The Judith Basin Star is the name of a new paper published at Philbrook, Mont., by M. L. Tuve.
It is a newsy sheet, well edited and printed, and The Record wishes it success in its venture in the Fergus county field of journalism.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason, formerly of Gage, have moved to Roundup, and are occupying the upstairs rooms in the Grant & Harden building.
Their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, is also with them. They expect to make this their home all winter, Mr. Mason being the inspector for C., M. & St. P.

Teagarten & Seaman have leased the Lewistown Daily News from Geo. H. Beasley and are contemplating many improvements in that little news purveyor. They have already increased its size from a three column to a four column page. Geo.
Beasley, formerly publisher of the News will devote his time to a new publication, The Judith Basin Stockman and Farmer, several issues of which have already appeared.
The Record wishes both papers a successful and useful career.

Edward Ewy and Will Hopkins arrived here from Langdon, N. D. last Saturday morning and will make their home here. Mr. Ewy filed on a homestead in this vicinity last spring and was agreeably surprised at the growth Roundup has made since that time. He will establish residence on his claim and will become one of Fergus county's enterprising agriculturists. Mr. Hopkins has two brothers who have homesteads here and will undoubtedly also file on a quarter which suits his fancy.

The Coast Line Land Co. will open their office at this place as soon as their office furniture arrives which will be in a few days. Chester Kennison will be resident manager. The entire business of this big land company will be conducted from this office and an aggressive campaign will be waged to secure new settlers for the Musselshell Valley and the surrounding country. Advertising matter descriptive of the country and its possibilities will be sent out broadcast which no doubt will result in a heavy influx of homeseekers next spring and summer.

Those from here who attended the opening of the Adams Hotel at Lavina last Friday report that it was one of the biggest events ever pulled off in that town. The evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing in the spacious dining room and office. Prof. Grady's famous orchestra of this place furnished the music. There were many people present from Billings as well as from the surrounding country and all were enthusiastic in their praise of the new hostelry which is one of the best of its kind on the new coast extension.

BIG EVENT

Opening of Adams Hotel at Lavina Friday Proves Big Social Event.

The opening of the Adams Hotel, one of the largest and finest hotels along the new coast extension of the St. Paul road, and which is named after J. Q. Adams, the well known railroad official, was pronounced by those who were in attendance as one of the biggest events ever held in this part of the country. Among those present to participate in the opening were people from Roundup, Billings, Harlowton and the surrounding country numbering fully a hundred.

The large dining room and office were cleared for the occasion and dancing was indulged in until 4:30 the next morning. Prof. Grady's Imperial Orchestra of this place assisted by Prof. H. C. Beach, leader of the 2nd regiment band of Billings, and "Doc" McFarland, a well known newspaper man and also a member of the above mentioned band, furnishing the music.

An elegant midnight supper was served, and all were highly pleased with the cordial treatment accorded them by the hotel management.

The Adams Hotel is owned by L. C. Lehfeldt of Billings, Harry Grant being manager of the establishment.

ENDS IN MURDER

crossing the track encountered Hinton on horseback. Coming up to the place just south of Newton's ice house he discovered Mahaney rolling around and groaning but unable to speak. He immediately spread the alarm and on his return with several other people found the man dead.

Indications plainly point that the parties had been having a scuffle as the neckyoke was lying out of place and Mahaney had thrown aside his coat and vest. An examination of the dead man's clothes disclosed the fact that the contents of his pockets had not been molested and in one of the trouser pockets was found a rock about the size of two fists.

Mahaney, who had been doing contracting around town on a small scale such as excavating cellars, was 39 years of age and is survived by a wife and four children, ranging in age from four to ten years.
The body was shipped to Kansas City, Tuesday for burial, that being his former home. The family of the deceased being left almost destitute a subscription of over $200 was raised by the people of Roundup for their benefit.

N. J. Evans, a young attorney from Clinton, Iowa, has decided to locate in Roundup to practice his profession. He has rented rooms in the European Hotel for a temporary office until he can secure more convenient quarters.

His Days of Prosperity.

"You haven't always been a hobo, I take it."
"No, sir, I can remember the time when I could pay for a room at a hotel and had a watch and pocket book to leave under the pillow."

ENJOYABLE LEAP YEAR BALL

Young Ladies of Roundup Distinguish Themselves in the Role of Superman.

The leap year ball given last evening by the young ladies of Roundup was without doubt the most exclusive and enjoyable social functions ever held in Roundup and demonstrated that the fair sex is capable of playing the role of superman to a high stage of perfection.
This event which has set Roundup's social circles agog for the past month, and especially the male population, with pleasurable anticipation, will mark an epoch in the society doings of the "Queen City of the Musselshell."

The laundry hall in which the affair was held was prettily decorated, red and white being the color scheme, with little red hearts as the motif. A cozy corner, draped with curtains and supplied with a sofa and about a dozen downy pillows over which a Japanese lantern cast its mellow glow, was one of the principle attractions. The favors were programs made in the shape of a heart tied with a red ribbon and adorned with little red hearts pierced with Cupid's arrows and the words, "Leap Year Ball—'08."

The change-about of the natural order of things was difficult to become accustomed to at first, but the young gentlemen early in the game learned to sit still, look wise and await developments. And they were kept busy, too, every moment of the evening in dancing and in telling the oft-repeated story which had been poured in their ears for so many centuries by the fair sex—"I'm engaged." This opportunity to get back at their oldtime friends, the enemy, was the result of much merriment.

Frapee was served throughout the evening by little Miss Murphy, and at midnight a three-course supper was served. Prof. Grady's orchestra of three pieces furnished the music for the occasion. The dance broke up about three o'clock a. m.

Among those present were:
Messrs. and Mesdames Davies, Thompson, Grady, Moody, Miller, Manuel, Ryan and Nelson; the Misses Russell, Schrupp, Johnson, Scofield, Lyke, Gaughan, Murphy, Swisher, Buckley, Goetz, Mason, Scott and Hensel; Messrs.
Bushnell, Cheney, O'Neil, Wilson, Eiselein, Swisher, Fred and Homer Martin, McGiboney, Boody, Goetz, Perkins and Osborne.

REPUBLIC MINE RESUMES WORK

The matter of adjusting a tonnage scale for the mines of Roundup has been pending since October 13, when the executive committees of these two bodies was in session at this place. The agreement was reached amicably at the Helena meeting last week, at which several leading operators and representatives of the mine workers were present. President Thomas Gibson of Sheridan, Wyo., had charge of the miners' side of the negotiations.

The operators who were present at this meeting were, W. W. Taylor of the place, J. U. Griedley of Sheridan, Wyo., C. S. Anderson of Red Lodge, F. W. C. Whyte of Anaconda and Thos. Burke of Helena.
Those representing the United Mine Workers of America are: M. F.
Purcell of Stockett, Mont., President Thos. Gibson of Sheridan, Wyo., T. C. Gibson of Chestnut, Mont., and Wm. Shields of Stock-ett, Mont.

Mine No. 2 of the Republic Coal Co., and the properties of the Roundup Coal Mining Co. being in the development stage, were not effected by the disagreement over the tonnage scale and did not discontinue work.

At the same meeting a tonnage scale was decided upon for the Spring Creek coal district near Lewistown the figures which will apply on that vein being $1.28.
The men asked for $1.30 while the operators offered $1.25, final adjustment being arranged at $1.28.
This vein of coal is different from the Roundup vein being much harder to work.

THE VAIN THING.

"It seems to me that they are running the Merry Widow hat into the ground," said the grumbler, "when the horses get to wearing them. The other day I saw a horse going into the barn on one of the side streets; it was one of these street car horses, with a hat so big he could hardly get through the door. And he wasn't a pretty horse, either. He was just a common big-footed old nag who was trying to attract attention to himself in this way."
