can say without exaggeration that our line of Fine Men's is the best in this part of the country.

These elegant, well-fitting, comfortable and durable hand-sewed shoes in Lace and Congress styles are manufactured by the celebrated shoemakers Messrs. Lilly, White & Co. of Brockton, Mass., invariably given the best of attention. Where we have sold pair to a customer, he has not bought another.

The justly celebrated Eastwood's elegant fine French-calf sewed shoes in lace and congress styles that combine comfort with durability. They are the dressy shoe, but the good, comfortable and durable shoe, makes a man feel at home wearing them; they are also sure cures for corns. We will guarantee a cure every time if a man has.

As much cannot be said in praise for the celebrated Alfred's Felt Shoes. They are made of wool; so shoddy felt that they are as soon as worn only a mass of shreds. A sure preventive from chapped feet. They are sole agents from Great Falls.

Our line of hand-sewed shoes, ranging from $2 to $3.50, are considered to surpass any shoe offered in the city at the same price.

Our line of Men's Slipper's in hand-sewed Morocco and velvet is complete.

We are still selling Ladies' shoes at first cost and have a fair selection to select from. Buy in and get a pair for your sister, cousin or aunt. They will all go to make room for men's shoes this spring.

Our clearing sale in heavy underwear is still in progress. The amount of these goods we would since we started our clearing sale has surprised even ourselves. Don't miss this sale, you are supplied for this winter. Buy some for next spring and save economy by so doing. We have just received an invoice of the latest importation of hand-bordered Handkerchiefs for women. They were ordered during spring but came on a little late. In order to induce you to buy them now we have reduced them at 12 1/2, two for 35c, and 50 per dozen. Also a line at $1.50 per dozen.

A splendid line of Imported Cambric Half Hose in black and colors at from $4 to $6 per pair. Very respectfully,

OLD HUTCH DONE UP.

Rumor That the Chicago Grain Gambler Has Been Swindled Out of $100,000.

Boys in His Employ Worked Him for That Amount—Bulls and Bears Excited.

Grand Jury Investigating 'Boodlesism' in St. Louis—Convicts at Large—Doings of Criminals.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—It is reported on the board of trade that the setting boys of B. P. Hutchinson, by a series of cross trades made to a certain broker, have swindled him out of a very large sum of money. Mr. Hutchinson was not on the board, but there appears to be no doubt that he has been made the victim of his boys. Nothing else was talked of by the bulls and bears, and the amount taken was reported to have been as much as $100,000.

BRIBERY IN ST. LOUIS.

Grand Jury Investigating Charges of Corruption Against Members of the Municipal Council.

St. Louis, Jan. 27.—The grand jury is engaged in investigating the charges of corruption made against certain members of the municipal assembly. One of the charges is the alleged distribution of $15,000 among members of the house of delegates for the passage of a bill to grant a franchise to the Rapid Transit Railway company. It is claimed that one member took a key to a safe deposit box and went and took the $15,000 which he had previously seen placed there. There are a number of similar cases awaiting action, and a number of prominent citizens have been notified to appear and testify. It is said that Governor Francis will be summoned as a witness.

Five Made Their Escape.

SALISBURY, Jan. 27.—Prisoners at the jail here some time Thursday night, cut through the floor of the cell into the cellar, and there made a hole through the brick wall, and five of them made their escape. Two were recaptured.

Congressional Proceedings.

The House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The house concurred in senate amendments to the bill to change and fix the time of holding the terms of the United States circuit and district courts at Austin and Brownsville, Tex.

The house insisted on its amendments to the bill for the removal of obstructions from the Missouri river and a conference was ordered.

Senate bill was reported authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river within one mile north and one mile south and east of the mouth of the Kansas river.

The customs administrative bill was then taken up in committee of the whole.

NEWS BREVITIES.

The United States squadron of evolution has arrived at Port Mahon.

The schedule committee of the Play-ers' National league is in session at Pittsburg.

Commander Phillip H. Cooper has been ordered to the command of the frigate, Asiatic station.

At Leadville, Colo., several business houses on Harrison street were burned. Loss $18,000; partly insured.

Some workmen digging a cellar on Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, undermined adjoining house so that it collapsed. The occupants all escaped.

Harry Potzer, son of a wealthy brewer of Reading, Pa., was killed at Steubenville, Ohio, by William Wenter, a saloon keeper, who cut Potzer's head open with a hatchet.

In a letter to a friend in London Stanley writes "My hair is like the snow from Ruwenzori, but it is the crown of a busy period, and I wear it without regret, as the gift of heaven."

By the death of Mr. Christopher R. M. Tallott, liberal member of parliament for Glamorgan-shire, last week, his three daughters inherit in equal shares an estate valued at $5,900,000.

Henry M. Jackson, the teller of the United States sub-treasury at New York city, who absconded in 1887 with $10,000 of public money, was sentenced to an imprisonment of six years and a fine of $1,000.

John Carroll, a wealthy farmer living five miles north of Birmingham, Ala., was shot dead by E. B. Barnes, a prominent lawyer, in the small town of Opelika. There was an old grudge between the men.

The Cologne Gazette is authority for the statement that the Portuguese government has ordered the construction in the German ship yards of five large torpedo boats to be delivered without unnecessary delay.

The damage resulting from the recent storms along and near the southern coast of England has been enormous. The sea-wall extending from New Haven to Seaford has been injured in many places, and over a quarter of a mile of it has collapsed completely.

The antique furniture of the Junal mansion on Washington Heights, New York famous as one of Washington's headquarters, and once occupied by Aaron Burr and Mme. Simeon, was sold at auction by the present owner of the place. Miserable prices were realized for the battered and torn articles. A canopy bedstead, in which Washington had slept, fetched $80.

EX-SENATOR RIDDLEBERGER.

Sketch of the Short and Brilliant Career of the Dead Statesman.

WOODSTOCK, Va., Jan. 27.—The death of Harrison Holt Riddleberger, ex-senator, who died Friday after a long illness, had been expected for several days. His family were present when he died.

Mr. Riddleberger was born at Edinburg, Shenandoah county, Va., Oct. 4, 1834. He had a common school education and then studied with a tutor at home for two years. He was 17 years old when the war began, and was in the Confederate army as lieutenant of infantry and captain of cavalry. After the war he studied law and was admitted to the bar, beginning his practice at Woodstock, where his home was. For two years he was commonwealth's attorney for his county. He served four years in the house of delegates, and for a similar period in the state senate. He was a member of the Democratic state committee until 1879; a presidential elector on the Democratic ticket in 1876, and on the Readjuster ticket in 1880. In 1883 he entered the United States senate as a Readjuster, and his term of service ended in 1889. In the meantime he had several contentions with his colleagues, then, Mahone, and during the last campaign he opposed Mahone. Since 1870 he has been the editor of three papers—the Tenth Legion, The Shenandoah Democrat and The Virginian.

Bishop O'Connor is Dying.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 27.—A private letter has been received from Bishop James O'Connor, dated St. Augustine, Fla., stating that his health is failing rapidly and that he never expects to see Omaha again. The bishop has been in failing health for a long time, and went to St. Augustine from Omaha about a month ago in the hope that he would feel better in that climate. Bishop O'Connor is well known throughout the country as one of the prominent figures in the Catholic church.

Bishop Nease Cannot Live.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 27.—The Rev. John C. Nease, Roman Catholic bishop of the diocese of San Antonio, is seriously ill and not expected to live many hours. Bishop Nease is over 80 years of age, and, as a churchman, has control of the entire state of Texas.

Work of the Reaper.

Henry S. Pierce, ex-collector of internal revenue for the district of Western New York, died at Canastota, aged 44 years, after a long illness, of an inflammatory rheumatism, following influenza.

The death of Hon. J. T. Magbhen, a large whiskey manufacturer and stock raiser, and president of the Latonia Jockey club, occurred at Crutina, Ky., Friday. He left a large estate, probably $750,000, and $50,000 life insurance. His age was 59 years.

Professor John T. Flack, of the Yale law school, died in New Haven, Thursday, at the age of 43 years.

THE COUNT ON TOP AGAIN.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The Sun's Washington special says the Count Miklowicz, who obtained valuable concessions from the Chinese government two years ago, but whose scheme fell through because of bitter personal attacks upon him by rivals and enemies, has had the concessions revoked, and the project is now almost certain to be carried out. The Chinese minister at Washington has accepted the count's plans, and the count has secured the backing of leading capitalists, not counting with the treasurer's arrangement. The concession covers banking, railroads, telegraphs, telephones and a mint.

NELLIE BLY IN CHICAGO.

An Informal Reception Given the Globe Trotter by Newspaper Men.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—Nellie Bly arrived the union station shortly after 7 o'clock Friday morning, two hours ahead of schedule time. At Joliet she was met by a small delegation of representatives of the morning newspaper press. Upon her arrival she was driven to the rooms of the Chicago Press club, where she held an informal reception until 9:15. In company with the representatives of The World she then breakfasted at Kinley's, and at 10:30 departed on the Pennsylvania express for New York.

Ohio Endorses Chicago.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 27.—The general assembly gave an impetus to the Chicago boom for the world's fair by passing the Hodge resolution, requesting the Ohio members in both branches of congress to vote for Chicago as the site for the proposed exhibition. In the senate the vote was unanimous, and in the house there were but two negative votes.

Negroes Shipped Like Cattle.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 27.—When a rear load of North Carolina negroes, billed for Arkansas, reached Morristown Thursday night, they were informed that they would be taken to Mississippi instead. They rebelled and because the train was full the emigrant agents who had them in charge that the latter had to flee for their lives.

Bit on the Gold Brick Swindle.

LIMA, Ohio, Jan. 27.—Clark Adams, a wealthy farmer was swindled out of $6,000 by two strangers and a couple of gold plated bricks. Adams gave the swindlers the money for a half interest in an alleged mine.

NEARLY JOINED M'GINTY.

"Nellie Bly" Has a Miraculous Escape From Going to the Bottom of a Ravine.

Her Special Train Flashes Safely Over a Chasm Where the Bridge Had Been Removed.

Barring Accidents, She Will Reach New York Ahead of Time—Incidents of Her Trip.

GALLUP, N. M., Jan. 25.—"Nellie Bly" passed here on a special train, running at the rate of over 50 miles an hour. Three miles east of this place the track repaired were replaced the stringers on the bridge over a deep canyon. The rails were in place, but only held up by jacks. The workmen heard the special coming and tried to flag it, but they were too late. The engine and car went thundering over the ravine and passed over safely. The escape was a miraculous one, and section men who were on the train flash past on its strawlike structure regard the escape as one of the most marvelous in railway history.

TOLD BY NELLIE BLY.

Incidents of Her Flying Trip Around the World Related by the Tourist.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Miss Bly's skin is tanned by Eastern suns, but she looked pretty in a jaunty cap, and large checked ulster covered her blue dress. Her teeth are perfect, and of dazzling whiteness. In manner she is cordial, frank and sprightly. Of her trip she said:

"Well, as to my entire trip, I will say it has not appeared to me to be such a gigantic undertaking. I have just come right along without any great exertion, have rather enjoyed myself. Sometimes I was hurried, of course, but whenever I had to wait I managed to spend the time pleasantly."

"How many days have you lost since you left New York?"

"Only fifteen. I lost one day at America, which I spent with Jules Verne, and a very pleasant day at Canton. I was detained five days at Colombo, Ceylon, waiting for the steamer Oriental to take me to Hong Kong. Then I was at Hong Kong four days, waiting for the steamer from Brindisi to Colombo. We were not so gaily as they might have been, but, on the whole, I think I have no reason to be dissatisfied. At Hong Kong I had a delightful time. We went in Canton, sightseeing, and oh! there is so much to see. We spent Christmas day in Canton, and it was a Christmas long to be remembered. We had a grand banquet of the dead and heard the world chanting and masses. We reached Hong Kong on the 23d, and rode all about the city in a sedan chair. We went to the temple and had a Chinese guide."

"At Yokohama the first night I went to all the theatres, and in the afternoon I rode around the city. The second day we went to Kamakura, and saw the idol Diabuta. It is sixty feet high. We had our photographs taken. I was standing on the idol's thumb at the time. The third day I went to Tokio, which is eighteen miles from Yokohama. The sightseeing there was superb. We visited many beautiful temples, and were amused at the number and great variety of the dead and heard the world chanting and masses. We reached Hong Kong on the 23d, and rode all about the city in a sedan chair. We went to the temple and had a Chinese guide."

Nellie Bly is Ahead of Time.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 25.—The latest received at the Santa Fe headquarters says the Nellie Bly special is now two hours ahead of the schedule time. The train left Williams, Ariz., at 10:30 a. m., and arrived at Albuquerque at 8:45 p. m., and made a maximum of 50 miles per hour. The run from Navajo Springs to Winslow, 78 miles, was made in 37 minutes. The special will leave Chicago at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in time to connect with the Pennsylvania limited express for New York.

ADAM FOREPAUGH DEAD.

The Veteran Showman a Victim of the Grip.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—Adam Forepaugh, Sr., the veteran showman, died at his residence in this city, shortly before midnight of pneumonia, superinduced by grip. Mr. Forepaugh was 68 years of age. He leaves a widow and one son, Adam Forepaugh, Jr.

Von Der Ahe Wants to Sell Out.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—A St. Louis special to The Herald says that Chris. Von Der Ahe is so disheartened at Comiskey's and the other stars' desertions, that he offers to sell the franchise for $500,000, the purchaser to assume the liabilities of the club, which are $300,000. Von Der Ahe said: "I have accumulated nothing in two years but debts. Now I want to get out of the business. I am disgusted with the way things are going, and I want to get out. I have better business interests in view."

New W. C. T. U. Organization.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 25.—The W. C. T. U. convention here is attended by fully 250 ladies. Committees on constitution and resolutions were appointed by the selection of one member from each state. The convention then went into committee of the whole and discussed methods and objects of the new organization.

BISHOP HARE PROTESTS.

Against Opening the Sioux Reservation. Congress Ratifies Promise to the Indians.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Bishop Hare, of South Dakota, has taken ground against the opening of the Sioux Indian reservation until congress has passed a bill which gives the Indians certain things not called for in the original act under which negotiations were made. He has written a letter to Herbert Welch, of Pennsylvania, in which he states his position emphatically. Mr. Welch is secretary of the National Indian Rights association, and has, it is understood, laid the bishop's protest before the members of both houses of congress. The bishop's position is that the commission made promises to the Sioux which they were not authorized to make under the bill, and which the Indians regard as a part of the conditions under which they give up their lands. He holds that unless these promises are jacked out, faith is broken, and the Indians will have just cause to complain of their treatment as the government's hands. Representative Pickler, of South Dakota, has just had an interview with the president on this subject. The president told him that he had not had time to examine the report of the commission fully as he wanted to before issuing the proclamation. He asked Maj. Pickler many questions about the probable condition in which settlers would find themselves if they were to rush in there in considerable numbers at this season of the year, and from the tone of his talk gave the inference that he was disposed to act as soon as the press of business allowed him to do so with a full understanding of the situation.

Some Supervisors of Census.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The President sent to the senate, among others, the following nominations for supervisors of census:

Washington—L. B. Noyes, Fourth district; Minnesota—E. J. Davenport, Second district; Elmer E. Adams, Fourth district; Nebraska—W. S. Randall, First district; B. F. Stouffer, Second district; T. M. Cook, Third district; South Dakota—C. W. Mather, Second district.

IS THE POPE DEAD?

A Roman to That Effect Obtains in Rome, Though on Very Slight Grounds.

ROME, Jan. 25.—There is a widespread rumor that the pope is dead. The reports have been announced that he is in perfect health and has received several bishops.

No Confirmation of the Pope's Death.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—At the house of the rector of the cathedral it was learned that no word had reached there about the death of the pope. In the absence of Archbishop Corrigan, Mr. Frossen, vicar general, is in charge of the diocese. It was said at his residence that no dispatch had come from Rome, and the news of the death of his holiness was not credited.

Will Compromise With Socialists.

BELMONT, Jan. 25.—The Tagblatt states that it learns on semi-official authority that the government has decided to withdraw the socialist bill in the event of the reichstag rejecting the clause giving government the right to expel Socialists.

Boston Fireman Injured.

BOSTON, Jan. 25.—Fire started at midnight in the brick block running on Bristol and Thayer streets from Albany street almost to Harrison avenue known as "Paul's Mills." The block was occupied by many firms, mostly in wood working of similar line of trade. The fire was gotten under control at 2:30 o'clock. The total loss will probably amount to about $125,000. Five firemen were seriously but not fatally injured by a fall of one of the burning floors.

Poisoned by Mistake.

REHMAN, N. J., Jan. 25.—Charles Magee, postmaster at Holmdel, died from the effects of carbolic acid, which he drank Saturday afternoon. Mr. Magee was returning from Newport on the day named, when he stopped at the Town House kept by his brother-in-law. He asked the servant for something to drink. He was given a bottle of acid, which he mistook for beer. Mr. Magee soon became unconscious, and remained so until he died.

A New Orleans Fire.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 25.—At an early hour fire started in building No. 6 Barronne street. It soon spread to the four-story building situated at the southwest corner of Barronne and Canal streets, occupied by the Chess, Checker and Whist club, and the entire building and contents were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $40,000. The Chess club's loss will aggregate $18,000.

Insomnia in the Lead.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The mortality report to the bureau of vital statistics for the twenty-four hours ending at noon show 135 deaths. Of this number 39 were due to pneumonia, 6 to bronchitis, 27 to consumption and 11 to influenza, all complicated with other diseases.

Found Guilty of Murder.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 25.—The trial of Joseph Chapeau for the murder of Irwin Tabor in this town one year ago, has been concluded. Chapeau was found guilty of murder in the first degree and will be sentenced to death next Tuesday. A motion for a new trial will be made.

Eulogized Jeff Davis.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 25.—The legation yesterday listened to eulogies upon the late Jefferson Davis, and adopted resolutions expressing the sorrow of the people for the death of their former chief magistrate.

Murder and Suicide.

VIENNA, Jan. 25.—A well known journalist of this city named Palkowitz shot and killed Fraulein Stecher, an actress, after which he committed suicide. Jealousy was the cause of the tragedy.
