

YOU CAN GET

Good Lumber and Building Material at our yard because we give all our buying our personal attention. You will find our lumber is new and our finish is the finest in the land.

Newton Lumber Co.

Leading Lumber Merchants of Roundup.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Photos at Fairchild's Studio.

Pants, pants, pants—Fad, Fad, Fad.

Try the "Up-to-date" massage.

See Marshall's harnesses before you buy.

Have you registered? Do it now!

Come to the Bungalow for your meal tickets.

E. A. J. Jesse—Lands, Relinquishments, Insurance.

Lula Archer of Delphia was in the city Sunday.

Gentlemen, we want your business. Fad Fad Fad.

O. K. Hufsa of Musselshell spent Tuesday at the county seat.

Marshall's store is headquarters for apples. $1.50 to $2.50 per box.

M. H. Frederickson of Melstone was in Roundup over Sunday.

Walter French of Gage transacted business in Roundup Tuesday.

E. E. Snelling of Delphia was in town on business the first of the week.

Fred Luring of Melstone was registered at the Commercial Hotel Tuesday.

J. A. Kelly, of Forsyth, came in this morning to look after his business interests in this city.

The Hendrix Mercantile Company is installing an up-to-date electric coffee grinder this week.

E. R. Judd and wife of Lewistown visited in Roundup several days the forepart of the week.

Ward Beley of Harlowton, representative of the International Harvester Company was in town Tuesday.

A number of deals took place in Roundup this week for which the Record Want Column is given credit.

J. H. Woodley, proprietor of the popular Cozy Cafe, spent several days this week on his ranch near Miles City.

E. L. Sheppard came down from Lewistown the first of the week to spend several days on his ranch near the Snowy Mountains.

County Attorney Desmond J. O'Neil returned Wednesday from a trip to Billings. He had some legal business before Judge Pierson of this district.

The barber shops in Roundup will be closed in the afternoon on Washington's Birthday. All patrons must have their work done before 12 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Rice, who have a fine ranch on the Flatwillow bench, left Wednesday evening for Austin, Minn., their old home, for a few months' visit.

P. A. Perkins, one of the prosperous ranchers on the Flatwillow bench, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Perkins resides across the line in Fergus county, and is among those who hope that the six-mile strip taking in the Flatwillow country will some day be a part of Musselshell county.

Al Shaw superintendent of yards for the Montana Lumber Company, arrived in the city Tuesday evening. He was called back to Hilger Wednesday morning by a telephone message informing him of the death of Fred Tahler, manager of the yard at that place. Mr. Tahler died very suddenly of heart disease.

The Bungalow on Railway Ave.

Every day a Bargain Day at the Fad.

Have you registered? Do it now!

Mayer Shoes are sold only at Marshall's.

The highest market prices paid for hides. Flour & Feed Store.

If it is a prescription, look for the Red Cross, Blair's Drug Store.

M. E. Bell of Wheaton attended the farmers meeting here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Blair spent Sunday at the Fairchild ranch west of Roundup.

Try Five Roses Flour once and you will use no other brand. Marshall sells it.

Attorney Moe returned the first of the week from a several days visit at Helena.

Bruce P. Radigan spent Sunday with friends at Lewistown, returning Monday evening.

American Lady and American Gentleman Shoes at Hendrix Mercantile Co., Second street.

Harry Grant and George Hendershott of Lavinia were business visitors in the city Tuesday.

The ladies of the Congregational Circle held a food sale at the Newton Hardware store last Saturday.

Mat Clegg and Jack Toner returned last evening from a week's visit in Butte, Anaconda and Bozeman.

The Fad has added the well known Hart, Schaffner & Marks line of clothing to their clothing department.

C. F. Richardson left last Saturday for White Sulphur Springs. He returned the forepart of this week.

The Klein postoffice now has money order service. Up to this time the patrons of that office did not enjoy this service.

Stanley Collins of Musselshell was registered at the Grand Hotel Tuesday. He was a delegate to the farmers' meeting.

J. G. Greenlie was arranged before Police Magistrate McVay Tuesday on a charge of disturbing the peace. He plead guilty and paid a fine of $1.00.

You build a home at once. Do it right. The first step in this direction is to see Chamberlain & Jensen. If you have not just decided what to build we can help you decide.

Wm. Tillman came up from Musselshell the first of the week to spend a few days with his brother, Charlie, at this place, and to attend the central meeting of the Musselshell County Farmers' Club as a delegate from Musselshell.

J. B. Martin has arrived in the city from Harlowton, and will take charge of Marshall's shoe and furnishing goods department. Mr. Martin is a thoroughly experienced man in his line and Mr. Marshall is fortunate in securing his services.

A. Bergson and J. J. Richardson, chairman and clerk of school district No. 89 on Flatwillow bench across the line in Fergus county, were in the city Tuesday arranging for the delivery of the school bonds recently voted by that district for a new school house. The bonds were purchased by the state.

E. W. Radford was brought down from Lavinia Tuesday in the custody of Jim Baldwin on a misdemeanor charge, it being alleged that he tore down some constable notices which had been tacked up on his building. He was arraigned Tuesday evening and his preliminary hearing set for Friday, February 23.

Socks, socks, socks—Fad, Fad, Fad.

Oranges, $2.00 per half box at Marshall's.

Jameson & Dusenberry, Lawyers, general law practice...Main Street, Roundup.

Elmer Schefsick and Myrauld Midgekaul each paid a fine of $10 for engaging in a fight Monday.

Jim Elliot and party passed thru town yesterday on his way to his ranch from a visit in Billings.

Miss Harriet L. Lane came in this morning from Forsyth to attend the Pioneer Club blowout tonight.

Lincoln's birthday had a decided tendency to enliven things in the local justice and police court this week.

Hunting and fishing license for 1912 have been received at the Roundup Hardware Co. where they can now be procured.

Jess Munger raised the score on Case's alleys Tuesday when he rolled 272. Dad Fletcher made an average of 208 for 11 consecutive games the same day.

Miss Helen, Lyons, Miss Freeser and George Lyons came down from Twodot last evening. They will be guests at the Pioneer Club reception and ball tonight.

H. B. Samuel of Wheaton has been in the city the past week awaiting the arrival of his niece and son-in-law from Illinois. They arrived today with a carload of farm implements, horses and cattle.

C. J. Rushmore arrived here this week from Sheridan, Wyoming, to accept a position as salesman in the Fad store. He comes very highly recommended and will no doubt make good in his new position.

Joe Brown the jovial mine superintendent of the Roundup Coal Co., was wearing a smile of the stay-on-forever-never-come-off kind Saturday night when his wife and daughter arrived on the Olympian from Dietz, Wyoming.

The Royal Neighbors met last night in the rooms of the Pioneer Club, the hall in which the meetings are usually held being in process of decoration at the time. Twenty-one members were present. Two new members were initiated. Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening spent.

"Sawdust," Roundup's Sub-Commercial Club, was arrested Wednesday evening for attempting to reduce the police force of Roundup. He was released from custody yesterday morning and later in the day was fined $5,000 on Jack Sparlin's kangaroo court. "Sawdust" paid the fine and bought a drink with the change.

MARRIED

Julius Marecich and Miss Carolina Madee, both from Camp No. Three, were married at mass Sunday morning February 11, by Father Mueller. The couple will make their home at the camp.

LEAP YEAR VALENTINE PARTY.

Mrs. Chas. Dozois entertained the teachers at a Leap Year Valentine Party on Wednesday evening. Progressive Hearts was played, Miss Dunn and Ray Newton winning the prizes. At eleven o'clock Mrs. Dozois and Mrs. McDonald served delicious refreshments which were suggestive of the day. Before leaving each guest-shutting their eyes drew their fortune from a tree of hearts. The guests were, Misses Eileen Morie, Florence Thieme, Laura Dunn, Mary Frawley, Clara Clarke, Eva Stocker, Sue Bragstad and Minnie Ferguson, and Messrs Wm. Lambert, J. H. Grant, Jarret, E. Hendrix, A. Boyer, R. Newton and J. Brant.

SPECIAL AGENT IN ROUNDUP.

L. T. Hauberg, a special government land agent from Helena, came to Roundup Sunday. Mr. Hauberg is doing some special work for the government in the way of seeing that no irregularities are taking place in homestead proofs. It is understood that there might be several contest started by the government and that in several instances protests by the special agent will be made in homestead proofs. The special agent will remain here about ten days.

NOTICE

To the Socialists and Laboring Men in Roundup.

A caucus will be held in the Miners' union Hall in Roundup on Tuesday, February 20th, 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a full socialist ticket for the spring city election to be held in Roundup the first Monday in April. Everybody invited to attend

AND STILL THEY COME

THE improvements in our store have been completed and arrangements are being rushed as fast as possible. Our clerks are being kept busy unpacking our new goods. While all of our stock has not yet arrived we however expect it within a few days. We want the people of Roundup to call at our store and look over our stock whether you buy or not. Your call will be appreciated by us.

Men's Furnishings Department

Men's Clothing Facts

We study these four points. We meet each as follows:

- Fabric—Satisfactory
- Style—Latest
- Work—Faultless
- Price—Moderate

The values we give are not all on the outside.

JACKSON CORSETS

We have just received a complete line of these corsets.

GROCERIES

"Waumpum" and "University" Brand GROCERIES

are two of the best brands on the market. Try them once and you will always ask for them.

FURNITURE Closing out at Cost

We are closing out the remainder of our furniture stock including all our stoves at cost price. If you need anything in this line you cannot afford to miss this opportunity.

SHOES SOME SHOES PLEASE PEOPLE SHOES

Foot Schulz Shoes for Men have won for themselves an enviable place in masculine esteem. In the first place as to externals, the appeal on the score of distinctively good style. Next, as to wearing quality they prove themselves trusty friends, that a man can feel at home with or rather in. Lastly they talk to the pocket book in a way no other shoes do.

OUR LINE OF SHOES KEEPS STEP WITH THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

WE HAVE THAT KIND. LET US PROVE IT.

There is really nothing about Foot Schulz Shoes that should be different—that's why, after you have worn one pair, you will come back and buy again and tell your friends to try Foot Schulz Shoes. There is everything in these shoes that should be in the ideal Woman's Shoe—style that gives the foot that smart appearance expected only in custom-made footwear—the best of leathers and best of workmanship, and of course the result is eminently satisfactory, for during the life of the shoe it retains its shape.

If there's any virtue in values, or power in prices, we're bound to get your trade.

AUGUST SCHRUMP ROUNDUP, MONTANA