Your Chance For Success

When starting in any business, depends greatly on your reputation and financial standing among your local bankers. Therefore you should be honest and industrious, and when you have a little money, deposit it with some good bank whose officers will take an interest in your welfare. You will thus get acquainted with people who are able and willing to help you in time of need. We have such a bank and will be glad to do business with you.

Report of Condition

NO. 7101.
Report of the Condition of THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Of Glendive, At Glendive, in the State of Montana, at the Close of Business, Mar. 7, 1911.

We would like you to examine this report of condition. Your attention is called to our large cash reserve and our large combined Capital, Surplus and Profits of over $90,000.00.

Our Surplus has been increased $10,000.00, making our Surplus $40,000.00, all earned. An earned surplus is an indication of inherent strength. It also demonstrates that the stockholders are willing to accept moderate dividends in order to safeguard the depositors more effectively.

On the strength of this statement we solicit your business.
