The merchants of this city are giving out some unusually beautiful calendars this year, some of them of the hand colored variety, which makes a very acceptable Christmas gift for their patrons.

Orrien Williamson received word Saturday that his mother Mrs. M. C. Williamson had died in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Williamson is well known in this city as she lived here for several years prior to moving to Vancouver two years ago. Interment was made in Vancouver.

The first skating of the season on the new skating rink in the ball park, was enjoyed Sunday afternoon. On account of the warm weather and a fall of snow every other day it has been hard to get the ice in good shape. A few real cold days will fix it in excellent shape.

Miss Edith Fee, who during the past few years has conducted a millinery in this city, has gone to her home in Newport, Wash., to spend the holidays and after the first of the year she will take a position in one of the department stores in Bonners Ferry, where she will have charge of the millinery department.

It is reported that the express companies will reduce their rates after the first of the year, but they do not fear much from the parcel post as it is so new that it will be impossible for it to work perfectly at the start and can not give the service that the express companies can who have been working their problems out during the last fifty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Swanson and children came down from Essex yesterday to spend Christmas.

Another week and we will all have to be learning to write the number of the year right on our letters.

The nineteen wood cutters employed by E. L. Geddes enjoyed a splendid Christmas dinner at the Montana Cafe, at the expense of Mr. Geddes. It is needless to say that it was thoroughly appreciated.

There is much said in the east about the cold climate in Montana, but if they were here trying to freeze a skating rink they would all think differently about it.

There is some consolation in knowing that we have passed the shortest day in the year and that from now on the days will be lengthening out fast. That means smaller electric light bills also.

Mayor Mayfield and family expect to leave next week for Helena where they will remain during the two months that the legislature is in session.

The court room in the city hall has been remodeled and had a new floor put in so that it is a pretty respectable looking place, but still it is not what it should be. A brand new hall all the way through is needed.

The merchants of Whitefish are well pleased with the Christmas trade and all predict record breaking sales at the end of this month, which will also mark the end of the year. Business has been as good as it ever was they all say.

Several widows left in poor circumstances were given a very merry Christmas by the railroad boys who collected a nice little purse and purchased some of the real necessities of life. Mayor Mayfield headed the list and saw to it that the presents were properly distributed.

Butter Nut Bread. The finest bread you ever ate. City Bakery.—Adv.

The Pilot will take wood in exchange for subscription. If you are in arrears and want to get even by bringing in a nice load of wood we will be pleased to have you do so.

J. P. Wilde, one of the partners of the firm of Mabry & Wilde, clothiers, reports that he enjoyed an excellent holiday trade, and feels quite relieved to know that the rush is over. He states that the first shop lifting stunt that he is aware of in his store was tried on Tuesday night. Two men, evidently pals, entered the store and spent considerable time looking around while the clerks were busy and one of them who was examining a sweater tucked it under his coat when he thought no one was looking. A man who did accidentally see the performance reported the matter to Mr. Mabry, and in the meantime the fellow grew suspicious and dropped it on the floor and hurried out post-haste.

DIGNITY

Dignity is the importance due to rank or position. It means moral worth, true nobility of character, a high sense of honor and uprightness. Dignity is upheld by the wearing of what custom deems correct in clothes, the personnel and the Occasion being taken into consideration. "Dignity strikes the golden mean between what is colorless and what is showy, and it also holds the balance between what is careless and what is fastidious." Some occasions, owing to the circumstances connected with them, require garments that are more dignified and more formal than would otherwise be adhered to. For instance Colonel Roosevelt wore "Full Dress" at King Edward's funeral as this is the usual attire for funerals or weddings of high personages in some of the European countries. In America, the double breasted frock has formerly been worn at funerals, but at the present time the morning coat is supplanting the extremely dignified garment and is used upon many occasions where the former was wont to have been seen. Correct wearing apparel is an aid in compelling esteem, and a proper balance of dignity is essential.

A DOG NURSE.

The city of Polson is responsible for the story of a dog, who was a real Samaritan, and who carried out the teachings of the Bible. Many people could learn a lesson from the following story. The Polson writer says that a few weeks ago a fine shepherd dog wandered into town and in some way sustained a broken leg. He hobbled around on three legs until he arrived at Holt's blacksmith shop, which he immediately converted into a hospital. He pre-empted a corner there, and made ready to stay there until the bone had knit. Several dogs visited the newcomer, and after exchanging smelly salutations proceeded on their way. However, the Good Samaritan was not far away. He was a little coal black, shiny fellow, and he made a close investigation of the case. He licked the wounded leg, and after commiserating with the sufferer for a little while left hurriedly. He returned in a short time with a bone, which he placed where the wounded shepherd dog could get it. Daily this little fellow appeared, and every day he brought a bone. He kept this up until the leg had knit and the invalid had recovered sufficiently to travel.—Kalispell Times.

When a man develops into a growler it's time to rush him.

Is your table nice enough for a New Years Dinner?

DEAR AMY:
YOU AND BOB MUST TAKE NEW YEARS DINNER WITH US. JOHN HAS JUST MADE A GOOD BUSINESS DEAL, AND BOUGHT ME A NEW DINING ROOM SET. I WANT "TO SHOW IT OFF."
I'M NOT BASHFUL ABOUT CONFESSING THIS TO AN OLD FRIEND LIKE YOU, AMY. WE WOMEN ALL DO LOVE PRETTY HOMES. IF HUSBANDS, WHO CAN EASILY AFFORD IT, ONLY KNEW HOW MUCH HAPPINESS THEY COULD GIVE THEIR WIVES BY TURNING THEM LOOSE IN A FURNITURE STORE, TO BUY WHAT THEY WANTED, WOULDN'T THE FURNITURE FLY, THOUGH?
LOVINGLY,
LOU.
