REPUBLICAN SPECIAL HERE

A Brilliant Array of Candidates and Campaigners Has Focus of Public Attention.

The much-heralded Republican Special arrived in Glendive from Wibaux shortly after 12 o'clock on Monday. Although at a very inconvenient time of day, a large crowd met the train and listened to the addresses of the speakers at the local playhouse. A good band is carried by the special, but the local boys were also on hand and furnished several selections for the edification of those politically enthused. Hon. Wm. Lindsay acted as chairman of the meeting and first called upon Congressman Chas. N. Pray to speak. It was universally conceded that Mr. Pray as a political campaigner has improved greatly since he was last heard in Glendive. His constituents look back to his past record in congress and confidently predict his re-election by a large majority. Congressman Cushman of Washington was with the party and was the next person to be called upon. Mr. Cushman is a tall, emaciated gentleman, with a latent humor and excellent logic. He took occasion to pay a few compliments to the great work accomplished in congress by Mr. Pray during the last session. Senator Carter was next called upon and gave one of his terse, logical talks. Senator Carter, the senior senator from Montana, is nationally recognized as an eminent parliamentarian in the upper house. His equal in ability as a senator will probably not be found in the west, so his remarks were given the closest attention.

As the hour was growing late, Senator Carter stated that he would introduce the remaining candidates present and allow each to say a few words. In regular order he called upon W. R. Allen of Deer Lodge, candidate for lieutenant governor; A. N. Yoder of Silver Bow, candidate for secretary of state; A. J. Galen of Lewis and Clark, candidate for attorney general; E. E. Esselstyn of Carbon candidate, for treasurer; H. R. Cunningham of Silver Bow, candidate for auditor; Dan Boyle of Park, candidate for 6-year term as railroad commissioner; B. T. Stanton, candidate for 4-year term as railroad commissioner and E. A. Morley, candidate for 2-year term as railroad commissioner. All the gentlemen responded most happily and were given great applause, especially those who were personally known here.

Senator Carter stated that he had been asked to give the people the regrets of Edward Donlan of Missoula, candidate for governor, because the latter could not be present, having been called west unexpectedly the day before on account of the exigencies of the campaign. Mr. Carter referred to Mr. Donlan as a man who had come to Montana eighteen years ago and taken a job as a section hand, rapidly working his way to the front until he had accumulated a large fortune. This ended the meeting and the speakers all hurried to the train to take up again their triumphal journey of conquest to the westward.

"IN WYOMING"

When "In Wyoming" is presented at the Glendive Opera House on Oct. 18, the patrons of that house will witness a western play of truly western type. The object of the management has been to take the auditor away from the mimic stage and place him in the midst of those people of the plains whose life of honor and daring is ever a source of wonder and amusement to the outside world. Everything that could tend to lend atmosphere to the play has been carefully attended to. The scenery is a faithful reproduction of the Dalby Ranch, with the Big Horn range of mountains in the distance and cactus-grown plain in the foreground and the ranch house situated in the midst of this desert. The newspaper world and public who have witnessed "In Wyoming" claim that it is the truest and best exposition of western life yet given to the stage and predict that it will live along with "The Old Homestead," "Way Down East," "In Old Kentucky" and other plays of this character, whose sort, though probably not dramatic, seems to hold the attention of the public year after year by their reality and simplicity.

Shod All Around

The fact that A. T. Crowl, like President Roosevelt, admires and appreciates large families, was demonstrated at the Crowl store last Friday. A few weeks ago Mr. Crowl saw the picture and read the story of the Henry Cook family in the Press and was greatly pleased to learn that so large a family lived in Stark county. He lost no time in sending an invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Cook to call at the store and bring the family with them. On Friday Mrs. Cook and fourteen children came in from their home in the country eleven miles southeast and, in response to the urgent invitation, called at the big department store. Mr. Crowl was "at home" and in less than a minute made the members of the largest family in Stark county feel the same.

After a jolly visit with the mother and the fourteen bright, healthy children, ranging in age from nineteen years down to eleven months, Mr. Crowl called to his clerks and in a few minutes Mrs. Cook and each of the children were fitted and presented with a pair of shoes from the best stock in the store.

To furnish shoes for this family would take an entire month's wages of the ordinary working man and nothing short of a financier could provide clothing for such an army of growing children. The gift was fully appreciated. Mr. Crowl especially in this case, thinks that "It's more blessed to give than receive."—Dickinson Press.

Dairy Train Ready For Its Long Trip

Bozeman, Oct. 9.—The first special dairy train ever run through Montana left here at midnight tonight on a tour of the state. The train consists of two large cars, furnished particularly for giving demonstrations of practical dairying and demonstrating the latest and most approved methods now in use. The train is in charge of Profs. F. S. Cooley and W. J. Elliott of the college. They are accompanied by George Hogan, a student at the institution; W. O. Parker, a practical dairyman, and a number of assistants. Part of one car is fitted for a lecture room and talks will be given at each stop by those in charge of the train, on subjects especially interesting to dairymen.

Several high-grade cattle are taken along for the purpose of exhibition. A Surprise for Friends

When Hon. Wm. Lindsay announced at the republican meeting on Monday that Senator McCone had been joined in marriage to one of Michigan's fair daughters there were a few gasps of surprise. But the senator, when cornered, insisted that his friends were only "jollying him." Secretary of State Yoder stated that he hardly believed the report as Mr. McCone had always been very loyal to the ladies of Glendive.

However, the Monitor had its doubts and at once got into communication with its Chicago office. A representative was sent to Detroit and he found that a marriage license had been issued a few days before to Geo. McCone, stockman, of Glendive, Mont., and Viola Bowlers of Detroit. So it seems to be up to the senator to explain. The Monitor offers first congratulations.

A prominent democratic friend of Senator McCone says that this is merely the first step towards sending the deservedly popular state senator to the national house of representatives in the near future. This paper knows of no man in the entire state who would be such a worthy successor to Mr. Pray or serve the people of Montana better than Mr. McCone.

Don't forget that the Monitor Office always has a full supply of justice court blanks. 'Phone 120.

feature of the demonstrations to be given will be the milking machine, which has been used successfully at the college dairy and which is being used largely by dairymen throughout the state. In a corner of one of the cars a library has been arranged, which includes books treating subjects of especial interest to farmer dairymen. A complete outfit is taken along for the equipping of a home dairy and the lectures and demonstrations given will be largely along the lines of most efficiently and economically furnishing a home dairy. The schedule of stops to be made by the train is as follows: Hamilton, Oct. 11; Missoula, Oct. 13 and 14; Drummond, Oct. 14 and 15; Helena, Oct. 15 and 16; Townsend, Oct. 16 and 17; Livingston, Oct. 17 and 19; Big Timber, Oct. 19 and 20; Billings, Oct. 20 and 21; Miles City, Oct. 21; Glendive, Oct. 22.

NORTH WESTERN INVENTORS

The following patents were issued this week to North Western inventors—

Saturday Evening Musical

A musical by the first year pupils of Mrs. Muxlow was given at the home of John Barry, Saturday evening, Oct. 12, music being played by those having taken but a few lessons through grades to those who will, within a few weeks, pass into the freshman class, showing very distinctly what progress is constantly being made and necessary before pupils pass from one year's work to another.

Mrs. Miskimen, Mrs. Lentz, Wilah Gaynor, Evelyn Guy and Lavina Ketchum will soon become freshmen. Kathleen Barry, Florence Ketchum, O. C. Cato, Raymond Graham, Minnie Dreyer, Geneva Lucas, Mina Martin, Gayle Martin, Irene O'Brien, Franklin Miskimen, Clara Kinsey, Pearl Gilbert, Stella and Evelyn Hudson, Jessie Johnson and Geneva Burdick have from one to three terms before finishing the preparatory work. All the pupils did credit to themselves and to their instructor, and one can see a very great progress in their work as these helpful recitals are given from time to time. Dainty refreshments were served by the pupils and all pronounced the evening a most enjoyable one.

A fine musical treat is anticipated Saturday evening next by those who are fortunate enough to possess an invitation to the freshman and sophomore recital to be given at the residence of M. E. Galvin.

Are You Only Half Alive?

People with kidney trouble are so weak and exhausted that they are only half alive. Foley's Kidney Remedy makes healthy kidneys, restores lost vitality, and weak, delicate people are restored to health. Refuse any but Foley's. Glendive Drug Co.

To the Citizens of Dawson County:

Do you believe the saloon keepers have the right to dictate the policy of your officers as to the enforcement of the laws?

Do you believe in the enforcement of the gambling laws of the state?

Do you prefer an administration that is satisfactory to the liquor dealers, gamblers and sporting element, rather than to one of law and order?

The Glendive Liquor Dealers' Association has decided to use all means within its power to defeat Sheriff Larson for re-election. Why?

Sheriff Larson is pledged to continue a rigid enforcement of the gambling laws if re-elected.

WHICH DO YOU PREFER?

ANDREW LARSON.

DEMOCRATS HAVE GOOD MEETING

Very Able Address Delivered by Mr. Long, Candidate for Congress. -- Other Speakers.

The second democratic political meeting of the campaign took place at the Opera House on Saturday evening last, the large audience being given able addresses by several of the prominent state candidates.

Hon. C. C. Hurley acted as chairman of the meeting and introduced the various speakers. The principal address of the evening was made by Hon. Thos. D. Long of Kalispell, candidate for congressman. His auditors say that Mr. Long is one of the most eloquent democratic brethren who have been heard in this city in a long time. He has the gift of oratory to a great degree, coupled with a clean and concise logic and a most masterly presentation of facts. Altogether if there are many democrats manufactured in Dawson this year Hon. Thos. Long will be responsible for a few of them. His popularity has reached its zenith in his own county of Flathead. Great applause greeted his various strong points made.

Thomas M. Swindlehurst of Livingston next favored those present with a few remarks indicative of his attitude upon various questions and his extreme loyalty to the democratic party. Mr. Swindlehurst is candidate for lieutenant-governor, although still a comparatively young man. He made a strong impression as one who would be an extremely conscientious officer.

The next talk was made by Sydney Sanner of Miles City, candidate for judge of the Seventh Judicial District. As befits a candidate for the bench, Mr. Sanner spoke strictly along non-partisan lines and explained his attitude upon the judgeship question. He stated that he thought the people would confer a great honor upon him if they elected him judge, and promised an active campaign among his friends.

Wiley Mountjoy of Twin Bridges, superintendent of the Orphan's Home and candidate for superintendent of public instruction, was the last speaker. Mr. Mountjoy is a good orator and a Mark Twain humorist as well when the spirit is upon him. On this occasion he kept up a running fire of funny comments, which held the audience convulsed during the few minutes he spoke. Besides being superintendent of the Orphan's Home, Mr. Mountjoy is an old teacher and school man, and will be remembered as a past president of the State Teachers' Association.

Before the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Hurley mentioned the fact that Hon. T. J. Walsh will speak in Glendive on Oct. 22.

The speakers were entertained at an informal smoker at the Dawson County Club after the conclusion of the political propaganda, where they were met by many citizens.

The Glendive Band rendered excellent service at the meeting in providing very appropriate campaign music.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

S. B. Chappell Would Do Honor to the Office.

The democrats of Dawson county could hardly have made a wiser choice in their selection of a candidate for representative than in the person of S. B. Chappell of Wibaux, the flourishing metropolis of the Beaver valley.

Mr. Chappell is one of the old timers of the county, where for many years he has resided and prospered as a successful stockman. If elected to the honorable office of representative, he would bring to the performance of his legislative duties a great executive ability, remarkably clear logic and a magnetic personality always working with the greatest good of his constituents at heart. Mi. Chappell will poll a remarkable vote, it is confidently predicted.

Montana Men Give To Bryan's Cause

New York, Oct. 9.—The democratic national committee is preparing to announce next week the amount of its campaign fund and the individual contributions of amounts of $100 and over and the lists, which are compiled to date and sent here from Chicago, show that the campaign fund is a little over $220,000. Of this fund, something more than $180,000 has been collected from contributions, which, with $42,000 of the Denver convention fund, is the total fund now in the Democratic treasury.

It is learned today that there have been 14 individual contributions of $1,000 each and 18 contributions of $500 each. There have been no contributions of sums between $1,000 and $500 to date.

The Denver headquarters of the national committee has collected $5,000, which is said to include a check of $1,000 from former Senator William A. Clark of Montana. The smallest contribution received was 1 cent which came in from Monroe, Wash. The largest contributors to the democratic campaign fund are as follows: Delancy Nicoll, New York, $1,000; Jacob Ruppert, New York City, $1,000; Nathan Straus, New York, $1,250; National Democratic club, New York, $2,500; W. H. Sheenan of New York city, Archibald McNeil of Bridgeport, Conn., Guy B. Tucker of Little Rock, Ark., M. F. Dunlap of Illinois, Roger Sullivan of Chicago, Perry Belmont of New York, Robert Owen of Oklahoma, J. J. Hogan of La Cross, Wis. E. O. Woods of Flint, Mich., E. F. Coltra of St. Louis, Moses C. Wetmore of St. Louis and Norman E. Mack of Buffalo N. Y., $1,000 each; T. J. Walsh, of Helena, Mont., W. B. George, Billings, Mont., and R. S. Ford, Great Falls, Mont., each $500.

The major portion of the democratic campaign fund has come from dollar contributors and from the democratic press, which started campaign subscriptions.

Making Good Record.

S. M. Wills of our town, who sold to Minnesota parties, his pacing horse, Zip Bang, received a letter a few days ago from a Mr. Adams, of Fargo, saying that Zip Bang had gone an easy mile in 2:10, last half in 1:03, last quarter in 30 seconds, and had frequently gone miles in 2:16 and better and that any fear of his not going the bout was dispelled which any one would suppose who knew his good breeding. Mr. Wills is naturally proud to hear this and qualifies that Zip Bang is the fastest pacer in the world.—Wibaux Pioneer.

Some of the Republican Congressmen have discovered that political ostracism comes from their association with Speaker Cannon.
