CONTEMPT.

World's Fair Officials Are Heavily Fined for Closing Gates on Sunday.

Five of Them Must Pay One Thousand Dollars Each, while Two Receive Smaller Fines.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. Judge Stein, of the superior court, this morning decided that the World's Fair directors and officers who had been directly responsible for closing the Exposition gates Sunday July 23, had violated the injunction granted in the Cingman petition and were consequently guilty of contempt. He ordered that Directors Gage, Hutchinson, Henrotin, McNally and Kerfoot should be fined $1,000 each and stand committed to jail until the fine was paid. In the case of Director Victor E. Lawson the court held that the officer had voted in the belief that the injunction had lapsed and was not intentionally guilty. In view of this mitigating circumstance a fine of $100 was imposed. Director General George R. Davis was held less directly responsible and was fined $250 with the same provision regarding payment.

Messrs. Massey, Forbes, St. Clair and Higginbotham were regarded by Judge Stein as instruments for the execution of the directory ruling and were discharged. Director Nathan was also discharged.

Attorney Eddy, representing the fair company, moved for an appeal from the court's ruling and that motion is now being discussed. The directors and other officers were all in court. At the conclusion of the arguments Judge Stein granted an appeal.

The opinion is unanimous among lawyers that the gates will be opened every day in the week from now until they are finally closed next October. The appellate court will not be in session until after the mid-summer vacation, which ends in September, and the appeal prayed for to-day cannot therefore be passed upon until October. Besides the appeal is free from an order in contempt proceedings, and the decision in the case will have no effect on the injunction order, which must now be observed until the appellate court can be reached.

Gold.

LONDON, Aug. 3. The North German Lloyd steamer Spree, which sailed to-day from Southampton for New York, has on board $500,000 consigned to American houses. The White Star line Majestic, which left Liverpool to-day for New York, took $500,000, a total of $1,200,000, shipped to-day. Further shipments will be made on Saturday. Three million, one hundred and thirty-nine thousand pounds was withdrawn from the Bank of England to-day to be sent to the United States. The heavy shipment to-day and the prospect of shipments on Saturday have caused the discount rate in the open market to rise to 3 1/2 per cent.

To Protect Sheep Interests.

PIERRE, S. D., Aug. 2. The sheep men of this section of the state met in this city and organized an association to be known as the Central South Dakota Sheep association. The object of the association is to protect the rapidly increasing sheep interests of this section of the state.

Lost His Interest.

"Young man," said her father with some solemnity, "you do not seem to realize that you are asking me to turn over to you a considerable investment—a very considerable cash investment—sir, I paid $5,000 for her college course and $10,000 for a European trip, her first season in society cost me $5,000 more, and now she wants another $5,000 for the season—this is all the money that she cost me during her childhood. Perhaps it is wrong for me to feel so, but if I had put that much money into anything else you would hardly expect—"

"Thank you for the information, sir," interrupted the suitor, springing to his feet and grasping the old man's hand cordially, "thank you. I find it impossible to keep up the interest on so large a capital." And he withdrew.—Detroit Tribune.

A Voice From the Tomb.

Old Professor—My young friend, let me give you a word of advice. Be kind to the dull boys.

Young Teacher—Certainly, but if they won't learn their lessons—

Old Professor—Be kind to them; pet them; make them your warmest friends.

"But—"

"No buts about it. Win their love if you can. Some day in after years when you are as old and helpless as I am, you may need the assistance of wealthy men."

"Of course, but—"

"Well, the dull boys are the ones that get rich."—Good News.

The Bright of Gallantry.

A very beautiful lady asked a gentleman:

"Will you show me the portrait of the person you adore?"

"That is impossible today, senora, but tomorrow I will."

And the next day he presented her with a costly mirror.—Noticiero Universal.

They All Agreed.

Station Master—You shouldn't smoke, sir.

Traveler—That is what my friends say.

Station Master—But you mustn't smoke, sir.

Traveler—So my doctor tells me.

Station Master—But you shan't smoke, sir.

Traveler—Ah! that is just what my wife tells me.—Tit-Bits.

Absentminded, but Valuable.

"That clerk of yours," sharply remonstrated the customer, "sold me a pound and a half of butter yesterday for three pounds."

"He's a little careless sometimes," said the grocer blandly, "but you mustn't mind that. It's only his weigh."—Chicago Tribune.

Spare the Songsters.

It is not right to slay without good reason; it is doubly wrong to kill a bird during the breeding season. Slay the syster patty if you must slay something—it can be replaced—but let the feathered Patti live in peace.—Outing.

On account of extremely dry air and a large percentage of clear days, moisture is evaporated almost as soon as it falls in Wyoming. Thus nothing can be successfully grown without irrigation, except in a few favored places.

Divorces and Marriages.

The following figures have been compiled from the combined recollections of 32 married ladies and 45 military officers, all resident in the county town of one of the home counties. Out of the 1,540 engagements to marry which their joint remembrances present, 46, or about 3 per cent, ended in lunacy, incarceration or decease of one of the parties; 385, or 25 per cent, were broken off at the instance of the girl, and 262, or about 17 per cent, by the man; 169, as near as possible 11 per cent, were interfered with by friends; 154, exactly 10 per cent, came to an end for reasons not made public; 185, or about 12 per cent, failed away without incident in the lapse of years; 108, say 7 per cent, not included in any previous category, led to actions for breach of promise. The remainder, a pattering 15 per cent, resulted in marriage.—London Letter.

The World's Fair—What It Means.

It means that from May 1st until Oct. 31st there will be on exhibition in Chicago the triumphs of all the ages. The rarest and choicest specimens of the handiwork of man from the nations of the earth will be there to instruct and delight.

That for six months Chicago will be the most cosmopolitan spot on the globe. That the American people will have the wonderful opportunity of mingling with and observing the habits and characteristics of the people of every nation in the world.

That "villages" of the different foreign countries, constructed by and made up entirely of people direct from such countries, will be a most interesting feature of the fair.

That the American citizen, of whatever foreign birth or parentage, may carry himself back again to the land of his origin by visiting and studying these foreign "villages."

That a few days or weeks spent at the World's Fair will be worth years of travel.

That this is the grandest opportunity the American people have ever had for interesting study and pleasure, and that a trip to Chicago during the next six months would be the event of a lifetime.
