SENATOR QUAY DEFEATED.
His Own District Goes Back on Him—A Spirited Contest.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., July 11.—The hottest political fight ever known in the Twenty-fifth congressional district closed in this city yesterday and has made apparent the fact that the man who assumes to hold the lever of the big republican machine has found something loose in the running gear under his very eyes. This is Matthew Quay's district, being composed of Lawrence, Beaver, Butler and Mercer counties. Nominees are made by a majority vote of 60 delegates, 19 from each county. The present representative is Charles C. Townsend, a protégé of Quay, who was elected two years ago notwithstanding the two term rule that has heretofore been always recognized. Townsend's nomination was desperately and successfully combated.

The convention met June 11, and after talking 100 ballots adjourned, that matters might be adjusted by some master hand—presumably Quay's. Recovering this week the voting was continued to the 19th ballot, when Mayor McDowell, of Mercer, was chosen. The result has caused general surprise throughout the state. D. J. Jackson, Townsend's professor in the house, led the anti-Townsend movement on anti-Quay principles.

LET THE PEOPLE ALL REJOICE

For Great Falls has a Population of Over 3,110 by the Census.

CASCADE COUNTY HAS ABOUT 8,200.

Superintendent Speer Allowed Judge Race to Give an Estimate.

The Rapid Growth of Great Falls is Thus Made Manifest to all.

In response to a telegram from the TRIBUNE yesterday, Mr. W. O. Speer of Butte courteously authorized Judge Race to give an estimate of the population here. To a TRIBUNE representative the Judge stated that the population of Great Falls is over 4,100. This does not include residents of West or North Great Falls or the men employed at the Montana smelter, the Boston & Montana smelter or the great dam. These men all properly belong to the city and if counted would swell the population to over 5,000. The estimate on the county places the population at about 8,300.

To persons familiar with the history of the town these figures will not be surprising. In 1854 there were only 25 people here, in 1855, about 100, in 1856, about 500, in 1857, about 1,000, in 1858, about 1,500, and in 1859 from 2,000 to 2,500. In view of these figures the present population of over 4,000 is certainly a matter of rejoicing. The healthy growth of the town and vicinity is made still clearer by the fact that nearly 2,000 people have come to this county within the past six months.

As Judge Race has sent the full returns for both city and county to Mr. Speer, the estimate above given is as near as the census rules will permit to the actual figures. These will not differ more than 100 or 200. In any case the population of the city will be over 4,100—that is certain.

Wool Steers.
A visit to the wool warehouse yesterday showed that spacious structure to be full to overflowing with the fleecy product. Workmen were busily engaged in loading cars and in this way only was room made for the several wagon loads of wool waiting at the doors. The receiving clerk informed us that up to date considerably more than 1,000,000 pounds had been received at the warehouse, a goodly share of which had already gone forward to market. Nearly all the wool will be consigned this season as growers are not content to accept the prices offered by the buyers. This is equally true in all parts of the state. It is now evident that not less than 2,500,000 pounds of wool will be shipped from this city the present season, exceeding the shipments of last year by half a million pounds.

An old saying, but every day proves it to be true.

Hundreds of people in Great Falls and vicinity might have thousands of dollars to-day, whereas they have nothing, if they only had bought town property a few years ago. But they could not see beyond their nose. The same thing applies to-day in buying the necessities and luxuries of life. Don't go through life with your eyes shut, but look about you.
