

YELLOWSTONE MONITOR.

Published at Glendive, Dawson County, Montana by E. A. MARTIN.
 SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $2.00 PER YEAR
 Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1906, at the postoffice at Glendive, Mont., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, DEC. 26, 1912.

The end of the year finds the country in better condition than ever, as regards prosperity of every kind and general conditions in particular. The Democrats will come into power under conditions not duplicated in this country for decades. The path of President Wilson and his assistants may not be strewn with roses, but they will have better working conditions than have prevailed in the country for a generation. When the extra session is called and a thorough revision made of the tariff, a long step will have been taken towards putting the country on a better prosperity footing than it has ever enjoyed. Trust regulation will also prove an immense factor in the future prosperity of the country.

This paper joins in wishing all its readers and the public generally the most prosperous New Year imaginable. We are at the dawn of a new era, which holds much in store for all of us who take advantage of the opportunities offered for self improvement and material prosperity.

Protection No Longer Necessary.

In view of the fact that nearly all important manufacturers are selling their goods in foreign markets cheaper than they are at home shows that "protection" in the way of a tariff is no longer necessary to our manufacturing industry. However the revenue required for running the government is so great that a very radical reduction in the tariff cannot be made, and it is not believed that the proposed tariff bill will serve as any sort of a check on the very healthy and general prosperity which the country is now enjoying.

Pensions For Ex-Presidents.

The generous act of Andrew Carnegie in offering to provide a pension of $25,000 per annum to our ex-presidents until they are provided for by the United States Government providing for pensions for ex-presidents; so that Legislative Executive and Judicial appropriation bill was reported with a pension of $17,500 per annum for the two ex-presidents. This item, however, has been stricken out of the bill, and so they will not be pensioned at present.

Tariff Hearings.

Chairman Underwood of Alabama has announced that Tariff hearings will begin on January 6 and he extends an invitation to everyone who is interested in the operation of the tariff law to express his or her views before the Ways and Means Committee. Chairman Underwood expects to have his bill ready to be passed the first week of the extra session of Congress which President-elect Wilson will call soon after his inauguration.

The Abolition Of The Court Of Commerce.

Congress has abolished the Court of Commerce which will be effective on the 4th of March next. This Court exercised appellate power from the Interstate Commerce Commission in regulating freight rates and passenger rates in railway tariff. No one but the great and unscrupulous corporations themselves will shed any tears at the early demise of this court.

Dawson County High School

School closed December 20 for a vacation of two weeks during the Christmas and New Year holidays. School will begin again Monday, January 6.

Final examinations in the various subjects were given Thursday and Friday, December 19 and 20. Another chance will be given those who fail on Saturday January 4. Any one who fails then will not be allowed to go on with his semester work until such failure has been made up.

The lockers for the gymnasium have been completed and the keys given out. The boys will now be required to keep their duds under lock and key. Each person who has a locker is responsible for the safe return of the key and also for the safe keeping of the lockers themselves.

Material galore for the debating society has arrived. The members are busy making outlines for the same. Most of the material secured so far is for the affirmative side, but a large amount of material for the negative side is expected to arrive at any time.

All of the members of the Senior German class were exempt from the examinations. This means there was much rejoicing in the aforesaid class.

We regret that Miss Ward, our English teacher, has been called away by sickness at home. Miss Ward was very well liked by the pupils. The vacancy will be filled during the vacation.

All library books were called in and the library checked up before the end of the semester. The pupils were then allowed to take books home to read during the vacation.

Ingersoll's "Tribute to Shakespeare," done in oils by Mr. Hoole, has been framed and placed in the library.

The Junior German class are making rapid progress in conversational German. "In Vaterland" and Allen's "German Composition" furnish excellent material for this work.

The Senior German class find "Wilhelm Tell" very interesting, and report very little difficulty in translating it. It is a pleasure not a task.

The Dawson County High School is proud of the penmen that are being developed. The work of the writing class is most satisfactory. In the examination for the first semester, Royce Martin took first place; Neva Ray, second; Consuella Reynolds, third, and Lavina Ketchem, fourth. The specimens of the entire class are on display in the commercial room, and everyone is invited to call and see some of the concrete results of the new commercial department.

The following are the result of an eight minute typewriting contest:

Marco Markings

The bridge across the canal at Marco is under construction. We will hear of the appreciation later.

Some of the newcomers of Marco went to the river Sunday in pursuit of game and scenery.

Mr. Dunham of the firm of Marco & Dunham busies himself putting the goods on the shelf as they arrive.

Mr. Marco returned Saturday from successful business trip East.

Travelers passing through Marco on the stage pronounce this postoffice to be the best equipped and arranged one on the line between Glendive and Sidney, and also the measurements given by the engineer show it to be the nearest to the railroad of any on the route.

Old George is at the head of the company selecting the landings for a ferry across the river.

Sam and Robert Livingston purchased a bunch of horses from Abe Hammond of Burns, who is selling out.

All the crack shots in this vicinity will have a chance to try their skill at the head of a goose, the afternoon of Dec. 31st, and take part in the dance in the evening.

Sam and Rob't Livingston went to Savage the first of the week in company with Clem Livingston from Retah, whose mission was to make final proof on his homestead.

Miss Abbie Kalloch, who has been on the sick list, is improving.

Earl Emerson and Mike Willett are hauling hay to Glendive.

Although we are favored with pleasant weather, all seem to be afflicted with colds.

Dick York and son are supplying the coal for Marco from a nearby mine recently discovered.

H. D. Roberts and Loraine York are combining business with pleasure by taking a horseback ride up to Intake, in the Moonlight.

Merry Christmas to all.

The best book for Christmas is a check book.

What has become of the old-fashioned butcher who used to throw in a piece of liver?

About the only time a married man has any peace in his home is when his wife has her mouth full of hairpins.

Gov. Wilson is entitled to the lasting gratitude of the world for that he rides a bicycle, not a motorcycle.

When a man develops into a growler his time to rush him.

Despite his sojourn in Bermuda, we doubt that the onion is Mr. Wilson's favorite flower.

Mr. Wilson is infringing a noted copyright by saying that had a "bully time" in Bermuda.

The failure of Congress to pass the appropriation bills by March would also be a fine excuse for an extra session.

Well there's a good opening in Utah for Turks and their wives who are driven out of Europe.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt's annual farewell tour is taking place this year a little earlier than usual.

Somebody should drop a hint to Gen. Miles that this is not the time to predict peace. With the army and navy bills coming up, the season now opens for Japanese invasions and German war scares.

Now that they have discovered what worms can think, we can readily understand why they sometimes turn.

All is lost save honor unless some plan for making hens lay more eggs can be devised.

Theodore Roosevelt's announcements of his intentions have not always been reliable in the past. He is like the war horse who becomes docile when there is no battle raging, but who responds irresistibly to the call of the bugle.

America is too sincere an advocate of universal peace to care anything about the profit to be made from providing Europe with arms and ammunition in case of war.

It'll be hard to convince the Democrats that any of that $1,159,445.00 Wilson campaign fund was wasted. It doesn't take the man who thinks he knows it all very long to tell how little he really knows.

It has been pointed out to the English Suffragettes that their American sisters have gained the ballot in nine states, and without violence. To which one of them retorts, "yes, but we have to deal with Englishmen!" Wonder what she means?

The rural free delivery carrier is the man who moulds public opinion; and the fact that President Taft has craftily arranged to have all the gossip in the country districts carried by Republicans for the next four years is an outrage which the Democrat patriots are not apt to stand for.

If our football heroes could but use some of that splendid energy in fighting for the Balkan allies.

The New York zoo has acquired eighty seven new snakes. Getting ready to help along the New Year's resolutions?

Much of the happiness in the world is due to the fact that ignorance is bliss.

Horse-drawn vehicles are decreasing in numbers in Chicago. This rate continues to demonstrate Mr. Rockefeller's wisdom in going into gasoline and into oats.

Maybe an angleworm can think, as the professor says, but it is well for the fisherman's peace of mind that it cannot talk English.

This country imports nearly $3,000,000 worth of Swiss cheese every year despite Wisconsin's amiable Swiss dairying industry.

Having Turkey almost knocked out, Greece does not see why it should stop fighting at the sound of the gong.

If the big corporations do not behave Mr. Wilson may blow them out of existence with that bicycle pump of his.

It is up to Mr. Wilson to prove he is worth more than that million and odd dollars expended in electing him—we mean worth to the country, not to the campaign committee.

It would seem to a casual observer that Mr. Wilson must have consumed about all the rest there was to be secured in that little Bermuda Island.

Mr. Taft's messages would be more widely read if he would diversify them with pictures.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

Purity in food, lower cost of living—these are the demands of the day.

Pure food is health, and health is economy itself. We cannot have health without healthful food.

The most healthful foods are the quickly raised flour foods—biscuit, cake, muffins, crusts and other pastry, when perfectly made from wholesome ingredients.

Dr. PRICE'S baking powder makes these foods in specially attractive, appetizing and wholesome form, and for both economic and hygienic reasons, such food should be more largely substituted for meat in the daily diet.

But bear in mind that alum, or unwholesome baking powder, can never make pure, wholesome food.
