

Dion & Herrick

REAL ESTATE AND LIVE STOCK DEALERS

FARM LANDS CITY PROPERTY

HORSES, CATTLE AND SHEEP

List your property with us. Commissions right.

Dion & Herrick

Office Bell Street in rear of Exchange Bank

Glendive, Montana

Valuable Papers

should be kept in a safety deposit vault, where they will be safe from fire and burglars. We would be glad to furnish one for $1.75 per year. Other banking business will be appreciated.

Exchange State Bank of Glendive

CAPITAL, $75,000.00

UNDERTAKING & EMBALMING

The most complete line of Funeral Supplies carried in eastern Montana. For prompt attention

Phone No. 15, or No. 22 or No. 26B

LOWE BROTHERS,

Glendive, Mont.

TIME CARD

—OF—

TRAINS.

Glendive, Mont.

Westbound	Arrive	Depart
No. 1	5:12 A. M.	5:22 A. M.
No. 2	5:45 P. M.	5:55 P. M.
No. 3	10:10 P. M.	P. M.
No. 4	6:45 A. M.	6:55 A. M.
No. 5	6:15 A. M.	6:25 A. M.
Eastbound	Arrive	Depart
No. 1	10:55 A. M.	11:05 A. M.
No. 2	1:55 A. M.	2:05 A. M.
No. 3	4:05 P. M.	4:15 P. M.
No. 4	6:00 A. M.	6:10 A. M.

Freight No. 801
Nos. 7 and 8, between Glendive and Valley Branch
No. 202—Glendive to Sidney, depart 7:00 A. M.
No. 201—Sidney to Glendive, arrive 4:15 P. M.
Northern Pacific Express money orders for sale. Bankable anywhere.
A. M. CLELAND, G. P. A., St. Paul, Minn.
W. J. BUCHNER, Agent, Glendive, Mont.

Try a ton of Owl Creek coal. Martin & Myers. Phone 16. 24-1f.

Guy Lowe was out to Deer Creek country on Sunday.

Razors keen, towels clean—Houck's—nuff sed.

W. B. Shepard of Union was in town last Saturday on business matters.

Have you lost any money? Ask the Zartoons. Orpheum this week.

Miss Margaret Brody of Circle was a visitor in the city this week.

Buy your films at Wing's Studio and have them developed for 10 cents a roll. All sizes. 25-1f.

Peter Dryer the big sheepman of Horse Creek was in town today in his auto.

County Commissioner Andrew Larson was out in the Deer Creek country last week inspecting roads.

Auto repairing; battery charging; engine overhauling; best work; and prompt service. Statham's Repair Shop. 20-1f.

Manager R. A. Doty of the Lahr Motor Sales Co., advises that he received another car load of Overlands the 1916 models, on Tuesday.

Remember Wm. Schall's big Auction sale on Monday, Nov. 8th, near Kinsey on the Glendive-Fallon road. Nothing reserved. 37-2p.

Orville Osmundson of Bluff creek was in town last week with Gus Schlicht of Hungry Point ranch on Deer Creek, for a short business visit.

Mrs. S. E. Burns and Miss Mary Barret entertained at the home of the former last evening. Whist was played after which refreshments were partaken of.

Dr. Riesland, the eyesight specialist, arrived in town yesterday and will be at the Hotel Jordan until tomorrow (Friday) treating his many patients for eye troubles.

R. H. Zempel of Fall Creek, Wis., arrived in town yesterday on No. 1 to look after his land holdings in Dawson county and to visit his son-in-law, August Koepke of east of Lindsay, who came into town to meet him.

No matter what a man's personal politics may be he certainly ought to be able to get a few minutes real pleasure each week out of Congressman Tom Stout's weekly letter which appears exclusively in the Monitor—that is, if he is at all human.

M. A. Thorsen, the Circle banker, was in the city early in the week, leaving on Tuesday for Miles City and returning today. Mr. Thorsen advises that the new Circle hotel will be completed and thrown open to the public in about three weeks' time.

It is understood that the Rev. C. W. MacWilliams, for the past two years rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, has resigned his pastorate to take effect December 1. It is not definitely known at this time who is to take his place nor where he will be located.

The great railroad play, "The Juggernaut," with Earle Williams and Anita Stewart in the principal roles, which was shown at the Orpheum theatre on Tuesday, drew the largest crowds that ever attended a moving picture production on one day in the history of the city, more than 600 paid admissions being registered on the ticket booth machine for the three performances.

Have you lost a watch? Ask the Zartoons. Orpheum this week.

Highest prices paid for all kinds of hides at the City Meat Market. 8-1f

George W. Davison, the Paxton auto liveryman, was in town last week-end.

Try a cut of the new "Mocha" cake on Saturday only at Rankin's Sanitary Bakery. 38-1f.

Mrs. Foster, of the Quality Shop has something new to show her customers in the way of fancy pillows for holiday gifts.

Mrs. M. G. Danskin was operated on for appendicitis last Friday at the Glendive General hospital by Dr. Beach. The patient is getting along nicely at this writing.

Pat Smith of Brockway, formerly known as the "Sage of Circle" and an acknowledged admirer of William Jennings Bryan, has been in town since last Saturday visiting friends and transacting fall business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Sample, parents of Harry Sample of the Security Loan & Title Co., arrived in town last Sunday from their home at Clyde Park, Mont., for a short visit with the Glendive banker. The couple are on their way to Indiana to visit their old home.

Dr. Riesland, the eye and sight specialist, well known for his superior ability in fitting eyes and grinding glasses, will be at the Hotel Jordan Nov. 3 to 5. See him if you are in need of the services of a specialist of ability and long experience. 35-1f.

Tom Simmons, formerly head clerk at the Hotel Jordan but now merely a poor hard-working homesteading hon-yacker, was in town Monday from his Hardscrabble ranch for a load of supplies. Tom said that his crop this year far exceeded his most sanguine expectations, or words to that effect.

Another bubble burst! No sooner do we write up the most alluring article imaginable on the prospects of the newly organized school of Short-hand and Typewriting that the principal in the new enterprise is ordered out of her apartments by the landlord and out of the city by the police. Stand again!

One of Luke McLuke's squibs in the Monitor is so good that we cannot refrain from re-printing it: "Every now and then in your wanderings you run into a man who gives you the impression that he is wearing long silk stockings and a gauze undershirt with baby blue ribbons in it." Officer take him out.

W. C. Henderson, County Surveyor R. T. Hurdle and Mrs. I. C. Attix went in to Miles City last Thursday. Mr. Henderson spent a few days visiting with his family and attending to business matters; Mr. Hurdle went to his home in Glendive, and Mrs. Attix spent the time doing some shopping and visiting with friends. They returned to Jordan Monday evening.—Jordan Gazette.

What is claimed to be the greatest and most interesting meeting to date of the Montana State Teachers' association will be held at Great Falls from November 22 to 24. Besides the regular sessions of the organization, there will be meetings of the State Association of School Trustees, Music Teachers' Section, the Montana Council of Teachers of English, the Parent-Teacher association, and the Librarians.

Wm. Haw and S. Sleiter of Sullivan were in town Tuesday with grain.

Is your wife true to you? Ask the Zartoons. Orpheum this week.

J. C. Harrison of Lindsay bought a Reo the 6th last Sunday from Haskell's garage.

A sign in the Rivenes-Wester hardware store reads: "If you want to talk war, join the army and get paid for it."

Cleanliness is next to Godliness—try Houck's bath tubs for the right kind of a bath. 38-1f

George Libby of Bluff Creek was in town last week after a load of gasoline for his son Raymond.

Lee's Billiard Chips same as cash at the Sanitary Barber shop in the Dion block. 25-1f

Tuesday is said to have established the season's record for the amount of grain hauled into the three elevators in this city.

Miss Mabel Williams of Terry, the Prairie County Superintendent of Schools, was in town over Sunday visiting friends and left for her home the following day.

Ole Wold of Black River Falls, Wis., was in town last week and paid a visit to his farm on Deer Creek which he has rented to Vernie Jones. Mr. Wold left for the east on No. 2 yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Hilliard, who recently underwent a successful operation for appendicitis, performed by Dr. Dan J. Donohue at the Glendive General hospital, left the institution today, completely cured.

Professor R. H. Brown, superintendent of the public schools stated that he would be glad to co-operate with the city or chamber of commerce to see that a torch-light parade or masquerade pageant be gotten up for the school children next year in the expectation that the usual Hallowe'en depredations would thus be done away with.

Next Thursday, November 11th, there will be held a big auction sale at the old Heuser ranch on 7-mile creek, by Mrs. Mary Heuser, administratrix, that promises to be a hum-dinger in the way of a public sale. The sale, which will be cried by the popular bonded auctioneer, Bert Hockens, will begin at 11 o'clock a. m., and there will be a free lunch served at noon.

Tip Johnson, Jr., and Oscar Hagan, Jr., both of Deer Creek were held up by a couple of strong arm men in this city last Wednesday night. Mr. Johnson was relieved of a gold watch and $4 in money, but when Mr. Hagan was commanded to throw up his hands, he did so, clutching a roll of bills in his fist that the highwaymen did not get. So far no arrests have been made nor any clues discovered that would lead to the arrest of the culprits.

A fire which burned a hole in the linoleum and floor under an over-heated kitchen range in the residence occupied by H. F. Burkart and family, at the corner of River avenue and Benham street last Saturday morning at 10:15 o'clock, resulted in an alarm being tooted by the fire whistle to which the fire department responded in good time. "Burk" had the fire under control, however, by the time the apparatus arrived on the scene. There was only a few dollars damage done.

It is rumored that the Daughters of Isabella are on the lookout for a hall or suite of rooms to be used as the organization's permanent headquarters. It is more than likely that they will secure the old Dawson County club rooms in the Helms & Volkert building on west Bell street, which will be suitably painted and decorated for their benefit. If these quarters are secured by this popular ladies organization, they will probably sub-rent the rooms to other women's lodges and clubs on nights that they are not using them themselves.

It is conservatively estimated that several hundred dollars worth of damage was done to private and city property last Saturday and Sunday nights by the Hallowe'en rowdies. Besides the destruction of sheds, fences, gates, wood walks and out buildings, considerable damage was done to fine plate glass windows by the gritty soap which in many cases left disfiguring scratches. If the youth of this town need some sort of exercise to work out a superabundance of life and exuberance, it has been suggested that they be introduced to a wood pile and a saw buck, which form of exercise is certainly not conducive to rowdiness or any other form of lawlessness.

Is your husband true to you? Ask the Zartoons... Orpheum this week.

Fred Pust of Burns was a Gate City visitor yesterday.

An Auto Livery that you can depend on to get there and back on time. Statham's Auto Repair Shop. 20-1f.

Attorney Andrew of Beach was a professional visitor in the City Monday.

Have you tried Rankin's tasty and wholesome Potato Bread? If not, why not? 38-1f.

Mr. Daniels, representing a large Minneapolis Fur concern, is exhibiting a fine line of goods at the Moore Millinery Shop.

Highest prices paid for Coyote bounty, Wolf hides, Cow hides and all other kinds of hides. B. F. Dawson. 39-1f

George Pederson, the Circle auto dealer and agent for the Empire car, was in the city last Friday and Saturday on business.

Wm. Schaal is going to have a big Auction sale on Nov. 8th at his farm 11 miles southwest of Glendive on the Glendive-Fallon road. 37-2p

We know a lot of people who, no matter how hard they try, will ever be able to say real fast: "Flesh of freshly fried fish." Try it yourself and see.

Walter Halvorson, formerly connected with the Toggery at Sidney, is expected in today to take charge of the clothing department of J. H. Miskimien's store.

Frank Petterson of Terry bought a Reo the 5th last Friday from the Haskell Auto & Supply Co., and had it driven home for him to the Prairie county seat by Miss Aurilla Drummond.

John M. Holmquist and Mary Erickson, both of Reeder, N. D., were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Elmer Martineson. The couple left for the east yesterday on No. 2.

C. R. Hansen, formerly connected with the Glendive State bank in this city, but recently assistant cashier of one of the Fairview banking institutions, was in town last week and this.

Mr. Hillburn of Glendive and Livingston is at the Glendive General hospital undergoing medical treatment for rheumatism and is getting along as well as can be expected.

The county commissioners met at the court house on Monday and Tuesday of this week for a brief session, the principal business being county road matters.

J. J. Moriarty of Circle, who has been confined to the Glendive General hospital for several weeks past suffering from a severe attack of typhoid, is reported as improving rapidly and will soon be discharged.

Little Elizabeth Baker, aged 7 years, daughter of Mayor A. A. Baker, had the misfortune of breaking a bone in her forearm last week. The injured member was set by Dr. A. L. Hammer and the little one is getting along nicely.

William E. Steinman and Miss Mahala E. Bryan were united in marriage yesterday in this city and will be at home to their friends in Union, Mont., after November 15th. The Monitor extends congratulations to the happy couple.

Pete Nelson of Antigo, Wis., together with his family, arrived in town on Tuesday morning to make Glendive their permanent home. Through the good offices of Ed. Healy of Healy's Cigar store, Mr. Nelson was induced to leave his old home in the east and accept one of the chairs in Bill Houck's barber shop for the time being at least. Mr. Nelson is said to be one of the best barbers that ever wielded tonsorial tools and both he and his family are heartily welcomed to our midst.

A. Evenrud of Bloomfield was in town yesterday with a load of grain.

Don't throw away your tires and tubes. We make them as good as new. Red Trail Vulcanizing Co. 3-1f.

Guy Stephens, the Circle auto liveryman, was in town Monday on business.

Senator George McCone and family of McCone Heights were in town this week and expect to leave for home tomorrow.

Make your tonsorial headquarters in the new Sanitary Barber Shop in the Dion Block. Everything modern. 13-1f

We have no objection to the wind, but for the life of us we can't figure out why it waits until every Sunday to go into full force and effect.

Developing free if we finish. 24-hour photo service. Full line of kodaks, film and photographic supplies. Foster's Quality Shop, Beasley Block. 37-1f.

The cause of woman suffrage received a severe set-back in New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania on Tuesday when the vote went in some precincts as high as ten to one against the movement. Several weeks ago the state of New Jersey, despite the advocacy of President Wilson, went 60,000 against equal suffrage.

BREVITIES

Applications received for N.P. lands, Miller & Jordan.

Forest Hopkins and family of Paxton were in town yesterday.

For farm loans see L. A. Fisher. Office over Lee's Pool Hall. 48-1f.

Richard Libby of Bluff creek was in town last week on business.

Are you in love? Ask the Zartoons. Orpheum theatre this week.

Pete Paulson of Union was in with a load of grain on Tuesday.

Bill Brody of Bloomfield was in town Tuesday on business, making the trip via auto.

Gasoline has advanced one cent. Price now for filtered gasoline is 20 1/2c.

Haskell Auto & Supply Co. 38-1f

Cap. Ed. LaRue of the Toggery in Sidney, was a business visitor in the city on Monday.

Elmer Martineson, Justice of the Peace, returned Tuesday morning from a short visit with relatives at Mercer, N. D.

Mrs. Grace Gilmore left on the Valley train yesterday morning for Sidney, having been advised of illness in the family of her brother, Ira Bendon.

Hon. E. A. Thompson, the Lindsay Literary Light and Knight of the Shears and Razoo, has been in town since last week looking after his interests in the city after harvesting a bumper crop on his homestead.

C. B. Imhoff, the jeweler and optician whose new store is located in the Beasley Block, has just received his display cases and expects to have his new and complete line of jewelry, watches and silverware in place by the first of next week.

Sol E. Heren and family of Miles City came in on the train Sunday and after spending the day with Mrs. Mack and family left Monday in a brand new Buick little 6, purchased from the Haskell Auto & Supply Co.

Amateur photographers, have your finishing done at home. Films developed, 10 cents per roll; prints from 3 to 5 cents according to size. Eastman films for sale. Kodaks for sale or rent. Work called for and delivered. Wing's Studio. Phone 212. 17-1f

Remember Wm. Schall's big Auction sale on Monday, Nov. 8th, near Kinsey on the Glendive-Fallon road. Nothing reserved. 37-2p.

Orville Osmundson of Bluff creek was in town last week with Gus Schlicht of Hungry Point ranch on Deer Creek, for a short business visit.

Mrs. S. E. Burns and Miss Mary Barret entertained at the home of the former last evening. Whist was played after which refreshments were partaken of.

Dr. Riesland, the eyesight specialist, arrived in town yesterday and will be at the Hotel Jordan until tomorrow (Friday) treating his many patients for eye troubles.

R. H. Zempel of Fall Creek, Wis., arrived in town yesterday on No. 1 to look after his land holdings in Dawson county and to visit his son-in-law, August Koepke of east of Lindsay, who came into town to meet him.

No matter what a man's personal politics may be he certainly ought to be able to get a few minutes real pleasure each week out of Congressman Tom Stout's weekly letter which appears exclusively in the Monitor—that is, if he is at all human.

M. A. Thorsen, the Circle banker, was in the city early in the week, leaving on Tuesday for Miles City and returning today. Mr. Thorsen advises that the new Circle hotel will be completed and thrown open to the public in about three weeks' time.

It is understood that the Rev. C. W. MacWilliams, for the past two years rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, has resigned his pastorate to take effect December 1. It is not definitely known at this time who is to take his place nor where he will be located.

The great railroad play, "The Juggernaut," with Earle Williams and Anita Stewart in the principal roles, which was shown at the Orpheum theatre on Tuesday, drew the largest crowds that ever attended a moving picture production on one day in the history of the city, more than 600 paid admissions being registered on the ticket booth machine for the three performances.

Wm. Haw and S. Sleiter of Sullivan were in town Tuesday with grain.

Is your wife true to you? Ask the Zartoons. Orpheum this week.

J. C. Harrison of Lindsay bought a Reo the 6th last Sunday from Haskell's garage.

A sign in the Rivenes-Wester hardware store reads: "If you want to talk war, join the army and get paid for it."

Cleanliness is next to Godliness—try Houck's bath tubs for the right kind of a bath. 38-1f

George Libby of Bluff Creek was in town last week after a load of gasoline for his son Raymond.

Lee's Billiard Chips same as cash at the Sanitary Barber shop in the Dion block. 25-1f

Tuesday is said to have established the season's record for the amount of grain hauled into the three elevators in this city.

Miss Mabel Williams of Terry, the Prairie County Superintendent of Schools, was in town over Sunday visiting friends and left for her home the following day.

Ole Wold of Black River Falls, Wis., was in town last week and paid a visit to his farm on Deer Creek which he has rented to Vernie Jones. Mr. Wold left for the east on No. 2 yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Hilliard, who recently underwent a successful operation for appendicitis, performed by Dr. Dan J. Donohue at the Glendive General hospital, left the institution today, completely cured.

Professor R. H. Brown, superintendent of the public schools stated that he would be glad to co-operate with the city or chamber of commerce to see that a torch-light parade or masquerade pageant be gotten up for the school children next year in the expectation that the usual Hallowe'en depredations would thus be done away with.

Next Thursday, November 11th, there will be held a big auction sale at the old Heuser ranch on 7-mile creek, by Mrs. Mary Heuser, administratrix, that promises to be a hum-dinger in the way of a public sale. The sale, which will be cried by the popular bonded auctioneer, Bert Hockens, will begin at 11 o'clock a. m., and there will be a free lunch served at noon.

Tip Johnson, Jr., and Oscar Hagan, Jr., both of Deer Creek were held up by a couple of strong arm men in this city last Wednesday night. Mr. Johnson was relieved of a gold watch and $4 in money, but when Mr. Hagan was commanded to throw up his hands, he did so, clutching a roll of bills in his fist that the highwaymen did not get. So far no arrests have been made nor any clues discovered that would lead to the arrest of the culprits.

A fire which burned a hole in the linoleum and floor under an over-heated kitchen range in the residence occupied by H. F. Burkart and family, at the corner of River avenue and Benham street last Saturday morning at 10:15 o'clock, resulted in an alarm being tooted by the fire whistle to which the fire department responded in good time. "Burk" had the fire under control, however, by the time the apparatus arrived on the scene. There was only a few dollars damage done.

It is rumored that the Daughters of Isabella are on the lookout for a hall or suite of rooms to be used as the organization's permanent headquarters. It is more than likely that they will secure the old Dawson County club rooms in the Helms & Volkert building on west Bell street, which will be suitably painted and decorated for their benefit. If these quarters are secured by this popular ladies organization, they will probably sub-rent the rooms to other women's lodges and clubs on nights that they are not using them themselves.

It is conservatively estimated that several hundred dollars worth of damage was done to private and city property last Saturday and Sunday nights by the Hallowe'en rowdies. Besides the destruction of sheds, fences, gates, wood walks and out buildings, considerable damage was done to fine plate glass windows by the gritty soap which in many cases left disfiguring scratches. If the youth of this town need some sort of exercise to work out a superabundance of life and exuberance, it has been suggested that they be introduced to a wood pile and a saw buck, which form of exercise is certainly not conducive to rowdiness or any other form of lawlessness.

Is your husband true to you? Ask the Zartoons... Orpheum this week.

Fred Pust of Burns was a Gate City visitor yesterday.

An Auto Livery that you can depend on to get there and back on time. Statham's Auto Repair Shop. 20-1f.

Attorney Andrew of Beach was a professional visitor in the City Monday.

Have you tried Rankin's tasty and wholesome Potato Bread? If not, why not? 38-1f.

Mr. Daniels, representing a large Minneapolis Fur concern, is exhibiting a fine line of goods at the Moore Millinery Shop.

Highest prices paid for Coyote bounty, Wolf hides, Cow hides and all other kinds of hides. B. F. Dawson. 39-1f

George Pederson, the Circle auto dealer and agent for the Empire car, was in the city last Friday and Saturday on business.

Wm. Schaal is going to have a big Auction sale on Nov. 8th at his farm 11 miles southwest of Glendive on the Glendive-Fallon road. 37-2p

We know a lot of people who, no matter how hard they try, will ever be able to say real fast: "Flesh of freshly fried fish." Try it yourself and see.

Walter Halvorson, formerly connected with the Toggery at Sidney, is expected in today to take charge of the clothing department of J. H. Miskimien's store.

Frank Petterson of Terry bought a Reo the 5th last Friday from the Haskell Auto & Supply Co., and had it driven home for him to the Prairie county seat by Miss Aurilla Drummond.

John M. Holmquist and Mary Erickson, both of Reeder, N. D., were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Elmer Martineson. The couple left for the east yesterday on No. 2.

C. R. Hansen, formerly connected with the Glendive State bank in this city, but recently assistant cashier of one of the Fairview banking institutions, was in town last week and this.

Mr. Hillburn of Glendive and Livingston is at the Glendive General hospital undergoing medical treatment for rheumatism and is getting along as well as can be expected.

The county commissioners met at the court house on Monday and Tuesday of this week for a brief session, the principal business being county road matters.

J. J. Moriarty of Circle, who has been confined to the Glendive General hospital for several weeks past suffering from a severe attack of typhoid, is reported as improving rapidly and will soon be discharged.

Little Elizabeth Baker, aged 7 years, daughter of Mayor A. A. Baker, had the misfortune of breaking a bone in her forearm last week. The injured member was set by Dr. A. L. Hammer and the little one is getting along nicely.

William E. Steinman and Miss Mahala E. Bryan were united in marriage yesterday in this city and will be at home to their friends in Union, Mont., after November 15th. The Monitor extends congratulations to the happy couple.

Pete Nelson of Antigo, Wis., together with his family, arrived in town on Tuesday morning to make Glendive their permanent home. Through the good offices of Ed. Healy of Healy's Cigar store, Mr. Nelson was induced to leave his old home in the east and accept one of the chairs in Bill Houck's barber shop for the time being at least. Mr. Nelson is said to be one of the best barbers that ever wielded tonsorial tools and both he and his family are heartily welcomed to our midst.

A. Evenrud of Bloomfield was in town yesterday with a load of grain.

Don't throw away your tires and tubes. We make them as good as new. Red Trail Vulcanizing Co. 3-1f.

Guy Stephens, the Circle auto liveryman, was in town Monday on business.

Senator George McCone and family of McCone Heights were in town this week and expect to leave for home tomorrow.

Make your tonsorial headquarters in the new Sanitary Barber Shop in the Dion Block. Everything modern. 13-1f

We have no objection to the wind, but for the life of us we can't figure out why it waits until every Sunday to go into full force and effect.

Developing free if we finish. 24-hour photo service. Full line of kodaks, film and photographic supplies. Foster's Quality Shop, Beasley Block. 37-1f.

The cause of woman suffrage received a severe set-back in New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania on Tuesday when the vote went in some precincts as high as ten to one against the movement. Several weeks ago the state of New Jersey, despite the advocacy of President Wilson, went 60,000 against equal suffrage.

WANTS!

TRADE—Wanted to trade, my new Player Piano, standard make, for a good upright piano. P. O. Box 683, Glendive, Mont. 28-1f.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply Mrs. H. N. Dion, 601 Kendrick Ave. 27-1f.

FOR SALE—1911 Thomas Flyer Roadster, at a bargain. Art Rawson, Hotel Jordan, Glendive, Mont. 28-

FOR SALE—Three shares of stock in Glendive State bank. E. W. Sullivan, 48 Mountain Ave., Hamilton, Ont. Canada. 38-3f.

FOR SALE—Office desk and chair, rocker, steel couch and folding bed. C. W. MacWilliams, 204 S. Douglas Street. 38-3f.

HOUSE TO RENT—Four rooms, bath, range and furnace, 204 S. Douglas St. Apply to Rev. C. W. MacWilliams during forenoons. 35

FOR RENT—Three nicely furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Call on Mrs. Clayton, 203 S. Kendrick Ave. 32-1f.

TO TRADE—A 25-volume cloth bound set of DuBalzac in exchange for a complete set of Shakespeare in good condition. Address Editor, The Monitor. 32-1f.

LOST—Hereford cow and calf, branded —3N on right hip, range on Deer creek. $10 reward for information leading to recovery. H. J. Nye, Glendive, Mont. 38-1p.

STRAYED OR STOLEN—3-year old mare, dark brown, branded 6A—on right shoulder, with colt branded A—on right shoulder. Last seen on Sheep mountain about 2 months ago. $25.00 reward paid for information leading to their recovery. Address I. I. Hadland, Horse Creek, Mont. 37-3p.

$5.00 REWARD—for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who maliciously removed the road sign posts from the county roads leading to the city of Glendive, the property of Eustrom & Sinclair, produce commission merchants. Address information confidentially to Eustrom & Sinclair or The Editor, Yellowstone Monitor. 34-1f.

LOST—Two weeks ago, ring with 3 keys. Return to Monitor. Reward.

FOLLOW SOME PLAN

Neither a house nor a bank account can be built without some definite and systematic plan, and neither will amount to anything unless the plan is followed.

Put aside in your savings account a fixed sum each month or a certain percentage of your income and let no temptation induce you to "touch" it. Watch it grow by accumulation with interest.

ONLY FIFTY CENTS

saved thus each day will amount to over $1,047 in five years. Prove this by experiment.

The First National Bank of Glendive

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000.00 Member of the Federal Reserve Bank

Enterprise Furniture And Undertaking Co.

E. D. Giltner
LICENSED EMBALMER IN CHARGE

Beautiful Chapel—and Complete Line of Funeral Supplies

FOR PROMPT AND COURTEOUS ATTENTION

Phone—Day No. 122 Night—No. 71-R or No. 12-B

THECKLA BLOCK