LOSES GAME

Whitefish Goes Down to Defeat Before Somers Ball Team, Score 7 to 9

VERY INTERESTING GAME

Cold Day Makes Good Playing Impossible—Score Is Tied Twice and Result Was in Doubt Until the Last Innings Was Retired in Last Inning

Whitefish went down to defeat in the ball game with Somers Sunday, to the tune of 9 to 7. The game was not of as high class as the local team is capable of putting up, but was none the less interesting, for there were several ties during the progress of the game, which kept the finish very much in doubt.

Somers has a very good team this year, the battery, E. Torbgson and Taylor, being especially good. Their team work is also good, and shows the result of practice which is lacking in the Whitefish team. E. Torbgson, Devoe and Thompson all did good batting for the visitors.

The day was cold and rather windy, and not at all favorable for fast ball playing. On a better day the same two teams would put up a much faster game. Whitefish has a good team, however, and before the season is over will make a good showing.

The local team made many errors, and several very bad ones, and it was on this account that the game was lost. They out-batted the visitors, and had all the best of the argument, but unusual errors at critical times proved very costly. There were errors made by some of the players which were entirely foreign to their usual form.

Manager Joe Hamill batted well, and covered third base in first class style, with possibly the exception of one play. Emard, on first, made one error, but otherwise held down his position in good shape. Van Slyke, on second, nailed everything that came his way. He is in good shape and can be depended upon to give a good account of himself.

Donovan's batting was one of the features of the game, and he never failed to connect with the ball. Behind the bat he made good, and seemed to get better with every inning. Peterson, the short-stop, batted well, but made a couple of costly errors early in the game. Beaudin held forth in center field and played his usual game. Knapton, in right field, played a very good game. He is a ball player, all right, and will undoubtedly make good. Howell, in left field, did not get warmed up for several innings, but finished the game like a whirlwind.

Hardy, the local pitcher, is one of the new players, and is evidently not at his best, although he has all the earmarks of a ball player. He pulled out of some pretty tight places during the game, and it was not his fault that the game was lost.

Tommy Miller and Jim Shoaf, two of the regular players, were unable to be present at the game.

The band turned out and furnished music for the occasion.

The score by innings:

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS IN WHITEFISH

Lakeside lodge, No. 49, Knights of Pythias, was organized in Whitefish last night by Grand Keeper of Records and Seal Lee Dennis of Great Falls, acting as deputy grand chancellor.

The new lodge starts out with a membership of about forty-five of our best citizens, which is a sufficient number to assure interesting meetings right from the beginning. The Knights of Pythias lodge has in the neighborhood of three-quarters of a million members, who have adopted as their guiding principle abiding friendship for one another and the upholding of constituted authority wherever found.

Meetings will be held in Matthews' hall every Thursday evening and to all visiting knights the latchstring hangs on the outside.

H. L. Gloyde, an old member of the order, has been largely instrumental in getting the organization started here, having been at work with that idea in view for several months. The lodge is equipped with a complete set of furniture and other working necessities.

JAMES SMITH DEAD

James Smith died yesterday morning at the Whitefish hospital, after an illness of several weeks. He was suffering from epileptic dementia, and for several days preceding his death there was no hope of his recovery. His daughter came in from Spokane some time before his death.

He was well known in Whitefish, having lived here for several years, and owned considerable property in the town.

CLEAN PARK

Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings to Be Designated as Clean-up Day for Park.

EVERYONE TURN OUT

Chamber of Commerce Holds Busy Session and Decides to Call Upon Citizens to Help in Clearing Up the Park Grounds—Other Matters Are Taken Up.

The trustees of the Chamber of Commerce held their regular meeting on Tuesday night, all the members of the board and all the other officers being present except Trustee Tenner.

The secretary reported that letters of inquiry had been coming in continuously of late, in answer to advertising setting forth the openings here.

Mayor Snyder having informed one of the trustees that farmers coming into the town were complaining because a suitable place was not provided for them to tie their horses, the matter was discussed and the secretary was instructed to communicate with the townsie company in regard to getting a lot for this purpose.

The matter of a public watering trough was also discussed, but this was thought to more properly come within the scope of the town council, and was turned over to that body.

Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week were designated as days for the people to turn out and clean up the park.

A finance committee was appointed, consisting of Wm. Parent, J. E. Cavanaugh and H. J. McCabe. This committee will call upon delinquent members and endeavor to have them pay up.

The matter of making an exhibit at the county fair was discussed, and a committee was appointed to gather products. This committee is composed of G. W. Avery, Wm. Parent and E. A. Southwick.

A proposition was submitted looking to united effort of all the commercial organizations of the county, and the secretary was instructed to get in communication with the various secretaries.

FLATHEAD EXHIBIT

E. R. Gay went through Monday from Stryker, bound for Kalispell. Mr. Gay owns a ranch at Stryker, in Lincoln county, and has been there directing his spring farming operations.

He states that an effort is being made in Kalispell to provide for a permanent exhibit of Flathead county products there, in which every section of the county could be represented. He is enthusiastically in favor of the proposition.

GO TO COLUMBIA FALLS

The drama "Hick'ry Farm" was presented in Columbia Falls Sunday night by the same people who put the play on in Whitefish recently. A good-sized audience turned out and the play was well received. D. Kelley, Mrs. W. A. Jones, Miss Florence Cavanaugh and Mrs. F. L. Burns accompanied the troupe to Columbia Falls and aided in the production of the play.

The receipts from the play will be applied towards the Catholic rectory which is to be erected in Whitefish.

FIRST CONCERT

The Whitefish band gave its first outdoor concert of the season in the band stand last Friday evening, when a fine musical program was rendered. The band plays better than ever this spring, and it is evident that there has been much improvement as a result of the winter rehearsals under Bandmaster Kelley.

The Big Bend Light and Power Co. is donating light for the band stand, and wired the structure without making any charge. The band will give concerts at intervals throughout the summer.

WHITEFISH, MONTANA

SURVEYORS MAY SOON BE HERE

From a letter received in Whitefish this week from a high official of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound railroad, it is understood that the route up Whitefish river and Swift creek, mentioned in The Pilot last week, is to be investigated.

At least, the letter says so, in plain terms. There is said to be a low pass between Swift creek and the North Fork of the Flathead, through which the Milwaukee could reach the North Fork coal fields easily, and which would have the advantage of allowing them to run their line through Whitefish and Kalispell, the two largest places in Flathead county, without making any wide detours.

40,000 RAILROAD TIES PER MONTH

The outlook is that the tie-making industry along the Great Northern in this part of Flathead county is going to continue to flourish for some time to come. J. A. Samson, the tie contractor, is now operating upon a large scale, and expects to continue to purchase many ties.

Mr. Samson not only operates several tie camps himself, but also purchases many of the ties from other people. His territory extends from Rexford to Essex. He is now handling in the neighborhood of 40,000 ties per month, most of which come from the vicinity of Whitefish.

CONDUCTOR DIDN'T GET EXCITED

Karl Riedelsberger, the concert violinist, was among the passengers on the train which was held up last Saturday near Hillyard, and was one of the passengers injured in the collision for which the bandits were responsible later. In an interview in the Spokesman-Review he speaks as follows of Conductor B. S. Robertson, who was in charge of the train:

"I think I never saw a man so unconcerned under trying circumstances as our conductor. He was perfectly calm, and laughed and joked about the affair, sending a brakeman back to flag a freight train that was behind us and staying in our coach to reassure timid passengers. The trainmen were splendid in their behavior and treatment of us."

WILL CUT OUT TREES

In putting in the electric transmission line between Whitefish and Kalispell, the Big Bend Light and Power Co. will have to cut out a strip of timber for about four miles, so that falling trees will not put the line out of service. It is the intention to cut out a strip of timber wide enough so that no tree in falling could strike the line. Quite a number of men will be given employment for several weeks at this work.
