KILLED AT HIS DOOR.

H. M. Walraven, of Mankato, Minn., Dies from a Bullet Through His Heart.

The Motive of the Awful Deed Evidently Robbery, Though No Money was Taken—No Clue Yet Found.

MANKATO, Minn., Sept. 4.—One of the most mysterious and sensational tragedies which has shocked this city for many years occurred between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning. As a result Harry M. Walraven lies dead at his home with a bullet through his heart. Mr. Walraven was proprietor of a restaurant in this city, located on South Front street. He left his place of business at the above hour, and started for his home, about four blocks away, and when in his own yard his wife heard a pistol shot, which was also heard by William Buckholz, of the telephone company, and John Mullen. The gentlemen rushed to the scene of the tragedy, and after lighting a match, found the wounded man to be Harry Walraven, who was then dying. Coroner James Shoemaker was at once summoned, and found the wounded man lying on his face, with his watch chain broken in two pieces lying on the grass. The murdered man was a trifle lame. His right leg bore marks of two heavy blows, and was considerably splintered. Mr. Shoemaker found $240 in his pockets, and his watch had not been taken. An inquest was held today and Mrs. Holmes, a neighbor of Mr. Walraven, testified to having heard heavy groans immediately after the shot was fired, but nothing of importance was brought out. Everything goes to show that a terrible struggle ensued. Robbery is supposed to have led to the crime, while some think it was revenge. Five witnesses were examined at the inquest when an adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock to-morrow.

Deputy Sheriff Bowen arrested a man giving his name as Charles White and his residence at St. James, but no clue has yet been found.

Mr. Walraven was a young man about 28 or 30 years old. He leaves a young wife, who is nearly insane over the affair. She was a daughter of John P. Hoerr, one of the oldest pioneers. Mr. Walraven was a member of an Odd Fellows' lodge, and was generally liked. A large crowd, bent on curiosity, has surrounded the home of the dead man all day, and many expressions of sympathy are given for the stricken wife.

Must Show a Crime.

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 4.—Judge Lewis last evening made a ruling that upsets a universal practice of committing magistrates in the state, and which will give freedom to a greater portion of those now held in county jails awaiting indictment, if they care to ask it. It has been the custom for years to permit a prisoner arraigned for an indictable offense to waive examination if he wished. On this waiver he will be held to the grand jury. In habeas corpus proceedings brought before him Judge Lewis held this to be an error. To hold a prisoner for crime the state must show a crime and probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty. This cannot be done when the record shows a waiver only. The point is one never raised before in Minnesota.

A Compromise Made.

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 4.—The Duluth street car system, which has been entirely idle for three days on account of a strike of the conductors and motor men, caused by a twenty per cent reduction of wages, will resume tomorrow morning. A citizens' committee was appointed to try and compromise the differences, and at midnight, after an all-day's conference, a compromise was reached. The terms of the compromise are kept a secret.

Killed by Burglars.

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Peter McCooy, a laboring man, was instantly killed by burglars early this morning. The robbers in making their way about McCooy's room knocked over a chair. The noise aroused McCooy, and as he sat up in bed Thomas Higgins, who was afterwards captured by the police and confessed the killing, shot McCooy through the eye, killing him instantly.

Well, What of It?

DENVER, Col., Sept. 4.—The Rocky Mountain News will publish a letter to-morrow morning from T. M. Patterson, its editor and part owner, dated Washington, containing the declaration that the cause of silver and the relief of the industry rests with the People's party, and announces his allegiance henceforth to that political organization.

A Girl Breaks the Bank.

VIENNA, Sept. 4.—Trieste newspapers of Saturday last assert that a Miss Leal, a young Scotch woman who has recently been playing at the Monte Carlo gaming tables, had had remarkable luck for several days, which culminated in the breaking of the bank. She is said to have won 800,000 in one hour.

The man who simply knocked at the back door of the house did not look exactly as if he were used to it, but he showed unmistakable signs of nervousness. The cook opened the door and slammed it again.

"What do you want?" she called from the inside.

"Something to eat, please," he pleaded, "and a pair of old shoes."

"Go away," she screamed, "we ain't got nothing for tramps."

"I'm no tramp," he responded half angrily.

She opened the door and peered out.

"Yes, you are, too," she retorted.

"Don't I know a tramp when I see one?"

"But I'm not one, I tell you," he insisted.

"I'm on my way home from the World's fair,"—Detroit Free Press.

Purely Aesthetic.

"Weren't you rather surprised at Amy accepting that 80-year-old Mr. Scrimmage?"

"Oh, well, she says she took him because he matched her complexion."

"Her complexion?"

"Yes; old gold, you know."—Brooklyn Life.

Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle at John Wright's drug store.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

One of the modes which promise to be favorites among fall fancies is the princess of old time favor.

Cafe noir is the darkest shade of brown that will be worn this season. Uji or mud color is one of the lightest.

New Borneo and Alpine chevrons have a complication of bars and lines which are like plaids in their interlacing.

Shot velvet and satin ribbons arranged in high spreading choux, coquilles and fans are seen upon many stylish French round hats.

Among pretty tailor gowns for autumn journeys are those of fawn colored camel's hair roughly flecked with silver white or petunia red.

Black satin, faille bengaline and other lusterless or shining silks will be greatly in use for church, visiting and reception dresses this fall and winter.

In the show of autumn millinery black roses with black lace and small but full black feather tips are among the novel trimmings on leghorn, chip and lace straw hats.

Louis XIV draperies, overskirts and paniers, both large and small, are doing their best on the other side of the water to become prominent among the recognized features of winter modes.

At a dainty afternoon tea recently the hostess wore a toilet of black lace over a cream colored kilted net skirt and waist. A plumed ruche of combined cream and black lace stood out around the wearer's face like a misty cloud.—New York Evening Post.

Extravagance.

"John," she said to her husband, "do you mean to say that I mustn't get any money out of the bank?"

"Not for the present, my dear."

"Well, I think it's dreadfully extravagant of you to let that lovely check-book you gave me on my birthday lie idle and go to waste. There!"—Washington Star.

He Was a Gentleman.

The professional humorists are left in the shade by the novelists. Here is one of the latter saying: "It is true he beat his wife and neglected his children, but in society he was the personification of politeness, suavity's self, and he never forgot that he was a gentleman."—New York Press.

A Method of Proof.

The president has pardoned Jack Pyc, which recalls the attempt of an English lecturer here a good many years ago to prove that a fish and a pigeon were one and the same. Here is the argument: A jack pie is a fish pie. Therefore a fish pie is a jack pie, a jack pie is a job pie, a job pie is a pie john and a pie john is a pigeon.—Boston Transcript.

It Should be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay st., Sharsburg Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of la grippe, when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cookeport, Pa., claims that Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at John Wright's drug store.

The World's Fair—What It Means.
It means that from May 1st until Oct. 31st there will be an exhibition in Chicago the triumphs of all the ages. The rarest and choicest specimens of the handiwork of man from the nations of the earth will be there to instruct and delight.

That for six months Chicago will be the most cosmopolitan spot on the globe. That the American people will have the wonderful opportunity of mingling with and observing the habits and characteristics of the people of every nation in the world.

That "villages" of the different foreign countries, constructed by and made up entirely of people direct from such countries, will be a most interesting feature of the fair.

That the American citizen, of whatever foreign birth or parentage, may carry himself back again to the land of his origin by visiting and studying these foreign "villages."

That a few days or weeks spent at the World's Fair will be worth years of travel.

That this is the grandest opportunity the American people have ever had for interesting study and pleasure, and that a trip to Chicago during the next six months would be the event of a lifetime.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway offers the best and most frequent train service from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Chicago. The only line lighting its trains by electricity. The most perfect dining service and the best sleeping cars in this country. Ask your agent for tickets via "The Milwaukee"—the Government's Fast Mail Line for address.
