

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY
Subject: Watches for Kids

See, there is a boy who lives down near me who is the limit when it comes to asking questions; he has worried his poor father so that the man is a nervous wreck, and he asks such big fool questions too. Yesterday he kept springing all sorts of conundrums on the old man until his father threatened to lick him if he didn't let up. "Who would bury the last man to die?" was one of them. I thought his father would surely be the next one to go—but hain't a kid a general no good proposition anyway? Yet you couldn't buy a bright-eyed boy for a million dollars—from its parents—and they are mighty useful sometimes. We have a two dollar watch for kids that has a Waterbury or any other dollar watch backed off the map. While you're getting a watch for the boy you might as well pay a few dimes more and get him a good one. It will pay for itself in teaching him habits of punctuality.

Friends in this city have received word that C. W. Barry, recently a well known Dawson county ranchman and member of the Dawson County Club, was buried at his home in Melrose, Mass., on Sept. 24, death resulting from tuberculosis. Mr. Barry was a very excellent young man and he leaves a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely call to the great beyond.

Any one wishing to see a real play without the aid of any mechanical or electrical effects, should not miss the real, heart interest melodrama, "Too Proud to Beg" which comes to the Glendive Opera House, Tuesday, Oct. 6.

Saturday and Monday will be great days for the county politicians the Republican convention being held on Saturday and the Democratic on Monday for the nomination of county candidates. Politics will seethe for a few weeks then.

Dawson county parties shipped 31 cars of cattle east on Friday last. The shippers and cars were as follows: T. Keeland, 1; J. W. Landis, 1; Mrs. M. Kolberg, 3; C. Johnson, 2; F. Bean, 5; O. Oakley, 2; L. D. Matthews, 16; F. Lucas, 1.

As a mark of esteem to A. F. Duplisea, who is soon to leave with his family for his new home at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, the members of the Dawson County Club gave him a smoker in the club rooms last evening. An elegant luncheon was also served. Many and varied were the expressions of the members wishing Mr. Duplisea success in his new home. It was indeed a happy farewell.

The first political meeting of the season was held at the Opera House last Saturday evening by the Democrats, the auditors being addressed by Gov. Norris, John H. Tolan, Democratic candidate for attorney gener, timely death. John Paulas, the well known traveling man of Billings, was also among the dead.

County Attorney Theo. Lentz
Nominated for District Judge

A notable deadlock occurred in the judicial vote for district judge at Miles City this week by the republicans. Custer cast 14 votes solid for C. H. Loud while the 14 Dawson votes were as vaianly cast for Gen. Haskell. After balloting seventy-nine times the convention adjourned yesterday afternoon with no result accomplished.

There being no nomination in convention, County Attorney Theodore Lentz has been placed in nomination by petition as the republican candidate for judge of the Seventh Judicial District.
