CHICAGO A BLAZE OF GLORY.

A Grand Celebration in Honor of a Distinguished Catholic Prelate.

POPE LEO SENDS CORDIAL GREETING.

Twenty-five Thousand Men in Line of Parade—Religious Rites and Addresses.

Two Men are Killed in a Railroad Accident near Providence.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—In the most impressive ceremonies of which the ritual of the Catholic church is capable, Archbishop Patrick A. Feehan celebrated this morning the twenty-fifth anniversary of his elevation to the episcopacy. The scene in the Cathedral of the Holy Name on Superior and State streets was a brilliant one. The edifice was crowded as it never had been before with the faithful laity from all parts of the city. In the sanctuary sat the archbishop on a resplendent throne, and beside him similarly placed were Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, Elder of Cincinnati and Ireland of St. Paul, while in a semi-circular row, in a place equally occupied by acolytes, sat a remarkable array of other prelates in attendance, representing dioceses from the Atlantic to the Rockies and from the British possessions to the Gulf of Mexico. In the front pews, just outside of the sanctuary, were the diocesan and invited clergy to the number of 418. Priests as well as prelates from all over the country had come to do honor to the archbishop of Chicago.

The celebration proper began at 9:30 o'clock with the celebration of mass by Archbishop Feehan. Bishop John J. Hogan of Kansas City, delivered an eloquent eulogium on the prelate whose jubilee was being celebrated. The splendid choir of the cathedral carried the musical portion of the celebration. There was a chorus of sixty voices. Just before mass a telegram was received from Rome. It read:

"Congratulations to Archbishop Feehan and apostolic benediction on flock and clergyman. (Signed) Leo XIII.

After mass the prelates were entertained at dinner in a large banquet hall at the Auditorium hotel. The toasts were: "Silver Jubilee—ad multos annos," address on behalf of the clergy of the diocese, by Rev. Vicar-General Dowling; "Our Holy Father," vice regent of Christ and Spiritual Ruler of Christendom; "Visiting Bishops"; "Clergy of the Diocese of Chicago." Response by Rev. E. J. Dunne. "Visiting Clergy." Response by Rev. F. S. Henneberry. "Our Church and Our Country—Good Catholic, Good Citizen." Response by Dr. Rev. Bishop Spaulding of Florida. "Catholic Church in Chicago. She has kept pace with the marvelous growth of our magnificent city." Response by Rev. D. J. McCaffrey.

After the banquet Archbishop Feehan held a reception in the parlors of the Auditorium, where he received the congratulation of the leading Catholics of the city.

The crowning glory of the celebration was a torchlight procession tonight, which in point of magnitude and brilliancy has probably never been surpassed in the west. Over 25,000 men were in line bearing torches, lanterns and colored lights. Over the entire line of march the streets seemed arched in fire by a continuous stream of rockets. Mingling of many nationalities with appropriate uniforms of the most varied and unique hue, made the marching thousands unique in their picturesque appearance.

Peter Klobb, painter, with a long record of gallantry in the American civil war, was chief marshal, and Thomas L. Hartigan, a West Pointer, served as adjutant general. The English speaking parades were led by Daniel Coakley. The enthusiasm displayed was remarkable, both in the ranks and among the thousands of spectators along the route, particularly at the Auditorium, where for hours Archbishop Feehan, surrounded by visiting prelates, watched the blazing torches and acknowledged, apparently, unending tribute to his honor.

Railroad Accident.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 29.—An accident occurred tonight on the Worcester division of the New York, Providence & Boston railroad, near Branch avenue bridge, at the northern part of the city, in which two men were almost instantly killed and another is probably fatally injured. A freight train was either broken in two or was switching out on the track, when two cars came together with unusual force. One of these cars was loaded with steel bridge girders and two of them were displaced and bounced around just as the loaded train moved north some along on the next track. One girder first struck the side of the smoker, killing Daniel McDermott of Pawtucket, who was sitting by the window playing cards, and wounding Fred Bennett, baggage master at Central Falls station, who sat behind him. The big beam rebounded and struck the next car, the daily coach, where N. G. Peabody, the residence unknown, was killed. The residence unknown was struck by another girder through the car roof and another by leg across it. The train was but slightly halted or more would have been killed.

Speaker Reed in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 28.—Speaker Reed arrived in this city this morning and was the guest of Gov. Merriam during the day. In the afternoon an informal reception was tendered him at the Ryan hotel and tonight he addressed two audiences in the Grand opera house and the Newmarket theatre. He devoted himself chiefly to the protective tariff. The McKinley bill he considered the result of the combined opinions of the people and as such he endorsed it. Of the Lodge bill he said he believed in majority rule.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Russian revolution, in pursuance of its policy of Russification the Balkan territory, has decided to erect and subsidize a number of theaters in the Balkan states, the condition of their maintenance being that only Russian plays in the Russian language and performed by Russian actors shall be produced.

He Might as Well Stay in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Although it has not been positively settled yet, it is now quite likely that the president will make the journey to Indiana to vote there on election day. He has cleared up all the important business on his desk and unless something not now known should occur he will make the trip.

Proceedings Approved.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The secretary of the interior approved the proceedings of the council of Menominee Indians in Wisconsin, assenting to the provisions of the act of June 12, 1890, for the sale of their timber, and appointed George W. Gans of Tomahawk, Wis., superintendent of the logging operations of the Indians.

Another St. Paulite Gets There.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Secretary Windom today appointed J. K. Moore of St. Paul, chief of the appointment division of the treasury department to succeed I. E. Byrnes, resigned.

Novel Attempt at Suicide.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Charles Rand, 47 years old, barkeeper of a Broad street saloon, who lived on the third floor of No. 205 West South street with his aged and infirm mother and a young niece, this afternoon in a novel way. While his mother who is deaf, near-sighted, lame and otherwise afflicted, was asleep, he attached a long piece of rubber tubing to a gas jet in a room and, carrying it across the door to his bedroom, put the other end in his mouth and laid down on the bed to die. Fortunately the old lady awoke, and with the only one of her senses not impaired, detected an odor of gas and upon investigation discovered the man in an unconscious condition. He was taken to a hospital where the surgeons revived him. The most peculiar part of the case is that the man seems to have lost the power of speech, and while he realizes everything that is going on about him, he cannot utter a sound. The muscles of his throat seem to have been paralyzed by the poisonous fluid.

This Marriage a Failure.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Eugene Dauteriville has been in this city several days to obtain evidence for use in a suit for divorce against her husband. She alleges that her husband, who is 17 years younger than she, ran away a few days ago with her son's wife, Marie Gardner, formerly Mrs. Dauteriville's nurse before she married her alleged fugitive husband.

A Big Blaze.

AMALCOCHA, Pa., Oct. 28.—Yesterday a fire broke out in the Kennedy mill from a stable. The flames, fanned by a strong northwest wind, soon communicated to the Kimball warehouse and then to the wharf, lumber in the mill yard and finally the Kimball mill. An ice house and triangular building opposite the ice house next caught, the Grady & Co's store, Monroe & Co's office, iron works, Kimball planing mill and McGlynn's furniture factory. The fire went up to Commerce street from Water street and by hard work of the bucket brigade the Alabama house opposite was saved. Loss $100,000, partially insured. Seventeen buildings were burned.

Reported Loss at Sea.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—It is reported that a vessel with 700 emigrants on board has foundered off Cape St. Vincent.

A Sad Accident.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A fatal runaway accident occurred in this city today by which Mrs. Margaret Gant, widow of the late Lieut. Gant of the navy, was killed, and her daughter, Miss Clara Gant, was very seriously injured. The horse became unmanageable and the ladies jumped.

A Fire Insurance Company Fails.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The Mutual Fire insurance company assigned today to T. G. Hall. The liabilities are said to be $37,000 and $25,000 of contested claims against the company. The assets are said to be down at $187,000; $150,000 of this amount being in premium notes and the balance consisting of accounts receivable, notes and meetings. The cause of the failure was said by Byron H. Baile, the company's attorney, to be principally in the unusually severe losses the company has sustained during the past year. The company, of which W. E. Smith is secretary and manager, did a large business out of town, carrying many heavy risks throughout the west, south and northwest. Negotiations are now pending by which reinsurance of all risks held by the company can be effected, and it is said to be probable that all claims will be paid. The large excess of assets over liabilities lies in many premium notes held by the company, a large number of which cannot be collected.

MEXICAN RETALIATION.

A Heavy Duty Placed on Horses, Cattle and Hogs From the United States.

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF THE MCKINLEY BILL.

The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury has not Heard of the Added Duty.

Hon. Paris Gibson and W. M. Cockrill Address a Large Meeting at Monarch.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—A San Antonio special says: The retaliatory policy of the Mexican government against the McKinley bill has begun and its effects will be severely felt all through the western states. Beginning with yesterday a tax of $500 a car load on horses or cattle stock against United States importations will be enforced in all Mexican ports. Cattle and horses sent across the Rio Grande yesterday and today by unsophisticated owners were subjected to these duties. The consequence is that several loads have been seized. The Mexican congress, in addition, passed retaliatory tax upon the importation of hogs, which have been mostly shipped to Mexico from Kansas City. Importation tax on United States hogs has been fixed at $2.50 a head.

Assistant Secretary of Treasury Spaulding, who has charge of custom matters in the treasury department, says he has no information that the Mexican government has levied a duty of $500 per carload on cattle from the United States beyond what he has seen in the newspapers, and he doubts very much that any such prohibitory duty has been levied as reported.

The Printers Lose the Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Referee Louis C. Raegner has filed in the New York superior court his report in the case of Tallmadge & Martin, printers and stationers, against Phoenix C. Lounsbury, as treasurer of the national republican league, in which he recommends that the action against the league be dismissed with costs. This event has been pending for over a year. The plaintiffs claimed that during the presidential campaign of 1888 they furnished to the league campaign literature to the value of $25,000. All but $11,434 of this sum was paid for, and it was for the recovery of the balance that the suit was brought.

Meeting at Monarch.

MONARCH, MONT., Oct. 29.—(Special to the Tribune.)—Hon. Paris Gibson and W. M. Cockrill addressed the people of Monarch and vicinity tonight. Nearly every man in the country turned out to hear the issues of the day discussed and the house was crowded. Mr. Cockrill made an excellent speech, but Mr. Gibson simply took the house by storm. The issues were fairly and logically discussed and the few who have been doubtful are now solid for Dixon, Gibson and democratic principles. Put this place down as all right for Gibson.

Probably Suicide.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 29.—Dennis R. Sullivan, treasurer of the Father Mather Total Abstinence society, who was charged a few days ago with a shortage of $1,300 in his accounts with the society, died today. An autopsy has been ordered as it is suspected he committed suicide to escape his trouble.

Courtesy Declines.

Mr. Henry W. Courtney requests the Tribune to say that he has not given his consent to the announcement (by dodgers) that he would discuss the political issues tonight with J. J. Jackson or anybody else. Mr. Courtney says he is not a public speaker and has no desire to pose as such. If he were to engage in a discussion in public he would want his opponent to be some one other than J. J. Jackson, some one of ordinary intelligence and common sense. Mr. Courtney is an educated colored man who can give good reasons for his refusal of the cause of Dixon and Gibson but he doesn't care to be a party to Jackson's proposed show.

A Meeting to Consider the Legality of the McKinley Bill.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A meeting of the importers of this city was held this afternoon which had under consideration the McKinley bill. Jas. M. Constable presided. In calling the meeting to order Constable said the purpose was to give expression as to the legality of the McKinley bill, and he explained that the omission of section 30 in the proposed copy of the bill, which was signed by the president, very possibly invalidated the entire act, though the omitted section was passed upon by both senate and house of representatives.

Secretary Daniel McKeever told how he had talked with numerous lawyers and it was nearly the unanimous opinion among them that the act was unconstitutional because of the omission of the section. A committee was appointed to make an investigation and report at a subsequent meeting. Adjournment was then taken subject to the call of the chair.

WILL TEST REED'S RULING.

Importers of Worsteds Cloth Ask For a Hearing.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Upon application of Berlin, Joseph & Co., importers of this city, Judge Loomis of the United States district court, today granted an order requiring custom appraisers to produce all the records and papers in their possession regarding the appraisement made upon certain cloths which the firm imported. The firm alleged that they entered at the port of New York in certain manufacturers of worsteds which arrived here by "City of Richmond," July 10, 1890. The collector adjudged the assignment dutiable at a certain figure and his decision was approved. But the firm claims the law provides for different amounts. Plaintiffs also contend that the act of May, entitled in part to provide for the classification of worsteds cloth as woollens does not apply because the act was not passed according to law. There was no question in the house when the bill was entitled to have been passed. They allege that the bill was not legally enacted though declared passed by the speaker of the house of representatives when it had not been.

THE FRENCH TARIFF BILL.

Duties Imposed on the Cereals and Meat Products.

Paris, Oct. 28.—The new tariff bill was issued to the chamber of deputies today. It dwells upon the tendency to protection displayed by most nations, refers especially to the high tariff of the United States, Canada and the South American states. It proposes the following duties per 100 kilos: Wheat, 5 francs; flour, 8 francs; corn, 3 francs; meat, 5 francs; salt, 12 francs. The duty on petroleum has not been fixed, pending a decision on the proposals of the Budget commission. In regard to the bill resuming liberty of action, but the duty henceforth will be levied on weight, instead of by the head. Cottons and thrown silk will pay a duty. Raw silk will be free. Wool, raw cotton, flax, hemp, decree, hides and jute are exempt from the payment of duty. The duties on eggs, butter, oils, oleaginous seeds, woods, foreign wines and teas, coal and chemical products remain as at present, but the tariff on metals has been revised, the duty on steel being lowered.

Prospect of a Fight.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Col. McCarthy signed articles today to fight George Dixon. Dixon has held off for a few days on account of a disagreement in the time or weight in. McCarthy wants to weigh in ten hours before fighting and Dixon wants to make it five hours. A $2,000 purse is offered by the Puritan Athletic club.

Crime at Austin, Texas.

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 27.—Bill Darwell, ex-policeman and keeper of a Chiff Con Carne stand, this afternoon shot and killed Maggie Nail and then blew out his own brains. Drink and jealousy was the cause. He leaves a widow and children.

A Cattleman's Association.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28.—For some time past there have been rumors of the formation of a strong association of cattlemen to control the market for their stock and get out of the clutches of the middlemen and speculators. T. D. Anderson, one of the largest stock raisers in Texas and Colorado, yesterday admitted that the scheme was not only under consideration but the organization was almost accomplished. During September private circulars were sent all the leading cattlemen, asking them to assist in forming the association. The replies received were universally favorable and it is certain that a strong association will be formed.

Enthusiasm on Brazil.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Herald's Washington correspondent sends the following: Minister Valente speaks with genuine enthusiasm of the political situation in Brazil. At the election for members of congress held September 15, not a monarchist was returned to either branch of the national legislature, and the great majority of those elected are strong supporters of the present provisional government. This means the continuance in power of President Fonseca, although he is understood not to desire re-election. Minister Valente tells us that it is not improbable that Dom Pedro will return to Brazil and spend the remainder of his days among his former countrymen. Should he express this wish the Brazilian congress will not doubt consent and the government will place at his disposal one of its states at least, where the monarchist may be made. There is no fear that the ex-emperor's return will encourage the idea of restoration. There is no monarchist sentiment in the people here in Brazil and if there were, Dom Pedro would not be a passive instrument in partisan hands. What he desires is to pass the evening of his days as a plain citizen of the republic. He would not, Mr. Valente tells me, accept the crown again if it were tendered him.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS REVOLT.

They Refuse to Betray Their Leaders and Prefer Death to Serfdom.

MANY TROOPS SENT AGAINST THEM.

Peasants' Rights in the Disturbed Districts are Abolished.

New York Importers Will try to Nullify the McKinley Law.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent says: The minister of the interior has received a telegram containing alarming accounts of the peasants' revolt in Khar'kov and Yekaterinoslav districts in southern Russia. Nine thousand troops are operating against the peasants in Bogodukhov district, who refuse to betray their leaders and declare they will not retrace into serfdom, preferring, instead, to die fighting. The peasants are proving about as armed bands, firing and pillaging land owners' residences. They have burned 5,000 acres of forests on the river Senars and destroyed immense quantities of corn in Bakmovsky. The minister of the interior has telegraphed the authorities in that part of the interior, abolishing all peasant rights in the disturbed districts. The czar has ordered a report to be made in the case of an alleged mistake of Gov. Garko of Warsaw, by which a prisoner charged with murder was hurried to execution without sufficient evidence, the real murderer being discovered afterwards.

Catholic Celebration.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The Catholics of Chicago and of the west will begin tomorrow the celebration in honor of Archbishop Feehan, who on November 1 will have completed his 25th year in the priesthood. It bids fair to be the greatest religious pageant ever seen in the west.

WHAT'S

In a Name?

Shakespeare says, "A rose will out a name would smell as sweet," nevertheless, just at the dawn of this last decade of the nineteenth century, in the year of grace 1890, there is quite a good deal in a name.

A clothier without a name and reputation is heavily handicapped in the race for trade. People like to buy from dealers whose established record is a guarantee for fairness and honesty.

Our name, A. NATHAN, The One-Price Clothier, has been before the public of Northern Montana for years and has an established reputation for honesty, fair-dealing and hearty endeavor to please customers.

The reputation of a clothier is the accumulated evidence of many transactions with many customers. A good name can only be founded on continued merit in merchandise and fairness in dealing. We can be surpassed in neither.

Our name has a value to you. It specifies a place where you can save money by buying better goods for less money than else where. Try us and see if this good name is not well deserved.

Perhaps you may hear our customers speak of the tailor made clothing we carry, the work of Stein, Block & Co., wholesale tailors. There is so much in them to talk about it can't be told. The fit, the fabric, the fashion, that extreme "fineness of finish" you can't find in other makes. When we call their suits tailor made, we mean every suit is made as much by hand as possible, no machine button holes or flimsily sewed on buttons, but enough said. The name Stein, Block & Co., wholesale tailors, attached to all their work, speaks for itself.

Our fall goods are coming in. We are receiving the best goods of every kind in our line that can be found.

The latest styles in hats, neckwear and handkerchiefs continually in stock. Shirts in quality, style, pattern, workmanship and prices that will suit you.

While we carry the best goods to be obtained, we also carry an immense stock of goods to suit all kinds of trade. We do not carry the cheapest grades, but will sell you good goods at prices that will surprise you; cheaper than the cheapest grades can be bought elsewhere. It will be to your interest to see our stock. Step in when you can. We'll be glad to see you whether you purchase or not.

If you cannot come yourself send your order and it will receive immediate attention. Don't forget that we guarantee the price of everything we sell. Yours respectfully,

A. NATHAN,
