BOZEMAN, MONTANA. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1871.

Local News.

Flour.—We quote flour, in quantity: X, $4; XX, $5; XXX, $6.

MR. CHARLES BLARELY is erecting a handsome little residence on Black's addition.

The first ball of the season took place last evening, which we understand was largely attended and an enjoyable time had.

ELLIS, DAVIS & SPERLING have one of the best stocks of California clothing and blankets ever brought to the country, and this is the season when such things are appreciated.

COURTS.—The times for holding the United States District Courts have been changed since our last issue, as will be seen by a corrected list published on our inside page today.

WANTED. At this office, an active, intelligent lad, between fourteen and sixteen years of age, to learn the printing business.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.—Master Matt Black, son of Col. Black, while out gunning a few days since was thrown from his horse, and had one of his arms strained pretty badly.

STATE ELECTIONS.—On the 7th day of November next, State Elections will be held in the following States: Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Jersey, Illinois, New York, and Wisconsin.

SOBRIETY.—We understand that the Gazette gave us a little shaking up in a recent number of that paper. Not being a subscriber to the Gazette, and the publishers not seeing fit to extend the usual courtesy of an exchange with us, we have not seen it.

A FITTABLE object, in the shape of a drunken man, has afforded considerable amusement to the boys the past two days. We noticed him flourishing a pistol in the middle of Main street today. It would be a good thing for the man and the morals of our town if he was locked up until sobered off.

COLLAR-BONE BROKEN.—Mr. Theodore Brunett, a merchant of this place, while riding day before yesterday about one mile from town, his horse stepped in a hole throwing Mr. Brunett, breaking his collar bone. The horse also fell and injured himself considerably.

JOHN MANN has one of the neatest establishments in the city, where all the necessities of life may be had. Fresh bread, pies, cakes, confectioneries, fruits, butter, eggs, canned goods, &c., are always on hand, and a fresh keg of beer on tap. Everything clean, neat and in apple pie order.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE.—Our fellow-citizen H. N. Maguire has been elected to represent the Temperance interests of Montana in the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of North America, which will be held at Madison, Wisconsin, next May. He has accepted the trust, and will start East early next spring.

MASSENA BULLARD, Esq.—During the recent session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T., in this city, we had the pleasure of meeting the Grand Worthy Secretary, Massena Bullard, Esq., a young lawyer of ability and much promise, recently admitted to the bar at Helena, and who is practicing the profession in that city. We can recommend Mr. Bullard to our citizens, having legal business in Helena, as capable and trustworthy.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Mr. Frank Kannis, engaged with Mr. Ward as a butcher, on Saturday evening last, while in the act of hanging up some meat, had his foot slip, his arm near the elbow catching on the meat hook, which tore his arm to the bone down to his wrist. Mr. Langhorne put a few stitches in the lacerated arm, and Mr. Kannis is now doing well. The wound is painful and aggravating, but not serious.

FALL RACES.—As will be seen by advertisement in today's COURIER, the fall races over the Bozeman course commence on the first of November and continue four days. The purses offered are quite liberal, and some interesting races will take place. The track is in excellent condition. Our turfmen are sparing neither pains nor expense to make this the best meeting that has ever taken place in the Territory. All the fast stock from Helena and the West side will be on hand. Occurring at the same time as our District Court, we may expect a large concourse of visitors.

APPOINTMENT.—Rev. J. A. Van Ande, who has been our resident M. E. minister during the past fifteen months, received a dispatch a few days since, notifying him of his appointment as missionary for the Territory, in place of the Rev. Mr. Lathrop. While we are gratified to note this proper acknowledgment of the services of Mr. Van Ande, which will place him in a more extended field of usefulness, we announce with regret that it will probably necessitate his removal to Helena, and we will thereby lose a most excellent citizen.

NOTICE. All persons indebted to the undersigned are hereby notified to come forward and settle immediately.

ANOTHER RACE AT GALLATIN CITY.—Our Gallatin City friends are enjoying a season of races, and announce an attractive one for Saturday, the 28th of October, for a fine horse, saddle, bridle, and saddle cloth, valued at $300, which is a cash valuation, the horse being one of the finest saddle animals in the Territory.

THE ITALIAN OPERA TROUPE, who have perambulated the Territory, furnishing the denizens on their way enlivening airs of sunny Italy on three violins and two harps, arrived in Bozeman on Saturday last and gave a concert at Speith & Kraig's Hall on Sunday night, which met with enthusiastic encouragement to bear a repetition, which was done on Monday night to a good house, but few greenbacks. The boys perpetrated a good joke on the Italians, although we are free to say it was not appreciated by the sons of the land of fine arts and music. The boys made a raid on a young lawyer's office in the city, capturing some thirty or forty of his professional cards, similarly printed as the admission tickets, and the Italians, not being versed in English to a great extent, nor "tricks that are vain," readily received them. When the fraud was discovered, a general break-up ensued, resulting in several highly disgusted Italians and considerable swearing on the part of those who had paid to see the performance, which was not entirely gone through with. Several pistols were drawn, and some of the congregation went down stairs like a demoralized whisky barrel—head first.

Two Maudered Boxes Apples. Of different varieties just received and for sale at remarkably low figures by the box at S. L. HOLZMAN & BRO.

IN THE SADDLE.—The rustling, energetic Thomas H. Baker, is now in the saddle in the interest of the AVANT COURIER. The people of Madison will first hear his mildly persuasive tones, from which point he will visit every camp in the Territory. We set up no superior claims for our paper. Wherever received it has met with general approval. In two weeks we shall give the telegraphic dispatches direct from the wires, which will add materially to its interest. We want the people to bear one thing in mind, and we are the first newspaper publisher in this Territory to reduce the price of subscription, and the only paper in Montana that is less than $8.00 per year. We hope our friends will give Mr. Baker good lists in their respective neighborhoods.

J. ALLEN HOESNER, Esq., of Virginia City, arrived in Bozeman last night and intends to practice here permanently for the purpose of practicing his profession—the law. Mr. Hoehner is a young lawyer of the requirements, and will soon take his place among the leading men of the profession in the Territory. He will prove quite an acquisition to our town, and we bespeak for him a share of legal patronage, satisfied that he will render satisfaction in all cases.

NEW DRUG STORE.—Dr. A. J. Hunter, on Saturday last, occupied his new new house, on Bozeman street, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, with a fine assortment of drugs, something Bozeman has long needed. The building was erected for the purpose of a drug store, and to say that the Doctor exercised taste and judgment in its arrangement would be repeating a fact well known to all system and order being characteristics of the man. Drop in and take a pill with the Doctor.

FORT ELLIS.—One of the great attractions at Fort Ellis is the Post Traders' store of Cutter & Daniels, which is replete with one of the finest stocks of merchandise in the Territory, embracing everything found in a first-class store. Their stock, for variety, excellence and cheapness, cannot be beaten in the Territory. The proprietors are urbane, courteous gentlemen, whose greatest pleasure is in accommodating their customers. Call and see them.

WE notice a circular from the Post Commandant at Fort Ellis to the effect that there are no restrictions placed on the sale of vegetables, etc., by the soldiers at the Fort. The soldiers raised a sufficient quantity of vegetables to do them for the present, but chickens, butter and eggs are in demand.

DEATH OF A SQUAW.—Betty Lodge's squaw died of dropsy, at the Crow Agency, on last Saturday night, and on Sunday was drawn in the old Agency cart by Wolf Bow and another Indian to the hill, on the east side of the creek, for burial. Two squaws followed, holding to the back end of the cart.

BEAUTIFUL AUTUMN WEATHER has succeeded the snow storm and wintry spell of last week. The streets and roads have about dried up, and a woman or a buggy ride can again be indulged in.

OUR active Revenue Collector, J. R. Gilbert, is again on the wing, for Helena, we believe. It would take five newspaper reporters to keep up with Gilbert's movements.

SOLD.—We understand that Rev. Mr. Van Ande has sold his ranch, near Bozeman, to Mr. John Dillabaugh.

JOHN DILLABAUGH will occupy his new house, near the tin shop, as a place of business in a few days.

FOURTEEN YEAR OLD BOBBORIN in "Shoo Fly" glasses at the Klyns, Bozeman.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.—The public school of Bozeman district will be opened on Monday next in this city, Prof. J. Wesley Browne teacher.

TO THE SUFFERING. The Rev. William H. Norton, while residing in Bozeman as a Missionary, discovered in that land of medicine a remedy for Consumption, Scorbuta, Sore Throat, Gonorrhea, Colic, Asthma, and Nervous Weakness. This medicine cured myself and all other medicines had failed.

Wishing to benefit the suffering, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this remedy to all who desire it FREE OF CHARGE. Please send an envelope, with your name and address on it. Address: Rev. WILLIAM H. NORTON, 875 BROADWAY, New York City.

A New Departure.

As this is a day of departures, we wish to call your attention to the new departure in Bozeman—send, judging you by ourselves, that the system, which puts money in your own pockets will meet your approbation—whereby those who do pay will not have to pay the merchants the losses they may sustain by trusting others; for all who do a credit business must lose a certain per cent., and that per cent., of loss, we think, will cover the per cent. which we expect to make. One thing all can observe through life, a man who is careful of expenses, sells his goods at low prices, and for each, never fails, and this we intend to do. We will not open a book account with friend or foe, rich or poor, and all may distinctly understand it. We hope that no one will ask us for credit in any way, for they will rarely get refused.

At the profits we intend to sell, no one can afford to charge goods, and as our means are limited, should we trust a dollar here and there in a short time we would have out many dollars, and of course would lose more, consequently would have to sell a little higher.

It is for CASH we sell, and we cordially invite the attention of all wishing to make CASH PURCHASES. A Cash Store is, Gallatin county has long been needed. It will stop many from going to Helena; will encourage people to come here, and will be the cause of every merchant here selling more goods.

We do not wish to trespass on the rights of any man, but of this you may be assured, we will sell our goods at such prices that no man can afford to charge them.

When you come to town please observe the sign.

CASH STORE!

Where it is no trouble to show goods, but we will take pleasure in showing them to you.

Respectfully yours, A. W. & C. E. TANNER.
