

There is a time when Cash is king. We all bow humbly to its edicts. A most powerful magnet is needed to attract its attention.

We have the magnet and use it freely.

We offer the public to-day one lot Men's Light Weight French Balbrigan Underwear, sold all the season at $2.50 the suit; to-day's price $1.50 per suit. This is a choice garment, and we have all sizes.

But if you have an economical turn try this one.

It's an English made Underwear for men, sold always and everywhere at $2.00 per suit; our price to-day $1.00 per suit.

A line of domestic orange Undershirts, sizes 34 to 40, reduced from 50c to 25c while they last.

It will pay the men of this city to inspect this sale.

The attention of almost everybody in town was attracted by the peculiar shape and color of the clouds which hung over the town last night, and many came to the conclusion that it was the tail of a great comet, but it soon passed away, its light and lively color being quickly killed off by the dark clouds with which it came in contact.

Like a ship without a rudder is a man or a woman without health and the necessary strength to perform the ordinary duties of life. When the appetite fails, when debility, and a disordered condition of stomach, liver, kidney, and bowels assail you, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The band concert at the park last night was the poorest attended of the series which have been given this summer, owing to the dust and poor condition of the grounds. The music was particularly good, especially Mr. Maxson's trombone solo, which was heartily encored. There was no choice in the pieces played, all being first-class and thoroughly executed.

The village of Terry was quite unexpectedly blessed with church service on Sunday evening. Reverends Peake and Pritchard, who left here on Sunday afternoon intending to hold service at Glendive in the evening, were stopped at Terry by the burning out of a small bridge just beyond that place. Finding that the detention would be a long one, the reverend gentlemen with the assistance of the people of Terry organized an evening service meeting at the school house, which was largely attended.

Mrs. A. L. Moore, our successful nurse of Miles City, goes east on the 7th to visit relatives, and will meet with the best physicians and nurses in New York city, New Jersey, and Portland, Maine. She will return the last of November to take up the work with the latest methods of nursing.

DISTRICT COURT.

The Calendar Called and Business Transacted on Opening Day.

Judge Milburn convened court this morning for the August term, and when the calendar had been called it was developed that the term is not liable to be a very long one, there being very few civil actions ready for trial. The following business was transacted:

William Courtenay vs. Continental Land and Cattle company; tried last term and taken under advisement; the court decided in substance that while the plaintiff was not employed at the request of the defendant, that his acts, so far as completed, were ratified by the defendant, which covered the same ground as a request. The court, however, held that the contract was made of no benefit to the defendant, and gave a verdict in favor of the defendant.

Clifton vs. American Insurance company in Philadelphia; dismissed at cost of plaintiff on motion of the plaintiff.

Peters Saddlery and Harness company vs. Goettlich; defendant given until Sept. 1st to file answer, else judgment for plaintiff.

Crandall vs. Wright; continued for the term by consent.

Courtenay vs. Wright; same action.

Ann Graham vs. Ed. Arnold; same action.

John Darcy vs. Ed. Gilmartin; same action.

Julia Sargent vs. Fred E. Sargent; same action.

Oschel vs. Custer County Horse Fair and Sales association; defendant given until next Monday to file answer.

N. P. R. R. company vs. Thomas Alexander; continued for term by consent, and defendant given until Sept. 1st to file answer.

McAuliff vs. Crimmins; dismissed as settled upon motion of plaintiff.

State of Montana vs. William Davis, John Donnelly and Patrick Reddy conspiracy; information filed and prisoners arraigned in court. Middleton & Light appeared for Davis, and the court appointed T. J. Porter for Donnelly and G. W. Myers for Reddy; defendants given until to-morrow to plead.

State vs. Bill Cody; grand larceny; information filed.

Court adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Suspicious Circumstances.

Yesterday afternoon a young man, who subsequently gave the name of Clark Gill, went to Fred Schmalz's residence south of the track, and with some kind of a key unlocked the front door, but even then could not effect an entrance, as the catch was fastened on the inside. Then he went to the rear door, and unlocked it, but was prevented from going in by the house cleaner. Finally he broke a window and then left. Chief Jackson arrested him in the afternoon, and he was jailed to await an interview with Justice Gibb this morning.

Gill's case was not disposed of this morning, owing to the fact that County Attorney Loud was otherwise occupied.

Burned Bridge.

Yesterday afternoon word was received that the railroad bridge between Terry and Fallon had been burned out, having been ignited by a passing train, and the bridge crew, which was working at Sanders station was wired to make the necessary repairs. The outfit was at once attached to Jepp Ryan's cattle train, and had a temporary structure in this morning. The flyer which passed here yesterday afternoon was held at Terry and all other trains were likewise laid up.

Band Concert.

Prof. Reichardt announces that on Sunday evening next he will give the last concert of the season at the court house park, with a splendid program, including four pieces by special request. The subscriptions have become quite small, and, while everybody gives such ample evidence of appreciation, the members of the band do not feel justified in going to so much trouble for the amount realized.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at John Wright's Drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Badly Damaged.

A telegram was received in this city early yesterday morning announcing that the Albemarle hotel in Livingston was in flames, and considerable excitement was created, it being feared that the entire town might be destroyed. Later in the day, however, it was learned that the flames were confined to the building, which was "grouted," and damaged to the extent of about $10,000.

The following particulars of the fire were received by J. L. DeHart last night:

Your telegram was received by me at 5:30 p. m. to-day. The Albemarle caught fire in some mysterious manner in the cellar, about the middle of the old part. For two hours it was a question whether the entire building would go or not. Finally, with four streams of water on it from the best pressure they ever had, it was put out. The fire was confined to the cellar alone, and all the damage is to the first floor and the foundation, and the estimated loss is from $7,000 to $10,000. The dining room, floor, and also the floor in the vacant Peterson room, fell in. This gave them a chance to get water right into the fire and out it went. The personal effects of the guests and the hotel employees was pilfered during the fire. Dresses, jewelry of all kinds, money, etc., all disappeared. Everybody got out safely—some with bruises and skinned shins.

Another Accident.

Ed. Adamson, a "broncho buster" who has been in the employ of Touer Broadstone of upper Pumpkin creek, was brought into town yesterday with a broken collar bone, the result of having been thrown from a colt. He left Broadstone's ranch yesterday morning in company with another cow hand, on a colt. The animal gave no trouble until near Hotchkiss' ranch, when he commenced "bucking," finally breaking the cinch and throwing Adamson to the ground. He struck on his right shoulder breaking the collar bone. His partner caught the horse, and the injured man rode on into town, where Dr. Redd attended him.

One Woman's Courage.

A story is going the rounds of a little woman who was seated behind a gorgeously dressed beauty at a theater in the metropolis whose balloon shows completely hid the stage from the victim in the rear. She sat on first one foot, then the other, but in vain; no glimpse of the play could she get. After a wide-eyed conversation with her husband came the tragedy. Without a word of warning that was woman quietly rose, gently but firmly laid her hands upon the winged shoulders of her obtrusive neighbor and pressed her green and red ruffles as far down as they would go. People who saw the operation gasped at the transformation. The victim wisely accepted the situation and remained in subjugation until the "Prodigal Daughter" is nominally returned to the fatted calf.—New York Recorder.

Married Over Sixty Years.

John Ewing and wife of Warwick, Chester county, have been wedded 65 years; William W. Rhoads and wife of Pottstown were married Nov. 29, 1829, nearly 64 years ago, and David Wells and wife of North Coventry, Chester county, were married March 30, 1830, over 63 years since.—Cor. Philadelphia Ledger.

Short.

The Bud—Why does Mr. Spatts wear such short trousers?
Brother—Because they fit him. I asked him for a small loan, and he said he was so short his corns made his head ache.—Truth.

In Austria servants and people of menial rank of every kind are accustomed to kiss the hand of their employers, a somewhat oriental fashion to which it takes some time to get accustomed.

On the little tideland island opposite Skanzokawa, Wash., the cranes have built their nests in the big cottonwood trees, and the cries of the young birds may be heard for quite a distance.

A., Depot Quartermaster.

A Tremendous Shaking Up.

This is what every system afflicted with chills and fever, bilious remittent, or any other form of malarial disease, undergoes periodically. Not only is malaria terrible in itself—it is the breeder of an infinity of bodily ailments. Specifics used for its prevention and removal prove, in the vast majority of cases, useless for every other purpose than to mitigate the disease and stave off its attacks. They are sure, with the average treatment, to return after a while. The sufferer may change his location to a healthier one, but the complaint, which is in his blood, is not thus lightly got rid of, and returns after the wanted interval. Organic affections of the nerves, heart trouble, general debility of the system are the offspring of malaria. Cure the originating cause and avert future physical injury with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, efficacious also in liver complaint, inactivity of the kidneys, rheumatism and indigestion.

Rich Red Blood

For feeling of weakness of the limbs, constipation and poor circulation of the blood, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only remedy. My blood was in a very poor condition. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I have good rich red blood, and do not feel as if I need it. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved its merit to me as it will to all who take it. Mrs. M. F.
