniarily and the two organizations have secured him for a week's labors. This gentleman is a renowned lecturer and attracts large audiences wherever he speaks.

The Chinese New Years festivities were terminated with great eclat on Sunday afternoon by the combustion of about $150 worth of fireworks at Wing Chung's wash house on Sixth street. The Celestials were mildly demonstrative on the occasion and evidently felt that their Joss was receiving due and proper attention, both from themselves and from the crowd of heathen that had gathered as an appreciative audience.

A grand square, Steinway piano. Been in use only six months. Money paid either by installments or in full. Apply at this office.

Bishop Brondel, the head of the Catholic church in Montana, departed from Helena on a pilgrimage to Rome, having for its object a visit to the tomb of St. Peter, which is obligatory on all bishops every ten years, and to render an account of his pastoral affairs to the pope. While absent Bishop Brondel will embrace this favorable opportunity to visit the Holy Land.

The funeral of X. Beldler, which was solemnized at Helena on Saturday last, was the most notable occasion of the kind ever occurring in Helena. The ceremonies were conducted under the auspices of the Pioneer association, of which the deceased was an honored member, and embraced an oration by Col. Sanders of the life and character of Mr. Beldler and the reading by Col. Hedges of a series of resolutions adopted by the Pioneer, together with the usual music appropriate to such occasions.

The ceremonies were held in the Opera House, which, though accommodating 1,500 people, proved much too small for the crowd who desired to participate in the last honors to the dead hero. Col. Sanders' oration was all that could have been expected from him. The body was laid in the old cemetery at Helena, and the site will shortly be marked by a handsome monument. The pall bearers were Frank Higgins, of Missoula; Geo. W. Irvin, of Butte; James Ponsford and Enoch Hodson, Bozeman; A. C. Bolkin, Wm. F. Wheeler, S. U. Sanders, Walter King, John H. Heldt, W. M. Sprague, Hugh McQuaid and W. A. Rumsey, of Helena.

$25.00 Reward

For information that will lead to the conviction of the parties who stole the horse and sleigh tied by the depot Friday afternoon.

New Firm.

I beg leave to inform the inhabitants of Miles City and surrounding neighborhood that I, Edward Inglett, late baker for C. E. Case, have bought the interest of Mr. Myers in the New York Bakery. The firm name in future will be Inglett & Graham. I hope by strict attention and good workmanship to gain a share of the patronage of Miles City.

INGLETT & GRAHAM.

Dated Miles City, Jan. 27th, 1890.

Helena's Claim.

Mr. J. B. Collins, formerly of Miles City but now in charge of the office of Lang & Co., of Helena, has on all his business envelopes the legend "World's Fair 1891, Helena Montana" in red ink. It seems somewhat strange that a man so thoroughly acquainted with the many advantages of Miles City as a site for the big show, should by the mere accident of residence at Helena become so purblind as to advocate the claims of Last Chance gulch. Even sleepy old St. Louis would be preferable, but—what's the matter with Miles City?

"Davy Crockett."

The large audience that assembled at the Opera House last evening, occupying nearly every seat in the structure, was a compliment of no ordinary kind to the fame acquired by Frank Mayo in his presentation of his character of "Davy Crockett." "Davy Crockett" has acquired a national reputation, placing him second alone—if even second—to that of Joe Jefferson in his "Rip Van Winkle." And both the play and manner of its presentation by Mr. Mayo, entitle him to this. It may with truth be said that the impregnation of the honest backwoodsman by Mr. Mayo last night was a picture that from first to last was full of noble emotion, of truth and beauty, of strength of purpose and honesty of motive that won the sympathy of the vast audience and held it closely till the curtain dropped on the last scene in the last act. It was indeed a most pleasing, most wonderful conception of character, calculated in its every part to awaken and revive the better elements of man's nature. In it there was no rant; but from the scene with "Little Bob" and the squirrel, the mending of the saddle, the onset of the wolves, the fight on the betrothal night, to the final denouement, it was so judiciously managed as to avoid the over-acting that would have marred if not spoiled the beautiful picture.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

The Carlin Case Once More.

The following addition to the literature of the Dr. Carlin case which has had considerable attention in the state papers recently, will not be out of place: "To Ed. Helens Journal: For the benefit of some of the petty newspapers of the state, who are trying to assist a few politicians of small bore in besmirching the character of Frank and James Conley and ex-Sheriff Savage, of Custer county, I wish to make a statement of the facts in the case, as I was a member of the grand jury that investigated matters.

"Dr. Carlin was shot when running, carrying a child under each arm. John Conley was on his right and was firing with a light Winchester at Sullivan, who was at the house on Dr. Carlin's left, and was firing at Jim Conley with a big buffalo gun. Dr. Carlin was shot from the left side, the bullet passing through his arm, through two coats and vests which he wore, through a metallic match case, then through his body and through the neck of one of the children which he carried. The bullet undoubtedly came from Sullivan's gun. Frank Conley carried a shot gun and Jim Conley's gun was too light to do this execution, besides Sullivan was the only one in a position to shoot Carlin from the left. The statement that Savage and the Conleys refused, or failed to bring witnesses before the grand jury is a falsehood. Every witness called for was brought before us promptly. More efficient and faithful officers than the Conleys Custer county never had, and for this reason such men are not kept there as the sheriff must have the vote of a class of men who do not want good officers."

Nature's Convulsion

Terrible. Volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, and tremulous pictures, but scarcely desirable to emulate in action and effect by the administration of remedies which produce convulsion and agony in the abnormal portion of the human frame. Such is the effect of the old fashioned violent purgatives habitually used, and more into disuse, and of which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is whole some, pleasant and far more effective success. They weakened the intestines—the Bitters invigorates them. They left the bowels inactive, because incapacitated by causing flatulencies. The Bitters, on the contrary, and because it enables, not forces, them to retain a vast and fortunate difference—perpetuates their activity and regularity. The liver is beneficially stimulated, as the kidneys also are, by this medicine, which easily conquers, also, malaria, nervousness and rheumatism.

Is certain if reasonable effort is made to cure a cough by the use of De Witt's Cough and Consumption Cure. This remedy is correct and certain in its action and costs no more than unreliable preparations. Insist upon having it. For sale by W. E. Savage.

Keep your head cool—your feet warm—your liver active, and trust in God, was the advice of a celebrated physician to a patient. You can regulate the action of your liver, kidneys and bowels by using De Witt's Sarsaparilla, an absolutely reliable blood purifying remedy. For sale by W. E. Savage, druggist.

Why don't you cure that cough? De Witt's Cough and Consumption Cure will do it. This remedy is positively certain, prompt and thoroughly satisfactory. If you have tried it you know this statement to be a fact—if you have not you are doing yourself an injustice. It is sold by W. E. Savage.

Purify the Blood. We do not claim that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine deserving public confidence, but we believe that to purify the blood, to restore and renovate the whole system, it is absolutely unequalled. The influence of the blood upon the health cannot be over-estimated. If it becomes contaminated, the train of consequences by which the health is undermined is immense. Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, Headache, Dyspepsia, Debility, Nervousness and other "little" ailments are the premonitions of more serious and often fatal results. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Made only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar.
