AN IMPORTANT INTERVIEW.

Cardinal Gibbons' Opinion Concerning the Order of Commissioner Morgan.

THE INDIAN COMMISSIONER ALL RIGHT.

He Believes That Morgan Is Friendly to the Catholic Bureau of Indian Missions

And That No Interruption of the Pleas- ant Relations Between Them Will Occur.

CARDINAL GIBBONS INTERVIEWED.

He Explains the Attitude of Commis- sioner Morgan to the Catholic Bu- reau of Indian Missions.

BALTIMORE, July 30.—A reporter of the Tribune called tonight on Cardinal Gibbons in relation to the controversy between the bureau of the Catholic Indian missions and the commissioner of Indian affairs. The cardinal said: "I have given the subject of the Catholic Indian bureau in its relations to the interior department much anxious thought during the last two weeks and have taken all information that could be obtained from the best and most trustworthy sources. I am now happy to be in a position to communicate facts and conclusions which ought to dispel the fears and encourage the hopes of those intimately connected with the Catholic Indians of the United States. Undue importance, I am now satisfied, has been attached to the recent controversy between the commissioner of Indian affairs, Hon. T. J. Morgan, and the bureau of the Catholic Indian missions. Morgan has long thought it advisable for the more effective expediting of business in his department to have all contracts for schools signed by the several superintendents of such schools rather than by the director of the Catholic bureau, as heretofore practiced, and I do not see how this change can in any manner affect the real interest of the Indians, and therefore it is a point which should not disturb us. The bureau of Catholic Indian missions is still in a position to labor in many fields of usefulness. In fact the signing of contracts was not originally comprised in the scope of its work. At my request and in obedience to his own hearty sympathy for the Indians the archbishop of St. Paul paid a visit to Morgan. The commissioner received him most kindly and gave him ample and positive assurance of his disposition and intention to treat the Catholic Indian schools with equality and generosity. Morgan promised that all of last year's contracts shall be continued, and furthermore, in view of new applications recently made to him, he is, he said, appropriating the additional sum of $40,000 over and above the amounts heretofore assigned for the support of the Catholic Indian schools. Archbishop Ireland is personally satisfied that Morgan's assurances will be carried out, and is delighted with the result of his interview. "I have every reason to believe the president and secretary of the interior are benevolently disposed toward the Catholic Indian schools. I do not, on this point, speak advisedly. There can be no doubt but that they will treat those schools in a just and equitable manner. I am persuaded that at all times and especially in the present juncture the cause of the poor Indian will be much more benefited by good temper and forbearance and a disposition to waive minor points than by harsh criticism and intemperate speech. We should remember that men in high places have conflicting interests to subserve and they are required to consider the views and demands, not of a section of a community, but of the entire people. Catholics have many reasons to thank God for the blessings they enjoy as citizens of the United States. It is but just to say in conclusion that the bureau of Catholic Indian missions has never obtained for itself or for any one of its employes one cent of government money. The checks it has been receiving from the treasury of the United States were immediately endorsed over to the superintendents of the respective schools. Its own expenses have been entirely defrayed by private contributions. Archbishop Ireland is a guest of the cardinal. Tomorrow morning he leaves for his home in St. Paul.

Wants $12,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The Pacific Athletic club last night telegraphed Jimmy Carroll offering a purse of $5,500 for Hall and Fitzsimmons to fight here. The offer was refused. Carroll demanding $12,000. The California club offered $6,000. The clubs will not give $12,000.

Spurgeon's Condition.

LONDON, July 31.—Spurgeon passed a restless day. He shows a repugnance for food and his friends are again anxious. No long and tiresome waits at the Park theatre; everything goes with a rush.

A STARTLING CONFESSION.

But It Comes After Innocent Parties Had Suffered for the Crime.

MILWAUKEE, July 30.—Patrick Toohy, a dissolute character, today confessed to the shooting and attempted robbery of August Grothe, a street-car driver, on the evening of Nov. 1, 1883, a crime for which two young men served about three years in the state prison at Waupun. The shock caused Mrs. Grothe, wife of the street-car driver, to become a lunatic and eventually killed her. Grothe, who is now in Chicago, has been a mental wreck ever since the shooting, the bullet having lodged in his head after destroying the sight of one eye, and Mahlon McCullough, one of the men convicted of the crime, having died as the result of his confinement a few months after he was pardoned by Gov. Rusk. Toohy now says neither of the men convicted had anything to do with the crime; that he alone did the shooting.

THE CHINESE BUDGET.

The Trouble in the Empire Spreading— The Imperial Edict.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The steamship City of Pekin arrived this evening from Hong Kong and Yokohama. She brings the following advices from China: The trouble in Yang Tsi valley has spread as far as Ichang, China. An inland mission station in Shasi was burned down and an attempt was made by the mob to capture the steamer. Riots have also occurred at Haimen and Tsung Ming. A church was pillaged and considerable damage done. The feeling of uneasiness in other places in the north has not allayed, but a large number of gunboats on the Yang Tsi have checked the rioters. An imperial edict reducing the Chinese garrison throughout the empire; imposing a new tax on salt and requiring the whole of licin on opium for imperial purposes is mentioned as one of the chief causes of the present ferment.

MARYLAND DEMOCRACY.

They Meet in Convention and Nominate a State Ticket—The Sentiment for Governor.

BALTIMORE, July 30.—Barth Copton, a member of congress from the fifth district and chairman of the state central committee called the democratic state convention to order at noon. Ex-Governor Henry Lloyd was chosen chairman. A number of secretaries were appointed. It was well known that United States Senator Arthur P. Gorman is a candidate for re-election by the next general assembly of Maryland and that his name has been mentioned frequently for presidential honors. Attention has been centered upon him and also upon the state convention of his party, which was held here today in Ford's grand opera house. The great building was elaborately decorated with the flags of all nations and was filled to its utmost capacity with the largest delegations from the counties that have ever assembled in a state convention since the memorable defeat of Gov. W. T. Hamilton for re-election by John Lee Carroll of Carrollton. Although Senator Gorman was unable to be present, having gone to Washington last night after several days of conference and friendly association with the county democracy, the convention was unanimously for him, as is shown by the frequent and rapturous applause whenever his name was mentioned. Not only does the platform recognize his signal service to the national democracy, but a special resolution endorsing him for re-election to the senate gives evidence of the esteem in which he is held by the people of his native state. The ticket nominated was all by acclamation. Dr. F. T. Shaw placed in nomination for the office of governor Frank Brown and the nomination was made by a clamor. The other nominations, also made by acclamation and amid the wildest enthusiasm, were: John H. Poe of Baltimore, attorney general; J. F. Ford of St. Mary county, clerk of court of appeals; Marion DeKalb Smith of Kent county, comptroller.

A Cool Thief.

NEW YORK, July 30.—A traveling circus arrived in Sag Harbor, L. I. today and there was the usual procession. While this was passing through the streets at about 11 o'clock people crowded on the sidewalk to see it, and among the spectators were the clerks of the Peconic bank. One clerk was left in charge of the banking room, but he was looking out of the window and a cool thief who sauntered into the bank by a back door, succeeded in seizing a package of money said to contain $3,500, and, darting out the way he came in, made his escape in the crowd. As soon as the theft became known a search was made for the robber, but he has not been captured.

A TELEGRAPH OPERATOR SHOT

The Manager of the Western Union Telegraph at Suffolk, Va., Is Killed by an Unknown.

NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD GOSSIP

Much Talk of the Amalgamation of the Manitoba and Northwestern and Northern Pacific

The Davis Will Case—Nothing Defi- nite Yet Reached in the Matter.

A DASTARDLY MURDER.

A telegraph operator shot and killed from an ambush.

NORFOLK, Va., July 30.—Between 11 and 12 o'clock last night at Suffolk, Va., John P. Epper, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co., was shot and killed by some unknown person. He and two friends were on the Norfolk and Western railroad near the crossing of Wellon street when they were fired on from bushes by the roadside, a charge of shot and slugs entering the right side of the victim who survived but a short while.

RAILROAD CLATTER.

Talk of Amalgamating Several North- western Roads.

ST. PAUL, July 30.—A special from Winnipeg says: There is much talk in railway circles of the amalgamation of the Manitoba and Northwestern and Northern Pacific. The companies were desirous of running over each other's lines and it was felt that amalgamation would be of decided benefit to them. This morning the rumor took a more definite shape, when Vice President W. R. Baker will succeed Supt. Michaels of the Northern Pacific, who is just retiring, and will take charge of both roads at an early date.

THE DAVIS WILL CASE.

Two witnesses to the alleged will exam- ined and cross examined.

BUTTE, July 30.—In the Davis will case today the cross examination of J. C. Seonice was concluded seemingly without impairing his testimony in any material point. Mrs. Mary Downer, mother of the alleged forger of the alleged will was then put on the stand. She testified to being present at her father's house when the will is said to have been signed and detailed the events which took place in the room also, testifying to having seen the will in the house on subsequent occasions. On cross examination her testimony was apparently unshaken.

A VIOLENT STORM.

The Flood Destroys an Iron Bridge and Capsizes Several Houses.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 30.—A violent wind and rain storm occurred here this afternoon. Two clouds met and the result was one of the heaviest falls of rain the city has ever known. Portions of the town were flooded two or three feet deep. The storm did much damage, the worst being the blowing down of a span of the Maynard street bridge, a new iron structure erected after the disastrous flood of 1883. On the south side of the river, where 35 houses were wholly or partially blown off their foundations, at least one house collapsed before the inmates, named Freedom, were able to get out. Mrs. Freedom was rendered insensible from injuries sustained and is still in that condition. A boy who was on the river in a small boat was carried through a chute and narrowly escaped drowning. Fortunately the storm was confined to a limited area.

ABOUT PRIZE FIGHTS.

The Matter Brought Up in the English House of Commons.

LONDON, July 30.—A novel subject for parliament was discussed in the house of commons today. Henry Peyton Cobb, a member for the Rugby division of Warwickshire, referred to the recent Pritchard Smith fight and urged the government to take stringent steps to stop the revival of illegal prize fights, under the pretense that they were simply glove contests or boxing bouts.

Henry Matthews, secretary of state for the home department, in reply said the courts had already laid down the law as to what constituted a prize fight. Matthews added that if the evidence was forthcoming to show a boxing contest was of an illegal character, all concerned in it would be prosecuted whether the fight was with or without gloves.

The Problem STILL .: UNSOLVED!

The Riddle of the Sphinx Nothing in Comparison to It.

"Mother," said an impertinent youth to an aged dame, "at what age does a woman cease to care for the follies and foibles of fashion?" "Ah, my son," was the response, "you will have to ask some one older than I am."

And why should not all members of the gentler sex admit the impertinence? It is nothing to be ashamed of. A plain woman well dressed is at all times a more attractive object than a dowdy with a pretty face.

And where in Great Falls do you find the "very latest" in styles and fabrics? At W. B. RALEIGH & CO.'S to be sure. Where else do you find as complete a line of "first-class" Dry Goods at such low prices as quoted by their firm. We say most heartily not in this city; not in northeastern Montana in Dress Goods, Drapery Nees, Plonings, Silks, Jackets, Cloaks, Novelties in Dress Patterns in exclusive Patterns, Parasols which are "things of beauty." In Kid Gloves they are far ahead of all competition, selling a first-class warranted Glove in Foster seven-hole in black, brown, tan, gray, and made in both Brode and Suede for one dollar and fifty cents; also in an eight button Mosquitair, same colors, at two dollars.

In Ladies' and Children's Hose they are unusually strong and giving extra values, and guaranteeing to give as good for the same money as any house north, south, east or west. You should not overlook their stock of Muslin Underwear, Corsets, Dress Trimmings, Parasols, Bed Spreads, Domestic, etc. Here you will find everything carried by a first-class dry goods house. Call and get their prices and see their goods all new, clean and of first class quality at the same prices or less than transplanted goods from the "Dakotas." If you want something that you will always be pleased with and not be disappointed after making up by having the garment come to pieces in a short time. Go to the only first class and exclusively dry goods house in Great Falls. The firm name is

W. B. RALEIGH & CO.

A Carpet House

Indeed a carpet house like this would be a novelty. We haven't one, but in another sense we have the best carpet house in the city. All styles of carpets and all prices. Good, better and best, but none of the poorer grades. It doesn't pay to buy these or use them. Look at the prices and compare the quality with the higher priced goods elsewhere. Rugs, matting, etc., in a variety of styles.

Our general line of Furniture is not excelled in the state.
