TO GO RIGHT AT IT.

The Silver Battle in Congress will Begin at Once and Fought to a Finish.

Rules Will Be Suspended to Allow of the Immediate Consideration of the Important Question.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8. Indications are that the financial fight in congress will begin at once and be fought to a finish. Negotiations already show that nearly two-thirds of the members of the house favor the question being settled in committee of the whole without reference to a committee. Under the rules the question would have first to go to the committee on coinage; but the disposition is to suspend the rules and it is believed assurance will be given the silver advocates that they will be given a fair chance to debate the question on all its phases, and that with this understanding they will consent to its immediate consideration without reference to the committee. The intention of advocates of repeal of the Sherman act is to suggest a reasonable time for debate on all questions, with the understanding that a vote shall be taken at the conclusion. This course, it is understood, is with the consent, if not on the advice of the president. The plan is to have the free silver men open the ball with a bill embodying their demands; then the anti-silver men will present substitute bills, embodying their ideas, whereupon the battle will be joined and the struggle begun. Both sides are of the opinion that a vote can be reached in two weeks after the debate is begun.

Cockran, of New York, representing the anti-silver men, says they will not make more than three speeches, leaving the rest of the time open to the silverites. It is hoped by this means to prevent filibustering and all parliamentary sharp practice. Bland has given the assurance that no attempt will be made by the silver men to filibuster.

Among the many compromises that will be proposed, is one by Frankford, of Alabama, for the suspension of the Sherman act till the end of the present year, and offering national banks to increase their circulation to the par value of their bonds.

As a result of canvasses, friends of the unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act are a good deal more confident that they will carry their point. It looks like there is a majority for it in both houses, though it will not be put through without a hard fight. The claim is the sentiment of the country is so strongly in favor of repeal, that the opposition will not dare to filibuster against it. The silver men, on the other hand, laugh at the proposition that repeal can be carried without a compromise. They declare it cannot be put through the Senate in six months.

Senator Carey, of Wyoming, has surprised his silver friends by coming out flat-footed in favor of the repeal of the silver clause of the Sherman act immediately and unconditionally. It is intimated that Manderson, of Nebraska, and some others may be driven to vote for it rather than delay action.

It is believed Springer will be retained on the committee on ways and means and Bland at the head of the coinage committee in spite of rumors to the contrary.

Trial of the Harvesting Machine.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 7. Secretary McGinnis, of the North Dakota World's Fair commission, arrived from Chicago to-day and completed details of the arrangements at this end for the field trials of harvesting machinery in competition at the World's Fair. The trials will be held about the 21st inst. on the Elk Valley farm near Larimore, where the machines can have plenty of room in a single field of 10,000 acres of wheat which will yield from fifteen to thirty bushels to the acre. Other large fields of oats, rye, barley and other crops near by will furnish every necessary facility for the tests. Harvest will be in full progress in the Red river valley at that time, and it is expected that many interested farmers and other visitors will accompany the machine men here. President Hill, of the Great Northern, will furnish transportation for the trial machines. It is expected forty different makers will participate in the trial.

Chicago's Plight.

CHICAGO, August 8. In an address of welcome to the Military Surgeons of the United States, in annual convention to-day, Mayor Harrison declared that there were 200,000 idle men in the city, and unless Congress gives the country more money there will be riots here such as will shake the country.

A Bad Man With a Gun.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Aug. 8. John Nelson drove his aged parents from the tent in which he has his family living near Salt river. The old people were given shelter by John Staple, a farmer. This enraged Nelson, who went to the house of Staple and shot Staple's mother, killing her instantly. He then shot Staple in the abdomen, inflicting a mortal wound. Nelson is in jail at Nowland.

An Expensive Animal.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8. Peter the Great, the California colt, has, it is announced to-day, been sold to Albert Cooper for $15,000. The animal finished a close second to the world beater, Domino, in the Hyde Park stakes at Washington Park, distance, six furlongs; time 1:14.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. John Wright, Druggist.

That for six months Chicago will be the most cosmopolitan spot on the globe.

That the American people will have the wonderful opportunity of mingling with and observing the habits and characteristics of the people of every nation in the world.

That "villages" of the different foreign countries, constructed by and made up entirely of people direct from such countries, will be a most interesting feature of the fair.

That the American citizen, of whatever foreign birth or parentage, may carry himself back again to the land of his origin by visiting and studying these foreign "villages."

That a few days or weeks spent at the World's Fair will be worth years of travel.

That this is the grandest opportunity the American people have ever had for interesting study and pleasure, and that a trip to Chicago during the next six months would be the event of a lifetime.

NICE YOUNG MAN, BUT A FOOL.

He is Utterly Too Good, and His Wife is Sick of Her Bargain.
One of the best girls any fellow ever knew and the pride of a village not a thousand miles from Pittsburgh made a fatal mistake when she married. Being such a happy girl, so sensible and so much sought after by the best young men in the neighborhood, every one confidently expected her to make a great catch. But she didn't, and now her neighbors are wondering how it all happened. She married a fool. That explains it all. No need to go into details. The fact that he dressed well and that he moved in good society and was known as a "very nice young man" will not make the case any plainer. He is a fool, and that is all there is about it.

His foolishness consisted largely in believing that the world was not made right, that the people are wrong hearted as well as wrong headed, and that it is the duty of every one to array himself against everything as it exists, and keep up a constant grumbling, growling and complaining. This young man, a very religious man in a way, he honestly and faithfully endeavored to keep himself unspotted from the world, by avoiding contact with it. He went not into a factory, nor did he take any pleasure in anything but his own religious duties. He could not find a woman that would love him outside of a village away from him. He did not realize the fact that he was a human being, and that he was not a saint.
