

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

Say fellows, I've hired out to help run Miskimen Jewelry Store. I started in as errand boy. I have to help unpack the new goods, check the freight, sweep out, clean windows, run errands, besides weighing and delivering all packages to the express and post offices, and attend to the local deliveries. I also have to help write letters and get up the ads for the newspapers, but, shucks, I'm not worrying about the 'brain power' I throw in with my services. It's the leg power I'm thinking of.

Honest, I think I'm going to like my job. I like the looks of the people around the place; the boss looks good to me and I've been out of a job so long I'm actually itching for a spell of hard work. The spring season is here and there's lots of new stuff coming in now. Only 40 minutes for lunch, too. I guess I'll earn my five per. all right. Watch my spiel and get wise.

WILLIE WITH
DR. J. H. MISKIMEN, Glendive, Mont.

The Fourth of July program appears on another page of this issue. It will be seen that Glendive gives promise of being a mecca for the people of the surrounding country on the occasion of the great national holiday. Come to Glendive yourself, bring your friends, tell all your acquaintances and advertise the event generally, so as to assure a good crowd when the Fourth dawns.

Mrs. R. H. Watson and Miss Hathorne entertained at progressive whist last evening at the Watson home. Eight tables were played, the high score going to Mrs. Hale. The color scheme was in pink and green, aided by appropriate distribution of cut flowers. The score was kept by means of white beans in colored bags, a decided novelty to say the least. Elegant refreshments were served.

Dr. Donohue, county physician, made a trip to Fairview in the Lower Valley on Wednesday last to investigate a smallpox report. He made the trip in his auto and was accompanied by John Kennedy and Clark Brooks. The report of smallpox proved to be genuine, being at the home of Geo. Carpenter and a strict quarantine was placed at once by the doctor. The party returned to Glendive Friday.
