President C. H. COOPER, Vice-President D. F. HERRMAN, Cashier J. H. COOPER.

THE CHURCHES.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Services in the morning at 10 o'clock, a. m. and in the evening at 8 o'clock, p. m.

SOCIETY CARDS.

W. J. Alden was awarded the contract of grading Main street and Broadway by the City Council last week.

THE CITY CHRONICLED.

Postmaster Alderson informs us that the mail closes now at 9 p. m.

Banker Stebbins, wife and two daughters, spent two days in Bozeman last week.

The water melon, short in stature and small in weight has arrived. It readily retails for $1.25.

J. H. Bennett returned on Friday from Chicago, where he has been after a band of sheep.

Rev. L. L. Wood, of Helena, will preach at the court house next Sunday, 9th inst., at 11 a. m.

A drunken individual was incarcerated in the city hall Saturday night for using profane language.

Mr. Morse kindly sent the editor a box of strawberries this week, presumably the last of the season.

Mr. E. H. Shaw, chief clerk in the N. P. land office at Helena, is spending a week in Bozeman on business.

Secretary I. D. McCutcheon merits our thanks for a copy of the laws passed by the last session of the legislature.

J. J. Bennett, of Bozeman, is at present at White Sulphur Springs, sketching for the Territorial Historical Association.

P. E. and W. F. Studebaker, of Chicago, and South Bend, Ind., manufacturers of the Studebaker wagon, are in Bozeman.

City Engineer Bundock is busily engaged in cross-sectioning Broadway, where the grades commenced work on Tuesday.

S. Deutch and Joe Worley have the contract for laying out the town site of Dornix and Chicory, and will begin the work at once.

Dr. Campbell, having horse "Smoky" left on Saturday for Helena to trot on Wednesday and Friday, in charge of his driver, Cole.

"Here, my boy," said an eastern man to a Bozeman lad, "is a penny for you. Go buy some oranges. Be careful that you do not make yourself sick."

We understand that W. H. Alward and Mr. M. Ferris will soon start in business at Pony. They returned from a trip there on Monday night.

Bozeman's latest addition in the boot black profession is a helena boy. On Sunday he surprised the people on Main street by riding through town on a gallop.

S. Deutch returned from the Park on Saturday. While there he made the acquaintance of a coyote of real, live duds. From his description these beings are rare birds indeed.

Bert Blake, a type of Livingston town, is on his way to a brief holiday trip. Bert is getting up a directory of Livingston, which will soon be issued by a Helena office.

Among the business changes this week is Martin Hocker into his brick building on Main street. Nevitt Bros., into their new building vacated by Mr. Hocker. C. H. Broker & Co., into the Masonic building.

It will be noticed that the "Chronicle" are on hand again. The subject for this week is one that interests all whether they live in this country or not at that time, and can be relied on as being accurate.

Mr. Barnes, proprietor of Barnes' R. R. restaurant, has decided to quit business and will enjoy a few weeks in the National Park. Any persons having accounts against him and also persons owing him are requested to interview him before Friday morning.

On the 4th page will be found a communication from "Quaken Anp." Owing to circumstances over which we have no control, it did not appear last week as the writer intended, but as it contains interesting views we trust that it is as readable now as it would have been a week ago.

When you see a young lady skate sixty-seven times around the skating rink and then tell her fellow that she isn't a bit tired, do not go so far as to decide that the washing of one pocket handkerchief would make her dreadfully tired. One should not be so hasty to condemn on circumstantial evidence, no matter how strong it may be.

The Northern Pacific have fixed their rates to Portland as follows: First-class, $100; second-class, $75; emigrant, $45. The Union Pacific rates, St. Paul to Portland, via San Francisco, are: First-class, $130; second-class, $95; emigrant, $55. Both roads agreed on a uniform rate to San Francisco as follows: First-class, $120; second-class, $85; emigrant, $55.

Agent Sheriff has furnished us with the time of the departure and arrival of the trains according to the new time-table which went into effect on Sunday at 6 a. m. From that time the train arrives at Helena at 5 a. m. Leaving east the train leaves Helena at 10:40 p. m. and arrives at Bozeman at 3:10 a. m. and departs at 3:20.

BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENTS.

The Bozeman National Bank with its elegant cherry columns, plate-glass windows and silver railings looks "nobby" as the worthy vice-president and affable cashier, who preside over its destinies.

Work on the new Presbyterian parsonage has been begun, and the contractors, Archambault & Bourk, state it will be ready for occupancy by November 1st.

Mr. J. H. Taylor, our popular ex-postmaster, is making some changes in the interior arrangements of his store that will greatly enhance its already tasteful appearance. A long line of shelving on the west side of the store will be devoted to crockery, glassware and toys, while through the center of the commodious room will be placed his well-stocked news tables. The east side will be occupied by a very complete line of blank books, stationery goods, and wall paper, in endless variety. The front window will contain a large and tempting display of California fruit.

Alderman W. H. Tracy, who is the "Avant Courier" in the city, has just let the contract for the erection of a mammoth green house, 20x80 feet. It will be built on some lots of his just north of the court house. He says hereafter Bozemanites can have "gardenias" the year round.

Attorney Armstrong's pretty brick cottage, on Central Avenue, is rapidly nearing completion. It will be a splendid illustration of elegance and comfort combined.

Mr. Smith is putting the finishing touches on his tasty little house on Fenwick Avenue. He intends building several more cottages of a like character before snow flies.

Mr. Hinchman's commodious new house is completed, and he will become a permanent resident on Central Avenue after this week.

A Lammie's new brick block, on Main street, is nearly completed. He has already leased the ground-floor for a number of years.

Nevitt Bros. have built a spacious warehouse and workshop on the rear of their Main street lots, and will in all likelihood replace their row of wooden stores by a handsome brick block.

The roller rink has been undergoing a work of transformation; a new roof, hardwood floor, and other improvements will make it a very attractive place for pleasure-seekers.

The church street school, under the energetic supervision of contractor Zietke, is rapidly nearing completion. It is a model of architectural beauty and workmanlike construction. The "young idea of the East Side ought to shoot" with such attractive surroundings.

Matt Alderson will have one of the handsomest houses in town on Fenwick street, when the rainy season arrives, and will be ready for its owner's occupancy within a fortnight.

A large number of frame buildings are going up on Broadway, near the depot grounds.

BOZEMAN'S BUMS.

The usual number brought before Judge Dawes and receiving rewards of merit, varying from $5 and costs to thirty days in the county jail.

Thomas Sullivan started out with the commendable intention of getting away with all the "Bozeman bug juice," but in his haste to get to the fair he fell into the hands of a police officer and he will be ready for his owner's occupancy within a fortnight.

A large number of frame buildings are going up on Broadway, near the depot grounds.

THE ENGLISH DUES.

The English dues who were "held up" by some cow boys hired by Uncle Rufus Hatch, must extract considerable enjoyment from the various newspaper accounts of the affair. It has been published in at least twenty papers, each and every account differing as to the manner in which the robbery was committed. After all, it was very nice to be held up by a bunch of cow boys, and it is a pity that the average Englishman has lots to learn, but he don't stand in with this kind of amusement.

"Did you see any duds?" we asked of a Bozeman man recently from the Park. "Well I should snicker," he replied. "The woods is full of 'em. There were three in our party, and you'd a died to see 'em walk. One fellow came to breakfast in a red suit. At noon he put on a blue one and at night he put on a black one. He was to drink whiskey and instead of taking the usual dose of one cocktail before breakfast they take at least four. The ladies in the party walked into the bar room in the morning and took cocktails. This party with the exception of myself were all English people."

P. S. Bountree writes from Minneapolis that it is roasting hot; flies are intolerable, and contrasting this country with "Hades." He says the Minneapolis fair is a grand success, and the agricultural display made by Bismarck, Dakota, magnificent. The samples of Gallatin valley wheat and oats that he placed on exhibition at the St. Paul and Minneapolis Boards of Trade, created a genuine sensation. Never before had he heard of such enormous yields. Preparations for the reception of the "Villard party" are made on the grandest scale and the cities will make this celebration the most momentous in their history. He heard much talk about Bozeman, and always of the most favorable character. But the recent accounts of financial circles throughout the east has caused every capitalist to withdraw, like a gopher into his hole and they are only just beginning to peep out again. The harvest of Dakota and Minnesota is about over and the yield is turning out better than anticipated. Every one looks for brighter times. The Villard party's trip will be a great boom to Dakota and Montana. Phil will have some cheering news for holders of mining properties.

SKATING RINK RE-OPENED.

On Saturday night a large crowd gathered at the skating rink and enjoyed the exhilarating sport of "rolling" on the new hard wood floor. The management of this popular institution have put a new roof on the building and laid a new hard wood floor. The band was in attendance and the enjoyment large. Hereafter a gang will be rang every twenty minutes as a means of notifying the skaters to reverse, that the floor may be kept smooth and worn evenly.

HORSE STEALING.

On Wednesday night a man rooming with a Swede on Black street suddenly disappeared. At the same time two boxes belonging to W. O. Thompson were also missed, and suspicion fastened itself upon the missing man as the thief. The Swede claims that his room-mate dragged him and stole from the house over $200. The sheriff was immediately informed of the transaction and has done everything in his power to apprehend the thief. On Saturday one of the horses returned to his owner and it is thought that he rode the animal until he was tired and then mounted the other. People living in the vicinity of Bishop's Park claim to have seen a man in the brush on Thursday morning, answering the description of the thief. About the same time two saddles were stolen from the Poor farm, near town, and it is thought by the same party.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

S. S. Houston, a former resident of Bozeman, arrived in Bozeman last week from Idaho.

F. C. Mathers, the picture man is again in Bozeman and will call upon those who wish to buy in his line.

Capt. Geo. O. Eaton, of Cooke City, spent a few days in Bozeman this week purchasing supplies for the large crew of men working on his mining claims, smelter, etc.

Judge D. H. Bullong, of Livingston, threw his autograph on the register of the Northern Pacific hotel on Saturday.

D. H. Rogers, a tyro from Salem, New York, who comes to take a position on the Courier, and grow up with this country arrived on Sunday.

Jeff Ryan, from Leavenworth, Kansas, en route for Portland, stopped in Bozeman a few days and met acquaintances from his section of the country.

SOCIETY NEWS.

G. F. Bohner, hailing from Chicago, was at the Eastman house Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindley, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson and Mrs. Harris, sister of Geo. Wilson, have just returned from a three week's ramble in Montana's Wonderland, the Park. They had a most delightful trip, and saw hosts of distinguished eastern pilgrims, who were unanimous in pronouncing the scenery the finest on earth.

M. M. Black, the genial county recorder, has been down to Billings, and other towns on the raging Yellowstone. He returns thoroughly satisfied as he always has been, that there is no place like Bozeman and the beautiful Gallatin valley.

Mr. Morrill will occupy the house recently vacated by Mr. Langhorne.

D. B. Gray, representing the great house of D. M. Osborn & Co., has been spending a week in the far-famed Gallatin valley. Mr. Gray has traveled with the sheeping herds from Texas to Montana and he says that no where in the United States has he seen such enormous yields as in our own fair valley. He says it will do no good to tell residents of the mildewed east about fifty bushels to the acre, for they wouldn't believe it; but "converting to believing" and he goes back to all the fabulous tales of Strat-horn's "Beyond the Rockies."

The young ladies of the Presbyterian church, purpose giving a broom brigade next week, and the next two weeks. Mr. Radford has the present position of drill master.

Last Friday Mrs. P. S. Bountree and Mrs. D. F. Sherman spent a very delightful day at Mathews Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Armstrong have got nicely settled in their new house on west Main street.

The "colored" people of Bozeman had a grand picnic on Sunday. They report a most delightful day, and brought back an immense number of "speckled beauties," as trophies of the day's pleasures.

I. A. McElroy, of Middle creek, has just delivered his last year's crop of oats at Ft. Ellis, amounting to 50,000 pounds. The price received was $130 per hundred.

I. L. F. Miller, of Maton, Illinois, is visiting his daughter Mrs. Chas. E. Hoy at their Middle creek ranch. He is very much pleased with the country, and will in all likelihood make some heavy purchases. Before returning he will visit the National Park. Our field of wheat he considers unparalleled.

TOWN TALK.

The sidewalk ordinance has been generally observed, and the city authorities are now busy doing their part in putting in cross-walks. When the rainy season arrives, we will reap the full benefit of these much needed improvements.

Mr. Smith, the gentlemanly assessor is nearly through his arduous duties. This is the first time in the history of Bozeman that taxes have been assessed against property as it is described on recorded plats. Heretofore it was lumped, and assessed against the owner.

Straws show the way the wind blows, and have that over a hundred harnessed to the wheels of the Bozeman, shops the increased acreage of the Gallatin valley.

Mr. Gilchrist the affable assistant county recorder, says the records show more transfers for this season of the year than ever before.

It seems there has been a genuine case of claim jumping within our corporate limits. The fact becoming known that there was a difference of 36 feet between the surveys of Mr. Dilworth and Perry, a judgment, thought it was a noble policy, "to get a claim." He accordingly built a house and began to fence his lately acquired lot. Now he finds, that the error in survey will not give him the property, as Rouse and McAdow have government patents for the disputed tract.

There has been some talk about Bozeman having lost her grip on the Yellowstone trade. Inquiry made at A. Lammie & Co's, Selwicks Ferry, and at the Bozeman, Geo. Wilson's, W. H. Tracy's and others dispelled this idea. All of these firms are making heavy sales in that section—and in many instances report an increase over last year's business.

S. Deutch has completed his map of the Gallatin valley, and forwarded it for lithographing. It is a masterpiece of draughtsmanship. It will contain the much needed information as to the exact location of each quarter section, will bear the name of its owner.

Mr. John C. Hennessey, formerly matron in Guy's hospital, London, England, and more recently a resident and popular nurse in our own city, has gone into a new enterprise that cannot be too highly commended. It is the establishment of a private hospital, on south Bozeman street. A large and well equipped building twenty rooms will be immediately erected, and will be ready for occupancy by November 1st. The hospital will be conducted on the most approved sanitary principles—and special attention will be given to all kinds of contagious diseases. A corps of skillful nurses will be employed, and every comfort in the way of tempting food and pleasant surroundings will be provided.

Mathews' Hot Springs are having a very large patronage this season. The register showed 133 arrivals last week, and yet Jerry says, "he was not cut out for a landlord."

Three hundred and thirty-six guests compose the Villard party. None of them will be at any personal expense while the guests of the President of the Northern Pacific.

Colonel Bob Ingersoll is understood to take a deep interest in the recent discovery of Noak's Ark, and feels deeply anxious to find out how the animals managed to breathe with only one small window in the roof. The trouble with Robert is that he wants faith.

Rufus Hatch wants to buy Cule and also the Yellowstone country. How would it do to loan the earth and sell it to him as a job lot?—BOZEMAN CHRONICLE.

Hadn't we better reserve a portion of the Bad Lands, for a stopping place until we can find some suitable planet to emigrate to?—Dillon Tribune.
