Musselshell News.

Fred W. Handel, wife and son returned Tuesday of last week from a short business and pleasure trip to Helena.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thompson of Hawk Creek last Sunday. Mother and baby reported as doing fine.

John Deskins returned a few days ago from an extensive eastern trip during which time he visited all of the larger cities of that section.

L. J. Wescot and wife of Fattig were in town a few days last week purchasing supplies for their large stock ranch which is located on Fattig Creek.

Mrs. Robert Worthington and child left Wednesday morning of this week for Great Falls where they will enter the hospital for treatment.

The Polka Dot Club dance given last Saturday night in the hall was well attended and pronounced a very enjoyable affair by those present.

J. T. Algie, foreman for Mc Intosh Bros., has a large force of men camped near town repairing the river banks and rail road grade for the C. M. & St. P. Ry.

Plans are being prepared for a stone and concrete Bank building and it is expected by next April or May that the local bank will be located in its own separate quarters.

E. H. Tillman, who has been in the employ of Handel Bros. as stenographer and bookkeeper for some time, resigned his position and left for Butte Tuesday of this week.

Wm. Besaw recently purchased the business of E. L. Green of Custer, including hotel saloon and livery stable at that point and has already taken possession moving his family to said point.

Wm. Bethke of Gage has rented the Gile cottage and moved his family here to take advantage of the good schools and may later purchase lots and erect a home in our midst.

The Roundup Record Souvenir edition made its appearance and is pronounced by all a very credible production. The publishers deserve considerable credit for their enterprise.

Charles Lawrence arrived by stage last week from Grassrange accompanied by his bride of a few weeks. They will visit at the home of Mr. Lawrence's sister, Mrs. H. W. Osterlander of Fattig, for a short time.

J. O. Absher of the local land and locating company is making extensive preparations to look after the settlers the coming spring having a choice lot of locations and bargains in ranches to offer when the rush is on.

Harry Perkins of Roundup who is employed by Newton & Son, visited the Handel and Stockwell homes here last Sunday returning to Roundup on No. 3 Monday morning. Harry has hosts of friends here who are always glad to have him drop in.

McCleary Bros. have taken a contract to drill a well for J. R. Cooley in connection with his new residence near town. An effort will be made to strike a flowing well of pure water similar to the other flows already encountered in numerous wells at this point.

Wm Maginnis of the Maginnis & Co. of Wolfspring returned from a hurried trip to Omaha, Neb., a few days ago. He states that he will shortly purchase several bands of sheep, having rented the Wolfspring ranch of Handel Bros., the owners, for a term of years.

The arrangements are about completed for the Christmas tree and dance at the hall, on Christmas night, Friday Dec. 25th. Everything will be done to make it an enjoyable time for young and old. Presents will be distributed from an illuminated tree. Margees Full Orchestra will furnish the music and John Brennan manage the floor for the dance.
