much for the "scenery" on the line of the Great Falls & Canada railway.

The train stopped at Pegan for dinner where a well-cooked, substantial meal awaited the excursionists. At 3 o'clock it reached the boundary line, 132 1/2 miles from Great Falls. There many for the first time trod British soil and looked for the first time upon the uniform of the mounted police.

PLENTY HORSES ACQUITTED.

His Case Hinged on the Fact as to Whether War Existed at the Time of the Killing.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., May 28. The defense in Plenty Horse's trial this morning reported to the court that their case could not be continued until Laving Bear, father of the prisoner, should be brought in. The deputy marshal, with a bench warrant, is now at Pine Ridge to secure him. The defense offered to continue at once, however, if the prosecution would admit the testimony of Capt. Elowly of Sioux City as it was given at the former trial. This was to the effect that the prisoner had told him that Casey had threatened during the ride on the morning of his death to destroy Red Cloud's camp. The prosecution agreed to this. This afternoon the court charged the jury to bring in a verdict acquitting Plenty Horse, and it was done, and he is now free.

The Cheyenne Scout, White Moon, attempted suicide here at noon by stabbing himself in the neck. He is in charge of the doctors and it is thought he will recover. He has been here two months as a witness in Plenty Horse's trial and is said to be homesick and despondent.

Plenty Horse is a free Indian. No holding of the sudden termination of the case had been given and at 2 o'clock, when the court convened, the attorneys were preparing to commence their arguments when Judge Star said: "There is no need of going further with this case. What I shall say is the opinion of this court, but not of my colleagues." He said on his own responsibility. "The judge then read in substance that the guilt or innocence of the accused turned upon the question as to whether or not a state of actual war existed at the time of Casey's death. In the opinion of the court it has been shown beyond a doubt that such a state of war did exist. Immediately upon adjournment Plenty Horse was surrounded by ladies and other spectators who shook hands with him for some time, after which Attorney Porter with beaming face led his still silent and undemonstrative client to his hotel where Plenty Horse spent some time writing autographs for bystanders. The testimony given by Capt. Baldwin, aide of Gen. Miles, was an important feature in establishing the important fact as to war. He came with all the official papers of the war department bearing upon the circumstances previous to and at the time of Casey's death, and although the documents had only been offered by the defense and their admission had not yet been decided by the court, the captain's own testimony was of the same character.

Blown to Atoms.—Peter Hart, the well-known glycerine shooter, was instantly killed at 6 o'clock this evening. He had been engaged in shooting a well on Harrisburg run and dropped a can causing a terrible explosion. Hart was blown to atoms. He has followed the business of exploding torpedoes for eleven years.

A Rubber Company Goes Up.

TRENTON, N. J., May 28. The Hamilton Rubber company went into the hands of a receiver today. It is in trust with the Star Rubber company and others. Liabilities, $100,000, nearly all in promissory notes, constantly going to protest. Ex-Mayor Frank A. Magowan, president of the Trenton Rubber company, has been appointed receiver. Oliver O. Bowman, president of the Trenton Terra Cotta works, was this morning appointed receiver for the Star Rubber company.

TRENTON, N. J., May 28.—The secret meeting held in this city last night by the Central Rubber trust was dissolved by the action of the companies composing it. The combination includes the principal rubber companies of the coun-employed in working the mine. There is no water in the mine to speak of all came up as dry and sound as went down. From this point they took the incline tramway, a half mile distant. Surveyors gave a brief but famous coal mine. To get it but it is charged that a few used it to their own advantage while the others suffered. Both the Hamilton and Star companies of Trenton are said to have been among the sufferers. No details as to the dissolution of the trust are obtainable from those interested.

GOING AFTER BANK OFFICERS.

Two Officers of the Spring Garden Bank in the Clutches of the Law.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28. Francis W. Kennedy, president of the suspended Spring Garden National bank was arrested by Bank Examiner Drew charging him with making false entries in books, false returns to the comptroller of currency and embezzlement of $100,000 and upwards of the bank's funds. Henry H. Kennedy, cashier of the bank and brother of the president was also arrested charged with conspiracy with Francis W. Kennedy to make false entries, false returns and with making both. When the two accused men heard the warrants were out for their arrest they went before United States Commissioner Bell and gave themselves into custody. Counsel for Kennedy stated they were willing to waive a hearing and enter bonds for their appearance at court and fixed the bail of Francis Kennedy at $20,000 and that of Henry Kennedy at $15,000 for a hearing Monday. The Kennedys are already under $10,000 bail each to answer the charge of receiving money from depositors when they knew the bank was insolvent.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28. In the case of Henry H. Kennedy, bail was set once entered for his appearance and he was released. Francis Kennedy spent all day and part of the night in an unavailing effort to secure bondsmen. Instead of being taken to prison he was allowed to stay all night at a hotel under close surveillance of four deputy marshals. From a few developments that took place today in the affairs of the Spring Garden bank it is evident that when the full story of the bank's management is told, it will fairly rival that of the looted Keystone bank. Receiver Fisher said today the further he examined into the affairs of the bank the blacker the outlook became for depositors. It is said that much of the collateral held by the institution is of a most dubious character, being one name paper stock of companies that are more or less embarrassed and such like. A member of the depositors investigating committee that is investigating the bank's affairs said tonight that among the collateral of the bank were two notes, one for $50,000 and the other for $20,000 that are drawn by a person who has no existence.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28. The suspension of the Spring Garden bank has been far-reaching in its effects and many business houses have been seriously crippled by it. Yesterday the American Machine company was forced to assign by reason of the bank failure, and today the Millard Cliff Cracker company made an assignment from the same cause. The Millard Cliff company is a stock company and in an investigation of its affairs it was discovered that Frank Benton, the treasurer, had given accommodation notes to the extent of $50,000 to Francis W. Kennedy, president of the Spring Garden bank. When this was discovered the officers of the company decided to make an assignment to protect their creditors pending a thorough investigation. The company has a paid-in capital of $125,000 and assets are now thought to be about $200,000 in excess of liabilities.

To Prohibit Seal Catching.

LOSANOS, May 28.—Hon. George J. Goschen, chancellor of the exchequer in the house of commons, this afternoon gave notice the government would introduce a bill Monday which would enable the queen to prohibit British subjects from catching seals in Behring sea for a period the extent of which will be stated when the bill is brought forward.

Still They Strike.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The report that some of the lumber dealers would open their yards today and that they had succeeded from their original agreement was emphatically denied this morning at the headquarters of the Lumber Dealers' association. It is shown by statistics that the consumption of lumber in the building trade was reduced the first week of the strike about 80 per cent and the second week about 90 per cent. The estimated loss in wages by the workmen being thrown out of employment during the first week of the strike amounted to about $250,000 and during the second week to about $450,000. Should the strike continue until next week it is said fully 200,000 men will be thrown out of employment by the stopping of building operations. The tie-up is also being severely felt in Albany, Buffalo and Tonawanda, where a large number of coal men are lying idle.

Again in the Tolls.

PARIS, May 28.—The notorious English woman, Evelyn Leal, has been sentenced in this city to six months imprisonment. She was engaged in swindling marriages by which she secured valuable profits from her victims.

A SAD PICTURE.

Homeless, Destitute Families and the Heads of Them Refused Work.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., May 28.—The rush of old men for work at the various plants continues. In most instances, however, they are turned off with an excuse and given to understand that their services are drifting from one of the works to another in the vain hope of finding work, but everywhere they go they are met with the same statement, "No work now." This simply means that the black list has gone through the regions and the men refused at one work is certain to be refused at another. As a result they are either preparing to leave the district for another field or are drifting aimlessly about. More homes have been broken up by the strike that has just closed than by all the strikes that have preceded this most gigantic failure. Reports are coming in hourly of homeless destitution of hundreds of families. Heretofore many of them have been given credit at stores owing to the idea that at some time or another they would return to work. When the operators refused them work, however, they were at their wits' end. With no work, no supplies and no credit, hundreds of them are today in a far worse condition than they were at any time during the strike. Hundreds of others are living on a bare subsistence and had it not been for their poor garden product that every man takes pride in before this they would have been obliged to do more than ask their neighbors for temporary assistance.

DEED IN THE HARNESS.

Judge Breckenridge Falls Dead While Making a Speech.

DETROIT, May 28.—Judge Breckenridge of St. Louis of the committee on theological seminaries, while in the midst of a speech this afternoon, fell dead with heart disease, and the general assembly at once suspended further action as well as the banquet tonight. A committee was appointed to prepare for an appropriate prayer meeting in view of this affliction, and while waiting for its report the assembly engaged in devotional exercises.

South Dakota Will Be Heard.

VANKTON, S. D., May 27.—The South Dakota world's fair convention adjourned at noon after having adopted a plan of proceeding. A committee consisting of eighteen members, two from each judicial district and two at large, has been elected to further the interests of South Dakota at the world's fair. The commission will request the governor to call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of appropriating $50,000 to devote to South Dakota's exhibit. In case the legislature refuses to appropriate that sum or fails to make any appropriation the commission is to raise the sum lacking or the entire amount by subscription. The commission of eighteen will look after South Dakota's interests throughout. The governor and quite a number of state officials were present.

Sentence Deferred—Bridgemen on a Strike.

BISMARCK, N. D., May 28. Sentence was today deferred until June 13 in the case of Bob Roberts, convicted of assault with a dangerous weapon on Charles White, pending a decision on motion for a new trial.

Seventy-five men engaged on the Northern Pacific bridge here struck this morning for higher wages. They are now receiving $1.35 and want $1.75. Loud threats are being made and trouble is anticipated unless the demands are granted.

Struck by an Engine.

MADISON, Wis., May 28.—A Chicago & Northwestern passenger train struck a wagon near Reedsburg tonight containing a farmer named Ludwig and family. Ludwig was killed and the other occupants of the wagon were badly injured, but not fatally.

LEND : US : YOUR : EARS!

We will return them after we have whispered our little song. We are selling a line of Suits for fame and glory at $10 even. Walk up and down (which in time will be the mightiest street in the west) Central Avenue and you will find these great leaders at not less than $15. We won't boast of what we can do; we simply beg the favor of your call and the opportunity of placing before you a line of goods from common to fine grades that for prices no merchant in Great Falls will duplicate. It doesn't cost you anything to test this and the comparing of prices of other firms is certainly a satisfaction.

We have struck sledge-hammer blows upon the price of Fine Pantaloon this spring and our competitors say we are spoiling the profits of the clothing trade. The good old times of a 100 per cent is past in Montana and the sooner realized the better. We are offering a line of Fine Pants at $5 that our high tariff, war time clothiers are asking $7 for. We have on the paint, and are slinging the war club of destruction to high prices. Come and put us to the test on all we say and we will prove that
