

Sun River Sun.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY AT Sun River, Montana Territory.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Week	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th	7th	8th	9th	10th	11th	12th
1 week	5	4	3	2	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1 month	15	12	10	8	6	5	4	3	2	1	1	1
3 months	40	35	30	25	20	15	10	8	6	5	4	3
6 months	75	65	55	45	35	25	15	10	8	6	5	4
1 year	135	120	105	90	75	60	45	35	25	15	10	8

Business notices in reading matter, 25 cents per line.
Business notices 15 cents per line for first insertion, and 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion of same matter.
Notices, Loss, Found, Wanted, and other similar notices, 15 cents per line for each insertion.
Transient advertisements must be paid in advance.
Regular advertisements to be settled for quarterly.
Advertising agents and others will save postage and time, by sending examination of above rates, under no circumstances will we deviate from them.

LATEST RAYS.

Fresh hams at J. H. McKnight & Co.'s.
The Benton Weekly Record is to be revived.
Mrs. J. Hill's little girl is very ill, we regret to learn.
Don Steel now drives the Sun River and Choteau stage.
J. H. McKnight & Co. sell picked apples at $7.50 per barrel.
Walker has built a tin bank, but it is not yet decided who shall wear it.
J. W. Nixon has had his residence clap-boarded against the coming winter storms.
A. M. Helter & Bro. are getting an immense quantity of lumber in their yard here.
A. J. Vance, of Twenty-Eight-Mile Springs, proposes to start a livery stable at Great Falls.
James Gibson has just received several varieties of coal heating stoves. Call and examine them.
The Ladies Pastor's Aid Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. Will Hanks on Thursday next, Nov. 13th, at 2:30 p. m.
James Gibson returned from what has been rather a long visit to Choteau last Monday. Mrs. Gibson did not return with him.
The Martha Washington ten party will be given at the M. E. church on Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 27th. All are cordially invited.
The failure of George Steel & Co. is no sign that Corson will fail to fix your wagon, shoe your horse, or mend your plow, for money.
Bentonian Democrats enthused elaborately Saturday night. They are said to have imbibed $500 worth of champagne water, and no blood split.
Kilguspaugh, Carter & Co.'s lumber is universally acknowledged to be the best there comes to this market and is sold outright through for $30 per M.
Wm. Ghasman will wheelbarrow Jim Gibson from the Grand Union hotel to the Benton postoffice, Sunday, in fulfillment of a political wager, says Saturday's Record.
The official count by the Canvassing Board of Lewis and Clarke county, which met at the court house to-day, makes the majority for Toole in the county 61.—Herald.
Among many curious things developed in the official count of the vote of Lewis and Clarke county at the late election is the tie vote of Ralston and Beach, and yet neither is elected.—Herald.
Sheriff McDevitt received but a single vote in the Sun River precinct, and he authorizes us to offer a liberal reward to the McDevitt man if he will come forward and declare himself.—Press.
Frank L. Sizer has returned from Sun River after an absence of nearly two months in the interest of the two canal companies who have large irrigating ditches in course of construction. He reports a flourishing state of affairs among ranchmen in the South Fork district.—Herald.
James L. Perkins, who is in the city with his wife, from Ulidia, was on the brick walls of his new warehouse, which he is building on Clove street. The front brick and side walls of this large warehouse will be completed to-morrow, and in a few days more the whole thing will be under cover.—Herald. What was J. L. doing on the wall?
Another Indian School.
The Pierre (Dak.) Press says: It may not be generally known, but it is expected to have an Indian training school established shortly on a portion of Pierre University grounds. A committee composed of gentlemen deeply and specially interested in the work among the Indians, two of the committee belonging in Montana, recommended that the proposed institution be put in the hands of the trustees of Pierre University, and the synd of Dakota, to enforce the report. The plan is to give the Indians their elementary training in that school necessary to enter the lowest preparatory class in the college, and then admit them fully into the main institution. It is believed that no difficulty will be experienced either in securing a good building for that special purpose, or funds to maintain the teachers necessary. The Indian ministers belonging to the Presbyterian church connected with the synd of Dakota, and their report of church work, was one of the most interesting features of the meeting of that body at Huron two weeks ago.

FROM ULIDIA.

Editor of the Sun:
Y. La Z. seems to have entirely weakened, as no more news epistles appear in the Sun over his signature. He evidently has said to himself, "if 'Gilt Thar Ell' wants to write why let him, or her as the fact may be; as for me, I will quit now."
Now, Mr. Editor, I ain't much on the write, but I do dearly love to see myself in print, and with your permission I will give to your readers a few items of news from this settlement.
Mr. Thos. L. Gorham's sale came off as advertised I believe he realized a fair price for the goods sold.
Mr. Gorham has the sympathy of our whole community in the loss of his all through the failure of Geo. Steel & Co. If he was a young man and able to rustle it would not be quite so bad, but being as he is, past the meridian of life, with an invalid wife, it is indeed very hard. But he bears up under his misfortune nobly and without complaint.
The chief event in society circles here during the past few weeks was the marriage of Mr. James Austin, and Mr. Tripless, both weddings were surprises to most of us. We wish the happy couples much happiness now and always.
Rev. J. M. Largent preached here to-day. We miss the reverend gentleman very much and long for the time when his school at Sun River will close, so that we may have him with us again.
Mr. Kelly, of Sun River, is over here, we understand, with the intention of trying to purchase an interest in Ford's saloon.
J. L. Perkins and wife are at Helena. It is thought that they will go to New Orleans and take in the exposition.
The round-up finished his labors some time ago, and Robert Thoroughman rests.
It is reported that Sam Osborn is contemplating giving a "stag dance" at his residence shortly. We do not know just what sort of dance that is, but presume it is one at which deers are not allowed.
Mrs. Harris is much improved in health this fall, whereat all her friends greatly rejoice.
It is true that the proprietor of the Sun River Southern stage line is about to be married. It is so reported here.
Who is to be the next President? But no matter, we don't care. It concerns us not. Very few of our people even voted at this election. GET THAR ELL.

FROM ULIDIA.

ULIDIA, November 9.

Editor of the Sun:
Y. La Z. seems to have entirely weakened, as no more news epistles appear in the Sun over his signature. He evidently has said to himself, "if 'Gilt Thar Ell' wants to write why let him, or her as the fact may be; as for me, I will quit now."
Now, Mr. Editor, I ain't much on the write, but I do dearly love to see myself in print, and with your permission I will give to your readers a few items of news from this settlement.
Mr. Thos. L. Gorham's sale came off as advertised I believe he realized a fair price for the goods sold.
Mr. Gorham has the sympathy of our whole community in the loss of his all through the failure of Geo. Steel & Co. If he was a young man and able to rustle it would not be quite so bad, but being as he is, past the meridian of life, with an invalid wife, it is indeed very hard. But he bears up under his misfortune nobly and without complaint.
The chief event in society circles here during the past few weeks was the marriage of Mr. James Austin, and Mr. Tripless, both weddings were surprises to most of us. We wish the happy couples much happiness now and always.
Rev. J. M. Largent preached here to-day. We miss the reverend gentleman very much and long for the time when his school at Sun River will close, so that we may have him with us again.
Mr. Kelly, of Sun River, is over here, we understand, with the intention of trying to purchase an interest in Ford's saloon.
J. L. Perkins and wife are at Helena. It is thought that they will go to New Orleans and take in the exposition.
The round-up finished his labors some time ago, and Robert Thoroughman rests.
It is reported that Sam Osborn is contemplating giving a "stag dance" at his residence shortly. We do not know just what sort of dance that is, but presume it is one at which deers are not allowed.
Mrs. Harris is much improved in health this fall, whereat all her friends greatly rejoice.
It is true that the proprietor of the Sun River Southern stage line is about to be married. It is so reported here.
Who is to be the next President? But no matter, we don't care. It concerns us not. Very few of our people even voted at this election. GET THAR ELL.

DEARBORN NEWS.

NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform us who she is?
NONE OF YOUR BIZ.

DEARBORN NEWS.
NOVEMBER 10, 1884.
The election is over: 60 votes were cast. A dance at the school house the night of the election. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.
There is talk of a wedding here before long. Happiness for some one.
The sub-teacher hired the teacher for three months longer, as the number of pupils has increased from four to commence with to fourteen now, and more talking of coming.
Chas. La Breche, Chas. Rodolph and Geo. Gustavison were judges and Fred Frost and James Lee were clerks at this precinct.
Mr. Savage and wife and Mr. Woodruff and intended were in town last week.
Mr. Brasso brought his wife to the dance, as he wanted to get the returns from the election here.
H. A. Milot can do the work of three clerks, when he feels like it, and not grumble much, either.
It keeps Mr. Cohen on the road most of the time to haul goods for his two stores.
If anyone wants a well dug we would not recommend them to the Dearborn well-digger, who can dig one five feet deep in five days, if he has plenty of assistance.
Hon. Gillette is a good rustler at an election, but it is better to let all sheep men alone when they have wool in their teeth.
People up here prophesy an easy winter, therefore some of them want to bet on Cleveland.
The landlord here thinks if they get three or four more wells dug by Wells that he will be able to get water without carrying it from the river.
We know some one who thinks they could write the Dearborn news, if they only had time, but they never have time. Cannot somebody lend them a little time?
Phl. Manx machine threshed in this neighborhood last week. They claim to have threshed over twenty-five thousand bushels this fall.
F. W. Murphy and Dav. Neal, the two Rocky Mountain prospectors, have returned from the Little Rockies, with their pockets full of—well, I won't say what.
W. S. Moore has gone to Helena for a load of goods for H. A. Milot.
David Orchaad and Geo. Warner have the most grain of anyone in this neighborhood.
Our blacksmith was up to see his girl Sunday. Will some one inform