THE BEST ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST.

This is the Motto of W. B. Raleigh & Co. Who Handle no Shoddy or Imperfect Goods.

To do a steady business a firm must handle good goods. Quality, not cheap, prices and shoddy; flashy goods, is what draws the better class of patrons and this is the principle on which W. B. Raleigh & Co. run their business. The storeroom on Central avenue is a handsome one. Its plain oak finishing has a rich appearance, well in keeping with the character of the goods. The stock is not a cheap one in the sense of being shoddy, but it is the cheapest for good goods are always cheapest and this firm handles no other.

In dress goods it may be said to fairly excel. The sale in these has been phenomenal. Their colors, designs and kind are wide and varied, and a dress of most excellent material may be purchased for from 35 cents to $4 per yard. The finest domestic and imported goods are sold at lowest reasonable prices.

The silks too are such as can not but delight the artistic soul of every lady. No finer dress silks are sold than this firm handles and with every yard of silk a written guaranty is given to the purchaser. Some of the China and India silks shown by the firm are real beauties. In design and in delicacy of color they force admiration from the very severest critics, and when their soft clinging folds are cut to fit feminine loveliness are a veritable picture of artistic beauty. Their Folle and Puce de Lou are also very fine.

The finest line of parasols ever in the city are now at this store. The handles of course are plain as is now eminently proper. One in particular may be mentioned. It is termed a Chefone silk and may be had in either black or light colors. It is a beauty. The material is of a dainty fluffly character, soft and light as air and some of the colors are so delicate, so dainty so perfectly exquisite, that their charm fairly carries away every pretty pair of eyes that see them. About the edges natural flowers are artistically placed.

The gloves are in keeping with the other stock, being the celebrated Constance and Foster hook kid. The stock of dress trimmings is also very fine, in exclusive patterns and comes direct from the importer. In hosiery, ribbons and all domestic goods, there is an excellent selection and large stock.

Those desiring to purchase dry goods should bear in mind that no shoddy, second hand or second class goods are sold at W. B. Raleigh & Co. Everything is first hand and first class, of the finest quality and is sold at the most reasonable rates.

The District Court.

State of Montana vs. Elisha Butler (colored). The defendant withdrew his plea of not guilty of the crime of assault and battery and substituted the plea of guilty, asking to have sentence pronounced against him. The court sentenced him to sixty days in the county jail. Butler made an assault on Jimmy King, the popular mixologist in Pontet's place, several weeks ago, attempting to cut him with a razor.

Jozena Jagger vs. Henry Jagger, divorce suit. The default of defendant was ordered set aside. Defendant required to file answer.

Martha Mann vs. C. P. Downing, Tried by a jury before E. L. Bishop, who sat as special judge. This case arose out of the official action of the defendant while sheriff in levying on some pork belonging to the plaintiff. Downing levied on the property some time in December, 1888, in order to secure himself for certain costs arising out of a previous suit in which the present plaintiff was interested. The trial continued all day and in the evening until 8:30, when it went to the jury. They were out a short time, returning a verdict in favor of the defendant. All the trial jurors were discharged last night. There will be no more jury trials until the September term.

There is a firm in Great Falls which sells groceries and provisions—nothing else; they don't sell hardware, clothing, etc. Groceries is their line, and when you come to town if you will give them a chance to figure on your bill you will find they are "in it." They own their own building, pay no rent, buy their goods in car lots for cash, are hustlers themselves and can sell you as good goods for as little money as any store in the city. We keep in stock a full line of all kinds of canned goods, including the celebrated Mount Hamilton, California, fruit, eastern tomatoes, corn, etc.; fresh hams, and bacon at lowest prices. All kinds of preserves, jams, jellies and pickles, in fact everything kept in a first-class grocery house.

We give special low prices to the stockmen of the surrounding country who buy large bills for cash. We are on the corner of Third avenue south and Second street, near the freight depot. Try us once.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At the last meeting of the Great Falls Woman's Temperance union the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we have learned, with deep regret and a keen sense of loss, of the sudden death of our former corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fred School; that we will ever find in thoughts of her and in the memory of her faithful and devoted service an inspiration to greater zeal and more perfect consecration to the work of the Heavenly Father, who has called her, the first among this little group of his children; that we feel that broken, but that one sacred link now joins the earthly emblem with the heavenly purity it symbolizes; that we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved friends of our sister and especially to the mourning husband, whose young life has been so darkly shadowed by God's mysterious providence; that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and that they be published in the Great Falls Tribune, Leader, and the New Issue.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to most sincerely express my gratitude to friends and neighbors and to the Ladies' Society of the Congregational church for their many acts of kindness and friendly offices during the late illness of my wife. I trust most devoutly that they may receive just recompense from Him who succors the sick and afflicted for their disinterested ministrations. Respectfully,
Fred School.

100 Per Cent. Gained

Will never do in the great drama of human struggle for financial savings, as may be demonstrated by the crowded house at 301 Central avenue. No play is attracting such universal attention, drawing such delighted visitors, or meeting with such wonderful success. When down in town call in and we will prove to you that in the old-fashioned game of 100 per cent. friendship, favor-long-time "pay for what some one else ran off with," are not now the winning cards in the new game of great financial merchandise, where business principles and bottom prices are the leading inducements. We don't ask you to trade with us because "we are the leading store of Montana," nor because we are the largest. You do not trade with us because we are pleasant gentlemen or real nice men; nor yet because you see we are very modest, as well as ambitious. Oh, no! but because our prices are far below others; because we have an entirely new stock, and can and will save you money. Having half a dozen stores scattered throughout the middle, northwestern and western states, we keep a buyer constantly in the eastern markets watching for bargains and selecting goods. We give you the benefit of his close purchases. We can fill your orders at lowest prices for any kind of goods and save you the trouble of "running" around. We guarantee all our goods to give entire satisfaction or money refunded. It would be useless to try to mention our bargains, as it would require the whole newspaper; but ask you to come in; we want to shake hands with you; speak face to face, and prove to you that our business relations shall be mutually beneficial. We open today $8,000 worth of Men's, Children's and Women's Shoes. See the prices. The only store in the city carrying everything.

Summons.

In the district court of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Cascade.

Ashburn K. Barbour, trustee, Joseph C. Greer, Messena Ballard and Ashburn K. Barbour, plaintiffs, vs. George W. Bird, defendant. The State of Montana and the above named defendant.

You are hereby notified to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff in the District Court of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Cascade, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days, exclusive of the day of service after the service on you of this summons, if served within this County, or if served out of this County, but in this district, within twenty days, otherwise within forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of the said complaint. The said action is brought to obtain a judgment of this court, adjudging and decreeing that the plaintiffs in this action are the owners of the following described land and premises, to-wit: Lot No. 3 and the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter (NE 1/4) of section 21, in Township 21 north, of range 4 east. And that a quit claim deed of said land and premises from Harlan Cole and Sarah A. Cole, his wife, executed to the defendant, George W. Bird, bearing date April 10th, 1890, may be decreed to be null and void and of no force and effect and that said defendant, George W. Bird, has no estate, title or interest whatever in and to said land and premises, and that said plaintiffs have a good and valid title to said land and premises, and that said defendant be forever enjoined and debarred from asserting any claim whatever in and to said land and premises adverse to said plaintiffs, and for such other relief as to said court as shall seem meet and agreeable to equity.

And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said plaintiffs will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint. Given under my hand and the seal of the District Court of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Cascade, this 18th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

A-Carpet House

Indeed a carpet house like this would be a novelty. We haven't one, but in another sense we have the best carpet house in the city. All styles of carpets and all prices. Good, better and best, but none of the poorer grades. It doesn't pay to buy these or use them. Look at the prices and compare the quality with the higher priced goods elsewhere. Rugs, mattings, etc., in a variety of styles.

Our general line of Furniture is not excelled in the state.
