THE FACTS WANTED.

The first debate in the senate on the Hawaiian question is not likely to be comforting to the friends of the administration. Senator Hoar of Massachusetts having presented a resolution requesting the president to furnish the senate with all the correspondence on the Hawaiian question—and by "all" he distinctly makes it understood that he means not only that of the present administration, but also that had during the two preceding administrations—he is at once antagonized by Mills of Texas and Vilas of Wisconsin, the right and left guards—as it were—of the administration foot ball team. The evident purpose of the Massachusetts senator is to show by the records of the state department that for the period covering Mr. Cleveland's former administration and the succeeding one of Mr. Harrison, there was a definite policy in regard to the Hawaiian islands, widely at variance with the one now adopted or contemplated. If this be true, of course it would not do to show it, as it would probably show that Minister Stevens acted wholly within the line of a policy, favored when Mr. Cleveland was president and Mr. Bayard secretary of state, and thus refute the charges so plainly made in the presidents message, of "unjustifiable interference" etc. Mills and Vilas fought doggedly against the adoption of the resolution and during the debate the sphinx like Hill of New York took occasion to say in substance, that he could see no good reason why the president should not explain his acts in a matter of such importance as this. Senator Gray also was of the opinion that the fullest explanation should be given the senate in this matter. Hill referred to and sharply condemned the mystery that had surrounded the case on the part of the government. From a study of this preliminary skirmish, it seems to be quite evident that the administration is not going to be able to command full party support in this matter, unless it should prove that it is wholly right and that Minister Stevens was wholly wrong, a verdict not likely to be reached.

Window Screens.
A transparency at a kitchen window attracted my notice the other day by its novelty. "I made it," said the owner, "because I could not get a transparency at the village store. I wanted one of those screens, you know, that permit you to see out, but do not let outsiders see in; I took an old frame for a wire screen painted it to match the outside painting of the house and then tacked it to a piece of organdie, fitting it perfectly and stretching it very tight. From thin chintz I cut flowers and sprays, and arranging the design in my mind proceeded to paste them on. After all were on I had a piece of pasteboard behind and put on heavy weights until they were dry. I then gave the whole a coat of white varnish."

THE PREMIUMS
Fashion High Arm Singer

Five Years Guarantee.
Delivered Railroad Freight Paid
Full Set of Finest Steel Attachments.
In French Lined Case.
Our Finest Premium is without doubt the Fashion High Arm Singer Sewing Machine. The "Singer" has stood the test of 60 years and made a princely fortune for its inventor. The "Fashion" Singer, however, is an improvement on the original machine, as it has all modern improvements up to date which are known or found in a first-class family sewing machine.
The automatic bobbin winder winds all sizes of thread on the bobbin as easily as a spool of thread is wound, without care or attention on the part of the operator, except to keep the treadle moving. Owing to the machine having what is termed a tight and loose wheel, the bobbin can be wound without running the working parts of the machine. This is quite an advantage, as it does not necessitate the removing of the goods from underneath the presser foot, nor even unthreading the machine.
The needle is short and straight, thus insuring great strength; it is also self-setting, requiring no care on the part of the operator.
The pressure on the sewing foot is adjustable, and when the foot is raised to remove the work from the machine, it brings into play the automatic tension release. This takes the tension from the thread, and the goods can be removed from the machine without bending the needle or breaking the thread. Every operator on old style machines will appreciate this point.
Each machine is furnished with the following accessories and attachments:
Oil can filled with oil, 12 needles, 8 bobbins, wrench, guide and guide screw, large and small screw driver, instruction book, foot hammer, feller, ruffler, tucker, binder, and a set of 6 hemmers of assorted widths. We also furnish a written guarantee warranting the machine for five years, breakage of needles and shuttles excepted. This shows the great confidence we have in the machine, which we justly claim to be the best value for the money ever offered.
How to obtain this Machine.—We will send this machine FREE, freight paid to nearest railroad depot, to any one sending us 40 yearly paid subscriptions, or for 20 paid subscriptions and $10.00 cash; sold to subscribers only for $10.00 cash, railroad freight paid. The regular retail price of this machine is $35.00.
The following testimonials were furnished us by the manufacturers:
LAFAYETTE SPRINGS, Quincy, Ky., under date of June 21, 1932, writes: "I have one of your High Arm Sewing Machines. We have had it about 3 years, and it has proven to be just as good as represented. It is said to be one of the best machines in our neighborhood by all who have seen it."
MISS SALLIE MCCLELLAN, Vaneburg, Ky., under date of June 21, 1932, writes: "I received the machine and I am delighted with it. It does lovely work. There is not another machine in our town for which I would willingly exchange mine. It is a perfect gem in itself. I think I will be able to send you some orders by fall. Everyone likes this one so much."
HENRY JOHNSON, Millersburg, Ky., under date of June 21, 1932, writes: "Your Premium Machine is the best one I ever saw. I would not give it for any of my neighbors'. Some of whom have paid $50 for their sewing machine. I will tell all of my neighbors about your machine."

Small Posters Between the Cracks.
A cigar dealer was recently compelled to move from his down town stand, which he had occupied for 35 years, because of the demolition of the old building.
He packed his belongings with many a sigh of regret. When he had got his things all out, he turned to the workmen, who were waiting to begin tearing down the building, and remarked in a rather sarcastic tone:
"Well, boys, you may have all you find in this old trap."
The workmen began on the old floor, which had been worn into hollows by age. It has not been replaced since it was originally laid.
One of the men ripped up a board with his crowbar, raising a cloud of dust. When he got it out of his eyes, he saw something shiny in the crack.
He picked it up, and it proved to be a dime. Further investigation revealed the fact that the crack was lined with silver.
This was an incentive to the workmen. They pried their crowbars with remarkable energy for men poorly paid. In this instance they were amply rewarded.
In every crack of the floor silver dimes were found. Some of them bore dates of nearly half a century ago. The men gathered the coin in handfuls.
The cigar dealer, in speaking of the occurrence, said that he hadn't the slightest idea that so much money could be lost through carelessness and a poor floor even in 35 years.
"But it won't happen again," he said. "When I heard of it, I immediately gave orders to have my new store refloored with hard wood, and no cracks, at my own expense."—New York Herald.

AN ABSCESS IN THE CHURCH.
There is a negro church in Somerville, and some funny things happen there. It seems that there was a little recess behind the pulpit which was used for the pastor's dressing room. One day in a heavy rain the fresco fell with a crash upon the floor. Preparations were made to repair the damage with the customary African promptness.
The pastor, however, soon got disgusted, and one morning, after getting his feet covered with the dusty mortar, he ascended the pulpit. Casting his eye upon the dusty desecration of the church, he announced with dignity: "Bredren and sisters, it gibe yo' pastor great pain to call attention to the state of affairs in this yere church; but, bredren, de gospel in dis yere church must cease to be dispensed with till de abscess in de rear ob de pulpit am fricasseed."
The fresco was put up next day.—Boston Budget.

Austin, Texas.
Mrs.—Have made several fine negatives with your Camera and think it about as good as any instantaneous instrument I have ever used.
Truly yours,
(Signed) C. W. HARTMAN.
Boston, Mass.
Gentlemen—Too much cannot be said of the little Camera. I have more than 14 dozen pictures and have had but one bad one and that was my own fault. Since I have had your camera I have had no more on my mind wherever I go, and it is a little gem. If I could not get another I would not take $20.00 for it.
Very truly yours,
M. S. KALUZY.
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Gentlemen—I think the Camera is great. I can turn out just as good work with it as I can with Eastman's Kodak of same size, which sells for $20.00 in some places. I am a professional photographer and know a little about it.
Yours truly,
(Signed) FRANK G. SCHIER.
