THE VEILED MYSTERY.

There is a woman in the Treasury who has attracted much attention on account of the mystery surrounding her. She has been in the department for years, not less than ten—and though she is marked by everybody I have never met anybody who has ever seen her face. It is the talk of the clerks brought most in contact with her. She is a woman of magnificent presence, a tall, fine figure, and one of the most perfect forms I have ever seen. Her appearance is that of a woman who might possess wonderful beauty, but she always has her face enveloped in a thick veil.

A CONVENIENT BROTHER.

It is a serious offence for a German to appear in public except in uniform, even when he is on a furlough. He must always wear his uniform. A certain Lieutenant Schmidt was so engaged in some adventure or other, dressed as a civilian, was having a fine time of it, when turning a corner he unexpectedly met his colonel. Lieutenant Schmidt, however, did not lose his presence of mind. He pretended that he had never seen the colonel before, and in a changed voice asked: "Can you tell me, sir, where Lieut. Schmidt lives? I am his brother from the country, and am paying him a little visit."

Some Mongolian pheasants brought to this country by ex United States Consul Denny from China and turned loose in Lynn County, Oregon, have wonderfully multiplied.

Forty Moors sent out by their government to study the manufacture of breech-loading guns, are coming to the United States and will enter the employ of various arm-manufacturing concerns.

Among the more fastidious people there is an impression that the flavor of tea is wholly ruined by a journey on Salt water. All the crowned heads and wealthy nobility of Europe use tea; therefore, which costs them three times the price paid in America for a brand bearing the same name, but which is brought by Russian traders in immense caravans overland from China. The trade is very profitable, and it is largely to protect it that Russia is so jealous of her Asiatic possessions.

This is the Chinese legend of the origin of the fan. One evening when the beautiful Kan Si, daughter of a powerful Chinese mandarin, was assisting at the great feast of lanterns, she was so overcome by the heat that she was obliged to take off her mask. But to expose her face to the eyes of the profane and vulgar was a serious offense against the law; so, holding the mask as closely as possible to her features, she rapidly fluttered it to give herself air, and the rapidity of the movement still concealed her. The other ladies present, witnessing this and thenceforth fans came into general favor.

The sword which has been sent out by our Government to the Governor of Yakutsk was designed by Lieutenant Schuteze, of the United States Navy, and has a blade of the finest steel, with a scabbard and hilt of beaten gold. On the former are engravings of and reindeer sleds and the Jeannette. It is inscribed: "Presented by the President of the United States to Major-general Georgy Fedorovich Tcherniaeff, governor of Yakutsk, East Siberia, for eminent services rendered to the survivors of the Arctic exploring steamer Jeannette and the search parties." It is valued at $500.

The price of Miss Cleveland's book has been cut down in Washington from $2.50 to 89 cents.

The government pays a man $60 a month to wind the clocks in the interior department building.

St. Louis had a hard week of it ending Saturday. There were 201 deaths recorded and only 182 births.

A mine of mica is said to have been discovered at South Mountain, Lebanon county, Pa., worth $3 to $9 per ton.
