Happy Days!

Happy Years!! Happy Hours!!!

Sing a song o' happy days—
Sing it all the time!
Roses bloom in the ways—
Bells that sweetly chime!

Sing a song o' happy years—
Sing it day and night;
Let the rain shed all the tears—
Let the heart be light!

Sing a song o' happy lives—
Sing it loud and long!
Brothers, sisters, lovers, wives,
Join the thrilling song!
Right or wrong,
Still sing that song.
Till angels to chorus throng!

Come to see us and look over our new store. We keep every thing you need about the house and plenty of good things to eat and of the very best quality and at such low pricestoo. A visit to our store will make you feel like singing a happy song when you get back home.

Besides all the good things we got to eat, we have good warm woolen underwear and clothing, boots and shoes and hats for the men-folks and boys, and good broad shoes for the women-folk and nice fine shapely shoes for the young ladies and children.

LYNCHED

Prominent Kentuckian Jumped From a Bridge, a Rope Being Around his Neck.

Had Just Killed His Second Man Within Two Weeks, and His Neighbors Made His Quietus.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 14.—Another lynching has been added to the unusual fall series of blue grass bees. At the close of the Battleville fair Oscar Morton, a prominent citizen of Morton, in Powell county, went on the warpath two weeks ago. Morton killed a man at Stanton, and was out on $5,000 bonds. He arrived at the fair yesterday and immediately proceeded to get drunk. When thoroughly intoxicated he started to hunt for Sheriff Simms, who is his deadly enemy, a feud of long standing having existed between the two. Simms and Morton met near the entrance to the fair grounds, and after a few words both drew guns. A quick exchange of shots followed, Morton using two guns. The first shot broke the sheriff's right arm at the elbow.

John Hogg, a friend of Simms, whipped out his gun and joined in the battle. When the smoke had cleared away it was found that Sheriff Simms was dead, having been shot through the breast, one shot in his abdomen and another through the arm. Morton was shot through the neck, while Hogg was unhurt.

Morton was hustled to the county jail and placed under guard. The people became infuriated and a big meeting was at once held on the public square. Col. John Drummond mounted a barrel and made a speech. He said the murderer must be hanged, but the work must be done quietly and with perfect order. Morton had killed two men in less than two months, and he must die by rope. A mob was instantly formed and marched to the jail. The jailer was overpowered and the keys to Morton's cell obtained. He was found crouching on the floor, and after a bitter struggle was seized and dragged out.

Seeing his game was up Morton made the best of things, and told the mob he did not care what they did with him provided they did their work quickly. After a short parley he was taken to a bridge some distance from town and a rope was placed around his neck. The leaders drew their guns and told him to jump or else he would be riddled with bullets. Turning around the doomed man cursed his captors, and uttering wild imprecations, leaped into space. The jump broke his neck. After dangling in the air some minutes his body became stiff and a volley of bullets was fired into it. The mob then dispersed, leaving the body dangling from the bridge. At noon today it was still there. None of the mob made any attempt to conceal their identity, and the hanging was conducted with as much formality as if it had been a legal affair.

Detectives at Sea.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 14.—Detectives are completely at sea regarding the identity of the men who robbed the overland train Thursday night. They claim to have discovered evidence that the robbers intended to wreck the train but changed their minds after encountering and capturing the track walker, whom they forced to flag the train. A clawbar was found near the scene of the robbery and the authorities believe it was to have been used in removing rails. A shovel has also been found in the tules near the track and it is believed it was used to bury the coin. Two strangers at Woodland acted so suspiciously this morning that after their departure the sheriff organized a posse and are now in pursuit. One of the suspected strangers was wounded in the hand and he dressed the wound at a woodland saloon. Officers are in close pursuit, and every road is under guard.

Female Scallers.

St. Louis, Oct. 14.—Before a throng which packed both banks of the river, and the great Eads bridge, this afternoon, Miss Mosenheim, of this city, won the mile and half sculling championship of America, defeating Miss Tillie Ashley, of Hartford, Conn., in 12:43.

Free Reading.

Cowpunchers, ranchmen and foremen of outfits when in town are invited to call at the YELLOWSTONE JOURNAL office and get a package of reading matter for the cost of carrying it away. Our exchanges accumulate faster than we can get rid of them and they are too good to burn. The folks in the country are welcome to them.

A Wonderful Conquerer.

No disease is more common among the people than scrofula. Handed down from generation to generation it is found in nearly every family, in some form. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in swellings in the neck or goitre or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane it may be known as catarrh, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is the prime cause of consumption.

In whatever form scrofula may manifest itself Hood's Sarsaparilla is its inveterate foe and conquerer. This medicine has such powerful alterative and vitalizing effects on the blood that every trace of impurity is expelled and the blood is made rich, pure and healthy.

Custer County Ladies.

You are invited to meet at the rooms of the Republican League club on Thursday, Oct. 18, at three o'clock p. m. to organize a Ladies Helena for the Capital club to cooperate with other ladies clubs in the state, to help on the cause. All are invited.

AFRAID? NOT HE.

He Merely Wanted His Wife to Hold the Light For Him.

At 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, when all the people living on College avenue were fast asleep, there was commotion in one of the beautiful residences along that thoroughfare. It was the home of a merchant, and the commotion broke loose in the sleeping apartment of himself and wife. She started it.

She awakened suddenly and thought she heard some one trying to break in down stairs. She shook her husband, and after some time had elapsed succeeded in making him realize the situation. They both listened. There was some noise, sure enough, and a cold shiver crept down his spinal column and even to his toes.

He determined not to get scared, though his teeth were chattering, so he announced that he would go down and investigate.

"Aren't you afraid, dear?" nervously asked his wife.

He took out his revolver, struck a match, lighted a lamp and then looked at her in disgust.

"Afraid? Well, hardly. I never saw the man yet I was afraid of. Now, don't make any noise, but come on."

The little woman started in astonishment. "Do you want me to go too?"

"Do I want you to go? Why, of course I do. You must go ahead and carry the light so I can see to shoot. Do you think I could hit a burglar in the dark? Hurry up, or he'll be gone."

And that man made the little woman go ahead with the light, while he held the revolver over her shoulder at full cock. They traversed the house from garret to cellar, finally found a stray dog scratching at the back door and came back to bed. He sat up for an hour telling her what he would have done had there been a burglar there.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

Dog Reputations.

Uncle George—Your dog isn't so smart as Tommy's, is he?

Little Johnny—Yes, he's just as smart, but I isn't so good a liar as Tommy.—Good News.

An "inch of rain" means a gallon of water spread over a surface of nearly two square feet or a fall of about 100 tons upon an acre.

Around the World.

It was nearly three hundred years after Columbus discovered the new world that the first voyage around the globe was made. April 13, 1796, the already celebrated English navigator, Captain Cook, sailed from the tight little isle on a voyage of discovery. His ship was the "Endeavor," of 370 tons, about one-third the size of the largest ocean-going steamers of the present day, and yet he sailed away as confidently as our summer tourists now start for a tour of Europe. June 11, 1771, he returned to England to be knighted and to have his name written on the undying roll of fame. Eight years later he was killed by the natives of Hawaii while attempting to regain his boat after a slight misunderstanding with the dusky islanders. Contrast his dangerous and laborious journey with the trips made by Nellie Bly and Elizabeth Bisland, who realized Verne's fiction of "Around the World in Eighty Days." Not all of us have the time or money to go around the world, yet we may see something of our own country. A tour only over the Burlington system will take the traveler through the greater part of eleven great states of the west and show him all varieties of scenery and all degrees of development in communities. Tickets, rates, maps and information about the Burlington Route can be obtained from your home ticket, or you may address W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, St. Paul, Minn.

This Time Last Year.

For the convenience of those who wish to make comparisons and for the benefit of those who can never remember, the JOURNAL will hereafter keep standing a table of the corresponding month of last year, showing day by day the principal meteorological conditions, as obtained from the record kept by the United States weather observer in this city. Following is the record for Oct., 1893:

Our Future Population.

The territorial area of Japan is about one-twenty-fourth that of the United States, not counting Canada, which is likely some time to come in, and it supports 40,000,000 people. At this rate it is computed that the North American continent would sustain a population of 1,000,000,000. How soon that limit is to be reached may be remitted to the prophets and the statisticians, but it will come some time without doubt, requiring an increasingly wise type of statesman and politician on the way if we are to hold together and carry out the destinies which seem appointed to us.—New York Tribune.

Shell Sounds.

The peculiar murmuring sound, not unlike the ripple of the waves on a still evening, which we hear on placing a shell or other hollow object to the ear, is due to the fact that the concave surface concentrates and multiplies all different sounds around us, so as to render them audible. The many sounds always present in the air are augmented by the resonant cavity of the shell.—Science Journal.

Overheard on the River.

"You are nothing but a big bluff," remarked the river to the bank. "Is that so?" retorted the bank. "If I take a notion to come down on you, your name will be mud."—Indianapolis Journal.
