

Charles Green has disposed of his interest in the Park stables and is intending to build a house elsewhere. He has friends here who will regret his departure. He went to Benton yesterday to his parents.

Father Dols, the Catholic priest of Great Falls, was in Monarch, Friday, and been at Neihart, making arrangements to build a church there. Arrangements were also perfected where Monarch is to have a chapel where the Monarch scheme has the endorsement of Father Dols.—The Monarch.

A marriage license was issued by the clerk yesterday for Henry Prentiss and Miss Louisa Fick—both of the city.

Park theater had a bran new bill tonight, which drew a large crowd. It is to be the best show seen in that place for many a day.

The Scandinavian Lutheran church held services this evening at 8 o'clock in the Presbyterian church, Rev. N. Boe, of Helena officiating.

Through passenger trains, through freight trains, quick time via the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern Lines to the principal cities east of the Missouri river.

The bricklayers working in town and on the big stack at the smelter struck yesterday for nine hours a day and ten hours pay. It is to be hoped the matter can be amicably settled.

The boys belonging to the militia went across the river Sunday for rifle practice. They shot at 300-yard range and from an inspection of the canvas target it would be safe to say some of the boys are cracks.

Mr. Frank R. Peters, representing Hallowell & Donald, wool commission merchants of Boston, is among yesterday's arrivals in the city. Mr. Peters will make his headquarters at Great Falls during the wool season.

W. S. Armstrong, assistant engineer on the extension, who was accidentally shot last February, has entirely recovered. He passed through town yesterday on route for Hayre, and will hereafter superintend tracklaying and bridge building.

L. W. Curtiss, one of our enterprising real estate and insurance brokers and a general all-around hustler, left yesterday for the far east. He will go to Cincinnati, thence to Washington, and on his return stop at Toledo, Chicago, and St. Paul.

Col. Curtiss inspected the militia company in the warehouse of Ashley & Co. Saturday morning, and so far as can be learned he was highly pleased with the way our boys carried themselves through the various forms of drill, the manual of arms, etc.

James M. Largent filed yesterday a pre-emption patent for the west half of the northeast quarter, the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter, and the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 33, township 18, north of range 1 west.

Whitman G. Jones filed yesterday pre-emption patent for the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter, the southeast quarter of the north west quarter, the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter and lot number 2 in section 25 in township 20 north, of range 3 east.

Christopher M. Dolan came before the district clerk yesterday and made final proof on the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 27, and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 28, township 21 north, of range 1 west.

Mr. O. O. Mercer, of Grand Forks, N. D., having accepted a situation in the office of the Western Union in this city, began his manipulation of lightning last night. The gentleman's copy is as legible as print, and maketh the heart of ye telegraph editor and compositor rejoice with exceeding gladness. If the gentleman keep up his lick he will receive the prayers of The Tribune force.

The city council passed a motion last night to the effect that it was the sense of the board that as soon as convenient all the policemen should wear the regulation police dress, including helmet, belt and club while on duty. That the matter had not been agitated before is rather odd, as it is often difficult to distinguish one of guardians of the city's peace when he is dressed in citizens costume.

The Montana Baptist association meets in this city June 10. Any of the residents of our town who may have a spare room and who would kindly tender the same to our Baptist friends for the use of delegates, would not only confer a favor but assist in keeping good the name of Great Falls, already noted for its hospitality. Of course the Baptist congregation would gladly reciprocate such a favor at any time.

There was a meeting of the Scandinavians of Great Falls held Saturday, May 30th, for the purpose of forming an organization. The meeting was well attended and the result was the formation of the Bellman club. There will be a meeting of this club on Thursday evening, June 4th, at the Stockholm saloon at 8:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present and all Scandinavians who desire to join are invited. Andrew Thisted, Sec.

A sheet published here once a week and distributed gratuitously is apparently seeking to rival the Police Gazette and News. The Sunday issue set forth, with unnecessary detail and scare headlines, facts and fancies in regard to a suit recently filed in a justice's court, and in which a prominent citizen of this town and county is defendant. If this sheet persists in forcing itself into the homes of our citizens, whether they want it or not, it should have some regard for decency and the ordinary proprieties.

Jessie McGinnis got into an altercation in Nell Raymond's house Saturday afternoon and after smashing some glass and doing more or less damage to herself and the furniture she was arrested. She cut her arm on a piece of glass during the fracas and bears two or three bruises on her head which she claims the proprietress inflicted with an ice-pick. As she was evidently too ill to remain in jail or in a fit condition for trial the police-magistrate allowed her to return to her stopping place until recuperated. She will be tried in a few days.

Ed. L. Cronkrite and wife, Ed. Roads, and wife, and Grant Roads returned last week from a hunting and fishing expedition. They were over in the Smith river country in Meagher county and from all accounts were very successful. The boys killed a silver tip bear and wounded another on the Tenderfoot river. The trout fishing must be great, just below the falls of the latter stream, as they claim to have caught kegs full of the speckled beauties there. There are acres of strawberry and raspberry plants in blossom all along the Tenderfoot and they say the falls are grand.

Ulm house arrivals: J. Beaupre, Helena; J. L. Largent, Ulm; W. F. Hunt, Park City; P. Nelson, Helena; W. D. Wiegand, Cascade; M. A. Arnold, Warrick; W. H. Tyler, W. R. Dudley, Cincinnati; S. J. Yager, St. Peter's Mission; Olf Fost, Sand Coulee; John Pugel, Fort Benton; Joe Carroll, Willard; Robert Brown, Hayre; Wm. Sellers, Sun River; W. M. Harrison, San Francisco; C. L. Johnson, A. Hodson, Cascade; John Ellis, Sun River; Ed Lewis, St. Peter's Mission; S. V. Getz, Muddy; R. J. Hardy, Hardy; Chas. Johnson, Fergus Falls.

Louis F. Menage of Minneapolis, and A. E. Dickerman, T. E. Collins, C. M. Webster, R. M. Ford, Ira Myers and H. O. Chown, of this city, filed yesterday, in the recorder's office, the articles of incorporation of the Montana Trust company. The capital stock is $500,000 divided into 5,000 shares of $100 each. The principal place of business shall be in this city. The company is formed for the purpose of receiving and loaning money, acquiring, leasing and disposing of real and personal property, etc. Louis F. Menage is well known as president of the Northwestern Guaranty company, of Minneapolis.

Mrs. J. W. Woods, Mrs. C. A. Osgood, Mrs. Marie L. Mason and the Misses A. Shadler, M. E. Harley, O. O. Williams, Burton and Mathias, all of Helena, arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train and took in the city during the early evening. The ladies expressed themselves as delighted with our growing, thriving city, and predict for it a brilliant future. The Tribune acknowledges the pleasure of a call from Mrs. Mason and Miss Mathias, the former the society editor of the Helena Independent and the latter one of the most accomplished and popular teachers in the public schools at the Capital city. The ladies will leave by coach this morning for Choteau, in the vicinity of which each proposes to take up a homestead from the abundance of fine government lands surrounding that prosperous town. They evidence the possession of a spirit of commendable enterprise and self-reliance which many of the sterner sex would do well to emulate. They have the best wishes of the Tribune for a pleasant and successful journey and safe return to their homes.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

An Unusual Amount of Business Transacted Last Evening.

The city council met Monday in regular session, Mayor Hotchkiss in the chair. All the city fathers were present except Alderman Burghardt. The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

The mayor said he wished to propose for confirmation the name of Louis Bergman as poundmaster. The nomination was unanimously ratified.

The clerk read the contract with Holden & Johnson for grading First avenue south from Park drive to Sixth street, also their bond for $200 signed by Robert Vaughn and Andrew Jensen. They are to complete the work by the first of next month. Both the contract and bond were approved.

The report of the city treasurer for the month of May was read and referred to the auditing committee, also the list of office supplies on hand and a request for a desk and an allowance for office rent. The clerk then read petition for extensions of water mains on Second avenue south from Eleventh east to Thirteenth street on Sixth avenue south from Third west to Second street, on Tenth avenue north from Tenth east to Thirteenth street; referred to committee on streets, alleys and sidewalks.

The building permit asked for by the First National bank to erect a two story fire proof building, 105 by 50, corner of Central avenue and Third street was granted. The permit requested by J. L. Rowe to erect a one story building six by forty on lot four block 365 of wood and corrugated iron was denied.

Fire Marshal Judd asked the council to pass an ordinance exempting the members of the fire department from paying poll tax. The city clerk said he had some doubts about the authority of the council to pass such an ordinance, but would look into the matter further and report at the next meeting.

Gaunt, of the committee on ordinances, reported favorably with some alterations the ordinance granting an electric light franchise to W. J. Winters. As it was reported one mile of poles shall be erected by the first of September, and not less than two miles of the system in operation by the first of November. Winters, who was in the chamber, asked for more time—for five months—in which to erect the first mile, and ten months in which to have two miles in operation. Quite a discussion followed this; some of the aldermen were in favor of granting the request and others opposed to it. Wallace Dickinson of the other company, who was also in the room, said that the proposed company might erect two miles of poles and wires and with a donkey engine and cheap machinery send a small current over the wires for the purpose of holding the franchise. He said his company had $200,000 invested and he did not think it was justice to allow a company to come here and build a competing line at a small expense. Then followed more talk on the matter. A motion to extend the time was lost, and after further debate the ordinance was referred back to the committee for further alteration.

The streets, alleys and sidewalks committee recommended the extension of water mains as follows: On Seventh avenue north, 200 feet east from Ninth street; on Fifth avenue north, from Ninth to Thirteenth; on the same avenue from Third to Sixth, and on Second avenue south from Eleventh to Thirteenth. The report was adopted and the water company ordered to make the extensions.

Tracy from the auditing committee recommended the following bills paid: George Grant, labor, park board $14; Leon & Woodley, painting park fence, $15; James Bennett, park work, $40.40; Nels Nalgren, labor, park, $28.75; W. S. Nott & Co., of Minneapolis, supplies for fire department, $8.50; Electric Light company, May bill, $75; C. H. Clark salary and incidentals, $71; Pete McDonald, salary, $78; R. S. Ball, salary, $90; George Treat, board of prisoners, $102.25; salary $100; Eugene Lippincott, salary, $78; Sam French, salary, $90; James Burns, salary, $90; Sol Yates, salary, $90; Geo. Worley, salary, $150; J. B. Leslie, salary, $125; Miss Ross, stenographer, work in engineer's office, $6.10; Theo Burgett, blacksmith work, $7.75; Mat Dunn, office rent, $50; Tribune Publishing Co., printing, $98.70; H. L. Hull, work park board, $60; Peter Holm two and half days work team in park, $12.50; Andrew Erickson 22 days in park, $60.50; W. H. Simpson watering trees in park, $25; James Mansfield labor in park, $37.50; P. Berglum labor in park, $55.

The report was approved and warrants ordered drawn for the amounts named.

There was some talk about appointing a health commissioner who would look after the sanitary interests of the city. The contract for building crossings on First avenue south was awarded to G. C. Grant, who agreed to furnish a plain walk for $30 and a boxed one for $45. He also received the contract for building the sidewalks on both sides of Central avenue from the Park drive to the depot for $540.

The city engineer said the drain pipe from the proposed fountain on Central avenue, if built to one of the parks, which is lower, would furnish water for the trees, and the park board wanted authority to construct the same. It was granted. After some talk about consulting the railroad in regard to hauling cinders free from the smelter to the city, to be used on the streets, the board adjourned to meet in special session next Monday evening.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

The Occasion Fittingly Observed by Our Citizens.

The members of Sheridan Post G. A. R. regardless of the disagreeable weather and muddy condition of the streets on Memorial day, turned out forty-one strong to pay a sacred tribute to their departed comrades by their deeds and words. In the morning they went to the cemetery and with loving hands decorated with flowers and wreaths the graves of deceased army brothers. On returning to the city they gathered at the headquarters of the Post and at 2 p. m. started for the court room where the exercises were to be held. Headed by the band playing the song that inspires every one since Sherman made the famous march to the sea, they marched in true old military style to the Realty block. Reaching the court-room they witnessed a beautiful exhibition given by forty-four children each representing one of the states. Each child carried a flag bearing the name of the state he or she represented, and marching around a cross of evergreens deposited upon it in turn a beautiful flower, at the same time singing a verse referring to the particular state referred to.

The address of the day, delivered by Rev. Coombe, was a brilliant tribute to the soldiers, living and dead. That gentleman can not be awarded too much praise for his scholarly effort. Mr. Morris of Duluth, Minn., then made a few appropriate remarks. The exercises were interspersed with singing by the choir and music by the band.

The June Term of Court.

The June term of court of the Eighth Judicial district commenced yesterday, and most of the day was devoted to setting cases, appointing counsel for certain criminals, and trying a divorce case.

The county attorney filed information against the following: Charles Mason, robbery; John Reddington and Harry Jones, robbery; Eliza Butler, assault with a dangerous weapon; George Drew, burglary; Michael Naddy, burglary; John Flinn, robbery, and Thomas Flynn, robbery. They will be brought into court this morning to plead guilty or not guilty, as the case may be, and tried later in the week.

The case of Ida May Smith vs. John P. Smith, for a divorce on the grounds of desertion and habitual drunkenness, was tried by the jury in the afternoon. The defendant was not present. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

The motion of defendant to strike out certain portions of the reply in the case of Peter Arnold vs. John Sinclair was sustained, to which plaintiff excepted. The following cases are set for today: Oliver T. Geno, William Graham, William Frost, John O. Engstrom, Joseph Burkhardt, and E. W. Hartell vs. E. R. Davis et al., suits to enforce mechanic's lien; George A. Miller vs. J. H. Brand.

The County Commissioners.

The board of county commissioners met yesterday in regular session, all the members present. The official bond of County Treasurer McClelland, according to the requirement of the new law, examined, approved and ordered filed. It is for $75,000 with the following gentlemen as sureties: Will Hanks, William Chin, George Wells, H. P. Rolfe and R. R. Hotchkiss.

The vouchers drawn by the district clerk on the county clerk were examined and found correct. The board will probably devote today to an examination of the quarterly report of the county treasurer.

Police Court Flash.

Chas. Peterson was accused of drunkenness and as he could not pay the required fine was sent to jail for five days.

P. E. Newman was arraigned on a charge of fighting but as the evidence showed there was a sufficient cause belli he was discharged.

Frank Ceibulla was charged with possessing a wonderful pugacious disposition and was fined for the same. He couldn't pay the assessment, so will languish in jail for five days.

Frank Wunch, drunk and disorderly, was sent to jail for eight days.
