Clear Creek Citings

The hail storm last week did a great deal of damage to farmers on Clear creek. While some lost their entire crop others lost but a small amount. The storm seemed to cover a strip two miles in width. While this is very discouraging to farmers, it is the first hail storm heard of in this vicinity for several years.

I. N. Hill is again out with his gasoline plough, as the heavy rains of the past week have made the ground in good condition for ploughing.

Mr. and Mrs. Utterback of Crawfordsville, Indiana, and Mrs. Landis and daughter of Nebraska returned to their homes after spending a week visiting C. H. Utterback and family.

John Duff returned from Nebraska last week, where he has been working for the past year, and was accompanied by Mrs. Duff's sisters, Misses Olga and Etta Madsen of Omaha. We understand Miss Olga will try homesteading for a while.

Chas. Anderson was taken to the hospital in Glendive last Friday, suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis. Mr. Anderson had a valuable horse die last week, which makes the third horse lost since he began holding his homestead. Neighbors and friends of the family unite in offering them sympathy in their sickness and had luck.

Zel Gregory of Miles City was seen on our streets one day last week, renewing old acquaintances.

Sherman Lombaken of Glendive is spending a part of his school vacation as the guest of Miss Josephine Gathright.

Deer Creek Citings.

E. E. Johnson, "the onion king" was taken to the Samaritan Hospital at Glendive last Wednesday, by Gus Schlicht. He has been sick for some time.

Dick Wold installed a new Case separator this week in our section.

Julius Peterson is in Glendive this week taking the teachers' exams.

Emil Jacobson is in Glendive this week.

Miss Selma Nelson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Pederson for some time, left Wednesday for her home at Minneapolis.

Al Moody is hauling lumber for his new residence.

Johnson Brothers of Wold are making things hum around here with their threshing rig.

Grain around here is fine. George Brindle reports that his oats will run 24 bushels and his wheat 22. Joe Betzplaz says oats will go 21 bushels and flax 10 bushels over at his place.

A. C. Farewell is hauling lumber for a new granary.

Ole Wold is hauling lumber for his new granary.

Mrs. Rosa Robinson was a Glendive visitor last week.

Ira Moody and wife have gone back to McGregor, Iowa.

B. O. Connell, the hustling landman from La Crosse, Wis., was out here last week with a bunch of landseekers. He was very much surprised at the rapid development of the country and the fine crops.

FOR LEASE

I will lease my 1,100-acre farm, two miles east of Crane, Montana, on the east side of the Yellowstone river, to any responsible parties. For further particulars apply to George H. Berry, Crane, Montana. 27t

E. J. Berry left here today for Hamline to enter his race horses at the Minnesota State Fair. Governor Wilson, Emila S., Helen Gregory and Cornelia Mack comprised the string that he will enter.

Rules Of Ten

In going thru the country you often see posted in different offices mottoes and rules. We were in one the other day that had this set of ten over the desk of every employee. We asked permission to copy the same and here they are:

1. Don't lie—it wastes the office's time and yours. We're sure to catch you in the end and that's the wrong end.
2. Watch your work, not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short.
3. Give us more than we expect, and we'll pay you more than you expect. We can afford to increase your pay, if you increase your profits.
4. You owe so much to yourself that you can't afford to owe anyone else. Keep out of debt or keep out of our shop.
5. Mind your own business and in time you will have a business of your own to mind.
6. Don't do anything here which will hurt your self respect. The employee who is willing to steal for us is capable of stealing from us.
7. Dishonesty is never an accident. Good men, like good women, can't see temptation when they meet it.
8. It's none of our business what you do at night. But if dissipation affects what you do the next day and you do half as much as we demand, you'll last half as long as you hoped.
9. Don't tell the foreman what he likes to hear but what he ought to hear. He don't want a valet to his vanity.
10. Don't kick if your foreman kicks. If you are worth correcting you are worth while keeping. He is not disposed to waste his time cutting specks out of rotten apples.

No! There is positively nothing individually, jointly, severally, now and forever."

The girl looked at the postmaster in astonishment and said: "Please see if there is anything for Clarence Murphy."—Ainslee's.
