ABOUT PENSIONS.

Commissioner Lochren Lays Down a New Set of Rules for Pension Claimants.

Under Which He Expects to Scale Down the Pension Disbursements Largely.

WASHINGTON, June 10. Judge Lochren, commissioner of pensions, with the approval of Secretary Hoke Smith, has issued the following important order as to the adjudication and fixing of rates for pension: 1. A claim for pension under the second section of the act of June 27, 1882, can only be allowed upon proof of mental or physical disability of a permanent character, not the result of claimant's own vicious habits, incapacitating him for the performance of manual labor in such degree as to render him unable to earn support. 2. No specific injury or disability can, as such, have pensionable rating under that act, nor be considered otherwise than that it affects the incapacity of claimant to perform ordinary manual labor. 3. Proof that disability is not the result of claimant's vicious habits is requisite; therefore the causes and circumstances of the origin of disability should be shown by the evidence furnished in support of the claim for pension, so far as can be done, and by persons other than claimant. 4. To give claimant a pensionable status under this act, disability must be such as to incapacitate him from the performance of manual labor in such degree as to render him unable to earn support. Yet the act recognizes differences in the degree of such pensionable disability, giving $12 per month in case of the greatest and $6 per month in cases of the lowest degree of such pensionable disability, rendering claimant unable to earn support by manual labor. It also provides for intermediate ratings proportioned to intermediate degrees of such pensionable disability. Proper ratings under this act will, therefore, be made in accordance with such rules for rating as the medical referee shall prescribe, subject to the approval of the commissioner.

LOST HIS MONEY.

A Soldier Has Four Men Arrested for Drugging and Robbing Him.

From the unusual activity manifested by the officers of the law on Saturday it was evident during the entire day that they were on the track of some crime of more than usual interest, but nothing became public until after 6 p. m., when Chief Jackson and Under Sheriff Thurman arrested Patrick Reddy, a discharged soldier. A few minutes later John Donnelly, barkeeper at the Grey Mule saloon, was captured, and then Benjamin Davis, an other habitue of the same place, was taken into custody. About 9:30 o'clock Ben Simmons better known as "Blinky Ben," proprietor of the Grey Mule, was also arrested and the full extent of the charge became public.

The complainant, Robert Gainesworth, a soldier at Fort Keogh, avers that last Tuesday evening he dropped into the Grey Mule saloon on Park street, and while there he was drugged and robbed of about $165 in lawful money of the United States. He accuses the four men named of the crime, and County Attorney Loud drew a complaint for conspiracy, thinking that under it he might be better able to get at the full facts in the case. While the extreme penalty for the offense is only six months imprisonment, the law permits great latitude in the introduction of evidence, and the result will probably be more satisfactory in the long run than if a graver offense was alleged.

Donnelly, Davis and Reddy were arraigned before Justice Gibb, and then committed until 2 o'clock this afternoon and as soon as Simmons was taken into custody his case was also continued to the same time, the bonds being fixed at $1,000 each. None of the accused could get the necessary signatures and remained in jail over Sunday.

When the case was called up to-day Messrs. Strevell & Porter gave notice that they would appear for Simmons, Donnelly and Davis, while Reddy was without counsel, whereupon the matter was continued until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning to give the attorneys an opportunity to look into their case.

The Grand Central

Railroad station, Chicago, is being fitted up for hotel purposes during the world's fair. This magnificent fire proof structure located at the corner of Harrison street and Fifth avenue in the very heart of the city, will devote the 3rd, 4th and 5th floors to this purpose. It will be run on European plan; each room will have hot and cold water, electric lights and be steam heated. The office and ladies' parlors, etc., will be located on the third floor and the building will be supplied with all modern conveniences. There will be from 100 to 200 rooms for guests.

This acquisition to the hotel facilities of Chicago will be appreciated by those who wish to be safely housed in a fire proof building, conveniently located itself. Those desiring accommodations can secure them by addressing Mr. T. P. Clifford, the manager, at Chicago. The hotel will be opened May 15th, 1893. The Grand Central station is the Chicago depot of the Northern Pacific railroad (Wisconsin Central division) and by taking that through car line to the world's fair city, visitors will avoid the discomfort of transfer of themselves and baggage through the city. From this station trains run direct to the World's Fair grounds during the day.

Bicycle Breaks.

Yesterday was rather warm, but it was pleasant just the same, and the bicycle boys went out for a long run. Half a dozen or so of them went as far as the dam, but Henry Smith and Allie McKenzie went up to Hockett's, 21 miles from town, and coming back had dinner at Tom Gray's. They all did well going up, but dire disaster followed in their wake on the way home, and about half of the bunch had to charter Paul Jackson to haul them home, while Fred Stein had to leave his bike at the dam, hanging on a bush, while he walked to Jackson's, all because he and Henry Smith had a first class collision. Henry's machine was crippled, but not seriously disabled. Fred Newlands, the latest freak in the bicycle business, broke his chain, and was thereby left on foot, but riding in Paul's wagon was good enough for him.

Horse Market.

J. S. Cooper, commission salesman of horses, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, says: Serious financial complications opened the market Monday practically dead and lifeless; so far there has been no recovery.

Private selling has been totally out of the question and the sales at auction have been at large concessions, equal to $20 per head all round.

Viewing the market from the present standpoint a very conservative course must be pursued pending the unsettled condition of affairs generally.

Country buyers must not only goshaw but must more particularly buy only when concessions are made equivalent to the shrinkage here.

It cannot be said that there is at present a demand for any class. The next sale of range horses will be on June 21st.

The Interior of the Mormon Temple. The interior of the Mormon temple has an air of mystery about it. Up to date none but the faithful have been admitted to its sacred precincts, and none of the inquisitive Gentile reporters are allowed to enter. As a matter of fact, there are portions of the interior which are sacred as was "The Holy of Holies" in the days of the temple constructed by the wise son of David.—C. M. Jackson in Harper's Weekly.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Castle, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepard, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well.

John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg. Doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at John Wright's drug store.

The World's Fair—What It Means. It means that from May 1st until Oct. 31st there will be an exhibition in Chicago the triumphs of all the ages. The rarest and choicest specimens of the handiwork of man from the nations of the earth will be there to instruct and delight.

That for six months Chicago will be the most cosmopolitan spot on the globe. That the American people will have the wonderful opportunity of mingling with and observing the habits and characteristics of the people of every nation in the world.

That "villages" of the different foreign countries, constructed by and made up entirely of people direct from such countries, will be a most interesting feature of the fair.

That the American citizen, of whatever foreign birth or parentage, may carry himself back again to the land of his origin by visiting and studying these foreign "villages."

That a few days or weeks spent at the World's Fair will be worth years of travel.

That this is the grandest opportunity the American people have ever had for interesting study and pleasure, and that a trip to Chicago during the next six months would be the event of a lifetime.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway offers the best and most frequent train service from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Chicago. The only line lighting its trains by electricity. The most perfect dining service and the best sleeping cars in this country. Ask your agent for tickets via "The Milwaukee"—the Government's Fast Mail Line, or address

J. T. CONLEY, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agt., St. Paul, Minn.

NOTE—Write for a C. M. & St. P. World's Fair folder. It gives full particulars as to how to visit the Fair and what it will cost.
