

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY

Subject: Watches for Kids

Geo, there is a boy who lives down near me who is the limit when it comes to asking questions; he has worried his poor father so that the man is a nervous wreck, and he asks such big fool questions too. Yesterday he kept springing all sorts of conundrums on the old man until his father threatened to lick him if he didn't let up. "Who would bury the last man to die?" was the first one. "Who would bury the last man to die?" was the next one of them. I thought his father would surely be the next one to go—but hain't a kid a general no good proposition anyway? Yet you couldn't buy a bright-eyed boy for a million dollars—from its parents—and they are mighty useful sometimes. We have a two dollar watch for kids that has a Waterbury or any other dollar watch backed off the map. While you're getting a watch for the boy you might as well pay a few dimes more and get him a good one. It will pay for itself in teaching him habits of punctuality.

WILLIE, with

THE TOGGERY

.. This Concerns Men ..

YOU ARE OFFERED, EVERY SEASON, MANY DIFFERENT LINES OF CLOTHING FROM WHICH TO select your suit—some very good, some very bad—and all the way between.

The seller of these goods wants you to buy—they urge you to buy. If they don't come to see you about them, they send you circulars and booklets—address you in advertisements—all after business, hard.

It's natural to doubt the arguments advanced by the seller of anything—the more anxious he is to have you buy, the stronger the tendency to "hold off," especially with a line you hav'nt had experience with. It's sometimes hard to know which is the best to buy among a number of goods ones.

The only guide you have is your own interests—you buy because you think it will pay you to buy, not because somebody wants you to. You've got to look out for yourself, your business, your profits. You ought to.

So far as we are concerned as sellers of clothing that's what we want you to do—the more carefully you consider the facts about the clothes you buy, the more likely you are to buy HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes.

We know we are one of the many sellers of clothing who want you to buy. We're selling good clothes and want you to wear them.

So far as you are concerned, we're just like anybody else who sells clothes as good as ours—if anybody does. The arguments we use in selling are in the same language as everybody else's arguments. The clothes we sell are better than many others, we believe; but there are other sellers who say the same thing about theirs, and some of them really believe it, too.

We want you to know that we are able to see the matter from your standpoint. And more, we want you to know that, looking at it from your standpoint, we are able to see things, greatly to your interest, which you don't see. We don't want you to get the idea that we imagine that we know more than you do, but we ought to know more about clothing—that's our business. If you did see these things, you'd be buying HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX clothing.

The fact is, there's something different about these clothes which make them better for the wearer than any other—that brings satisfaction in a way that no other merchandise does. In this and many other respects HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes seem to appeal to more people than other clothes do.

We've already received some of the Fall and Winter clothes which show nothing but good quality and style. Some time, don't just happen to do it, but make it a point to come into our store and see these good clothes. You make it a point to go to the postoffice to get your mail—the other is just as important to you.

Then, too, there is a guarantee that goes with these clothes which you don't get with other clothes—all-wool, hand-made, sewed with pure silk, absolute satisfaction, etc., or your money back. Lots of sellers say the same thing, but we give it to you in black and white—with HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX name signed to it.

Some people don't think a guarantee amounts to anything. They've been cheated some time. Try us and see what our guarantee amounts to. We could go on and say a lot more, but it would be more satisfactory for you if you come and see these good clothes we've been talking about.

Yours for Good Clothes,

The Toggery E. RIVENES
