"OLD GLORY."

The Birthday of the Stars and Stripes Celebrated all Over the Union.

The Star Spangled Banner Born to the World One Hundred and Sixteen Years Ago.

NEW YORK, June 14.—One hundred and sixteen years ago to-day the Stars and Stripes were adopted as the flag of this country, and the American Patriotic League has set on foot a general movement looking to the universal display of "Old Glory" on this day from New York to California and from Maine to Texas as each year goes by. All city buildings display the flag by order of the mayor. In New England the day is being celebrated in the public schools by processions, singing national songs, etc. Other States have adopted the idea.

The Backe Wire Nail Company Assigns.

CLEVELAND, O., June 14. The Backe Wire Nail Company, one of the largest concerns of the kind in the country, have assigned. Inability to raise money to meet maturing paper was the sole cause of the failure. The liabilities are only $225,000, while the assets reach $300,000. President Lockwood of the concern, said: "We simply got under cover to keep creditors from slaughtering us with attachments. We can pay three dollars for every one we owe. The assignment is not because of insolvency. On ordinary occasions we would have paid with two per cent. off, but the tightness of the money market caught us. Our principal creditor is Nailer & Co., of New York and Philadelphia, from whom we have bought a million dollars worth of steel and always paid them. They refused to grant us extension and insisted on individual security from the stockholders."

The Backe company has a capital of $512,000.

The Inquest Invalid.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The District Supreme Court this morning dismissed Col. Ainsworth's position for a mandamus on two grounds: First, holding that the deputy coroner was not a legal officer, which invalidates the inquest, so far held; second that the right of a person to be present at the inquest in person or by counsel is discretionary with the coroner, and therefore not a subject for mandamus. In deference to the decision Deputy Coroner Shager, who has been conducting the inquest on the Ford Theater victims, adjourned proceedings until to-morrow. A curious point now develops. No dead body has been viewed by the legally constituted coroner's jury. Unless one of the injured victims dies it will be necessary to exhume a body.

Cabinet Favor Bonds.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—It is an open secret here that four members of the cabinet have at every meeting at which financial matters have been discussed advocated an immediate issue of bonds to the extent of $100,000,000, to strengthen on the gold reserve of the treasury, but Mr. Cleveland will not agree to it; he is so anxious to continue to impress the "object lesson," which he is pleased to call the present financial stringency upon the country.

Takes Four Lives, Besides Her Own.

PARKERSBURG, Va., June 14.—Mrs. Kate Kirch, living ten miles from here, having lost her reason, poisoned two of her children, threw two others into a well and then killed herself. She tried to kill her eight children, but four were saved by the desperate struggles of her fourteen year old daughter. The family were in good circumstances. All five are dead.

sunk by Collision.

QUEENSTOWN, June 14.—The Cunard liner Servia arrived here to-day and reports that on June 7th, during a fog, she ran down the American ship A. McCallum, from London to New York. The McCallum was so badly damaged that she sank a short time after the accident. All but two of her crew were saved by the Servia.

All Hope Abandoned.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—The last hope that Lieut. Verhoff and Capt. Lawrence, the missing members of the Peary expedition, had been saved was dashed to the ground by the arrival of the bark Argentina from Greenland without news of the missing men.

Marcus Daly's Famous Colt Goes Lame.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Marcus Daly's four-year old colt, Tammany, yesterday burst the hoof of his right foreleg while under training for the Suburban. The accident will necessitate his retirement from the track for some time.

Attempted to Drown Himself.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Mrs. Sidney Goodkind, wife of Sidney Goodkind, son of a wealthy San Francisco merchant, jumped into Lake Michigan last evening with suicidal intent, and was rescued with the greatest difficulty by a passer by.

Injured by a Falling Wall.

PITTSBURGH, June 14.—Two workmen were seriously injured by a falling wall this morning. They were working on a scaffold demolishing the old postoffice when the wall fell, burying them.

The Money Market.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Money firm at 5 to 10 per cent; closed 8.
Bar silver, 83 1/2.

A Fatal Position.

Miss Goodgirl—What are you thinking of so intently?
Young Gayboy—Well, if you must know, I was thinking what the result would be if I should suddenly grab you and kiss you.
Miss Goodgirl—Oh, Mr. Gayboy, how terrible for you to have such thoughts when my brother and father are both out, my mother sick in bed upstairs, and no one in the world who could possibly come to my assistance!—Brooklyn Life.

A Great Pleasure.

Fair Hostess—Good night, Major Jones. We're supposed to breakfast at 9, but we're not very punctual people. Indeed the later you appear tomorrow morning the better pleased we shall all be!—Punch.

Something or Other.

The Holmes family are studying French, and the children are required to ask for what they want at table in native Paris. Charles, the youngest small boy, was asked for the French name of milk.
"Set," said the youngster.
"Is that correct?" asked his mother sternly.
"You bet!"
"You are wrong, Charles," answered Mrs. Holmes. "The French word for milk is lait (lay)."
"Well," retorted the boy, "I knew it was something about a hen."—Detroit Free Press.

High Quality.

Guest (at the exposition city)—What! Five dollars for this little apology of a room? Why, it doesn't hold more than a pint of air!
Native (blandly)—Yes, but then it is Chicago air.—Boston Transcript.

What He Forgot.

Little Johnny—Can I have some more pie?
Mamma—Do not say "can" say, "May I have?"
Little Johnny—I forgot.
Mamma—Forgot what?
Little Johnny—That I have to be particular about grammar when I ask for pie.—Good News.

The Grand Central

Railroad station, Chicago, is being fitted up for hotel purposes during the world's fair. This magnificent fire proof structure located at the corner of Harrison street and Fifth avenue in the very heart of the city, will devote the 3rd, 4th and 5th floors to this purpose. It will be run on European plan; each room will have hot and cold water, electric lights and be steam heated. The office and ladies parlors, etc., will be located on the third floor and the building will be supplied with all modern conveniences. There will be from 100 to 200 rooms for guests.

This acquisition to the hotel facilities of Chicago will be appreciated by those who wish to be safely housed in a fire proof building, conveniently located itself. Those desiring accommodations can secure them by addressing Mr. T. P. Clifford, the manager, at Chicago. The hotel will be opened May 15th, 1893. The Grand Central station is the Chicago depot of the Northern Pacific railroad (Wisconsin Central division) and by taking that through car line to the world's fair city, visitors will avoid the discomfort of transfer of themselves and baggage through the city. From this station trains run direct to the World's Fair grounds during the day.

G. P. Agt. N. P. R. R.

A Way.

He was one of the small boys whose presence create more apprehension than that of a bombshell would.

"Dear me," said Mrs. McFaddles, "I wish I could make our lawn look better. It is really very shabby."

The small boy's father and mother sympathized with her, and other members of the company expressed their concern, when the youngster himself spoke up.

"I know a way," said he.

"Oh, you do!" said the hostess. "What is it?"

"Let pa walk on it. Nearly every time he goes out of the house ma has to warn him to be careful not to let the grass grow under his feet."—Washington Star.

Specimen Cases.
Mrs. Shimpure—Did you inquire about that home venereal disease?
Mr. Shimpure—Yes. That house is haunted or something.
"Goodness! Did the landlord say so?"
"No, not exactly, but he seemed to be sure we'd move out inside of a week."
"Horror! Did he say he thought we would?"
"Well, no, not in so many words."
"Then what did he say?"
"He said he wanted a month's rent in advance."—New York Weekly.

John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at John Wright's drug store.

My term as city treasurer being about to expire, I kindly ask all who are arrears in the payment of licenses, to straighten up at once.

ED. ARNOLD,
City Treasurer.

The World's Fair—What It Means.
It means that from May 1st until Oct. 31st there will be an exhibition in Chicago the triumphs of all the ages. The rarest and choicest specimens of the handiwork of man from the nations of the earth will be there to instruct and delight.

That for six months Chicago will be the most cosmopolitan spot on the globe. That the American people will have the wonderful opportunity of mingling with and observing the habits and characteristics of the people of every nation in the world.

That "villages" of the different foreign countries, constructed by and made up entirely of people direct from such countries, will be a most interesting feature of the fair.

That the American citizen, of whatever foreign birth or parentage, may carry himself back again to the land of his origin by visiting and studying these foreign "villages."

That a few days or weeks spent at the World's Fair will be worth years of travel.

That this is the grandest opportunity the American people have ever had for interesting study and pleasure, and that a trip to Chicago during the next six months would be the event of a lifetime.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway offers the best and most frequent train service from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Chicago. The only line lighting its trains by electricity. The most perfect dining service and the best sleeping cars in this country. Ask your agent for tickets via "The Milwaukee"—the Government's Fast Mail Line, or address

J. T. CONLEY,
Asst. Gen. Pass. Agt.,
St. Paul, Minn.

Note—Write for a C. M. & St. P. World's Fair folder. It gives full particulars as to how to visit the Fair and what it will cost!
