MONDAY'S GAME

The largest crowd that ever witnessed a ball game in eastern Montana saw the contest on Monday. Twelve hundred people viewed the game and saw Cavin, the Glendive twirler win his tenth straight game, 8 to 4.

Upwards of 125 autos lined the field; the weather was warm and balmy; both the Glendive and the Luther College Band livened things up with their splendid music; the "Champs" displayed more confidence in themselves; and the victory was clean and well merited.

Only in one inning, the sixth, did the All Nations score. The four runs were made on hits by Donaldson, Blatnier and Snyder and errors by Hanson and Elder.

Glendive made its first two runs in the third on hits by Ham and Cavin. Another was scored in the fifth on a great 3-bagger by Cavin and a wild pitch by Jacobs. Two more were tallied in the sixth on hits by Foss and Elder.

The game was put on ice in the seventh with hits by Thrasher, Cavin, Foss and Broderick.

TUESDAY'S GAME.

Tuesday's game, which was not called until shortly after 5 p. m., resulted in a noosely played contest won by Glendive, 12 to 3.

Shortly before the circus was over clouds obscured the sky and a light down-pour of rain got the diamond in perfect condition for the game. Fifty autos were present and the attendance was estimated at 400.

Glendive's new pitcher, Hicks, while passing 8 men, allowed but 3 scattered hits, and the local team won notwithstanding its seven errors. The "Champs" fattened their batting averages considerably, a total of 14 hits being secured from the All Nations' pitcher, Smith, after Donaldson was taken out of the box at the end of the second inning after fanning 4 out of the seven batters who faced him. Dyer and Hicks were the only Glendive batters not spearing at least one hit. Glendive made seven runs in the fifth and 5 in the eighth.

The big batting rally came in the fifth. Ham hit a two-bagger to left. Hicks walked. Dyer was safe when he attempted a sacrifice bunt, Ham being forced at third. Foss fanned. Elder hit a single near right foul line and Hicks scored. Sid was safe at first and Dyer scored on error of short. Hanson hit to left near foul line, both of the foul line decisions of Umpire Dr. Donohue being questioned by the All Nations team, and Elder and Broderick scored.

Thrasher hit to short and was safe when first baseman dropped the ball, Hanson scoring on the play. Goldrick then made a beautiful hit to left and both he and String scored on Ham's two-bagger to center. Hildensperger was plainly out at third when he tried to stretch his hit into a triple, although Umpire Taylor called him back to the bag and called him safe. This decision set the grand stand wild and they would not be appeased until Dr. Donohue took the field and reversed Taylor's decision. The score:
